He is gone up to [ff]Bajith, and to 2
[g]Dibon, [h]the high places, to weep:
Moab [i]shall howl over [k]Nebo, and over [l]Medeba:
On all their heads shall be [m]baldness,
and [n]every beard cut off.
In their streets they shall [o]gird them- 3
selves with sackcloth:
[p]On the tops of their houses, and
[p]in their streets,
[pp]Every one [i]shall howl, [t]weeping abundantly.
And [q]Heshbon shall cry, and [r]Elea- 4
leh:
Their voice shall be heard even unto [s]Jahaz:
Therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out;
His life shall be grievous unto him.
[t]My heart shall cry out for Moab; 5
[‖]His [u]fugitives shall flee unto [v]Zoar, [w]A heifer of three years old:
For [x]by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up;
For in the way of [y]Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of [t]destruction.
For [z]the waters of [a]Nimrim shall be 6
[t][z]desolate:
For the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.
[b]Therefore the abundance they have 7 gotten, and that which they have laid up,
Shall they carry away to the [‖c]brook of the willows.
For the cry is gone round about the 8
borders of Moab;
The howling thereof unto [d]Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto [e]Beer-elim.
For the waters of [f]Dimon shall be 9
full of blood:
For I will bring [t]more upon [f]Dimon, [g]Lions upon [h]him that escapeth of Moab,
And upon the remnant of the land.

ch. 27. 10. [d] Comp. Jer. 48. 28.

So the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of [dd]Arnon.
3 [t]Take counsel, execute judgment;
[e]Make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday;
Hide [f]the outcasts; [g]bewray not him that wandereth.
4 Let mine [f]outcasts dwell with thee, Moab;
[h]Be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler:
For the [t]extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth,
[t]The oppressors are consumed out of the land.
5 And in mercy [i]shall the throne be ‖[k]established:
And he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David,
[k]Judging, and seeking judgment, and [l]hasting righteousness.
6 [m]We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud:
Even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath:
But [n]his lies shall [o]not be so.
7 Therefore shall Moab [p]howl for Moab, [pp]every one shall howl:
For the foundations of [pq]Kir-hareseth shall ye ‖[r]mourn; surely they are stricken.
8 For [s]the fields of Heshbon [t]languish, and [u]the vine of [v]Sibmah:
The lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, [w]They are come even unto [x]Jazer, [w]they wandered through the wilderness:
Her branches are ‖[y]stretched out, they are gone over [u]the sea.
9 Therefore I [u]will bewail with the weeping of [x]Jazer the vine of [v]Sibmah:
I will water thee with my tears, [s]O Heshbon, and [s]Elealeh:
For ‖[z]the shouting for [u]thy summer fruits and for [u]thy harvest is fallen.
10 [a]And gladness is taken away, and joy out of [b]the plentiful field;
And [c]in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting:
The treaders shall tread out no [a]wine in their [d]presses;
I have [e]made their vintage [z]shouting to cease.
11 Wherefore [f]my bowels shall sound like a harp for Moab,
And mine inward parts for [q]Kir-haresh.
12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on [g]the high place,
That he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.
13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab [h]since that time.
14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying,
Within three years, [i]as the years of a hireling,
And the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude;
And the remnant shall be [k]very small and ‖feeble.

The [a]burden of [b]Damascus. XVII.
Behold, Damascus is taken away [c]from being a city,
And it shall be a ruinous heap.
2 [d]The cities of Aroer are forsaken:
They shall be for flocks,
Which [e]shall lie down, and [ef]none shall make them afraid.
3 [g]The fortress also shall [h]cease from Ephraim,
And [g]the kingdom from [b]Damascus, and the remnant of Syria:
They shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.
4 And in that day it shall come to pass,
That [g]the glory of Jacob shall be made thin,
And [i]the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.
5 And it shall be [j]as when the harvestman gathereth the corn,
And reapeth the ears with his arm;
And it shall be as he that gathereth ears in [k]the valley of Rephaim.
6 [l]Yet [mn]gleaning grapes shall be left in it, [m]as the shaking of an olive tree,
[o]Two or three berries in the top of [p]the uppermost bough,
[q]Four or five in [r]the outmost fruitful branches thereof, Saith the LORD God of Israel.
7 At that day shall a man look to [s]his Maker,
And his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

And he shall not look to the altars, 8
[t] the work of his hands,
Neither shall respect that which his fingers have made,
Either [uv] the groves, or the [v] images.
In that day shall his strong cities be 9
As a forsaken [w] bough, and [p] an uppermost branch, [x] Which they left because of the children of Israel:
And there shall be desolation.
Because thou hast forgotten [y] the God 10
of thy salvation,
And hast not been mindful of [z] the rock of thy strength,
Therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants,
And shalt set it with strange slips:
In the day shalt thou make thy plant 11
to grow,
And in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish:
But the harvest shall be [l] a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

Woe to the [l] multitude of many 12
people,
Which [b] make a noise like [a] the noise of the seas;
And to [a] the rushing of nations,
That make a rushing like [a] the rushing of [c] mighty waters.
[a] The nations shall rush like [a] the rush- 13
ing of many waters:
But God shall [d] rebuke them, and they shall flee far off,
And shall be chased [e] as the chaff of the mountains before the wind,
And like [lf] a rolling thing before [g] the whirlwind.
And behold at eveningtide trouble; 14
And before the morning he is not.
[h] This is the portion of them that spoil us,
And the lot of them that rob us.

About B. C. 714.

[a] Woe to the land shadowing [b] with wings,
Which is beyond the rivers of [c] Ethiopia:
[d] That sendeth ambassadors by [e] the 2
sea,
Even in vessels of [f] bulrushes upon the waters, saying,
Go, ye [g] swift messengers,

To [h] a nation [l] scattered and [j] peeled,
[h] To a people terrible [k] from their beginning hitherto;
[lfh] A nation meted out and trodden down,
[lh] Whose land the rivers have spoiled.
All ye inhabitants of the world, and 3 dwellers on the earth,
See ye, when he [n] lifteth up an ensign on the mountains;
And when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.
For so the LORD said unto me, 4
I will take my rest, and I will [l] consider in [o] my dwelling place
Like a clear heat [l] upon [p] herbs,
And like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.
For afore the harvest, when the bud 5
is perfect,
And [q] the sour grape is ripening in [q] the flower,
He shall both cut off the sprigs with [r] pruning hooks,
And take away and cut down [s] the branches.
[t] They shall be left together unto [u] the 6
fowls of the mountains,
And to the beasts of the earth:
And [u] the fowls shall summer upon them,
And all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.
In that time [v] shall the present be 7 brought unto the LORD of hosts
Of [h] a people [l] scattered and peeled,
And from [h] a people terrible from their beginning hitherto;
[h] A nation meted out and trodden under foot,
[h] Whose land the rivers have spoiled,
To the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

The [a] burden of [b] Egypt.
Behold, [c] the LORD rideth upon a [d] swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt:
And [d] the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence,
And [e] the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.
And I will [t] set the Egyptians against 2
the Egyptians:
And they shall fight every one against his brother, and [f] every one against his neighbour;
City against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

And the spirit of Egypt [t]shall fail in 3
the midst thereof;
And I will [t]destroy the counsel thereof:
And they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers,
And to [g]them that have familiar spirits, and to [g]the wizards.
And the Egyptians will I [‖]give over 4 into the hand of [h]a cruel lord;
And [h]a fierce king shall rule over
them,
Saith [i]the Lord, the LORD of hosts.
And the waters shall [j]fail from [k]the 5
sea,
And [l]the river [m]shall be wasted and dried up.
And they shall turn the rivers far 6
away;
And [n]the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up:
The reeds and [o]flags shall [p]wither.
The paper reeds by the brooks, by 7
the mouth of the brooks,
And every thing sown by the brooks, Shall wither, [pp]be driven away, [t]and be no more.
[q]The fishers also shall mourn, 8
And all they that cast [r]angle into the brooks shall lament,
And they that spread nets upon the waters [s]shall languish.
Moreover they that work in [t]fine 9
flax,
And they that weave [‖]networks, shall be confounded.
And they shall be broken in the [t]pur- 10
poses thereof,
All that make sluces and ponds [t]for fish.

Surely the princes of [u]Zoan are 11
fools,
The counsel of the wise counsellers of Pharaoh [v]is become brutish:
How say ye unto Pharaoh, [vv]I am
the son of the wise,
[w]The son of ancient kings?
[x]Where are they? where are thy wise 12
men?
And let them tell thee now,
And let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.
The princes of [u]Zoan are become 13
fools,
[x]The princes of [y]Noph are deceived;
They have also [z]seduced Egypt, even [‖][t]they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

The LORD hath mingled [t]a perverse 14 spirit in the midst thereof:
And they have [z]caused Egypt to err
in every work thereof, [a]As a drunken man [z]staggereth in his vomit.
Neither shall there be any work for 15
Egypt,
Which [b]the head or tail, [b]branch or rush, may do.
[c]In that day shall Egypt [d]be like 16
unto women:
And it shall be afraid and fear
Because of [e]the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, [e]Which he shaketh over it.
And the land of Judah shall be a ter- 17
ror unto Egypt,
Every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, Because of the counsel of the LORD
of hosts,
Which he hath determined against
it.

[c]In that day shall [f]five cities in the 18
land of Egypt
[g]Speak [t]the language of Canaan,
And swear to the LORD of hosts:
One shall be called, The city [‖]of [i]destruction.
[c]In that day shall there be [k]an altar 19 to the LORD [l]in the midst of the land of Egypt,
And [k]a pillar at the border thereof to
the LORD.
And it shall be for a sign and [m]for a 20 witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt:
For [n]they shall cry unto the LORD
because of the oppressors,
And he shall send them [no]a saviour,
and a great one, and he shall deliver them.
And the LORD shall be known to 21
Egypt,
And [l]the Egyptians shall know the LORD [c]in that day,
And shall do sacrifice and [p]oblation;
Yea, [q]they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.
And the LORD shall smite Egypt: [r]he 22 shall smite and heal it:
And they shall return even to the LORD,
and [s]he shall be intreated of them,
and shall heal them.

‖brought water to him that was thirsty,
They [k]prevented with their bread him that fled.
For they fled ‖[†]from the swords, 15
From the drawn sword, and from the bent bow,
And from the grievousness of war.
For thus hath the Lord said unto me, 16
Within a year, [l]according to the years of a hireling,
And all the glory of [m]Kedar shall fail:
And the residue of the number of 17
[†]archers,

The [a]burden of [b]the valley of [c]vision.
What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up [d]to the housetops?
Thou that art full of stirs, 2
A tumultuous city, [e]a joyous city:
Thy slain men are not slain with the sword,
Nor dead in battle.
[f]All thy [g]rulers are fled together, 3
they are bound [†]by the archers:
All that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.
Therefore said I, [h]Look away from 4 me; [i†]I will weep bitterly, Labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.
For it is [k]a day of trouble, and of 5
[l]treading down, and of [m]perplexity
[n]By the Lord GOD of hosts in [b]the valley of vision, Breaking down the walls, and of [o]crying to the mountains.
And [p]Elam bare the quiver 6
With [q]chariots of men and horsemen,
And [r]Kir [s]uncovered the shield.
And it shall come to pass, that [†]thy 7
choicest valleys shall be full of [q]chariots,
And the horsemen shall set themselves in array ‖at the gate.

And [t]he discovered the covering of 8
Judah,
And thou didst look in that day to [u]the armour of [v]the house of the forest.
[w]Ye have seen also the breaches of the 9 city of David, that they are many:
And [w x]ye gathered together the waters of [y]the lower pool.
And ye have numbered the houses of 10
Jerusalem,
And the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.
[z]Ye made also a ditch between the 11
two walls [x]for the water of the old pool:
But ye have not looked unto [a]the Maker thereof,
Neither had respect unto him that fashioned it [aa]long ago.
And in that day did the Lord GOD of 12 hosts call [b]to weeping, and [c]to mourning,
And [d]to baldness, and [e]to girding with sackcloth:
And behold joy and gladness, 13
Slaying oxen, and killing sheep,
Eating flesh, and drinking wine:
[f]Let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die.
And it was revealed [g]in mine ears by 14
the LORD of hosts,
Surely this [h]iniquity shall not be purged from you [i]till ye die,
Saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, 15
Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto [k]Shebna, [l]which is over the house, and say,
What hast thou here? and whom 16
hast thou here,
[m]That thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here,
‖As he [n]that heweth him out a sepulchre on high,
And that graveth a habitation for himself in a rock?
Behold, ‖the LORD will carry thee 17 away with [†]a mighty captivity, [o]And will surely cover thee.
He will surely [p]violently turn and 18
toss thee like [q]a ball
Into a [†]large country:
There shalt thou die,
And there the chariots of thy glory
Shall be the shame of thy lord's house.
And I will drive thee from thy station, 19

The [a]burden of [b]Tyre. 1
[c]Howl, ye ships of Tarshish;
For it is laid waste, [d]so that there is no house, [d]no entering in:
From the land of [e]Chittim it is revealed to them.
Be [f]still, [g]ye inhabitants of the isle; 2
Thou whom the merchants of [h]Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.
And by great waters the seed of 3
[i]Sihor,
The harvest of the river, is her revenue;
And [k]she is a mart of nations.
Be thou ashamed, O [h]Zidon: for the 4 sea hath spoken,
Even the strength of the sea, saying,
I travail not, nor bring forth children,
Neither do I [l]nourish up young men, nor [l]bring up virgins.
As at the report concerning Egypt, 5
So shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.
Pass ye over to [c]Tarshish; howl, [g]ye 6 inhabitants of the isle.
Is this your [m]joyous city, whose an- 7
tiquity is of [n]ancient days?
Her own feet shall carry her [t]afar off to sojourn.
Who hath taken this counsel against 8
Tyre, the crowning city,
Whose merchants are princes, whose [nn]traffickers are the honourable of the earth?
The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, 9
[t]To stain the pride of all [o]glory,
And to [p]bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.
Pass through thy land as [q]a river, 10
O daughter of [c]Tarshish:
There is no more [r]strength.
He stretched out his hand over the 11 sea, [s]he shook the kingdoms:
The LORD hath given a commandment [ll]against [t]the merchant city, to destroy the [ll]strong holds thereof.
And he said, Thou shalt no more 12
rejoice,
O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon:
Arise, pass over to [c]Chittim;
There also shalt thou have no rest.
Behold the land of [t]the Chaldeans; 13
This people was not,
Till the Assyrian founded it for [u]them that dwell in the wilderness:

They raised up the palaces thereof;
And he brought it [w]to ruin.
[c]Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your 14 strength is laid waste.
And it shall come to pass in that 15
day,
That Tyre shall be forgotten [x]seventy years,
According to the days of [xx]one king:
[y]After the end of seventy years [t][y]shall Tyre sing as a harlot.
[z]Take a harp, go about the city, thou 16
harlot that hast been forgotten;
[a]Make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.
And it shall come to pass [y]after the 17
end of seventy years,
That the LORD will [aa]visit Tyre,
And [y]she shall turn to her hire,
And [b]shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world
Upon the face of the earth.

XXIV. About B. C. 712.

Behold, [a]the LORD [bc]maketh the 1 earth empty, and [c]maketh it waste,
And [f]turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants
thereof.
And it shall be, [e]as with the people, 2
so with the [g]priest;
As with the servant, so with his master;
As with the maid, so with her mistress;
[f]As with the buyer, so with the seller;
As with the lender, so with the borrower;
[g]As with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.
[h]The land shall be [b]utterly emptied, 3
and utterly spoiled:
[i]For the LORD hath spoken this word.
The earth mourneth and fadeth away, 4
The world [j]languisheth and fadeth
away,
[f]The haughty people of the earth [j]do languish.
The [k]earth also is defiled under the 5 inhabitants thereof; Because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, [l]Broken the everlasting covenant.
Therefore hath the curse devoured 6
the earth,
And they that dwell therein [m]are desolate:
Therefore the inhabitants of the earth
[n]are burned,
[p]The new wine mourneth, the vine
[j]languisheth,
All the merryhearted do sigh. 8 [q]The mirth of [r]tabrets [s]ceaseth, [t]the noise of them that rejoice endeth,
The joy of [r]the harp [s]ceaseth.
They shall not drink wine with a 9 song;
Strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.
The city of [u]confusion is broken 10
down:
Every house is shut up, [v]that no man may come in.

There is [w]a crying [x]for wine in the 11
streets;
All joy is darkened,
The mirth of [h]the land is gone.
In the city is left desolation, 12
And the gate is smitten with destruction.
When thus it shall be in the midst of 13
[h]the land among the people,
There shall be [y]as the shaking of an olive tree,
And [z]as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.
They shall lift up their voice, [a]they 14 shall sing,
For the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud [b]from the sea.
Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the 15
[l][c]fires,
Even [d]the name of the LORD God of Israel in [e]the isles of the sea.

From the [f]uttermost part of the earth 16 have we heard [ee]songs, even [g]glory to the righteous.
But I said, [f]My leanness, my leanness, 5 woe unto me!
[g]The treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously;
Yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.
[h]Fear, and the pit, and the [i]snare, 17
Are upon thee, [j]O inhabitant of the earth.
[h]And it shall come to pass, that [k]he 18 who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit;
And he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare:
For [l]the windows from on high are open,
And [m]the foundations of the earth do shake.
The earth [n]is utterly broken down, 19
The earth [o]is clean dissolved,
The earth is moved exceedingly.
The earth shall [p]reel to and fro like 20
a drunkard,
And shall be removed like [q]a cottage;
And the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it;
And it shall fall, and not rise again.
And it shall come to pass [r]in that 21
day,
That the LORD shall [f]punish the host of the high ones that are [s]on high,
And [t]the kings of the earth upon the earth.

About B. C. 712.

O LORD, thou art my God;
[a]I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name;
For [c]thou hast done [cd]wonderful things;
Thy counsels [e]of old are faithfulness and truth.
For thou hast made [f]of a city a heap; 2
Of [f]a defenced city [g]a ruin:
[h]A palace of strangers [i]to be no city;
It shall never be built.
Therefore shall the strong people 3
[j]glorify thee,
[k]The city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.
For thou hast been [l]a strength to the 4
poor,
A strength to the needy in his distress,
[m]A refuge from the storm, [mn]a shadow from the heat,
When the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.
Thou shalt bring down [o]the noise of 5 strangers,
As the heat in [p]a dry place;
Even the heat [q]with the shadow of a cloud:
[r]The branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.
And in [s]this mountain shall [t]the LORD 6 of hosts make [u]unto all people
[t]A feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees,
Of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.
And he will [t]destroy in [s]this mountain 7
The face of the covering [t]cast [t]over all people,
And [u]the vail that is spread [t]over all nations.

[y]Let [z]favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness:

Yea, [c]the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.
LORD, thou wilt ordain [d]peace [e]for us:
For [f]thou also hast wrought all our works [g]in us.
O LORD our God,
[ff]Other lords besides thee have had dominion over us:
But [g]by thee only will we make mention of thy name.
They are dead, they shall not live;
They are [gg]deceased, they shall not rise:
[h]Therefore hast thou [i]visited and destroyed them,
And [k]made all their memory to perish.
[l]Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD,
Thou hast increased the nation: [m]thou art glorified:
Thou hadst [n]removed it far unto all [o]the ends of the earth.

LORD, [p]in trouble have they visited thee,
They poured out a [t]prayer when thy chastening was upon them.
[q]Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery,
Is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs;
So have we been in thy sight, O LORD.
We have been with child, we have been in pain,
We have as it were brought forth wind;
We have not wrought any deliverance in the earth;
Neither have [r]the inhabitants of the world [s]fallen.

[t]Thy dead men shall live;

[t]Awake and sing, [t]ye that dwell in dust:
For [u]thy dew is as the dew of [v]herbs,
And the earth shall cast out [gg]the dead.
Come, my people, [w]enter thou into thy chambers,
And shut thy doors about thee:

[z]Until the indignation be overpast.
[a]For behold, the LORD cometh out of his place
To [b]punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity:
The earth also shall disclose her [t]blood,
And [c]shall no more cover her slain.

[a]In that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword Shall [b]punish [cd]leviathan the [f]piercing serpent,
Even [cd]leviathan that [e]crooked serpent;
And he shall slay [d]the dragon that is in the sea.

7 But they also [o] have erred through wine, and [p] through strong drink are out of the way;
[q] The priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink,

But the word of the LORD was unto 13
them
[b] Precept upon precept, precept upon precept;
[b] Line upon line, line upon line;
Here a little, and there a little;
That they might go, and [c] fall backward, and [c] be broken,
And [c] snared, and [c] taken.

Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, 14
[d] ye scornful men,
That rule this people which is in Jerusalem.
Because ye have said, We have 15
[e] made a covenant with death,
And [e] with hell are we at agreement;
When [f] the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us:
For [g] we have made lies our refuge,
And [g] under falsehood have we hid ourselves:
Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, 16
[h] Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation [i] a stone, [j] A tried stone, [i] a precious corner stone, [k] a sure foundation:
[h l] He that believeth shall not make haste.
Judgment also will I lay to [bm] the 17
line,
And righteousness to [m] the plummet:
And [n] the hail shall sweep away [g] the refuge of lies,
And the waters shall [f] overflow [g] the hiding place.
And [e] your covenant with death shall 18
be disannulled,
And [e] your agreement with hell shall not stand;
[f] When the overflowing scourge shall pass through,
Then ye shall be [t] trodden down by
it.
From the time that it goeth forth it 19
shall take you:
For [nn] morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night:
And it shall be [o] a vexation only [l] to understand [p] the report.
For the bed is shorter than that a 20 man can stretch himself on it:
And [q] the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.
For the LORD shall rise up [r] as in 21
mount Perazim,
He shall be wroth [s] as in the valley of [t] Gibeon,

That he may do his work, [u] his strange work;
And bring to pass his act, his strange act.
Now therefore [d] be ye not mockers, 22
Lest your bands be made strong:
For I have heard from the Lord GOD
of hosts
[w] A consumption, even determined Upon the whole earth.

Give ye ear, and hear my voice; 23
Hearken, and hear my speech.
Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? 24
Doth he open and [x] break the clods of his ground?
When he hath made plain the face 25
thereof,
Doth he not cast abroad the fitches,
and scatter the cummin,
And cast in [l] the principal wheat
And the appointed barley and the [l] rye in their [t] place?
[l] For his God doth instruct him to 26
[y] discretion, and doth teach him.
For the fitches are not threshed with 27
[z] a threshing instrument, Neither is a cart [a] wheel turned about upon the cummin;
But the fitches are [aa] beaten out with a staff,
And the cummin with a rod.
Bread corn is bruised; 28
Because he will not ever be threshing it,
Nor break it with the wheel of his cart,
Nor bruise it with his horsemen.
This also cometh forth from the 29
LORD of hosts,
[b] Which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in [c] working.

And it shall be unto me as [a] Ariel.
And I will [c] camp against thee [f] round 3 about,
And [g] will lay siege against thee with [h] a mount,

Moreover the multitude of thy [n] strangers shall be like small dust, 5
And the multitude of [n] the terrible ones shall be [o] as chaff that passeth away:
Yea, it shall be [p] at an instant suddenly.
Thou shalt be [q] visited of the LORD 6
of hosts
With thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise,
With [r] storm and tempest, and [s] the flame of devouring fire.
[t] And the multitude of all the nations 7 that fight against [a] Ariel,
Even all that fight against her and her [u] munition, and that distress her,
Shall be [v] as a dream of a night vision.
It shall even be as when a hungry 8 man [v w] dreameth, and behold, he eateth;
But [w] he awaketh, and his soul is empty:
Or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and behold, he drinketh;
But he awaketh, and behold, he is faint, and [x] his soul hath appetite:
So shall the multitude of all the nations be,
That fight against mount Zion.

Stay yourselves, and wonder; 9
[†] Cry ye out, and cry:
[y] They are drunken, [z] but not with wine;
They stagger, but not with strong drink.
For [a] the LORD hath poured out 10 upon you the spirit of [b] deep sleep,
And hath [c] closed your eyes:
The prophets and your [†] rulers, the seers hath he covered.
[d] And the vision of all is become 11 unto you as the words of a [‡] book [e] that is sealed,
Which men deliver to one that is learned,
Saying, Read this, I pray thee:
And he saith, I cannot; [e] for it is sealed:
And the book is delivered to him 12
that is not learned,
Saying, Read this, I pray thee:
And he saith, I am not learned.

Wherefore the Lord said, 13
[f] Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth,
And with their lips do [g] honour me,
But have removed their heart far from me,
And their fear towards me is taught by [h] the precept of men:
Therefore, behold, [†i] I will proceed 14
to do a marvellous work amongst this people,
Even a marvellous work and a wonder:
For [j] the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,
And the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

Woe unto [k] them that seek deep to 15 hide their counsel from the LORD,
And their works are in the dark,
And [l] they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?
Surely your turning of things upside 16 down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay:
For [m] shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not?
Or shall [n] the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?
Is it not [o] yet a very little while, 17
And [p] Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, [q] And the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?
And [r] in that day [s] shall the deaf 18
hear the words of the book,
And the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.
[t] The meek also [†] shall increase their 19
joy in the LORD,
And [u] the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
For [v] the terrible one [w] is brought 20
to nought, and the [x] scorner [w] is consumed,
And all that watch for iniquity are cut off:
That make a man an offender for a 21
word,
And lay a snare for [y] him that reproveth in the gate,
And [z] turn aside the just [a] for a thing of nought.
Therefore thus saith the LORD, who 22 redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob,

[a] So ch. 59. 4 (Heb.).

Jacob shall not now be ashamed,
Neither shall his face now wax pale.
But when he seeth his children, [b] the 23 work of mine hands, in the midst of him,
[c] They shall sanctify my name,
And sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,
And shall fear [d] the God of Israel.
They also that erred in spirit [†] shall 24
come to understanding,
And [e] they that murmured shall learn [f] doctrine.

XXX.

About B. C. 713.

Woe to [a] the rebellious children, saith the LORD,
[b] That take counsel, but not of me;
And that [c] cover with a covering, but not of my Spirit,
[d] That they may add sin to sin:
That walk [e] to go down into Egypt, 2
And have not [f] asked at my mouth;
To strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh,
And to trust in [g] the shadow of Egypt.
Therefore shall the strength of Pha- 3
raoh be your shame,
And [h] the trust in [g] the shadow of Egypt your confusion.
For his princes were at [i] Zoan, 4
And [j] his ambassadors came to [k] Hanes.
[l] They were all ashamed of [m] a people 5 that could not profit them,
Nor be a help nor profit,
But a shame, and also a reproach.

[n] The burden of [o] the beasts of the 6 south:
Into the land of [p] trouble and [p] anguish,
[q] From whence come the young and [r] old lion,
[st] The viper and [su] fiery flying serpent,
[v] They will carry their riches upon the shoulders of [w] young asses,
And [v] their treasures upon the bunches of camels,
To [m] a people that shall not profit them.
For [h] the Egyptians shall help in vain, 7
and to no purpose:
Therefore have I cried [‖] concerning this, Their [x] strength is to sit still.

Now go, [y] write it before them in 8 a table,
And [z] note it in a book,
That it may be for [†] the time to come
For ever and ever:

That [a] this is a rebellious people, 9 lying children,
Children that will not hear the law of the LORD:
Which say to the [b] seers, See not; 10
And to the prophets, [c] Prophesy not unto us right things, [d] Speak unto us smooth things,
Prophesy deceits:
Get ye out of the way, 11
Turn aside out of the path,
Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.
Wherefore thus saith the Holy One 12
of Israel,
Because ye despise this word,
And trust in [‖] oppression and [e] perverseness,
And stay thereon:
Therefore this iniquity shall be to 13
you [f] as a breach ready to fall,
Swelling out in a high wall,
[g] Whose breaking cometh [gh] suddenly at an instant.
And [i] he shall break it as the break- 14
ing of [†] the potters' vessel
That is broken in pieces; [k] he shall not spare:
So that there shall not be found in the bursting of it [kk] a sheard
[l] To take fire from the hearth,
Or to take water withal out of [m] the pit.
For thus saith the Lord GOD, the 15
Holy One of Israel;
In returning and [n] rest shall ye be saved;
[o] In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength:
[p] And ye would not.
But ye said, No; for [q] we will flee 16
upon horses;
Therefore shall ye flee:
And, [q] We will ride upon [r] the swift;
Therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.
[s] One thousand shall flee at the rebuke 17
of one;
At the rebuke of five shall ye flee:
Till ye be left as [‖] a beacon upon the top of a mountain,
And as [tt] an ensign on a hill.
And [u] therefore will the LORD wait, 18
that he may be gracious unto you,
And therefore [v] will he be exalted,
that he may have mercy upon you:
For the LORD is a God of judgment:
[w] Blessed are all they that wait for him.

For [x] the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem:
Thou shalt weep no more:
He will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry;
When he shall hear it, he will answer thee.
And though the Lord give you [y] the bread of adversity, and [z] the water of [l] affliction,
Yet [a] shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more,
But thine eyes shall see thy teachers:
And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying,
[aa] This is the way, walk ye in it,
[b] When ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.
Ye shall defile also [c] the covering of [d] [t] thy graven images [e] of silver,
And [f] the ornament of thy molten images [e] of gold:
Thou shalt [t] cast them away [g] as a menstruous cloth;
[h] Thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.
Then shall he give the rain of thy seed,
That thou shalt sow the ground withal;
And bread of the increase of the earth,
And it shall be fat and plenteous:
[i] In that day shall thy cattle feed in large [j] pastures.
[k] The oxen likewise and [l] the young asses that [m] ear the ground Shall eat [l] [t] clean [n] provender,
Which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.
And there shall be [o] upon every high mountain,
And [o] upon every [t] high hill,
Rivers and [p] streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter,
When [o] the towers fall.
Moreover [q] the light of [r] the moon shall be as the light of [r] the sun,
And the light of [r] the sun shall be [s] sevenfold,
As the light of seven days,
In the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people,
And [t] healeth the stroke of their wound.

Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far,
Burning with his anger, [l] and the burden thereof is [t] heavy:
His lips are full of indignation,
And his tongue as a devouring fire:
And [w] his breath, as an overflowing stream,
[x] Shall reach to the midst of the neck,
[xx] To sift the nations with the sieve of vanity:
And there shall be [y] a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.
Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept;
And gladness of heart, as [z] when one goeth [a] with a pipe
To come into [b] the mountain of the LORD, to the [t] mighty One of Israel.
And the LORD shall cause [t] his glorious voice to be heard,
And shall shew [c] the lighting down of his arm,
With the indignation of his anger,
And with [d] the flame of a devouring fire,
With scattering, and [e] tempest, and [e] [f] hailstones.
For [g] through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian [h] be beaten down,
[i] Which smote with a rod.
And [t] in every place where the grounded staff shall pass,
Which the LORD shall [t] lay upon him,
It shall be with [k] tabrets and [k] harps:
And in battles of [l] shaking will he fight [l] with it.
For [m] Tophet is ordained [t] of old;
Yea, for the king it [n] is prepared;
He hath made it deep and large:
[o] The pile thereof is fire and much wood;
The breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, [p] doth kindle it.

Woe to them [a] that go down to Egypt for help;
And [b] [c] stay on horses,
And [b] trust in chariots, because they are many;
And in horsemen, because they are very strong;
But they look not unto the Holy One of Israel,
[c] Neither seek the LORD.
Yet he [d] also is wise, and will bring evil,
And [e] will not [t] call back his words:
But will arise against the house of the evildoers,
And against the help of [f] them that work iniquity.

Now the Egyptians are men, and 3
[g] not God;
And their horses [g] flesh, and not spirit.
When the LORD shall stretch out his hand,
Both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is [h] holpen shall fall down,
And [i] they all shall fail together.
For thus hath the LORD spoken un- 4
to me, [k] Like as the lion and [l] the young lion roaring on his prey, When [m] a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him,
He will not [n] be afraid of their voice, Nor abase himself for the [‖] noise of
them:
[o] So shall the LORD of hosts come down
To fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.
[p] As birds flying, so will the LORD of 5 hosts defend Jerusalem;
[q] Defending also he will deliver it;
And [r] passing over he will preserve
it.

Turn ye unto him from whom the 6 children of Israel [s] have deeply revolted.
For in that day [t] every man shall 7 cast away
His [u] idols of silver, and [†] his idols of gold,
Which your own hands have made unto you [v] for a sin.
Then shall [w] the Assyrian fall with 8
the sword, not of [x] a mighty man;
And the sword, not of [x] a mean man,
shall devour him:
But [y] he shall flee [‖] from the sword,
And his young men shall be [‖†] discomfited.
And [a †] he shall pass over to [‖] his 9 strong hold for fear,
And his princes shall be afraid of [b] the ensign,
Saith the LORD, [c] whose fire is in Zion,
And his [d] furnace in Jerusalem.

XXXII.

Behold, [a] a king shall reign in righteousness,
And princes shall rule in judgment.
And a man shall be as a hiding place 2
from the wind,
And [b] a covert from the tempest;
As rivers of water [c] in a dry place,
As [b] the shadow of a [†] great rock [d] in a weary land.

And [e] the eyes of them that see shall 3
not be dim,
And [e] the ears of them that hear shall hearken.
The heart also of the [†] rash shall un- 4
derstand knowledge,
And the tongue of [f] the stammerers shall be ready to speak [‖] plainly.
The vile person shall be no more 5 called liberal,
Nor the churl said to be bountiful.
For the vile person will speak villany, 6
And his heart will work iniquity, To practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD,
To make empty the soul of the hungry,
And he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.
The instruments also of the churl 7
are evil:
He deviseth wicked devices
[g] To destroy the poor with lying words,
Even [‖] when the needy speaketh right.
But [h] the liberal deviseth liberal things; 8
And by liberal things shall he [‖] stand.

Rise up, ye women [i] that are at ease, 9 hear my voice;
Ye careless daughters, give ear unto my speech.
[†] Many days and years shall ye be 10 troubled, ye careless women:
For the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.
Tremble, ye women [i] that are at ease; 11 be troubled, ye careless ones:
[k] Strip ye, and make ye bare, and [l] gird sackcloth upon your loins.
They shall lament for the teats, 12
For [†] the pleasant fields, for [n] the fruitful vine.
[o] Upon the land of my people shall 13
come up thorns and briers;
[‖] Yea, upon all the houses of joy in [q] the joyous city:
[r] Because the palaces shall be forsaken; 14
The multitude of the city shall be left;
The [‖s] forts and towers shall be for dens for ever,
[r] A joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

And the effect of [q] righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.
And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation,
And in sure dwellings,
And in [i] quiet resting places;
When [y] it shall hail, [z] coming down on [a] the forest;
[‖] And the city shall be low in a low place.

Blessed are [b] ye that sow beside all waters,
That [c] send forth thither the feet of [d] the ox and the ass.

XXXIII.

Woe to thee [a] that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled;
And [b] dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee!
[c] When thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled;
And when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

O LORD, be gracious unto us; [d] we have waited for thee:
[e] Be thou their arm [f] every morning,
Our salvation also in the time of trouble.
At the noise of the tumult the people fled;
[g] At the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.
And [a] your spoil shall be [h] gathered like the gathering of [i] the caterpillar:
As the running to and fro of locusts shall he [k] run upon them.
[l] The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high:
He hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.
And wisdom and knowledge shall be
[m] The stability of thy times, and [n] strength of [†] salvation:
The fear of the LORD is his treasure.
Behold, their [‖] valiant ones shall cry without:
[o] The ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.
[p] The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth:

He [q] hath broken the covenant,
[r] He hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.
[s] The earth mourneth and [t] languisheth:
[u] Lebanon is ashamed and [‖] hewn down:
[u] Sharon is like a wilderness;
And [v] Bashan and [u] Carmel [w] shake off their fruits.

[x] Now will I rise, saith the LORD;
Now will I be exalted;
Now will I lift up myself.
[y] Ye shall conceive [z] chaff, [y] ye shall bring forth [z] stubble:
Your breath, as fire, shall devour you.
And the people shall be as the burnings of lime:
[a] As thorns [b] cut up shall they be burnt in the fire.
Hear, [c] ye that are far off, what I have done;
And [c] ye that are near, acknowledge my might.
The sinners in Zion are afraid;
[d] Fearfulness hath surprised [e] the hypocrites.
[f] Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire?
Who amongst us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?
[g] He that walketh [†] righteously, and speaketh [†] uprightly;
He that despiseth the gain of [‖] [h] oppressions,
That shaketh his hands from holding of [i] bribes,
That stoppeth his ears from hearing of [†] blood,
And [j] shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

XXXVI.

Now it came to pass ain the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them.
2 bAnd the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.
3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, cwhich was over the house, and cShebna the ‖scribe, and

How 9 then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and [e f]put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? And am I 10 now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

Then said Eliakim and Shebna and 11 Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall. But Rabshakeh said, Hath my 12 master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you? Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with 13 a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of [d]the great king, the king of Assyria. Thus saith 14 the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you. Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in 15 the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Hearken not to Hezekiah: for 16 thus saith the king of Assyria, ‖Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern; [g]until I come and take 17 you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. Beware lest Hezekiah 18 persuade you, [h]saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Where 19 are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered [i]Samaria out of my hand? Who are they amongst all the 20 gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? But they held their peace, 21 and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. Then came Eliakim, the 22 son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. 15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, 16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: [h] thou hast made heaven and earth. 17 [i] Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God. 18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the [†] nations, and their countries, 19 and have [†] cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. 20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, [j] that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

26 [‖] Hast thou not heard long ago, how [p] I have done it;
And of ancient times, that [p] I have formed it?
Now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste [q] Defenced cities into ruinous heaps.
27 Therefore their inhabitants were [†] of small power,
[r] They were dismayed and confounded:
They were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb,
As the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.
28 But I know thy [‖] abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in,
And thy rage against me.
29 Because thy rage against me, and thy [s] tumult, is come up into mine ears,
Therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and [t] my bridle in thy lips,
And I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.
30 And this shall be a sign unto thee,
Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself;
And the second year that which springeth of the same:
And [u] in the third year sow ye, and reap,
And plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.
31 And [†] the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah
Shall again [w] take root downward, and bear fruit upward.
32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth [x] a remnant,
And [†] they that escape out of mount Zion:
The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.
33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, [y] He shall not come into this city,
[z] Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with [†] shields,
Nor [a] cast a bank against it.
34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return,
And shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.
35 For [b] I will defend this city to save it
For mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

And he that smootheth with the hammer ‖him that smote the anvil,
l Saying, It is ready for the sodering:
And he fastened it with nails, p that it should not be moved.
But thou, q Israel, art r my servant, 8
Jacob rr whom I have chosen,
The seed of s Abraham my friend.
Thou whom I have taken from the 9 ends of the earth,
And called thee from t the chief men
thereof,
And said unto thee, r Thou art my servant;
I rr have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.
u Fear thou not; v for I am with thee: 10
w Be not dismayed; for I am thy God:
v I will strengthen thee; yea, u I will help thee;
Yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.
Behold, all x they that were incensed 11 against thee shall be x ashamed and confounded:
y They shall be as nothing; and † they that strive with thee shall perish.
Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not 12 find them, even † them that contended with thee:
† They that war against thee shall be z as nothing, and z as a thing of nought.
For I the LORD thy God zz will hold 13
thy right hand, Saying unto thee, u Fear not; u I will
help thee.
u Fear not, a thou worm Jacob, and 14
ye ‖men of Israel;
a I will help thee, saith the LORD,
And b thy redeemer, c the Holy One
of Israel.
Behold, d I will make thee a new 15
e sharp f threshing instrument having † teeth:
d Thou shalt thresh the mountains,
and beat them small,
And shalt make the hills as chaff.
Thou shalt g fan them, and the wind 16 shall carry them away,
And the whirlwind shall scatter them:
And thou shalt rejoice in the LORD,
And h shalt glory in c the Holy One
of Israel.
When the poor and needy seek water, 17
and there is none,
And their tongue i faileth for thirst,
I the LORD will hear them,
I k the God of Israel will not forsake
them.
18 l I will open rivers in m high places,
And fountains in the midst of n the valleys:
o I will make the p wilderness a pool of water,
And o p the dry land springs of water.
19 pp I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, q the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and r the oil tree;
I will set in the desert s the fir tree, and s the pine, and the box tree together:
20 t That they may see, and know, and u consider, and understand together, That the hand of the LORD hath done this,
And the Holy One of Israel hath created it.
21 † Produce your cause, saith the LORD;
Bring forth your v strong reasons, saith
the King of Jacob.
22 w Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen:
Let them shew x the former things,
what they be,
That we may † consider them, and know the latter end of them;
Or declare us things for to come.
23 y Shew the things that are to come yy hereafter,
z That we may know that ye are gods:
Yea, a do good, or do evil,
That we may b be dismayed, and behold it together.
24 Behold, c ye are ‖of nothing, and your work ‖of nought:
An abomination is he that chooseth you.
25 d I have raised up one e from the north, and he shall come:
d From the rising of the sun f shall he call upon my name:
And he shall come upon princes as upon morter,
And as the potter treadeth clay.
26 g Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know?
And beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous?
Yea, there is none that sheweth, yea,
there is none that declareth, Yea, there is none that heareth your words.
27 h The first i shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them:
And I will give to Jerusalem i one that bringeth good tidings.

e Jer. 10. 4

q I will even make a way in the wilderness,
And r rivers in s the desert.
The beast of the field shall honour me, t The dragons and the ‖† owls:
Because r I give waters in the wilderness,
And rivers in s the desert,
r To give drink to my people, my chosen.
u This people have I formed for myself;
v They shall shew forth w my praise.
But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob;
But x thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.
y Thou hast not brought me the † small cattle of thy burnt offerings;
Neither hast thou z honoured me with thy sacrifices.
I have not caused thee to serve with an offering,
Nor a wearied thee with b incense.
Thou hast bought me no b sweet cane with money,
Neither hast thou † filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices:
But thou hast made me to serve with thy sins,
Thou hast a c wearied me with thine iniquities.
I, even I, am he that d blotteth out thy transgressions e for mine own sake,
f And will not remember thy sins.
Put me in remembrance: let us plead together:
Declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.
Thy first father hath sinned,
And thy † teachers have transgressed against me.
Therefore g I have profaned the ‖ princes of the sanctuary,
And have given Jacob h i to the curse,
And Israel to h k reproaches.

Yet now hear, a O Jacob my servant;
And a Israel, whom I have chosen:
Thus saith the LORD b that made thee,
And b formed thee from the womb, which will help thee;
c Fear not, a O Jacob, my servant;
And thou, d Jeshurun, a whom I have chosen.

For e I will pour water upon him that is thirsty,
And floods upon the dry ground:
f I will pour my spirit upon thy seed,
And my blessing upon thine g offspring:
And e they shall spring up as among the grass,
As h willows by i the water courses.
One shall say, I am the LORD'S;
And another shall call himself by the name of Jacob;
And another shall k subscribe with his hand unto the LORD,
And l surname himself by the name of Israel.

Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel,
And m his redeemer the LORD of hosts;
I n am the first, and I am the last;
And o besides me there is no God.
And p who, as I, shall call,
And shall declare it, and set it in order for me,
Since I q appointed the ancient people?
And r the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.
Fear ye not, neither be afraid:
s Have not I told thee † from that time,
And have declared it? u ye are even my witnesses.
o v w Is there a God besides me?
Yea, w there is no † God; I know not any.
x They that make a graven image are all of them vanity;
And their † delectable things shall not profit;
And y they are their own witnesses;
z They see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.
Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image
a That is profitable for nothing?
Behold, all his fellows b shall be ashamed:
And the workmen, they are of men:
Let them all be gathered together, let them stand up;
Yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.
c The smith ‖ with the tongs both worketh in d the coals,
And fashioneth it e with hammers,
And worketh it with the strength of his arms:

Yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth:
He drinketh no water, and is faint.
The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line;
He fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass,
And maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man;
That it may remain in the house.
He heweth him down cedars, and taketh [f] the cypress and the oak,
Which [g] he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest:
He planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.
[h] Then shall it be for a man [i] to burn:
For he will take thereof, and warm himself;
Yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread;
Yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it;
He maketh it a graven image, and [j] falleth down thereto.
He burneth part thereof in the fire;
With part thereof he eateth flesh;
He roasteth roast, and is satisfied:
Yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha,
I am warm, I have seen [k] the fire:
And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image:
He [i] falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and [l] prayeth unto it,
And saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.
[m] They have not known nor understood:
For he hath [t] shut their eyes, that they cannot see;
And their hearts, that they cannot understand.
And none [t] considereth in his heart,
Neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say,
I have burnt part of it in the fire;
Yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof;
I have roasted flesh, and eaten it:
And shall I make the residue thereof an abomination?
Shall I [i] fall down to [t] the stock of a tree?
He [u] feedeth on ashes:
[o] A deceived heart hath turned him aside,
That he cannot deliver his soul, nor say,
Is there not [p] a lie in my right hand?

Remember these, O Jacob
And Israel; for [q] thou art my servant:
I [q] have formed thee; thou art my servant:
O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.
I [r] have blotted out, [s] as a thick cloud, thy transgressions,
And, as a cloud, thy sins:
Return unto me; for [t] I have redeemed thee.

[u] Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it:
Shout, [v] ye lower parts of the earth:
[u w] Break forth into singing, ye mountains,
[x] O forest, and every tree therein:
For [t] the LORD hath redeemed Jacob,
And [y] glorified himself in Israel.
Thus saith the LORD, [z] thy redeemer,
And [a] he that formed thee from the womb,
I am the LORD that maketh all things;
[b c] That stretcheth forth the heavens alone;
[c d] That spreadeth abroad the earth [e] by myself;
That frustrateth the tokens of [f] the liars,
[g] And [h] maketh [i] diviners mad;
That turneth wise men backward,
And [k] maketh their knowledge foolish;
That confirmeth the word of [l] his servant,
And performeth the counsel of his messengers;
That saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited;
And [m] to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built,
And I will raise up the [t] decayed places thereof:
[n] That saith to the deep, Be dry,
And I will dry up thy rivers:
That saith of [o] Cyrus, He is my shepherd,
And shall perform [p] all my pleasure:
Even saying [q] to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built;
And to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

XLV.

Whose [b] right hand I [‖] have holden,
[c] To subdue nations before him;

And concerning [c] the work of my hands command ye me.

[d] I have made the earth, 12

[k] Not for price nor reward,

[l] The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of [m] Ethiopia
And of the [n] Sabeans, [o] men of stature,
Shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine:
They shall come after thee, [p] in chains they shall come over,

a Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth,

Thou didst shew them no mercy;
[v] Upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.
And [w] thou saidst, I shall be [r] a lady for ever:
So that thou didst not [x] lay these things to thy heart,
Neither didst remember [y] the latter end of it.
Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, [z] that dwellest carelessly, [za] That sayest in thine heart, [b] I am, and none else besides me;
[c] I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know [d] the loss of children:
But [e] these two things shall come to thee [f] in a moment [g] in one day,
[d] The loss of children, and widowhood:
They shall come upon thee in their perfection
[h] For the multitude of thy [i] sorceries, and for the great abundance of [h] thine [i] enchantments.
For thou [k] hast trusted in thy wickedness: [l] thou hast said, None seeth me.

And [a] thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.
Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know [t] from whence it riseth:
And [n] mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to [t] put it off:
And [o] desolation shall come upon thee [f] suddenly, which [p] thou shalt not know.

XLVIII.

Hear ye this, O house of Jacob,
Which are called by the name of Israel,
And [a] are come forth out of the waters of Judah,
[b] Which swear by the name of the LORD,
And make mention of [c] the God of Israel,
But not [d] in truth, nor in righteousness.
For they call themselves of [e] the holy city,
And [f] stay themselves upon the God of Israel;
The LORD of hosts is his name.
[g] I have declared the former things [h] from the beginning;
And they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them;
I did them suddenly, and [i] they came to pass.
Because I knew that thou art [t] obstinate,
And [j] thy neck is an iron sinew,
And thy brow brass:
I have even [h] from the beginning declared it to thee;
Before it came to pass I shewed it thee:
[k] Lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them,
And my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.
Thou hast heard, see all this;
And will not ye declare it?
I have shewed thee new things from this time,
Even [l] hidden things, and thou didst not know them.
They are created now, and not [h] from the beginning;
Even before the day when thou heardest them not;
[k] Lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

Yea, thou heardest not; yea, [k]thou knewest not;
Yea, [h]from that time that thine ear was not opened:
For I knew that thou wouldest [m]deal very treacherously,
And wast called a transgressor [n]from the womb.
[o]For my name's sake [p]will [q]I defer mine anger,
And for my praise will I refrain for thee,
That I cut thee not off.
Behold, [r]I have refined thee, but not [‖]with silver;
I have chosen thee [s]in the furnace of affliction.
[t]For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it:
For [u]how should my name be polluted?
And [v]I will not give my glory unto another.

Hearken unto me, O Jacob, and Israel my called;
[w]I am he; [x]I am the first, I also am the last.
[y]Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth,
And [‖]my right hand hath spanned the heavens:
When I call unto them, they stand up together.
All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear;
[z]Which among them hath declared these things?
[a]The LORD hath loved him:
[b]He will do his pleasure on Babylon,
And [a]his arm shall be on [c]the Chaldeans.
I, even I, have spoken; yea, [d]I have called him:
I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

Come ye near unto me, hear ye this;
[e]I have not spoken in secret from the beginning;
From the time that it was, there am I:
And now [f]the Lord GOD, and [f]his Spirit, hath sent me.
[g h]Thus saith the LORD, [h]thy redeemer,
the Holy One of Israel;
I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit,
Which leadeth thee [i]by the way that thou shouldest go.
[j]O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments!
Then had [k]thy peace been as a river,
And thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

Thy seed also had been [l]as the sand,
And [m]the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof;
His name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

[n]Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from [c]the Chaldeans, [nn]With a voice of singing declare ye, tell this,
Utter it even to the end of the earth;
Say ye, [nn o]The LORD [h]hath redeemed [p]his servant Jacob.
And [q]they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts:
[r]He caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them:
[q]He clave the rock also, and [s]the waters gushed out.
[t]There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

XLIX.

Listen, [a]O isles, unto me;
And hearken, ye people, [b]from afar;
[c]The LORD hath called me [d]from the womb;
From the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.
And he hath made [e]my mouth [f]like a sharp sword;
[g]In the shadow of his hand hath he hid me,
And made me [h]a polished shaft;
In his quiver hath he hid me;
And said unto me, [i]Thou art my servant,
O Israel, [k]in whom I will be glorified.
Then I said, [l]I have laboured in vain,
I have spent my strength [m]for nought, and in vain:
Yet surely [n]my judgment is with the LORD,
And [‖]my work with my God.
And now, saith [c]the LORD [o]that formed me [d]from the womb to be his servant,
To bring Jacob again to him,
[‖]Though Israel be not gathered,
Yet shall I [p]be glorious in the eyes of the LORD,
And my God shall be my strength.
And he said, [‖q]It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant
To raise up the tribes of Jacob,
And to restore the [‖r]preserved of Israel:

[s] I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles,
That thou mayest be [t] my salvation unto the end of the earth.
[u] Thus saith the LORD, the redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One,
[v][‖] To him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers,
[w] Kings shall see and arise,
Princes also shall worship,
Because of [x] the LORD that is faithful,
And the Holy One of Israel, and [y] he shall choose thee.
Thus saith the LORD,
[z] In an acceptable time have I heard thee,
And in a day of salvation have I helped thee:
And I will preserve thee, and [a] give thee for a covenant of the people,
To [‖] establish the earth, [aa] to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;
That thou mayest say [bc] to the prisoners, Go forth;
[b] To them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves.
They shall feed in the ways,
And their pastures shall be in all high places.
[d] They shall not hunger nor thirst;
[e] Neither shall [f] the heat nor sun smite them:
For he that hath mercy on them
[g] shall lead them,
Even by [h] the springs of water [g] shall he guide them.
And [i] I will make all my mountains a way,
And my highways shall be exalted.
Behold, [k] these shall come from far:
And lo, these [l] from the north and [l] from the west;
And these from the land of Sinim.

[m] Sing, O heavens; and [n] be joyful, O earth;
And [m] break forth into singing, [o] O mountains:
For the LORD hath comforted his people,
And will have mercy upon his afflicted.
[p] But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me,
And my Lord hath forgotten me.
Can a woman forget her sucking child,
[†] That she should not have compassion on [q] the son of her womb?
Yea, [r] they may forget,
[s] Yet will I not forget thee.
Behold, [t] I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands;
Thy walls are continually before me.
Thy children shall make haste;
[u] Thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

[v] Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold:
[v] All these gather themselves together, and come to thee.
[w] As I live, saith the LORD, [x] thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament,
And [xx] bind them on thee, [y] as a bride doth.
For [yy] thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of [u] thy destruction, [z] Shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants,
And they that [a] swallowed thee up shall be far away.
[b] The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears,
The place is too strait for me:
[c] Give place to me that I may dwell.
Then shalt thou say in thine heart,
[d] Who hath begotten me these,
Seeing I have lost my children, and [e] am desolate,
A captive, and removing to and fro?
And who hath brought up these?
Behold, I was left alone;
These, where had they been?
Thus saith the Lord GOD,
[f] Behold, [g] I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles,
And [h] set up my standard to the people:
And [i] they shall bring thy sons in their [†] arms,
And thy daughters [j] shall be carried upon their shoulders.
And [k] kings shall be thy [†] nursing fathers,
And their [†] queens thy nursing mothers:
[ll] They shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth,
And [m] lick up the dust of thy feet;
And thou shalt know that I am the LORD:
For [n] they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

[a] Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion;
Put on [b] thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, [c] the holy city:
For henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and [d] the unclean.
[e] Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: [f] Loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.
For thus saith the LORD,
[g] Ye have sold yourselves [h] for nought;
And [i] ye shall be redeemed without money.
For thus saith the Lord GOD,
[k] My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there;
And the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.
Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD,
That my people is taken away for nought?
They that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD;
And [l] my name continually every day is [m] blasphemed.
Therefore my people shall know my name:
Therefore they shall know [n] in that day [o] that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

[p] How beautiful [q] upon the mountains are [r] the feet of him [s] that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace;
[s] That bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation;
That saith unto Zion, [t] Thy God reigneth!

Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice;
With the voice together shall they sing:
For [u] they shall see eye to eye,
When the LORD shall bring again Zion.
[v] Break forth into joy, sing together, [w] ye waste places of Jerusalem:
[x] For the LORD hath comforted his people, [y] he hath redeemed Jerusalem.
The LORD hath made bare [z] his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations;
[a] And [b] all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.
[c] Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing;
Go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, [d] that bear the vessels of the LORD.
For [e] ye shall not go out [f] with haste,
Nor go by flight:
[g] For the LORD will go before you;
And [g] the God of Israel will [†] be your rereward.

Behold, [h] my servant shall [‖] deal prudently,
[i] He shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.
As many [k] were astonied at thee;
[l] His visage was so marred more than any man,

So [m] shall he sprinkle many nations;
[n] The kings shall shut their mouths at him:
For [o] that which had not been told them shall they see;
And that which they had not heard shall they consider.

Neither was any deceit in his mouth.
Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise 10 him; he hath [h]put him to grief:
[ii]When thou shalt make his soul [k]an offering for sin,
[l]He shall see his seed, [m]he shall prolong his days,
And [n]the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.
He shall see of the travail of his soul, 11
and [o]shall be satisfied:

[p]By his knowledge shall [q]my righteous [r]servant [s]justify [t]many;
[u]For he shall bear their iniquities.
Therefore will I divide him a portion 12
with the great,
And [w]he shall divide the spoil with the strong;
Because he hath [x]poured out his soul unto death:
[y]And he was numbered with the transgressors;
And he bare the sin of many,
And [z]made intercession for the transgressors.

In a little wrath [w] I hid my face from thee [u] for a moment;
But [x] with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee,
Saith the LORD [q] thy redeemer.
For this is as the waters of Noah unto me:
For [y] as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth;
[z] So have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.
[z] For [a] the mountains shall depart,
And [a] the hills [b] be removed;
But my kindness shall not depart from thee,
Neither shall [c] the covenant of my peace be removed,
Saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.
[d] O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted,
Behold, I will lay thy stones [e] with fair colours,
And [f] lay thy foundations with sapphires.
And I will make thy windows of [g] agates,
And thy gates of carbuncles,
And all thy borders of [h] pleasant stones.
[i] And all [k] thy children shall be [l] taught of the LORD;
And [m] great shall be the peace of thy children.
In righteousness shalt thou be established:
Thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear:
And from terror; for it shall not come near thee.
Behold, they shall surely [n] gather together, [o] but not by me:
Whosoever shall [n] gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.
Behold, I have created the smith
That bloweth [p] the coals in the fire,
And that bringeth forth an instrument for his work;
And I have created the waster [q] to destroy.
[r] No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper;
And [s] every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn.
This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,
And [t] their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

Ho, [a] every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters,
And he that hath no money;
[b] Come ye, [c] buy, and eat;
Yea, come, buy [b] wine and milk [d] without money and without price.
[e] Wherefore do ye [f] spend money for that which is not bread?
And your labour [f] for that which satisfieth not?
Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good,
And let your soul [g] delight itself in fatness.
Incline your ear, and [h] come unto me:
Hear, and [i] your soul shall live;
And [k] I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
Even [l] the sure mercies of [m] David.
Behold, I have given [m] him for [n] a witness to the people,
A [o] leader and commander to the people.
Behold, [p] thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not,
And [q] nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee
Because of the LORD thy God,
And for [r] the Holy One of Israel; [r] for [s] he hath glorified thee.

[t] Seek ye the LORD while he may be found,
Call ye upon him while he is near:
Let the wicked forsake his way,
And [f] the unrighteous man [u] his thoughts:
And [v] let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him;
And to our God, for [f] he will abundantly [w] pardon.
For [x] my thoughts are not your thoughts,
Neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.
For [y] as the heavens are higher than the earth,
So are my ways higher than your ways,
And my thoughts than your thoughts.
For [z] as the rain cometh down,
And the snow from heaven,
And returneth not thither,
But watereth the earth,
And maketh it bring forth and bud,
[a] That it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity;
[op] Wasting and [t] destruction are in their paths.
[o] The way of peace they know not; 8
And there is no [l] judgment in their [q] goings:
[r] They have made them crooked paths:
Whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

Therefore is judgment far from us, 9
Neither doth justice overtake us:
[s] We wait for light, but behold obscurity;
For brightness, but [t] we walk in darkness.
[u] We grope for the wall like the 10
blind,
And we grope as if we had no eyes:
We stumble [u] at noonday as in the night;
We are in desolate places as dead men.
We roar all like bears, 11
And [v] mourn sore like doves:
[s] We look for judgment, but there is none;
For salvation, but it is far off from us.
For our transgressions are multiplied 12
before thee,
And our sins testify against us:
For our transgressions are with us;
And as for our iniquities, [w] we know them;
In transgressing and lying against the 13
LORD,
And [x] departing away from our God,
Speaking oppression and revolt,
Conceiving and [y] uttering [z] from the heart [c] words of falsehood.
And judgment is [x] turned away back- 14
ward,
And justice standeth afar off:
For truth is fallen in the street,
And [a] equity cannot enter.
Yea, truth [b] faileth; 15
And he that departeth from evil [l] [c] maketh himself a prey:
And the LORD saw it, and [f] it displeased him
That there was no judgment.
And [d] he saw that there was no man, 16
And [e] wondered that there was no [f] intercessor:
[g] Therefore [h] his arm brought salvation unto him;
And his righteousness, [d] it sustained him.

For [i] he put on righteousness as a 17
breastplate,
And a helmet of salvation upon his head;
And he put on the garments of [k] vengeance for clothing,
And was clad with zeal [i] as a cloke.
[l] According to their [t] deeds, accordingly [m] he will repay,
[n] Fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies;
To [o] the islands he will repay recompence.
[p] So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west,
And his glory from the rising of the sun.
When the enemy shall come in [q] like a flood,
The spirit of the LORD shall [lr] lift up a standard against him.
And [s] the redeemer shall come to Zion,
And unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.
As for me, [t] this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD;
My spirit that is upon thee,
And [u] my words which I have put in thy mouth,
Shall not depart out of thy mouth,
Nor out of the mouth of thy seed,
Nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD,
From henceforth and for ever.

LX.

Arise, [a] [l] shine; for thy light is come,
And [b] the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.
For behold, [cd] the darkness shall cover 2
the earth,
And [d] gross darkness the people:
But the LORD shall arise upon thee,
And [be] his glory shall be seen upon thee.
And [f] the Gentiles shall come to thy 3
light,
And [g] kings to the brightness of thy rising.
[h] Lift up thine eyes round about, and 4 see:
[h] All they gather themselves together,
[i] they come to thee:
[j] Thy sons shall come from far,
And thy daughters shall be nursed [k] at thy side.

Then thou shalt see, and [l]flow together,
And thine heart shall fear, and [m]be enlarged;
Because [n]the [lo]abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee,
The [lfm]forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.
The multitude of camels shall cover thee,
[p]The dromedaries of [q]Midian and [r]Ephah;
All they from [s]Sheba shall come:
They shall bring [t]gold and incense;
And they shall [u]shew forth the praises of the LORD.
All the flocks of [v]Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee,
The rams of [w]Nebajoth shall minister unto thee:
[x]They shall come up with acceptance on mine altar,
And I will [y]glorify [yy]the house of [b]my glory.
[z]Who are these that fly as a cloud,
And [a]as the doves to their windows?
Surely [bc]the isles shall wait for me,
And [d]the ships of [c]Tarshish first,
[e]To bring [f]thy sons from far,
[g]Their silver and their gold with them,
[h]Unto the name of the LORD thy God,
And [i]to the Holy One of Israel, [i]because he hath glorified thee.
And [k]the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls,
And [l]their kings shall minister unto thee:
For [m]in my wrath I smote thee,
But [n]in my favour have I had mercy on thee.
Therefore [o]thy gates shall be open continually;
They shall not be shut day nor night;
That men may bring unto thee the [l]forces of the Gentiles,
And that [lp]their kings may be brought.
For [q]the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish;
Yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.
[r]The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee,
[s]The fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together,
To [t]beautify the place of my sanctuary;
And I will make [u]the place of my feet glorious.

[v]The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee;
And all they that despised thee shall [w]bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet;
And they shall call thee, [x]The city of the LORD, [y]The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
Whereas thou hast been [z]forsaken and [a]hated,
So that no man went through thee,
I will make thee an eternal [b]excellency,
A joy of many generations.
[c]Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles,
And [c]shalt suck the breast of kings:
And [c]thou shalt know that [d]I the LORD am thy Saviour
[c]And thy redeemer, [dd]the mighty One of Jacob.
[e]For brass I will bring gold,
And for iron I will bring silver,
And for wood brass,
And for stones iron:
I will also make thy officers [f]peace,
And thine [g]exactors righteousness.
[h]Violence shall no more be heard in thy land,
[i]Wasting nor destruction within thy borders;
But thou shalt call [j]thy walls Salvation,
And thy gates [k]Praise.
[l]The sun shall be no more thy light by day;
[l]Neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee:
But the LORD shall be unto thee [m]an everlasting light,
And [n]thy God thy [o]glory.
[p]Thy sun shall no more go down;
Neither shall thy moon withdraw itself:
For the LORD shall be thine everlasting light,
And [q]the days of thy mourning shall be ended.
[r]Thy people also shall be all righteous:
[s]They shall inherit the land for ever,
[t]The branch of my planting, [u]the work of my hands, [tv]that I may be glorified.
[x]A little one shall become a thousand,
And a small one a [y]strong nation:

LXI.

[a]The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me;
Because the LORD [b]hath anointed me [c]to preach good tidings unto [d]the meek;
He hath sent me [e]to bind up [f]the broken-hearted,
[g]To proclaim liberty to the captives,
And [h]the opening of the prison to them that are bound;
2 [i]To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,
And [k]the day of vengeance of our God;
[l]To comfort all that mourn;
3 To appoint unto [l]them that mourn in Zion,
[m]To give unto them [n]beauty for ashes,
[o]The oil of joy for mourning,
The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
That they might be called [p]trees of righteousness,
[q]The planting of the LORD, [qr]that he might be glorified.
4 And [s]they shall build the old wastes,
They shall raise up the former desolations,
And they shall repair the waste cities,
[t]The desolations of many generations.
5 And [u]strangers shall stand and feed your flocks,
And [v]the sons of [u]the alien shall be [w]your plowmen and your vinedressers.
6 But [x]ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD:
Men shall call you the Ministers of our God:
[y]Ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles,
And [z]in their glory shall you boast yourselves.
7 For your shame [a]you shall have double;
And for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion:
[b]Therefore in their land [a]they shall possess the double:
Everlasting joy shall be unto them.
8 For [c]I the LORD love judgment,
[d]I hate robbery for burnt offering;
And I will direct their [e]work in truth,
And [f]I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
9 And [g]their seed shall be known among the Gentiles,
And [h]their offspring among the people:
All that see them shall acknowledge them,
[i]That they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.
10 [j]I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
My soul shall be joyful in my God;
For [k]he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation,
He hath covered me with [l]the robe of righteousness,
As a bridegroom [t]decketh himself with [m]ornaments,
And [n]as a bride [o]adorneth herself with her jewels.
11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud,
And as the garden causeth [p]the things that are sown in it to spring forth;
So the Lord GOD will cause [q]righteousness and [r]praise to spring forth Before all the nations.

For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace,
And for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
Until [a]the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness,
And the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.
2 And [b]the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness,
And [c]all kings thy glory:
And thou shalt be called by [d]a new name,
Which the mouth of the LORD shall name.
3 Thou shalt also be [e]a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD,
And a royal [f]diadem in the hand of thy God.
4 [g]Thou shalt no more be termed [h]Forsaken;
Neither shall thy land any more be termed [i]Desolate:
But thou shalt be called [j]Hephzi-bah,
And thy land [k]Beulah:
For the LORD delighteth in thee,
And thy land shall be married.
5 For [k]as a young man marrieth a virgin,
So shall [l]thy sons marry thee:
And [t]as [m]the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride,
So [n]shall thy God rejoice over thee.
6 I have set [o]watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem,
Which shall never hold their peace day nor night:
[p]q Ye that make mention of the LORD,

Till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem [r] a praise in the earth.
The LORD hath sworn by his right [8] hand, and by the arm of his strength, [†] Surely [s] I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies;
And [t] the sons of the stranger [tt] shall thou hast laboured:

But they that have gathered it shall [9]

And they that have brought it together shall drink it [v] in the courts of my holiness.

Go through, go through the gates; [10]
[w x] prepare you the way of the people;
[x] Cast up, cast up the highway; [y] gather out the stones;
[z] Lift up a standard for the people.
Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed [11]
unto the end of the world, [a] Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, [b] thy salvation cometh;
[c] Behold, his reward is with him,
[c] And his ‖ work before him.
And [d] they shall call them, [e] The [12] holy people, [f] The redeemed of the
LORD:
And thou shalt be called, Sought out,
[g] A city not forsaken.

LXIII.

Who is this that cometh from Edom,
[a] With dyed garments from [b] Bozrah?
This that is [†] glorious in his apparel, [c] Travelling in the greatness of his strength?
I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.
Wherefore [d] art thou red in thine apparel, [2]
And thy garments like him that [e] treadeth in the winefat?
I have [e] trodden the winepress alone; [3]
And of the people there was none with me:
For [f] I will tread them in mine anger,
And trample them in [g] my fury;
And [d] their [h] blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments,
And I will stain all my raiment.
For [i] the day of vengeance is in mine [4]
heart,
And the year of [k] my redeemed is come.
[l] And I looked, and [m] there was none [5]
to help;
And I wondered that there was none
to uphold:

[n] Therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; [n] And [g] my fury, it upheld me.
And I will tread down the people in [6]
mine anger,
And [o] make them drunk in [g] my fury,
And I will bring down their [h] strength to the earth.

I will [p] mention the lovingkindnesses [7] of the LORD, and the praises of the
LORD,
[q] According to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us,
And [r] the great goodness towards the house of Israel,
Which he hath bestowed on them
according to his mercies,
And [s] according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.
For he said, Surely they are my [8]
people,
Children that will not lie:
So he was their Saviour.
[t] In all their affliction he was af- [9]
flicted,
And [u] the angel of his presence saved
them:
[v] In his love and in his pity [w] he redeemed them;
And he bare them, and [x] carried them
all the days of old.
But [y] they rebelled, and [z] vexed his [10]
holy Spirit:
Therefore [a] he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.
Then [b] he remembered the days of [11] old, Moses, and his people, saying,
Where is [c] he that brought them up out of the sea with the ‖ shepherd of [d] his flock?
[e] Where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?
That led them by the right hand of [12]
Moses [f] with his glorious arm, [g] Dividing the water before them, [h] to make himself an everlasting name?
[i] That led them through the deep, [13]
[k] As a horse [i] in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?
As a beast goeth down into the valley, [14]
The Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest:
So didst thou lead thy people,
[h] To make thyself a glorious name.

[l] Look down from heaven, and be- [15] hold [m] From the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory:

Where is thy zeal and thy strength,
the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies towards me? are they restrained?
Doubtless thou art our father,
Though Abraham be ignorant of us,
And Israel acknowledge us not:
Thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer;
Thy name is from everlasting.
O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways,
And hardened our heart from thy fear?
Return for thy servants' sake,
The tribes of thine inheritance.
The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while:
Our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.
We are thine: thou never barest rule over them;
They were not called by thy name.

Comp. Dan. 8. 24. See ch. 64. 11. Comp. Heb. Thy name was not called upon them. So ch.

O that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down,
That the mountains might flow down at the presence,
As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil,
To make thy name known to thine adversaries,
That the nations may tremble at thy presence.
When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for,
Thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at the presence.
For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear,
Neither hath the eye seen, O God, besides thee,
What he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.
Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness,
Those that remember thee in thy ways:
Behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned:
In those is continuance, and we shall be saved.
But we are all as an unclean thing,
And all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags;

And we all do fade as a leaf;
And our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.
And there is none that calleth upon thy name,
That stirreth up himself to take hold of thee:
For thou hast hid thy face from us,
And hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.
But now, O LORD, thou art our father;
We are the clay, and thou our potter;
And we all are the work of thine hand.
Be not wroth very sore, O LORD,
Neither remember iniquity for ever:
Behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.
Thy holy cities are a wilderness,
Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.
Our holy and our beautiful house,
Where our fathers praised thee,
Is burnt up with fire:
And all our pleasant things are laid waste.
Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD?
Wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

I am sought of them that asked not for me:
I am found of them that sought me not:
I said, Behold me, behold me,
Unto a nation that was not called by my name.
I have spread out mine hands all the day unto a rebellious people,
Which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;
A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face;
That sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick;
Which remain among the graves,
And lodge in the monuments,
Which eat swine's flesh,
And broth of abominable things is in their vessels;
Which say, Stand by thyself,
Come not near to me; for I am holier than thou.
These are a smoke in my nose,
A fire that burneth all the day.

Or, anger. So ch. 1. 31. & 9. 18.

Behold, [r] it is written before me:
[s] I will not keep silence, but [t] will recompense,
Even recompense [u] into their bosom,
[v] Your iniquities, and [x] the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD,
[y] Which have burnt incense upon the mountains,
[z] And blasphemed me upon the hills:
Therefore will I measure their former [a] work [u] into their bosom.

Thus saith the LORD,
[b] As the [c] new wine is found in the cluster,
And one saith, Destroy it not; for [d] a blessing is in it:
So will I do [e] for [u] my servants' sakes,
[b] That I may not destroy them all.
And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob,
And [f] out of Judah [g] an inheritor of my mountains:
And mine [h] elect shall [g] inherit it,
And my servants shall dwell there.
And [i] Sharon shall be a fold of [k] flocks,
And [l] the valley of Achor a place for [k] the herds to lie down in,
For my people that have sought me.

But ye are they that [m] forsake the LORD,
That forget [n] my holy mountain,
That prepare [o] a table for that ‖ [p] troop,
And that furnish [q] the drink offering unto that ‖ number.
Therefore [r] will I number you to the sword,
And ye shall all bow down to the slaughter:
[s t] Because when I called, ye did not answer;
[s t] When I spake, ye did not hear;
[s] But did evil before mine eyes,
[s] And did choose that wherein I delighted not.
Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD,
Behold, [u v] my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry:
Behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty:
Behold, [u w] my servants [x] shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:
Behold, my servants [x] shall sing [y] for joy of heart,
But ye shall cry for sorrow of heart,
And [z] shall howl for † vexation of spirit.

And ye shall leave your name [a] for a curse unto [b] my chosen:
For the Lord GOD shall slay thee,
And [c] call his servants by [d] another name:
That he who blesseth himself in the earth [e] shall bless himself in [f] the God of [f] truth;
And he that sweareth in the earth [g] shall swear [h] by [f] the God of truth;
Because [i] the former troubles are forgotten,
And because they are hid from mine eyes.

For, behold, [k] I create [e] new heavens and a new earth:
And the former shall not be remembered, nor [†] come into mind.
But be you glad and rejoice [l] for ever in that which I create:
For behold, [m] I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.
And [n] I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people:
And [o] the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.
There shall be no more thence an infant of days,
Nor an old man that hath not filled his days:
For [p] the child shall die an hundred years old;
But [q] the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.
And [r] they shall build houses, and inhabit them;
And [r s] they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.
[r] They shall not build, and [d] another inhabit;
[r s] They shall not plant, and [d] another eat:
For [†] as the days of a tree are the days of my people,
And [b] mine elect [†] shall long enjoy [u] the work of their hands.
[v] They shall not labour in vain,
Nor [w] bring forth for [x] trouble;
For [y] they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD,
And their [z] offspring with them.
And it shall come to pass, that [a] before they call, I will answer;
And [b] whiles they are yet speaking, I will hear.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

JEREMIAH.

Before CHRIST about 629.

I.

1 THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, [a]of the priests that were in [b]Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: 2 to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of [c]Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, [d]in the thirteenth year of his reign. 3 It came also in the days of [e]Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, [f]unto the end of the eleventh year of [g]Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, [h]unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive [hi]in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 5 Before I [j]formed thee in the belly [k]I knew thee; and [l]before thou camest forth out of the womb I [m]sanctified thee, and I [t]ordained thee a prophet [n]unto the nations. 6 Then said I, [o]Ah, Lord GOD, behold, I cannot speak: for [p]I am a child. 7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and [q]whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. 8 [rs]Be not afraid of their faces: for [stu]I am with thee [t]to deliver thee, saith the LORD. 9 Then [v]the LORD put forth his hand, and [w]touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, [x]I have put my words in thy mouth. 10 See, I have this day set thee [n]over the nations and over the kingdoms, [y]to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see [z]a rod of an almond tree. 12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for [a]I will hasten my word to perform it. 13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see [b]a seething [c]pot; and the face thereof is [†]towards 14 [d]the north. Then the LORD said unto me, [d]Out of the north an evil [†]shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of 15 the land. For lo, I will call [e]all the families of the kingdoms [d]of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and [f]they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities 16 of Judah. And [g]I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, [hi]who have forsaken me, [h]and [j]have burnt incense unto other gods, and [k]worshipped the works of 17 their own hands. Thou therefore [l]gird up thy loins, and arise, and [m]speak unto them all that I command thee: [n]be not dismayed at their faces, lest I [‖]confound 18 thee before them. For behold, I have [o]made thee this day [pr]a defenced city, and [q]an iron pillar, and [r]brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against 19 the people of the land. [r]And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; [rs]for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

Moreover the word of the LORD came 2 to me, saying, Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember [‖]thee, the kindness of [a]thy youth, [b]the love of thine espousals, [c]when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, [d]in a land that was not sown. 3 [e]Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and [f]the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him [g]shall offend; [h]evil shall 4 come upon them, saith the LORD. Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of

Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel: Thus saith the LORD, 5
[i]What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and [k]have walked after [l]vanity, and [km]are become vain? Neither said they, 6
Where is the LORD [n]that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, [o]that led us through the wilderness, through [p]a land of deserts and of [q]pits, through [p]a land of [r]drought, and of [s]the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?
And I brought you into [lt]a plentiful 7 country, to eat [u]the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye [v]defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination. The 8 priests said not, Where is the LORD? and [w]they that handle the law knew me not: [x]the pastors also transgressed against me, and [xx]the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after [y]things that do not profit. Wherefore I [z]will 9
yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and [a]with your children's children will I plead. [aa]For pass [ll]over the isles of 10
[b]Chittim, and see; and send unto [c]Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing. [d]Hath a nation changed 11 their gods, [e]which are yet no gods? but my people [f]have changed their glory for [g]that which doth not profit. Be astonished, [h]O ye heavens, at this, and be 12 horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD. For my people have 13 committed two evils; [ik]they have forsaken me [kl]the fountain of [m]living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.
[n]Is Israel a servant? is he [o]a home- 14
born slave? why is he [t]spoiled? [p]The 15
young lions roared upon him, and [t]yelled, and [q]they made his land waste: [r]his cities are burnt [qs]without inhabitant.
Also the children of [t]Noph and [u]Taha- 16 panes [ll]have broken the crown of thy head. [w]Hast thou not procured this 17 unto thyself, [i]in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, [x]when he led thee by the way? And now [y]what hast thou 18 to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of [z]Sihor? or [a]what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the 19 waters of [b]the river? [c]Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy [d]backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and [e]bitter, [f]that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts.
For of old time [g]I have broken thy 20 yoke, and [g]burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not [ll]transgress; when [hi]upon every high hill and under every green tree [k]thou wanderest, [il]playing the harlot. Yet [m]I had planted thee [n]a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into [o]the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? For 21 though [p]thou wash thee with [q]nitre, and take thee much [r]sope, yet thine iniquity is [s]marked before me, saith the Lord GOD. [t]How canst thou say, I am not 22 polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way [tt]in the valley, know what thou hast done: [ll]thou art [u]a swift [uu]dromedary traversing her ways; [llvw]a wild 23 ass [t]used to the wilderness, that [v]snuffeth up the wind at [t]her pleasure; in her [x]occasion who can [ll]turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; [y]in her month they shall find 24 her. Withhold [z]thy foot from being 25 unshod, and thy throat [a]from thirst: [b]but thou saidst, [ll][c]There is no hope: no; for I have loved [d]strangers, and after them will I go. As the thief is 26 ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, [dd]their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, saying to [e]a stock, 27 Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast [ll]brought me forth: for they have turned [t]their back unto me, and not their face: but [ee]in the time of their [f]trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. But [g]where are thy gods that thou 28 hast made thee? let them arise, [h]if they can save thee in the time of thy [tf]trouble: [i]for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah. [k]Where- 29
fore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

LORD. [o]Have I been a wilderness unto again? shall not that [b]land be greatly polluted? but thou hast [c]played the har-

Thy way and thy doings [p]have procured these things unto thee;
This is thy wickedness, because [q]it is bitter,
Because it reacheth unto thine heart.

[r]My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at [t]my very heart;
[s]My heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace,
Because thou hast heard, O my soul, [t]the sound of the trumpet, [tt]the alarm of war.
[u]Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled:
Suddenly are [v]my tents spoiled, and [v]my curtains in a moment.
How long shall I see the standard, and hear [t]the sound of the trumpet?
For my people is foolish, [w]they have not known me;
They are sottish children, and they have none understanding:
[x]They are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.
[y]I beheld the earth, and lo, it was [z]without form, and void;
And the heavens, and [a]they had no light.
I beheld [b]the mountains, and lo, they trembled,
And all the hills moved lightly.
I beheld, and lo, [c]there was no man,
And [c]all the birds of the heavens [d]were fled.
I beheld, and lo, [e]the fruitful place was a wilderness,
And all the cities thereof were broken down
At the presence of the LORD, and by his [f]fierce anger.

For thus hath the LORD said,
The whole land shall be desolate;
Yet [g]will I not make a full end.
For this [h]shall the earth mourn, and [ai]the heavens above be black:
Because I have spoken it, I have purposed it,
And [k]will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.
The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and [l]bowmen;
They shall go into thickets, and climb up upon [m]the rocks:
Every city shall be forsaken, and [n]not a man dwell therein.

And [o]when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do?
Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou [p]deckest thee with ornaments of gold,
Though thou rentest [q]thy [t]face with painting, in vain [r]shalt thou make thyself fair;
Thy [s]lovers [t]will despise thee, they will seek thy life.
For I have heard a voice as of [u]a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child,
The voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that [v]spreadeth her hands, [w]Saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

[a]Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and [b]seek in the broad places thereof, [c]if ye can find a man, [d]if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; [e]and I will pardon it. And [f]though they say, [g]The LORD liveth; [h]surely [i]they swear falsely. O LORD, are not [k]thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast [lm]stricken them, but they have not [m]grieved; thou hast consumed them, but [n]they have refused to receive correction: [o]they have made their faces harder than a rock; [oo]they have refused to return. Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; [p]they are foolish: for [q]they know not the way of the LORD, nor [q]the judgment of their God.
I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for [q]they have known the way of the LORD, and [q]the judgment of their God: but [r]these have altogether broken the yoke, and [rr]burst the bonds. Wherefore [s]a lion [t]out of the forest shall slay them, and [u]a wolf of the [ll]evenings shall spoil them, [v]a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their [w]backslidings [tx]are increased. [y]How shall I pardon thee for this? [yy]thy children have forsaken me, and [z]sworn by [a]them that are no gods: [b]when I had fed them to the full, [bb]they then committed adultery, and [c]assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. as fed horses in the morning: every one [d]neighed [e]after his neighbour's wife.
9 [f]Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?
10 [g]Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but [h]make not a full end: take away her [i]battlements; for they are not the LORD'S.
11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah [k]have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.
12 [l]They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; [m]neither shall we see sword nor famine:
13 and the prophets shall become [n]wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.
14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, [o]I will make my words in thy mouth [p]fire, and this people [p]wood, and it shall devour them.
15 Lo, I will bring [q]a nation upon you [r]from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is [s]a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, [q]a nation whose language thou knowest not, [t]neither understandest what they say.
16 [u]Their quiver is as [v]an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.
17 And [w]they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy [x]fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.
18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I [h]will not make a full end with you.
19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, [y]Wherefore doth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as [z]ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so [a]shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.
20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,
21 Hear now this, O [bb]foolish people, and without [t][dd]understanding; [c]which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:
22 [dd]fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the [e]bound of the sea by a perpetual [ee]decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof [f]toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though [ff]they roar, yet can they not pass over it?
23 But this people hath [g]a revolting and a rebellious heart;
24 they are revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, [gg]that giveth rain, both [h]the former and [i]the latter, in his season: [k]he reserveth unto us [l]the appointed weeks of the harvest.
25 Your iniquities have turned away [m]these things, and your sins have withholden [m]good 26 things from you. For among my people are found wicked men: [l][n]they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.
27 As a [l]cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great,
28 and waxen rich. [o]They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: [p]they judge not the cause, the cause of [p]the fatherless, [q]yet they prosper; and the right of the needy
29 do they not judge. [r]Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?
30 [l]A wonderful and [s]horrible thing is 31 committed in the land; [t]the prophets prophesy [u]falsely, and the priests [l]bear rule [v]by their means; and [w]my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

VI.

O ye children of Benjamin, [b]gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and [c]blow the trumpet in [d]Tekoa, and set up [e]a sign of fire in [f]Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth [g]out
2 of the north, and great destruction.
3 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a [l]comely and [h]delicate woman. [i]The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; [l]they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall
4 feed every one in his [m]place. [n]Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up [o]at noon. Woe unto us! for [p]the day goeth away, for the shadows
5 of the evening are stretched out.
6 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces. For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, [q]Hew ye down trees, and [l][r]cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city [s]to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst
7 of her. [t]As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: [u][v]violence and [v]spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief

Jerusalem, lest [w] my soul [t] depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land [x] not inhabited.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, [y] They 9 shall throughly glean [z] the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.
[a] To whom shall I speak, and give 10 warning, that they may hear? behold, [b] their ear is uncircumcised, and [c] they cannot hearken: behold, [d] the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am 11 full of the fury of the LORD; [e] I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out [f] upon the children abroad, and upon [g] the assembly of [f h] young men together: for even the husband with the wife [i] shall be taken, [h] the aged with him that is full of days. And [k l] their 12 houses shall be turned unto others, with their [l] fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.
For [m] from the least of them even unto 13
the greatest of them [n] every one is given to covetousness; and [o] from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. They have healed also the 14 [t] hurt [p] of the daughter of my people slightly, [q] saying, Peace, peace; when [r] there is no peace. [s] Were they asham- 15
ed when they had committed abomination? nay, [t] they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: [s] therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.
Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the 16 ways, and see, and ask for [u] the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, [v] and ye shall find [w] rest for your souls. [x] But they said, We will not walk therein. Also I set [x x] watch- 17 men over you, [y] saying, Hearken to the sound of [z] the trumpet. But they said,
We will not hearken. Therefore hear, 18
ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. [a] Hear, O earth: 19 behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even [b] the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected
it. [c] To what purpose cometh there to 20 me [d] incense from [e] Sheba, and [f] the sweet cane from a far country? [g] your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor 21 your sacrifices sweet unto me. Therefore thus saith the LORD, [gg] Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour 22 and his friend shall perish. Thus saith the LORD, [h] Behold, a people cometh from [i] the north country, and a great nation [k] shall be raised from the sides 23 of the earth. They shall lay hold on bow and [l] spear; they are [m] cruel, and [n] have no mercy; [o] their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, 24 O daughter of Zion. We have heard the fame thereof: [p] our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and [q] pain, as of a woman in travail.
25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk
by the way; for the sword of the enemy 26 and [r] fear is on every side. O daughter of my people, [s] gird thee with sackcloth, and [t] wallow thyself [u] in ashes: make thee [v] mourning, as for an only son, most [w] bitter lamentation: for the spoiler 27 shall suddenly come upon us. I have set thee for [x] a tower and [y] a fortress among my people, that thou mayest 28 know and [z] try their way. [a] They are all grievous revolters, [b] walking with slanders: they are [c] brass and iron; they 29 are all [d] corrupters. The bellows are burnt, [e] the lead is consumed of the fire; [e] the founder melteth in vain: for [f] the wicked are not plucked away.

not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? The 18 children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women [g] knead their dough, [h] to make cakes to the [‖i] queen of heaven, and [hk] to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, [l] that they may provoke me to anger. [m] Do 19 they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: [n] do they not provoke themselves [o] to the confusion of their own faces? Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; 20
Behold, [p] mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, [pp] and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, [pq] and shall not be quenched.

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; [r] Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and [rr] eat flesh.
22 [s] For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, [t†] concerning burnt offerings or sacri-
23 fices: but this thing commanded I them, saying, [su] Obey my voice, and [v] I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and [w] walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that [x] it may 24 be well unto you. [y] But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, [y] but [z] walked in the counsels and [a] in the [‖] imagination of their evil heart, and [†b] went backward, and not forward.
25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, [c] I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, [cd] daily
26 rising up early and sending them: [e] yet they hearkened not unto me, [e] nor inclined their ear, but [f] hardened their neck: [g] they did worse than their fa-
27 thers. Therefore [h] thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: [i] thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer
28 thee. But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, [k] nor receiveth [‖] correction: [l] truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.
29 [m] Cut off thine [n] hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on [o] high places; for the LORD
30 hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: [p] they have set their abominations in the house [q] which is called 31 by my name, [p] to pollute it. [r] And they have built the high places of [s] Tophet, which is in [t] the valley of the son of Hinnom, [u] to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; [rv] which I commanded them not, neither [†] came it into 32 my heart. [w] Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called [s] Tophet, nor [t] the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: [x] for they shall bury 33 in Tophet, till there be no place. And [y] the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; [z] and none 34 shall [a] fray them away. Then will [b] I

VIII.

At that time, saith the LORD, [a]they shall bring out the bones of [b]the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves: and [c]they shall spread 2 them before [d]the sun, and the moon, and [d]all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and [de]whom they have worshipped: [f]they shall not be gathered, [g]nor be buried; [h]they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth. And [i]death shall be chosen ra- 3 ther than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all [k]the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

Moreover thou shalt say unto them, 4 Thus saith the LORD; [l]Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return? Why then is this people of 5 Jerusalem [m]slidden back by a perpetual [n]backsliding? [o]they hold fast deceit, [p]they refuse to return. I [q]hearkened 6 and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to [r]his course, as the horse [s]rusheth [t]into the battle. Yea, [u]the 7 [v]stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and [y]the turtle and [z]the crane and [z]the swallow observe the time of their coming; but [u a]my people know not the judgment of the LORD. How do ye say, We are wise, and [b]the 8 law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly [‖]in vain made he it; [c]the pen of the scribes is in vain. [‖d]The wise 9 men are ashamed, they are dismayed and [e]taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and [f]what wisdom is in them? Therefore [f]will I give 10 their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. For they have 11 healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. Were they 12 ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, [g]they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD. I will surely consume them, saith 13 the LORD: [h]there shall be [ik]no grapes on the vine, [k]nor figs on the fig tree, and [l]the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. Why do we sit still? [m]assemble 14 yourselves, and [m]let us enter into the defenced cities, and [n]let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us [o]water of [‖]gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. [p] We looked for 15 peace, but no good came; and for a time of [q]health, and behold trouble. [r]The snorting of his horses was heard 16 [s]from Dan: [t]the whole land trembled at the sound of [u]the neighing of [v]his strong ones; for they are come, and [vv]have devoured the land, and [†]all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein. For behold, [w]I will send ser- 17 pents, [x]cockatrices, among you, which will not be [y]charmed, and [z]they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

When I would comfort myself against 18 sorrow, [a]my heart is faint [†]in me. Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter 19 of my people [†]because of them that dwell in [c]a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not [b]her king in her? Why have they [d]provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with 20 strange vanities? The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved. [e]For the hurt of [ef]the daughter of my 21 people am I hurt; [g]I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me. Is there no 22 [h]balm in Gilead; is there no physician there? why then is not [i]the health of [f]the daughter of my people [†]recovered?

[†]O [a]that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, That I might weep day and night for the slain of [b]the daughter of my people!

O that I had in the wilderness a 2 lodging place of [bb]wayfaring men;
That I might leave my people, and go from them!
For [c]they be all adulterers, [d]an assembly of [e]treacherous men.
And [f]they bend their tongues like 3 their bow for lies:
But [g]they are not valiant for [h]the truth upon the earth;
For they proceed from evil to evil,
And [hi]they know not me, saith the LORD.
[l]neighbour,
And [k]trust ye not in any brother:
For every brother [l]will utterly supplant,
And every neighbour [m]will walk with slanders.
And they will [l]deceive every one his 5 neighbour,
And will not speak the truth:
They have taught their tongue to speak lies,
And weary themselves [n]to commit iniquity.
Thine habitation is in the midst of 6 deceit;
[o]Through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.
Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, 7
Behold, I will [p]melt them, and [q]try
them;
For [r]how shall I do for [b]the daughter of my people?
[fs]Their tongue is as an arrow shot 8 out; [t]it speaketh deceit:
One [u]speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth,
But [t]in heart [v]he layeth [l]his wait.
[w]Shall I not visit them for these 9 things? saith the LORD: Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

For the mountains will I take up a 10
weeping and wailing,
And [x]for the [ly]habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, Because they are [lz]burnt up, so that none can pass through them;
Neither can men hear the voice of the cattle;
[t]Both [a]the fowl of the heavens and the beast
[a]Are fled; they are gone.
And I will make Jerusalem [b]heaps, 11
and [c]a den of [d]dragons;
And I will make the cities of Judah
[t]desolate, without an inhabitant.

[e]Who is the wise man, that may un- 12 derstand this?
And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it,
For what the land perisheth
And [f]is burnt up like a wilderness, 13 that none passeth through?
And the LORD saith, Because [g]they have forsaken my law which I set before them,
And have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;
But [h]have walked after the [lh]imagi- 14
nation of their own heart,
And after Baalim, [i]which their fathers taught them:
Therefore thus saith the LORD of 15
hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, [k]I will feed them, even this people, [l]with wormwood, And [m]give them water of gall to drink.
[n]I [o]will scatter them also among the 17 heathen, [p]whom neither they nor their fathers have known:
And [nq]I will send a sword after them,
till I have consumed them.
Thus saith the LORD of hosts, 17
Consider ye, and call for [r]the mourning women, that they may come;
And send for cunning women, that they may come:
And let them make haste, and take 18
up a wailing for us,
That [s]our eyes may run down with tears,
And our eyelids gush out with waters.
For a voice of wailing is heard out 19
of Zion, [t]How are we spoiled!
We are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, Because our dwellings have [u]cast us out.
Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye 20
women,
And let your ear receive the word of his mouth,
And teach your daughters wailing,
And every one her neighbour lamentation.
For death is come up into our win- 21
dows, and is entered into our palaces,
To cut off [v]the children [w]from without, and [v]the young men [w]from the streets.

Speak, Thus saith the LORD, 22
Even the carcases of men shall fall
[x]as dung upon the open field,
And as [y]the handful after the harvest-man, and [z]none [x]shall gather them.

Thus saith the LORD, 23
[ab]Let not the wise man glory
in his wisdom,
Neither let the mighty man glory in his might,
Let not the rich man glory in his riches:
[b]But [c]let him that glorieth 24 glory in this,
That he understandeth and [d]knoweth me,
That I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth:
For [e]in these things I delight, saith
the LORD.
Behold, [f]the days come, saith the 25
LORD,
That [g]I will [†]punish all them which are [g]circumcised with the uncircumcised;
[h]Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and 26
the children of Ammon, and Moab,
And all that are [†]in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness:
For all these nations are uncircumcised,
And all the house of Israel [i]are uncircumcised in the heart.

X.

Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:
Thus saith the LORD, 2
Learn not the way of the heathen,
And [a]be not dismayed at the signs of heaven;
For the heathen are dismayed at them.
For the [†c]customs of the people are 3 vain:
For [d]one cutteth a tree out of the forest,
The work of the hands of the workman, [e]with the axe.
[f]They deck it with silver and with 4
gold;
[g]They fasten it with nails and with hammers, [gh]that it move not.
They are [i]upright as [k]the palm tree, 5
[l]but speak not:
[m]They must needs be borne, because they cannot go.
Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil,
[n]Neither also is it in them to do good.
Forasmuch as there is [o]none like unto 6
thee, O LORD;
[o]Thou art great, and thy name is great in might.
[p]Who would not fear thee, [q]O King 7 of nations? for [‖]to thee doth it ap-pertain:
Forasmuch as among all [r]the wise men of the nations, and [s]in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.
But they are [†]altogether [t]brutish and 8
[u]foolish:
[v]The stock is a doctrine of vanities.
Silver [w]spread into plates is brought 9
from [x]Tarshish,
And gold from [y]Uphaz, the work of [w]the workman, and of the hands of [w]the founder:
[z]Blue and [a]purple is their clothing:
[b]They are all the work of cunning
men.
But the LORD is the [†]true God, 10
He is [c]the living God, and an [†]everlasting king:
At his wrath the earth shall tremble,
And the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.
[†]Thus shall ye say unto them, [d]The 11 gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even [e]they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.
[fg]He hath made the earth by his 12
power, [h]He hath established the world by his wisdom,
And [i]hath stretched out the heavens
by his discretion.
[ii]When he [k]uttereth his voice, there is 13
a [l]multitude of waters in the heavens,
And [kk]he causeth [l]the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth;
[ll]He maketh lightnings [l]with rain,
And [kk]bringeth forth the wind out of [m]his treasures.
Every man [n†]is brutish in his know- 14
ledge:
Every founder [o]is confounded by the graven image:
For his molten image [p]is falsehood, and [q]there is no breath in them.

The LORD called thy name, ʷA green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great ˣtumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and ʸthe branches of it are broken. For the LORD of hosts, ᶻthat planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves ᵃto provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal. And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings. But I was ᵇlike a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that ᶜthey had devised devices against me, ᵈ*saying*, ᵉLet us destroy †ᵍthe tree with the fruit thereof, and ʰlet us cut him off from ⁱthe land of the living, ʲthat his name may be no more remembered. But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, ᵏthat ˡtriest the reins and ᵐthe heart, ⁿlet me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of °Anathoth, ᵖthat seek thy life, saying, ᑫProphesy not in the name of the LORD, ʳthat thou die not by our hand: therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will †punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine: and there shall be no remnant of them: for ˢI will bring evil upon the men of °Anathoth, even ˢᵗthe year of their visitation.

ᵃRighteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet ‖let me ᵇtalk with thee of thy judgments. ᶜWherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they ᵈhappy that ᵉdeal very treacherously? How long shall ⁿthe land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, °for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? ᵖthe beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou ᵖᵖcontend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in ᑫthe swelling of Jordan? For even ʳthy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have ᵉdealt treacherously with thee; yea, ‖they have called a multitude after thee: ˢbelieve them not, though they speak †fair words unto thee.

I have forsaken mine house, I have left ᵗmine heritage; I have given †the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. ᵗ Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it ‖†crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it. And it shall come to pass, if they will 16 diligently learn the ways of my people, [k] to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall [l] they be built in the midst of my people. But [m] if 17 they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

XIII. About B. C. 602.

Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee [a] a linen [b] girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. [c] So I got a girdle, according to the word 2 of the LORD, and put it on my loins. And the word of the LORD came unto 3 me the second time, saying, Take the 4 girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in [d] a hole of the rock. So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as 5 the LORD commanded me. And it came 6 to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. Then 7 I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and behold, the girdle [e] was marred, it [f] was profitable for nothing. Then the word of the LORD 8 came unto me, saying, Thus saith the 9 LORD, [g] After this manner will I [e] mar [h] the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. This evil people, which 10 refuse to hear my words, which [i] walk in the [ii] imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which [f] is good for nothing. For 11 as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; [k] that they might be unto me for a people, and [lmn] for a name, and [lno] for a praise, and [l] for a glory: but they would not hear.

Therefore thou shalt speak unto them 12 this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [p] Every bottle [q] shall be filled with wine: and [r] they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus 13 saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even [s] the kings that sit upon David's throne, and [s] the priests, and [s] the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, [t] with 14 drunkenness. And [u] I will dash them [†] one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, [†] but destroy them.

Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: 15 16 for the LORD hath spoken. [v] Give glory to the LORD your God, before [w] he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while [x] ye look for light, he turn it into [y] the shadow of death, and make it [z] gross darkness. 17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your [a] pride; and [b] mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's 18 flock is carried away captive. Say unto [c] the king and to [cd] the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your [‖] principalities shall come down, even [e] the crown 19 of your glory. The cities of the south shall be [f] shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried 20 away captive. Lift up your eyes, and behold [g] them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, 21 thy beautiful flock? What wilt thou say when he shall [†] punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be [h] captains, and as [i] chief over thee: [k] shall not sorrows 22 take thee, as a woman in travail? And if thou say in thine heart, [l] Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are [m] thy skirts discovered, and thy heels [‖] made 23 bare. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or [n] the leopard his spots? [o] then may ye also do good, that are [†] accus- 24 tomed to do evil. Therefore will I scatter them [p] as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness. 25 [q] This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because [r] thou hast forgotten me, and 26 trusted in [s] falsehood. Therefore will I discover [mt] thy skirts upon thy face, that 27 [u] thy shame may appear. I have seen thine adulteries, and thy [v] neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations [w] on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! [x] wilt thou not be made clean? [†] when shall it once be?

XIV. About B.C. 601.

The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah [a]concerning [†b]the dearth.

Judah mourneth, and [c]the gates thereof [d]languish;
[e]They are black unto the ground;
And [f]the cry of Jerusalem [g]is gone up.
And their nobles have sent [h]their little ones to the waters:
They came to the pits, and found no water;
They returned with their vessels empty;
[i]They were ashamed and confounded, and [k]covered their heads.
Because the ground is chapt,
For [l]there was no rain in the earth,
The plowmen were ashamed, [k]they covered their heads.
Yea, [m]the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it,
Because there was no grass.
And [n]the wild asses did stand in the high places,
[n]They snuffed up the wind like [o]dragons;
Their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it [p]for thy name's sake: for [q]our backslidings are many; [r]we have sinned against thee. [s]O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as [t]a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night? Why shouldest thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man [u]that cannot save? yet [v]thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and [†w]we are called by thy name; [x]leave us not. Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore [y]the LORD doth not accept them; [yz]he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. Then said the LORD unto me, [a]Pray not for this people [b]for their good. [c]When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and [d]when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but [e]I will consume them by [f]the sword, and by [f]the famine, and by [f]the pestilence.

[g]Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you [†]assured [h]peace in this place. Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets [i]prophesy lies in my name: [j]I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and [k]divination, and a thing of nought, and [l]the deceit of their heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and [j]I sent them not, [m]yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; [n]By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and [o]they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them. Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them;

[p]Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and [q]let them not cease:
For the virgin [r]daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very [s]grievous blow.
If I go forth into [t]the field, then behold the slain with the sword:
And if I enter [t]into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine:
Yea, [u]both the prophet and the priest [‖v]go about [vv]into a land that they know not.
[w]Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion?
Why hast thou smitten us, and [x]there is no healing for us?
[y]We looked for peace, and there is no good;
And [y]for the time of healing, and behold trouble.
We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers:
[z]For we have sinned against thee.
Do not abhor us, [a]for thy name's sake,
Do not disgrace the throne of thy glory:
[b]Remember, break not thy covenant with us.
[c]Are there any among [d]the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain?
Or can the heavens give [e]showers?
[f]Art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee:
For thou hast made [g]all these things.

XV.

Then said the LORD unto me, [a]Though [b c]Moses and [b d]Samuel [a]stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. And it shall 2 come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; [e]Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. And [f]I will ap- 3 point over them four [†]kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and [g]the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy. And [†]I will cause them 4 to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of [h]Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. For who shall 5 have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or [i]who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside [†]to ask how thou doest? [k]Thou hast forsaken me, saith the 6 LORD, thou art [l]gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; [m]I am weary with repenting. And I will [n]fan them 7 with [o]a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them [p]of [‖]children, I will destroy my people, sith [q]they return not from their ways. Their wi- 8 dows are increased to me [r]above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them [‖]against the mother of the young men a spoiler [s]at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and [t]terrors upon the city. [u]She that 9 hath borne seven languisheth: [v]she hath given up the ghost; [w]her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

[x]Woe is me, my mother, that thou 10 hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither [y]lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me. The LORD 11 said, Verily [z]it shall be well with thy remnant; verily [‖a]I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil, and in the time of affliction. Shall 12 iron break [b]the northern iron and [c]the steel? [d]Thy substance and thy 13 treasures will I give to the spoil [e]without price, and that for all thy sins, [d]even in all thy borders. And I will make 14 thee to pass with thine enemies into [f]a land which thou knowest not: [g]for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

[h]O LORD, thou knowest: [i]remember 15 me, and visit me, and [ik]revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: [kk]know that [l]for thy sake I have suffered rebuke. Thy words 16 were found, and [m]I did eat them; and [n]thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for [†]I am called by thy name, O LORD God of 17 hosts. [o]I sat not in [p]the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; [pp]I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast 18 filled me with indignation. Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound [q]incurable, which [r]refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me [s]as a liar, and [s]as waters that [†]fail?

Therefore thus saith the LORD, [t]If 19 thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt [tu]stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but 20 return not thou unto them. And I [v]will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but [w]they shall not prevail against thee: [x]for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, 21 saith the LORD. And [w]I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of [y]the terrible.

The word of the LORD came also 2 unto me, saying, Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have 3 sons nor daughters in this place. For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in 4 this land; they shall die of grievous [a]deaths; [b]they shall not be lamented; [b]neither shall they be buried; but [c]they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and [d]they shall be consumed [a]by the sword, and [a]by famine; and [c]their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. For thus said the LORD, 5 [f] Enter not into the house of [‖] mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies. Both the 6 great and the small shall die in this land: [b] they shall not be buried, [b] neither shall men lament for them, nor [g] cut themselves, nor [h] make themselves bald for them: neither shall men [‖] tear 7 themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. Thou shalt not also go 8 into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. For thus 9 saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, [i] I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. And it shall come to pass, when thou 10 shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, [k] Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? [l] Then shalt thou say unto them, 11

Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and [m] have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; and ye have done [n] worse than your 12 fathers; for behold, [m] ye walk every one after the [‖] imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me: [o] therefore will I [p] cast you out of this 13 land [q] into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

[r] Therefore behold, [s] the days come, 14 saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, [t] The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, [t] The LORD liveth, that 15 brought up the children of Israel [u] from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and [v] I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers. Behold, 16
I will send for many [w] fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of 17
[x] the holes of the rocks. For [y] mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, [z] neither is their 18 iniquity hid from mine eyes. And first [a] I will recompense their iniquity and their sin [b] double; because [bb] they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcases of their 19 detestable and abominable things. O LORD, my strength, and [c] my fortress, and [d] my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, [e] vanity, and things [fg] wherein there is no 20 profit. Shall a man make gods unto 21 himself, and [g] they are no gods? Therefore behold, I will [h] this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that [i] my name is [‖] The LORD.

The sin of Judah is written with [a] a pen of iron, and with the [†] point of [b] a diamond: it is [c] graven upon the table of their heart, and upon [d] the horns of 2 [ef] your altars; whilst [f] their children remember their altars and [g] their groves [h] by the green trees upon the high hills. 3
O [i] my mountain in the field, [j] I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, 4 throughout all thy borders. And thou, even [†] thyself, shalt [k] discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and [l] I will cause thee to serve thine enemies [lm] in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be [n] the 5 man that trusteth in man, and [o] maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth 6 from the LORD. For he shall [p] be like the [q] heath in the desert, and [r] shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in [s] a salt land and [t] not inhabited. 7
[u] Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose [v] hope the LORD is. 8
For [w] he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but [x] her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of ‖drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 [y]The heart is [z]deceitful above all things, and [a]desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the LORD [b]search the heart, I [c]try the reins, even [d]to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As [e]the partridge ‖sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, [g]shall leave them [h]in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be [i]a fool.

12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, [k]the hope of Israel, [l]all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be [m]written in the earth, because [n o]they have forsaken the LORD, [o]the fountain of living waters.

14 [p]Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for [q]thou art my praise.

15 Behold, [r]they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it [s]come now.

16 As for me, [t]I have not [u]hastened from being [v]a pastor [†]to follow thee: neither have I desired the [a]woeful day; [w]thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was [x]right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me: [xx]thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 [y]Let them be confounded that persecute me, but [z]let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and [†a]destroy them with [b]double destruction.

19 Thus said the LORD unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby [c]the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 and say unto them, [d]Hear ye the word of the LORD, [c]ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and [e]bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22 neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, [f]neither do ye any work, but [ff]hallow ye the sabbath day, [g]as I commanded your fathers.

23 [h]But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but [i]made their neck stiff, that they might not hear,

24 nor [k]receive instruction. And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, [e]to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but [f]hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;

25 [l]then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and [m]on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city

26 shall remain for ever. And they shall come from [n]the cities of Judah, and from [n o]the places about Jerusalem, and from [n]the land of Benjamin, and from [n o p]the plain, and from [n]the mountains, and from [n o q]the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing [r]sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

27 But if you will not hearken unto me [f]to hallow the sabbath day, and not [e]to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then [s]will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and [t]it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and [u]it shall not be quenched.

4 ‖[b]wheels. And the vessel ‖that he made of clay [c]was marred in the hand of the potter: so he [†]made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to

5 make it. Then the word of the LORD

6 came to me, saying, O house of Israel, [d]cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, [e]as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine

7 hand, O house of Israel. At what instant I shall speak [f]concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, [f]to pluck up, and to pull down, and to

8 destroy it; if that nation, against whom I have pronounced, [g]turn from their evil, [h]I will repent of the evil that I

9 thought to do unto them. And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, [f]to build would benefit them. Now therefore go 11 to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: [i]return ye now every one from his evil way, and [k]make your ways and your doings good. And they said, 12 [l]There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do [m]the imagination of his evil heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD; 13 [n]Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done [o]a very horrible thing.

Will a man leave [l]the snow of Lebanon 14 which cometh from the rock of the field?
or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place [p]be forsaken?
Because [q]my people hath forgotten me, 15
they have burnt incense to [r]vanity, and they have caused them to stumble
in their ways from the [s]ancient [t]paths, to walk in paths, in a way not [u]cast up;
to make their land [v]desolate, and a per- 16 thereby shall be astonished, and [w]wag his head. I [x]will scatter them as with 17 [y]an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them [z]the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

Then said they, Come, and [a]let us 18 devise devices against Jeremiah; [b]for the law shall not perish [c]from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, [b]nor the word from the prophet. Come, and [d]let us smite him [l]with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.
Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken 19 to the voice of [e]them that contend with me. [f]Shall evil be recompensed for 20 good? for [g]they have digged [h]a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.
Therefore [i]deliver up their children to 21 the famine, and [t]pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and [i]let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle. [j]Let a cry be 22 heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them:
for [g]they have digged a pit to take me,
and [k]hid snares for my feet. Yet, 23
LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me [t]to slay me: [l]forgive [m]not their iniquity, [n]neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; [o]deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

Thus saith the LORD, [a]Go and get [b]a potter's earthen [c]bottle, and take of [d]the ancients of the people, and of [d]the ancients of the priests; and go forth unto [e]the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of [f]the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee, and say, [ee]Hear ye the word of the LORD, [f]O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, [g]his ears shall tingle. Because [h]they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and [h]have burnt incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with [i]the blood of innocents; [k]they have built also the high places of Baal, [l]to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, [klm]which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind: [n]therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called [y]To-phet, nor [e]The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.
And I will [do]make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and [p]I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and [q]their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. And [r]I will make this city desolate, and a hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof. And [s]I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend [t]in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them. Then [u]shalt thou break [c]the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee. [u]And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so [v]will I break this people and this city, [w]as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot [t]be made whole again: and [x]they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city [y]as Tophet:
13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled [y]as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses [z]upon whose [a]roofs they have burnt incense unto [b]all the host of heaven, and [c]have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah [y]from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and [d]he stood in the court of the LORD's house; and said to all the people,
15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because [e]they have hardened their necks, [f]that they might not hear my words.

XX.

1 Now [a]Pashur the son of [ab]Immer the priest, who was also [c]chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.
2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in [d]the stocks that were in the high [e]gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.
3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of [d]the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but [l]Magor-missabib.
4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee [ee]a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.
5 Moreover [f]I will deliver all [g]the strength of this city, and all [h]the labours thereof, and all [i]the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and [f]carry them to Babylon.
6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, [j]to whom thou hast prophesied lies.

7 O LORD, thou hast [k]deceived me, and I was [l][k]deceived:
[l]Thou art stronger than I, and [m]hast prevailed:
I [n]am in derision daily,
Every one mocketh me.
8 For since I spake, I cried out,
I cried [o]violence and spoil;
Because [p]the word of the LORD was made [q]a reproach unto me,
And [q]a derision, daily.
9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him,
Nor speak any more in his name.
But [l]his word was in [r]mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones,
And [s]I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.
10 [t]For I heard the defaming of many, [u]fear on every side.
[v]Report, [w]say they, and we will report it.
[tx]All my familiars [y]watched for [z]my halting, [w]saying,
Peradventure he will be enticed, and [m]we shall prevail against him,
And we shall take our revenge on him.
11 But [a]the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one:
Therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and [b]they shall not prevail:
[c]They shall be greatly ashamed: for they shall not prosper:
Their [d]everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.
12 But, O LORD of hosts, [e]that triest the righteous,
And [e]seest the reins and the heart,
[ef]Let me see thy vengeance on them:
[e]For unto thee have I opened my cause.
13 [g]Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD:
[g]For he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

14 [h]Cursed be the day wherein I was born:
Let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.
15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying,
A man child is born unto thee;
Making him very glad.
16 And let that man be as [i]the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not:
And [k]let him hear the cry in the morning, and [l]the shouting at noontide;

this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, [q]Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city? [r]Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, [r]and worshipped other gods, and served them.

[s]Weep ye not for [t]the dead, neither bemoan him:
But weep sore for [u]him that goeth away:
For he shall return no more,
Nor see his native country.
For thus saith the LORD touching [v]Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, [uw]which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more: but he shall die [w]in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.
[x]Woe unto [y]him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness,
And his [z]chambers by wrong;
[a]That useth his neighbour's service [b]without wages,
And giveth him not for his work;
That saith, I will build me a wide house and [t]large [z]chambers,
And cutteth him out [‖]windows;
And it is [c]cieled with cedar, and painted [d]with vermilion.
Shalt thou reign, because thou [e]closest thyself in cedar?
Did not thy father eat and drink,
And [f]do judgment and justice,
And then [g]it was well with him?
He judged [h]the cause of the poor and needy; then [g]it was well with him:
Was not this [i]to know me? saith the LORD.
[j]But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy [k]covetousness,

And [jl]for oppression, and for [‖]violence, to do it.
Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning [m]Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah;
[n]They shall not lament for him, saying, [o]Ah my brother! or, Ah sister!
They shall not lament for him, saying, [p]Ah lord! or, Ah his glory.
He shall be buried with the burial of an ass,
[q]Drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan,
And cry from [r]the passages:
For all [s]thy lovers are destroyed.
I spake unto thee in thy [t]prosperity;
But thou saidst, I will not hear.
This hath been thy manner [t]from thy youth,
[u]That thou obeyedst not my voice.
The wind shall eat up all [v]thy pastors,
And [s]thy lovers shall go into captivity:
Surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.
O [t]inhabitant of [w]Lebanon, [x]that makest thy nest in the cedars,
How gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee,
[y]The pain as of a woman in travail.

[z]As I live, saith the LORD, though [a]Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were [b]the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

[e]And [f]I will cast thee out, and [g]thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die. But to the land whereunto they [t]desire to return, [h]thither shall they not return.
Is this man [a]Coniah a despised broken idol? is he [i]a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they [k]cast out, he and his seed, and are [e]cast into [l]a land which they know not?
[m]O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD.
Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man [n]childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, [o]sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

them away, and have not visited them: behold, [b] I will visit upon you [c] the evil of your doings, saith the LORD. And 3 [d] I will gather the remnant of my flock [e] out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and [f] they shall be fruitful and increase. And I will set 4 up [g] shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

[h] Behold, [i] the days come, saith the 5 LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous [k] Branch, and [l] a King shall rèign and [m] prosper, and shall execute [n] judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and 6 [o] Israel shall dwell [p] safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, [†q] THE LORD [r] OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. [s] Therefore behold, [i] the days 7 come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, The LORD 8 liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and [e] from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

[ss] Mine heart within me is broken be- 9 cause of the prophets;
[t] All my bones shake;
I am like a drunken man,
And like a man whom wine hath overcome, [t] Because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.
For [u] the land is full of adulterers; 10
For [v] because of [‖] swearing [w] the land mourneth;
[x] The pleasant places of the wilderness [y] are dried up,
And their [‖] course is evil, and their force is not right.
For [z] both prophet and priest are 11
profane;
Yea, [a] in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.
Wherefore [b] their way shall be unto 12 them as slippery ways [c] in the darkness:
They shall be driven on, and fall
therein:
[d] For I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation,
saith the LORD.

And I have seen [‖†e] folly in the pro- 13
phets of [f] Samaria;
[g] They prophesied in Baal,
And [h] caused my people Israel to err.
I have seen also in [i] the prophets of 14
Jerusalem [‖] a horrible thing:
[k] They commit adultery, and [l] walk in lies:
They [m] strengthen also the hands of evildoers,
That none doth return from his wickedness:
They are all of them unto me [n] as Sodom,
And [n] the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.
Therefore thus saith the LORD of 15 hosts concerning [i] the prophets; [o] Behold, I will feed them with [p] wormwood, [o] and make them drink [q] the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is [‖] profaneness gone forth into all the land. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, 16 Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: [r] they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD. They say still unto 17 them that despise me, The LORD hath said, [s] Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the [‖] imagination of his own heart, [t] No evil shall come upon you. For [u] who 18 hath stood in the [‖] counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word?
who hath marked his word, and heard it? [w] Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD 19 is gone forth in fury, even [x] a grievous whirlwind: [w] it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked. [y] The anger 20 of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: [y z] in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly. [a] I have not sent these prophets, 21 yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they 22 had [b] stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have [c] turned them from their evil way, and from [d] the evil of their doings. Am I a God at hand, 23 saith the LORD, and [e] not a God afar off? [f] Can any hide himself in secret 24 places [e] that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. [g] Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD. I have heard 25

what the prophets said, [h]that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I [i]have dreamed, I have dreamed. How long shall 26 this be in the heart of [k]the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are [l]prophets of the deceit of their own heart; which think to cause my people to for- 27 get my name [i]by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, [m]as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal. The prophet [t]that hath 28 a dream, [i]let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD. [n]Is not 29 my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that [o]breaketh the rock in pieces? Therefore behold, [p]I 30 am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour. Behold, I am a- 31 gainst the prophets, saith the LORD, [l]that use their tongues, and say, He saith. Behold, I am against them 32 [i]that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and [q]cause my people to err by their lies, and by their [r]lightness; [s]yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

And when this people, or [t]the pro- 33 phet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is [u]the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? [v]I will even forsake you, saith the LORD. And as for [t]the prophet, and 34 the priest, and the people, that shall say, [u]The burden of the LORD, I will even [t]punish that man and his house. Thus shall ye say every one to his 35 neighbour, and every one to his brother, [w]What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken? And 36 the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of [x]the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God. Thus 37 shalt thou say to the prophet, [w]What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken? But 38 sith ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because you say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD; therefore behold, I, even I, 39 [y]will utterly forget you, and [r]I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out 40 of my presence: and I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and [z]a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

[a]The LORD shewed me, and behold, XXIV. two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that [b]Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive [c]Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and [d]the princes of Judah, with [de]the carpenters and [d]smiths, from Jerusalem, and had 2 brought them to Babylon. One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are [f]first ripe: and the other basket had [ff]very naughty figs, which could not 3 be eaten, [t]they were so bad. Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they 4 are so evil. Again the word of the 5 LORD came unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge [t]them that are carried away captive of Judah, [g]whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans [h]for 6 their good. For I will [gg]set mine eyes upon them [h]for good, and [i]I will bring them again to this land: and [kl]I will build them, and not pull them down; [k]and [m]I will plant them, and not pluck 7 them up. And [n]I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and [o]they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto 8 me [p]with their whole heart. And as [ff]the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give [q]Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and [r]them that dwell in the land of 9 Egypt: and I will deliver them [t][u]to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, [v]to be a reproach and [w]a proverb, [w]a taunt and a [x]curse, in all places whither I shall drive them. 10 And [y]I will send [z]the sword, [z]the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; the which Jeremiah the prophet 2 spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, [b]From the thirteenth year of Jo- 3 siah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, [c]rising early and speaking; [d]but ye have not hearkened. And the 4 LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, [c]rising early and sending them; [d]but ye have not hearkened, nor [e]inclined your ear to hear. They said, [f]Turn ye again now every 5 one [g]from his evil way, and [g]from the evil of your doings, and [h]dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers [h]for ever and ever: and [i]go not after other gods to serve 6 them, and to worship them, and [k]provoke me not to anger with [l]the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. Yet 7 ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might [k]provoke me to anger with [l]the works of your hands to your own hurt.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of 8 hosts; Because ye have not heard my words, Behold, I will send and take 9 all [m]the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, [n]my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and [t]against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them [o]an astonishment, and [o]a hissing, and perpetual desolations. Moreover [t]I will 10 take from them [p]the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, [q r]the sound of the millstones, and [r]the light of the candle. And this whole 11 land shall be [s]a desolation, and [o]an astonishment; and [t]these nations shall serve the king of Babylon [u]seventy years. And it shall come to pass, 12 [v]when *seventy years are accomplished, that I will [t]punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and [w]will make it perpetual desolations. And I will bring upon that 13 land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written [x]in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations. 14 For [y z]many nations and [y z]great kings [y a]shall serve themselves of them also: and [b]I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take [c]the wine cup of this fury at mine hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink 16 it. And [d]they shall drink, and [e]be moved, and be [d f]mad, [f f]because of the sword that I will send among them. 17 Then took I the cup at the LORD'S hand, and [g]made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent 18 me: to wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them [h]a desolation, [i]an astonishment, [i]a hissing, and 19 [j]a curse; as it is this day; [k]Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his 20 princes, and all his people; and all [l]the mingled people, and all the kings of [m]the land of [m]Uz, and all the kings of the land of [n]the Philistines, and [n o]Ashkelon, and [n p]Azzah, and [q]Ekron, and 21 [r]the remnant of Ashdod: [s w]Edom, and [t w]Moab, and the children of [u w]Am- 22 mon, and all the kings of [v w]Tyrus, and all the kings of [v w]Zidon, and the kings of the [l]isles which are beyond 23 [x]the sea, [y]Dedan, and [z]Tema, and [a]Buz, and all that are [t]in the utmost 24 corners, and [c]all the kings of [d]Arabia, and all the kings of [e]the mingled people 25 [f]that dwell in the desert, and all the kings of [g]Zimri, and all the kings of [h]Elam, and all the kings of [i]the Medes, 26 and all the kings of [j]the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of 27 [k]Sheshach shall drink after them. Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; [l m]Drink ye, and [n]be drunken, and [m]spue, and fall, and rise no more, [o]because of the sword which I will send 28 among you. And it shall be, if they refuse to [l]take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [p]Ye 29 shall certainly drink. For lo, I [q]begin to bring evil on the city [t] which is called by my name, and [p] should ye be utterly unpunished? [p] Ye shall not be unpunished: for [r] I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts. Therefore 30 prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them,

[s] The LORD shall roar from on high,
And [t] utter his voice from [u] his holy habitation;
He shall mightily roar upon [v] his habitation;
He shall give a [w] shout, as they that [x] tread the grapes,
Against all the inhabitants of the earth.
A noise shall come even to [w] the ends 31
of the earth;
For [y] the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, [z] He will plead with all flesh;
He will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.
Thus saith the LORD of hosts, 32
Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation,
And [a] a great whirlwind [b] shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.
And [c] the slain of the LORD shall be 33
at that day
From one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth:
[d] They shall not be lamented, [e] neither gathered, [d e] nor buried;
[e] They shall be dung upon the ground.
[f] Howl, [g] ye shepherds, and cry; 34
And wallow yourselves [h] in the ashes, ye principal of the flock:
For [t] the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished.
And ye shall fall like [t] a pleasant vessel.
And [t g] the shepherds shall have no 35
way to flee,
Nor the principal of the flock to escape.

He hath forsaken [m] his covert, as 38

Because of the fierceness of [o] the oppressor,
And [l] because of his fierce anger.

[a] In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying, XXVI.
2 Thus saith the LORD; [b] Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, [c] all the words that I command thee to speak
3 unto them; [d] diminish not a word: [e] if so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that [f] I may repent me [e] of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them [g] because of the evil of 4 their doings. And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; [h] If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law,
5 which I have set before you, [i] to hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, [i] whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them,
6 [i] but ye have not hearkened; then will I make this house [k] like Shiloh, and will make this city [l] a curse [ll] to all the nations of the earth.

7 So [m] the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.
8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that [m] the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.
9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be [k] like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate [n] without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.
10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down [ll] in the entry of [o] the new 11 gate of the LORD's house. Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, [t] This man is worthy to die; [p] for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye
12 have heard with your ears. Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye 13 have heard. Therefore now [q] amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and [f] the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, [r]because thou hast taught [t]rebellion against the LORD. So 17 Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of [a]the elders which were carried away captives, and [b]to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon; (after that [cd]Jeconiah the 2 king, and [ce]the queen, and [c]the [f]eunuchs, [d]the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and [d]the carpenters, and [d]the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;) by the hand 3 of Elasah the son of [g]Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of [g]Hilkiah, [h]whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God 4 of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon; [i]build ye houses, and dwell in 5 them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them; take ye wives, and beget 6 sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished. And seek the 7 peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and [k]pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace. For 8 thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and [l]your diviners, that be in the midst of you, [m]deceive you, neither hearken to [l]your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed. [n]For they prophesy [t]falsely unto you in 9 my name: [n]I have not sent them, saith the LORD. For thus saith the LORD, 10 That [o]after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon [p]I will visit you, and [q]perform my good word towards you, [pq]in causing you to return to this place. For I know the thoughts that I think 11 towards you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, [r]to give you an [t]expected end. Then [s]shall ye call upon 12 me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And [stv]ye 13 shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me [u]with all your heart. And [v]I will be found of you, saith the 14 LORD: and [w]I will turn away your captivity, and [x]I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places [y]whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon; 16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king [z]that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into cap- 17 tivity; thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, [a]I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them [b]like vile figs, that 18 cannot be eaten, they are so evil. And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and [c]will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, [t]to be [de]a curse, and [dfg]an astonishment, and [g]a hissing, and [d]a reproach, [h]among all the nations [i]whither I have driven them: 19 because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, [k]rising up early and sending them; [l]but ye would not hear, saith the LORD. 20 Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, [m]whom I have 21 sent from Jerusalem to Babylon: thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah, the son of Maaseiah, [n]which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your 22 eyes; and [o]of them shall be taken up [p]a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, [q]whom the king of Babylon roasted in 23 the fire; because they have [r]committed villany in Israel, and [s]have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and [ns]have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and [t]am a witness, saith the LORD.

24 Thus shalt thou also speak to She- B.C. 598.

niah the son of [uu]Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, The LORD 26 hath made thee priest in the stead of [v] Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be [w] officers in the house of the LORD, for every man [x]that is mad, and [y] maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in [z] the stocks.
Now therefore why hast thou not re- 27 proved [a] Jeremiah of Anathoth, [y] which maketh himself a prophet to you? For 28 therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: [b] build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And 29 Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. Then 30 came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Send to all them of the 31 captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and [cd] I sent him not, and [c] he caused you to trust in a lie: there- 32 fore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither [e] shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; [f] because he hath taught [†] rebellion against the
LORD.

XXX. The word that came to Jeremiah from
About B.C. 606. the LORD, saying, Thus speaketh the 2
LORD God of Israel, saying, [a] Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. For lo, [aa] the days 3 come, saith the LORD, that [b] I will bring again the captivity of my people [c] Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and [d] I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it. And these are the words that 4 the LORD spake concerning [c] Israel and concerning Judah. For thus saith the 5
LORD;

We have heard a voice of trembling,
[‖] Of fear, and not of peace.
Ask ye now, and see whether [†] a man 6 doth travail with child?
Wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, [e] as a woman in travail,
And [f] all faces are turned into pale-
ness?
Alas! for [g] that day is great, [h] so that 7
none is like it:
It is even the time of Jacob's trouble;
But he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass [i] in that day, saith the LORD of hosts,
That [j] I will break his [k] yoke from off thy neck,
And [jl] will burst [j] thy bonds,
And [m] strangers shall no more [l] serve themselves of him:
9 But they shall serve the LORD their God,
And [n] David their king, [o] whom I will raise up unto them.
10 [p] Therefore [q] fear thou not, O [r] my servant Jacob, saith the LORD;
Neither be dismayed, O Israel:
[p] For lo, I will save thee from afar,
And thy seed [s] from the land of their captivity;
[p] And Jacob shall return,
[p] And shall be in rest, and [t] be quiet,
[pu] And none shall make him afraid.
11 [qv] For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee:
[vw] Though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, [vwx] Yet will I not make a full end of thee:
But I will correct thee [y] in measure,
[v] And [yy] will not leave thee altogether unpunished.
12 For thus saith the LORD,
Thy bruise is [z] incurable,
And [a] thy wound is grievous.
13 There is none to plead thy cause, [†] that thou mayest be bound up:
[c] Thou hast no healing medicines.
14 [d] All thy lovers have forgotten thee;
They seek thee not;
For I have wounded thee with the wound of [e] an enemy, with the chastisement of [f] a cruel one,
[ff] For the multitude of thine iniquity;
Because thy sins [g] were increased.
15 Why criest thou for thine affliction?
[h] Thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity:
Because thy sins [g] were increased, I have done these things unto thee.
16 [i] Therefore all [k] they that devour thee [l] shall be devoured;
And all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity;
And [m] they that spoil thee shall be [n] a spoil,
And all that prey upon thee will I give [n] for a prey.

For [o]I will restore health unto thee, 17
And [p]I will heal thee of thy wounds,
saith the LORD;
Because they called thee [q]an Outcast, saying,
This is Zion, [r]whom no man seeketh after.

Thus saith the LORD: 18
Behold, [s]I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents,
And [t]have mercy on his dwelling places;
And the city shall be builded upon her own [u]heap,
And the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.
And out of them shall proceed 19
[v]thanksgiving and the voice of [w]them that make merry:
And [w]I will multiply them, and they shall not be few;
I will also [xy]glorify them, and [y]they shall not be small.
Their children also shall be [z]as afore- 20 time,
And their congregation shall be established before me,
And I will punish all that oppress them.
And [a]their nobles shall be of themselves, 21
And [a]their governor shall proceed from the midst of them;
And I will [b]cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me:
For [c]who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.
And [d]ye shall be my people, and I 22 will be your God.
[e]Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD 23
goeth forth with fury,
A [f]continuing whirlwind:
[e]It shall [g]fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.
[f]The fierce [g]anger of the LORD shall 24 not return, until he have done it,
[g]And until he have performed the intents of his heart:
[gh]In the latter days ye shall consider it.

XXXI.

[a]At the same time, saith the LORD,
[b]Will I be the God of all the families of Israel,
And they shall be my people.
Thus saith the LORD, 2
The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness;
Even Israel [c]when I went to cause him to rest.

The LORD hath appeared [f]of old unto 3 me, saying,
Yea, [d]I have loved thee with [e]an everlasting love;
Therefore [g]with lovingkindness [f]have I drawn thee.
Again [g]I will build thee, and thou 4 shalt be built, O virgin of Israel:
Thou shalt again [h]be adorned with thy [i]tabrets,
And shalt go forth in [i]the dances of [j]them that make merry.
[k]Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the 5 mountains of [l]Samaria:
The planters shall plant, and shall [f]eat them as common things.
For there shall be a day, 6
That the watchmen upon [m]the mount Ephraim shall cry, [n]Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.
For thus saith the LORD; 7
[o]Sing with gladness for Jacob,
And [o]shout among [p]the chief of the nations:
Publish ye, praise ye, and say,
O LORD, [q]save thy people, the remnant of Israel.
Behold, I will bring them [r]from the 8
north country,
And [s]gather them [t]from the coasts of the earth,
And with them [u]the blind and the lame,
The woman with child and her that travaileth with child together:
A great company shall return thither.
They shall come [v]with weeping, 9
And with [lw]supplication will I lead them:
I will cause them to walk [x]by the rivers of waters
[y]In a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble:
For [z]I am a father to Israel,
And [zz]Ephraim is [a]my firstborn.

Hear the word of the LORD, 10
O ye nations,
And declare it in the isles afar off, and say,
He that scattered Israel [b]will gather him,
And keep him [c]as a shepherd doth his flock.
For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, 11
And [d]ransomed him [e]from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

Therefore they shall come and sing 12
[f] in the height of Zion,
And [g] shall flow together [h] to the goodness of the LORD, [ij] For wheat, and [ijk] for wine, and [i] for oil,
And for the young of the flock and of the herd:
And their soul [l] shall be as a watered garden;
And [m] they shall not sorrow any more at all.
Then shall the virgin rejoice [n] in the 13
dance,
Both young men and old together:
For I will turn their mourning into joy,
And will comfort them, and [o] make them rejoice from their sorrow.
And I will [p] satiate the soul of the 14 priests with fatness,
And my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD; 15
[q] A voice was heard in [r] Ramah,
Lamentation, and [s] bitter weeping;
Rahel weeping for her children
Refused to be comforted for her children, because [t] they were not.
Thus saith the LORD, 16
Refrain thy voice from weeping,
And thine eyes from tears:
For thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD;
And [u] they shall come again from the land of the enemy.
And [v] there is hope in thine end, saith 17
the LORD,
That [w] thy children shall come again to their own border.
I have surely heard [zz] Ephraim be- 18
moaning himself thus;
Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised,
As a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke;
[x] Turn thou me, and I shall be turned;
For thou art the LORD my God.
Surely [y] after that I was turned, I re- 19
pented;
And after that I was instructed, I [z] smote upon my thigh:
I was ashamed, yea, even confounded,
Because I did bear the reproach [a] of my youth.

Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a 20
[b] pleasant child?
For since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still:
Therefore [c] my bowels [t] are troubled for him;
I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.
Set thee up [d] waymarks, make thee 21
high heaps:
[e] Set thine heart toward the highway,
[f] Even the way which thou wentest:
Turn again, O virgin of Israel,
Turn again to these thy cities,
How long wilt thou [g] go about, O 22
thou [h] backsliding daughter?
For the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth,
A woman shall compass [i] a man.
Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the 23
God of Israel;
As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof,
[k] When I shall bring again their captivity;
[l] The LORD bless thee, [m] O habitation of justice, and [n] mountain of holiness.
And there shall dwell in Judah itself, 24
And [o] in all the cities thereof together,
Husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.
For I have [p] satiated the [q] weary soul, 25
And I have replenished every sorrowful soul.
Upon this I awaked, and beheld; 26
And my sleep was sweet unto me.

Behold, [r] the days come, saith the 27
LORD,
That [s] I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah
With [t] the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.
And it shall come to pass, that [tt] like 28
as [u] I have watched over them,
[v] To pluck up, and [v] to break down, [v] and to throw down,
[v] And to destroy, and to afflict;
[tt] So will I watch over them, to [vw] build, and to plant, saith the LORD.
[x] In those days they shall say no 29
more,
The fathers have eaten a sour grape,
And the children's teeth [y] are set on edge.

[z] But every one shall die for his own iniquity:
Every man that eateth the sour grape,
His teeth shall be set on edge.
[a] Behold, [r] the days come, saith the LORD,
That I will make [b] a new covenant
With the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:
Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers
In the day that [c] I took them by the hand,
To bring them out of the land of Egypt;
Which my covenant they brake,
[l] Although [d] I was a husband unto them, saith the LORD:
[e] But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel;
After those days, saith the LORD,
[e f] I will put my law in their inward parts,
And write it in their hearts;
And [g] will be their God,
And they shall be my people.
And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying,
Know the LORD:
For [h] they shall all know me,
[i] From the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD:
For I [k l] will forgive their iniquity,
[k] And [m] I will remember their sin no more.

Thus saith the LORD, [n] which giveth the sun for a light by day,
And [o] the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night,
[p] Which [q] divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar;
[r] The LORD of hosts is his name:
[s] If those [o] ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD,
Then the seed of Israel also shall cease
[t] From being a nation before me for ever.
Thus saith the LORD;
[u] If heaven above can be measured,
And the foundations of the earth searched out beneath,
[v] I will also cast off all the seed of Israel
For all that they have done, saith the LORD.

Behold, [w] the days come, saith the LORD,
That the city shall be built to the LORD
From [x] the tower of Hananeel unto [y] the gate of the corner.
And [z] the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it

And [b] the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes,
And all the fields unto [c] the brook of Kidron,
Unto [d] the corner of the horse gate towards the east,

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD [a] in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, [b] which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was [c] shut up [d] in [e] the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house. For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, [f] Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and [g] he shall take it; [h] and Zedekiah king of Judah [i] shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, [h] and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes [h] shall behold his eyes: and [h j k] he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be [k] until I visit him, saith the LORD: [l] though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Behold, Hanameel the son of [m] Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in [n] Anathoth: for [o] the right of redemption is thine to buy it. So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me [d] in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in [n] Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. this was the word of the LORD. And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in [n]Anathoth, and [p]weighed him the money, even [‖]seventeen shekels of silver. And I [†]subscribed the evidence, and [q]sealed it, and [r]took witnesses, and [p]weighed him the money in the balances. So I took the evidence of the purchase, both [s]that which was sealed according to the law and [t]custom, and [s]that which was open: and I gave the evidence of the purchase unto [u]Baruch [v]the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of [r]the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat [d]in the court of the prison. And I charged [u]Baruch before them, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, [s]both which is sealed, and [s]this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and [w]fields and vineyards shall be [x]possessed again in this land.

Now when I had delivered [y]the evidence of the purchase unto [u]Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying, Ah Lord GOD! behold, [z]thou hast made the heaven and the earth [a]by thy great power [a]and stretched out arm, and [b]there is nothing [‖]too hard for thee: [c]thou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and [cd]recompensest the iniquity of the fathers [de]into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, [f]the Mighty God, [g]the LORD of hosts, is his name, [h]great in counsel, and mighty in [†]work: [i]for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: [k]to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: which hast set [lm]signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and amongst other men; and [m]hast made thee [n]a name, as at this day; and [nn]hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and [o]with a strong hand, and [op]with a stretched out arm, and [o]with great terror; and hast given them this land, [q]which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, [qr]a land flowing with milk and honey; and they came in, and possessed it; [s]but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them: behold the [‖]mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and [t]the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, [u]because of the sword, [u]and of the famine, [u]and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and behold, thou seest it. And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, [v]Buy thee the field for money, and [w]take witnesses; [‖]for [t]the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Behold, I am the LORD, [x]the God of all flesh: [b]is there any thing too hard for me? Therefore thus saith the LORD; [y]Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: and the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and [z]burn it with the houses, [a]upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and [a]poured out drink offerings unto other gods, [b]to provoke me to anger. For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me [g]from their youth: for the children of Israel have only [b]provoked me to anger [h]with the work of their hands, saith the LORD. For this city hath been to me as [†]a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; [i]that I should remove it from before my face, because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done [b]to provoke me to anger, [k]they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And [l]they have turned unto me the [†]back, and not the face: though I taught them, [m]rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened [n]to receive instruction. But [o]they set their abominations in the house, [o]which is called by my name, [o]to defile it. [p]And they built the high places of Baal, [p]which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, [q]to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; [p]which I commanded them not, neither saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, [f]The LORD our righteousness.

16 the land. In those days shall Judah be

17 For thus saith the LORD; [g][h]David shall never want a man [i]to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

18 neither shall [j]the priests the Levites want a man before me [k]to offer burnt offerings, and [l]to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD; [m]If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 [n]then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son [i]to reign upon his throne; and with [j]the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 As [o][p]the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither [q]the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even [p]cast them off? thus they have despised my people, [qq]that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD; [m]If my covenant be not with day and night, and [r]if I have not appointed [s]the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 [p]then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for [t]I will cause their captivity to return, [u]and have mercy on them.

XXXIV.

The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, [a]when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and [b]all the kingdoms of the earth [t]of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to [a]Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, [c]I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and [d]he shall burn it with fire:

3 and [c]thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and [c]delivered into his hand; [e]and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, [e]and [f]he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and [f]thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 [g]Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 but [g]thou shalt die in peace: and with [h]the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and [i]they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against [k]Lachish, and against [l]Azekah: for [m]these [n]defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, [o]to proclaim liberty unto them;

9 [p]that every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, [q]go free; [r]that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, [q]go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But [s]afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let [q]go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah [t]from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that [u]I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At [v]the end of [w][x]seven years let ye go every man his brother a Hebrew, which [‖x]hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers [y]hearkened not unto me, [y]neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were [t]now turned, and had done right in my sight, in [o]proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and [z]ye had made a covenant before me in the house [t]which is called by my name.

5 [h]the keeper of the [i]door: and I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said 6 unto them, Drink ye wine. But they said, We will drink no wine: for [j]Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, nei- 7 ther ye, nor your sons for ever: neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; [k]that 8 ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers. Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our 9 wives, our sons, nor our daughters; nor to build houses for us to dwell in: nei-10 ther have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.
11 But it came to pass, [l]when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of [m]the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of [m]the Syrians: [n]so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 Then came the word of the LORD unto 13 Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not [o]receive instruc-14 tion to hearken to my words? saith the LORD. The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, [p]rising 15 early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me. [p]I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, [p]rising up early and sending them, saying, [q]Return ye now every man from his evil way, [q]and amend your doings, [r]and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but [s]ye have not inclined your ear, nor 16 hearkened unto me. Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:
17 therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because [t]I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you: 19 therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; [†]Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man [u]to stand before me for ever.

1 And it came to pass [a]in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 Take thee [b]a roll of a book, and [c]write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and [e]against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, [f]from the days of Josiah, even unto this day. 3 [g]It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that [h]they may return every man from his evil way; [i]that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. 4 Then Jeremiah called [k]Baruch the son of Neriah: and [l]Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon [l]a roll of a book. 5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, [m]I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD: 6 therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD'S house upon [n]the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities. 7 [g]It may be [†]they will present their supplication before the LORD, and [h]will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people. 8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD'S house. 9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that [o]they proclaimed [n]a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of 10 Judah unto Jerusalem. Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in [p]the chamber of Gemariah the son of [q]Shaphan [r]the scribe, in [s]the higher court [t]at the [‖]entry of the new gate of the LORD'S house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of [q]Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 then he went down into the king's house, into [r]the scribe's chamber: and lo, all the princes sat there, even [u]Elishama [r]the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and [v]Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of [q]Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of [w]Hananiah, and all 13 the princes. Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the 14 ears of the people. Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of [x]Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them. 15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read 16 it in their ears. Now it came to pass when they had heard all the words, [y]they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king 17 of all these words. And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth? 18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and [z]I wrote them with ink 19 in the book. Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll [a]in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king. 21 So the king sent Jehudi to fet the roll: and he took it out of [a]Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes [b]which stood beside the 22 king. Now the king sat in [c]the winter-house [d]in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before 23 him. And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into

But the king command- 26 ed Jerahmeel the son ‖ of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and [x] Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, [i] to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

Then the word of the LORD came to 27 Jeremiah, after that the king had burnt the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, Take thee again another roll, and write 28 in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burnt. And thou shalt 29 say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burnt this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, [j] The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast? Therefore thus saith 30 the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; [k] He shall have none [l] to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be [m] cast out [n] in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. And 31 I will [t] punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not. Then took Jeremiah 32 another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burnt in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many [t] like words.

XXXVII. And [a] king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of [b] Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, [ac] whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. [d] But neither he, [d] nor his ser- 2 vants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake [t] by the prophet Jeremiah. And Zedekiah the king sent 3 [e] Jehucal the son of [ef] Shelemiah and [g] Zephaniah the son of [h] Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for 4 us. Now Jeremiah [i] came in and went out among the people: [k] for they had 5 not put him into prison. Then [l] Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, [m] they departed from Jerusalem.

6 Then came the word of the LORD un- 7 to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, [n] that sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, [o] Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, [o] shall return to Egypt 8 into their own land. And [p] the Chaldeans shall come again, and [p] fight against this city, and [p] take it, and [pr] burn 9 it with fire. Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not your [t] selves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: 10 for they shall not depart. [q] For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but [t] wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and [r] burn this city with fire.

11 And it came to pass, that [s] when the army of the Chaldeans was [t] broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's 12 army, then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go [t] into the land of Benjamin, ‖ to separate himself thence [u] in the 13 midst of the people. And when he was [v] in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of [f] Shelemiah, the son of [w] Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, [x] Thou fallest away to 14 the Chaldeans. Then said Jeremiah, It is [t] false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought 15 him to [y] the princes. Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and [z] put him in prison in [a] the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

16 When Jeremiah was entered into [b] the dungeon, and into the ‖ cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; 17 then Zedekiah the king sent, and [c] took him out: and the king asked him [d] secret-

[a]Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and [b]Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken [c]unto all the people, saying, Thus saith the 2
LORD, [d]He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: [d]but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live. Thus saith the LORD, [e]This city 3 shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, [f]which shall take it. Therefore the princes said un- 4 to the king, We beseech thee, [g]let this man be put to death: for thus [h]he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the [†]welfare of this people, but the hurt. Then 5 Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for [‡]the king is not he that can do any thing against you. Then 6 took they Jeremiah, and cast him into [k]the dungeon of Malchiah the son [‖]of Hammelech, that was [l]in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And [m]in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah [n]sunk in the mire.
Now when [o]Ebed-melech [p]the Ethio- 7
pian, one of [q]the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting [r]in the gate of Benjamin; [r] See ch. 37. 13.
8 [o]Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,
9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and [†]he is like to die for hunger [s]in the place where he is: for 10 [t]there is no more bread in the city. Then the king commanded [o]Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men [†]with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before 11 he die. So [o]Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast [u]clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dun-
12 geon to Jeremiah. And [o]Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine [v]armholes under the cords.
13 And Jeremiah did so. So they drew up Jeremiah [w]with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

15 nothing from me. Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not 16 hearken unto me? So Zedekiah the king sware [x]secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, [y]As the LORD liveth, [z]that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of [a]these men that seek thy life.

and they [h]mock me. But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. [d]Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so [i]it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live. But if thou refuse [b]to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me: and behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, [f]Thy friends [k]have set thee on, and [l]have prevailed against thee: thy feet [m]are sunk in the mire, and [n]they are turned away back. So they shall bring out all thy wives and [o]thy children to the Chaldeans: and [f]thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and [f][e]thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.

Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die. But [p]if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee: then thou shalt say unto them, [q]I presented my supplication before the king, that [r]he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So [t]they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. [s]So Jeremiah abode [t]in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

XXXIX. [a]In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up. And [b]all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and [c]sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, [d]Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, [e]Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon. And it came to pass, that [f]when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain. But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to [g]Riblah in the land of Hamath, where [h]he [t]gave judgment upon him. Then the king of Babylon slew [i]the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: [k]also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. Moreover he [l]put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him [t]with chains to carry him to Babylon.

And [m]the Chaldeans burnt the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem. Then Nebuzar-adan the [ll][t]captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and [u]those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained. But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left [o]of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields [t]at the same time.

Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah [t]to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, Take him, and [t]look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee. So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, [d]Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, [e]Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes; even they sent, and [p]took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and [q]committed him unto [r]Gedaliah the son of [s]Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt [t]among the people.

Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, [p]while he was [u]shut up in the court of the prison, saying, Go and speak to [v]Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, [w]I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not [x]for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee. But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men [y]of whom

3 land. Ishmael also slew all bthe Jews that were with him, even with Geda-liah at Mizpah, and bthe Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 that there came certain from [g]Shechem, from [h]Shiloh, and from [i]Samaria, even fourscore men, [k]having their beards shaven, and [l]their clothes rent, and [k]having cut themselves, [m]with [n]offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them [o]to the house of the LORD.

6 And [c]Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from [c]Mizpah to meet them, [t][p]weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, [q]and cast them into the midst of [r]the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have [s]treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbare, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now [r]the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain [u][l]because of Gedaliah, was it [t]which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, [u]even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, [v]whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to [w]the Ammonites.

11 But when [x]Johanan the son of Kareah, and [y]all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil

12 that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by [z]the great waters that are in [a]Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and [y]all the captains of the forces that were with him, then 14 they were glad. So [b]all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and

16 went to [w]the Ammonites. Then took [x]Johanan the son of Kareah, and [y]all the captains of the forces that were with him, [y]all the remnant of the people [b]whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty [c]men of war, and

17 [c]the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from [a]Gibeon: and they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of [d]Chimham, which is by [e]Beth-lehem, [f]to go to enter

18 into Egypt, because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, [g]whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

in this land, then [r]will I build you, and not pull you down, and I [r]will plant me of the evil that I have done unto you. Be not afraid of the king of Baby- 11 dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God, saying, No; but 14 [w]we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor [x]hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell: and now there- 15

fore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; [xx]If ye wholly [y]set your faces to enter into Egypt, and [z]go to sojourn there; then it 16 shall come to pass, that [a]the sword, [b]which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and [a]the famine, whereof ye were afraid, [f]shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die. [f]So shall it be with 17
all the men that [y]set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; [c]they shall die [a]by the sword, [a]by the famine, and by the pestilence: and [d]none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. For thus saith 18
the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;
As [e]mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and [f]ye shall be [fk]an execration, and [gjk]an astonishment, and [hijk]a curse, and [hjkl]a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more. The LORD hath said 19 concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; [xx]Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have [f]admonished you this day.
For [l]ye dissembled in your hearts, [m]when 20
ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, [m]Pray for us unto the LORD our God; [n]and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it. And now I have 21 this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing [o]for the which he hath sent me unto you. Now therefore 22 know certainly that [c]ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pesti- [l] [Or, to go to sojourn.] lence, in the place whither ye desire [l]to go and to sojourn.

And it came to pass, that when Jere- XLIII.
miah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these 2 words; then spake Azariah the son of [a]Hoshaiah, and [b]Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the [c]proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely:
the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, [d]Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:
3 but [e]Baruch the son of Neriah [f]setteth thee on against us, [g]for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away 4 captives into Babylon. So [b]Johanan the son of Kareah, and [h]all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in 5 the land of Judah. But [b]Johanan the son of Kareah, and [h]all the captains of the forces, took [i]all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell
6 in the land of Judah: Even [k]men, and [k]women, and children, and [l]the king's daughters, and every person that [m]Ne-buzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and [e]Baruch the son of Neriah.
7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD:
thus came they even to [ln]Tahpanhes.
8 Then came the word of the LORD unto 9 Jeremiah in [n]Tahpanhes, saying, Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in [o]the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in [n]Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of 10 Judah; and say unto them, Thus saith
the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;
Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, [p]my servant, and [q]will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.
11 And when he cometh, [r]he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver [s]such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as 12 are for the sword to the sword. And [t]I

[t][w]images of [u]Beth-shemesh, [x]that is in the land of Egypt; and [u]the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at [ab]Migdol, and at [ac]Tahpanhes, and at [ad]Noph, and in the country of [c]Pathros, saying, Thus 2 saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are [f]a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein, because of their wickedness which they have committed [g]to provoke me to anger, in that they went [h]to burn incense, and to serve [i]other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, you, nor your fathers. Howbeit [k]I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, [k]rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. [l]But they hearkened not, [l]nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, [h]to burn no incense unto other gods. Wherefore [m]my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are [fn]wasted and [o]desolate, as at this day. Therefore now 7
thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil [p]against your souls, to cut off from you [q]man and woman, [qr]child and suckling, [t]out of Judah, to [s]leave you none to remain; in that ye 8
[g]provoke me unto wrath with [ss]the works of your hands, [h]burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be [t]a curse and [t]a reproach among all the nations of the earth? Have ye forgotten 9
the [t]wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of [v]their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of [vv]your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? They are not [t]humbled 10 even unto this day, neither have they [w]feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, 11
the God of Israel; Behold, [x]I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut 12 off all Judah. And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have [y]set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and [z]they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed [z]by the sword, and by the famine: they shall die, [a]from the least even unto the greatest, [z]by the sword and by the famine: and [b]they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and [c]a curse, and [c]a reproach.
13 [d]For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, [z]by the sword, [z]by the 14 famine, and [z]by the pestilence: so that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall [e]escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they [t]have a desire to return to dwell there: for [f]none shall return but such as shall escape.
15 Then all the men which knew that [g]their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in [h]Pa-
16 thros, answered Jeremiah, saying, As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, [i]we will not 17 hearken unto thee. But we will certainly do [j]whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the [lk]queen of heaven, and [kl]to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, [l]we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of [t]victuals, and [m]were well, and 18 saw no evil. But since we left off [k]to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and [k]to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and [n]have been consumed by the sword and by the 19 famine. And [k]when we burnt incense to the queen of heaven, and [l]poured out drink offerings unto her, did we [k]make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our [ll]men?
20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to [o]the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given 21 him that answer, saying, [m]The incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, tiles; against Egypt, against the army of b Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in c Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote d in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 e Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 f Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen,
And stand forth with your helmets;
ff Furbish the spears, and put on g the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back?
And their mighty ones are f beaten down,
And are f fled apace, and h look not back:
For i fear was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not k the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape;
l They shall stumble, and fall toward the north m by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this n that cometh up as o a flood,
Whose waters p are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt n riseth up like o a flood,
And his waters q are moved like the rivers;
And he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth;
I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

For [t][d]thou shalt not be cured.
The nations have heard of thy shame,
And thy [e]cry hath filled the land:
For [f]the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty,
And [f]they are fallen both together.

The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how [g]Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.
Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in [h]Migdol,
And publish in [i]Noph and in [k]Tahpanhes:
Say ye, [l]Stand fast, and prepare thee;
For [m]the sword shall devour round about thee.
Why are thy [n]valiant men [o]swept away?
They stood not, because the LORD did drive them.
[f]He [t]made many to fall,
[fp]Yea, one fell upon another:
And they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people,
And to the land of our nativity,
[q]From the oppressing sword.
They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but [r]a noise;
[s]He hath passed the time appointed.
[t]As I live, [u]saith the King,
[uv]Whose name is the LORD of hosts,
Surely as [w]Tabor is among the mountains,
And as [x]Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

O [y]thou daughter dwelling in Egypt,
[f]Furnish thyself [z]to go into captivity:
For [i]Noph [a]shall be waste
And desolate [b]without an inhabitant.
Egypt is like a very fair [c]heifer,
But destruction cometh; it cometh [d]out of the north.
Also [e]her hired men are in the midst of her like [f]fatted bullocks;
For they also [f]are turned back, [g]and are fled away together; they did not stand,
Because [gh]the day of their calamity was come upon them, and [h]the time [i]of their visitation.
[k]The voice thereof shall go [l]like a serpent;
For they shall march with an army,
And come against her with axes, [m]as hewers of wood.
[m]They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD,
Though [n]it cannot be searched;
Because they are more than [o]the grasshoppers,
And are innumerable.
The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded;
She shall be delivered into the hand of the people of [d]the north.
The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith;
Behold, I will punish the [lle]multitude of [f]No,
And Pharaoh, and Egypt, [g]with their gods, and their kings;
Even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him:
And [h]I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives,
And into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon,
And into the hand of his servants:
And [i]afterwards it shall be inhabited,
As in [k]the days of old, saith the LORD.
[l]But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob,
And be not dismayed, O Israel:
For behold, I will save thee from afar off,
And thy seed from the land of their captivity;
And Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease,
And none shall make him afraid.

And Moab shall be ashamed of Che- 13
mosh,
As [a]the house of Israel was ashamed of [b]Beth-el their confidence.
How say ye, We are mighty and 14 strong men for the war?
[c]Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of 15
her cities,
And [f]his chosen young men [d]are gone down to the slaughter, [e]Saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
The calamity of Moab is near to come, 16
And his affliction hasteth fast.
All ye that are about him, bemoan him; 17
And all ye that know his name,
[f]Say, How is [g]the strong staff broken,
And the beautiful [h]rod!
[i]Thou daughter that dost inhabit 18
[k]Dibon,
Come down from thy glory, and [i]sit [l]in thirst;
For [c]the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee,
And he shall destroy thy strong holds.
O [f]inhabitant of [m]Aroer, 19
Stand by the way and [n]espy;
Ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth,
And say, What is done?
Moab is confounded; for [cc]it is broken 20
down:
[o]Howl and cry;
Tell ye it in [p]Arnon, that [c]Moab is spoiled,
And judgment is come upon [q]the 21
plain country;
Upon Holon, and upon [rs]Jahazah, and upon [s]Mephaath,
And upon [k]Dibon, and upon [t]Nebo, 22
and upon Beth-[u]diblathaim,
And upon [t]Kiriathaim, and upon 23
Beth-gamul, and upon [v]Beth-[w]meon,
And upon [x]Kerioth, and upon [y]Bozrah, 24
And upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.
[z]The horn of Moab is cut off, 25
And [a]his arm is broken, saith the
LORD.

[b]Make ye him drunken: [bb]for he 26
magnified himself against the LORD:
Moab also shall wallow [b]in his vomit,
And he also shall be [c]in derision.
For [cc]was not Israel a derision unto 27
thee?
[d]Was he found among thieves?
For since thou spakest of him, thou [‖]skippedst for joy.

O ye that dwell in Moab, [e]leave the 28
cities, and [f]dwell in [g]the rock,
And be [f]like [e]the dove that [gh]maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.
[i]We have heard the pride of Moab; 29
he is exceeding proud:
His loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.
I know [i]his wrath, saith the LORD; 30
but it shall not be so;
[lik]His lies shall not so effect it.
Therefore [l]will I howl for Moab, 31
And I will cry out [l]for all Moab;
[m]Mine heart [n]shall mourn for the men of [o]Kir-heres.
[p]O vine of [q]Sibmah, I will weep for 32 thee with the weeping of [r]Jazer:
[s]Thy plants are gone over the sea,
[t]They reach even to the sea of Jazer:
The spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.
[t]And [u]joy and gladness is taken from 33 the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab;
And [t]I have caused wine to fail from the wine presses:
[t]None shall tread with shouting;
[u]Their shouting shall be no shouting.
[v]From the cry of Heshbon even unto 34
Elealeh,
And even unto [v]Jahaz, have they uttered their voice,
From [w]Zoar even unto Horonaim,
As [x]a heifer of three years old:
For [y]the waters also of Nimrim shall be [t]desolate.
Moreover I will cause to cease in 35 Moab, saith the LORD, him that of-fereth in [z]the high places,
And him that burneth incense to his gods.
Therefore [m]mine heart [n]shall sound 36
for Moab like pipes,
And [m]mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres:
Because [a]the riches that he hath gotten are perished.
For [b]every head shall be [c]bald, 37
And [b]every beard [t]clipt:
Upon all the hands shall be [c]cuttings,
And [b]upon the loins [d]sackcloth.
There shall be lamentation generally 38
[b]upon all the housetops of Moab,
[b]and in the streets thereof:

They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down!
How hath Moab [f]turned the [†]back with shame!
So shall Moab be [g]a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.
For thus saith the LORD;
Behold, [h]he [i]shall fly as an eagle,
[i]And [k]shall spread his wings over Moab.
[‖l]Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised,
And [m]the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be
As the heart of [n]a woman in her pangs.
And Moab shall be destroyed [o]from being a people,
[p]Because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.
[qr]Fear, and [r]the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee,
O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.
[qs]He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit;
[q]And he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare:
[t]For I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, [t]the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.
They that fled stood under [u]the shadow of [v]Heshbon because of the force:
But [w]a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon,
And [w]a flame from the midst of [x]Sihon,
And shall devour [y]the corner of Moab,
And the crown of the head of the [†]tumultuous ones.
[a]Woe be unto thee, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh perisheth:
For thy sons are taken [†]captives,
And thy daughters captives.
[b]Yet [cd]will I bring again the captivity of Moab
[ce]In the latter days, saith the LORD.
[f]Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

XLIX.

[‖a]Concerning the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD;
Hath Israel no sons? Hath he no heir?
Why then doth [‖]their king inherit [b]Gad,
And his people dwell in his cities?
Therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That I will cause [c]an alarm of war to be heard in [d]Rabbah of the Ammonites;
And it shall be a desolate [e]heap,
And [f]her daughters shall be burnt with fire:
Then shall [g]Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.
Howl, O [gg]Heshbon, for [h]Ai is spoiled:
Cry, ye daughters of [d]Rabbah, [i]gird ye with sackcloth;
Lament, and [j]run to and fro by the hedges;
For [‖]their king shall go into captivity,
And [k]his priests and his princes together.
Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys,
[‖]Thy flowing valley, [l]O backsliding daughter?
[m]That trusted in her treasures, [n]saying, [o]Who shall come unto me?
Behold, [p]I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts,
From all those that be about thee;
And ye shall be driven out every man right forth;
And [q]none shall gather up him that wandereth.
And [r]afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.
[s]Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts;
[t]Is wisdom no more in [u]Teman?
[v]Is counsel perished from the prudent?
Is their wisdom vanished?
[w]Flee ye, [‖]turn back,
[w]Dwell deep, O inhabitants of [x]Dedan;
For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him,
[y]The time that I will visit him.
[z]If grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some [a]gleaning grapes?
[z]If thieves by night, they will destroy [†]till they have enough.
But [b]I have made Esau bare,
I have uncovered his secret places,
And he shall not be able to hide himself:
His seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and [c]he is not.
Leave thy fatherless children, I [d]will preserve them alive;
And let thy widows trust in me.

For thus saith the LORD; 12
Behold, they whose judgment was [e] not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken;
And [f] art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished?
Thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.
[g] For I have sworn by myself, saith 13
the LORD,
That [h] Bozrah shall become [i] a desolation,
[k] A reproach, a waste, and [l] a curse;
And all the cities thereof shall be [m] perpetual wastes.
[n] I have [o] heard a rumour from the 14
LORD,
And an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, [oo] saying,
Gather ye together,
And come against her, and rise up to the battle.
For lo, I will make thee small among 15
the heathen,
And despised among men.
Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, 16
and the pride of thine heart,
O thou that dwellest [p] in the clefts of [pq] the rock,
That holdest the height of the hill:
Though [r] thou shouldest make thy [r] nest as high as the eagle, [s] I will bring thee down from thence,
saith the LORD.
Also Edom [t] shall be [u] a desola- 17
tion:
[v] Every one that goeth by it shall be astonished,
[v] And shall [uw] hiss at all the plagues thereof.
[x] As in [y] the overthrow of Sodom and 18
Gomorrah
[x] And [z] the neighbour cities thereof,
saith the LORD,
[xz] No man shall abide there,
[x] Neither shall a son of man dwell in it.
[a] Behold, he shall come up [b] like a lion 19 from [c] the swelling of Jordan
Against the habitation of the strong:
But I will suddenly make him run away from her:
And who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her?
For [cc] who is like me? and who will [‖] appoint me the time?
And [d] who is that shepherd [e] that will stand before me?

Therefore hear the counsel of the 20
LORD,
That he hath taken against Edom;
And his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of [ee] Teman:
Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out:
Surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.
[f] The earth is moved at the noise of 21
their fall,
At the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the [†] Red sea.
Behold, [g] he shall come up and [g] fly 22
as the eagle,
[g] And spread his wings over [h] Bozrah:
And at that day [i] shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom
[i] Be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

[k] Concerning [l] Damascus. 23
[m] Hamath is confounded, and [n] Arpad:
For they have heard evil tidings: they are [†] fainthearted;
There is sorrow [‖] on the sea; [o] it cannot be quiet.
[l] Damascus [p] is waxed feeble, and 24
[q] turneth herself to flee,
And fear hath seized on her:
[r] Anguish and sorrows have taken her
[i] as a woman in travail.
How is [s] the city of [t] praise not left, 25
[s] The city of my joy!
[u] Therefore her young men shall fall 26
in her streets,
[u] And all the men of war [v] shall be cut off in that day,
Saith the LORD of hosts.
And [w] I will kindle a fire in the wall 27
of [l] Damascus,
[x] And it shall consume the palaces of [y] Ben-hadad.
[z] Concerning Kedar, and concerning 28
the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD;
[a] Arise ye, go up to [z] Kedar,
And spoil [b] the men of the east.
[cde] Their tents and their flocks shall 29
they take away:
They shall take to themselves [de] their curtains,
And all their vessels, and [f] their camels;
And they shall cry unto them, [g] Fear is on every side.

[h] Flee, [t]get you far off, [h]dwell deep, 30
O ye inhabitants of Hazor,
Saith the LORD;
For Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you,
And hath conceived a purpose against you.
[a]Arise, get you up unto the [l]wealthy 31
nation,
[i]That dwelleth without care, saith the
LORD,
[j]Which have neither gates nor bars,
[k]which dwell alone.
And their camels shall be a booty, 32
And the multitude of their cattle a spoil:
And [l]I will scatter into all winds them that are [t]in the utmost corners;
And I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.
And Hazor shall be [m]a dwelling for 33
dragons,
And [n]a desolation for ever:
[o]There shall no man abide there,
[o]Nor any son of man dwell in it.

The word of the LORD that came to 34
Jeremiah the prophet against [p]Elam in the beginning of the reign of Ze-dekiah king of Judah, saying,
Thus saith the LORD of hosts; 35
Behold, I will break [q]the bow of Elam,
The chief of their might.
And upon Elam will I bring the four 36 winds
From the four quarters of heaven,
And [l]will scatter them towards all those winds;
And there shall be no nation Whither [r]the outcasts of Elam shall not come.
For I will [s]cause Elam to be dismay- 37
ed before their enemies,
And before them that seek their life:
And I will bring evil upon them,
Even [t]my fierce anger, saith the LORD;
And [u]I will send the sword after
them,
Till I have consumed them:
And [v]I will set my throne in Elam, 38
And will destroy from thence the king and the princes,
Saith the LORD.
But it shall come to pass [w]x in the latter 39 days,
[w] That I will bring again the captivity of Elam,
Saith the LORD.

For lo, [e]I will raise and cause to come 9 up against Babylon [f]An assembly of great nations [fg]from the north country:
And [h]they shall set themselves in array against her;
From thence she shall be taken:
[i]Their arrows shall be as [k]of a mighty
[l]expert man;
[m]None shall return in vain.
And Chaldea shall be a spoil: 10
All that spoil her shall be satisfied,
saith the LORD.
[n]Because ye were glad, because ye re- 11
joiced,
O ye destroyers of [o]mine heritage, Because ye are grown [†]fat [p]as the heifer [q]at grass,
And [‖]bellow as [t]bulls;
Your mother shall be sore confound- 12
ed;
She that bare you shall be ashamed:
Behold, the hindermost of the nations Shall be [u]a wilderness, [u]a dry land, and [u]a desert.
Because of the wrath of the LORD [v]it 13
shall not be inhabited, [w]But it shall be wholly desolate: [x]every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished,
[x]And hiss at all her plagues.
[y]Put yourselves in array against Baby- 14
lon [z]round about:
[a]All ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows:
For [b]she hath sinned against the
LORD.
[c]Shout against her [z]round about: 15
[d]She hath given her hand:
[dd]Her foundations are fallen, [e]her walls are thrown down:
[f]For it is the vengeance of the LORD:
take vengeance upon her;
[g]As she hath done, do unto her.
Cut off the sower from Babylon, 16
And him that handleth the [‖h]sickle in the time of harvest;
[i]For fear of the oppressing sword [k]They shall turn every one to his people,
And [k]they shall flee every one to his own land.

Israel is [l]a scattered sheep; 17
[m]The lions have driven him away:
[n]First the king of Assyria [nn]hath devoured him;
And [o]last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon [oo]hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel;
Behold, I will [p]punish the king of Babylon and his land, [q]As I have [p]punished the king of Assyria.
19 And [r]I will bring Israel again to his habitation,
And [r]he shall feed on [st]Carmel and [su]Bashan,
And his soul shall be satisfied upon [v]mount Ephraim and [sw]Gilead.
20 In those days, and in that time, saith
the LORD,
[xz]The iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, [y]and there shall be none;
And the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found:
For [z]I will pardon them [a]whom I reserve.

21 Go up against the land [‖]of [b]Merethaim, even against it,
And against the inhabitants of [‖bc]Pe-kod:
Waste and [d]utterly destroy after them,
saith the LORD;
And do [e]according to all that I have commanded thee.
22 [f]A sound of battle is in the land,
And of great destruction.
23 How is [g]the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken!
[h]How is Babylon [i]become a desolation
among the nations!
24 [k]I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon,
And [l]thou wast not aware:
Thou art found, and also caught,
Because thou hast [m]striven against the
LORD.
25 The LORD hath opened his armoury,
And hath brought forth [n]the weapons
of his indignation:
For this is the work of the Lord GOD
of hosts
In the land of the Chaldeans.
26 Come against her [†]from the utmost border,
Open her storehouses:
[‖o]Cast her up as [p]heaps, and [d]destroy her utterly:
[pp]Let nothing of her be left.
27 Slay all her [q]bullocks; [qq]let them go down to the slaughter:
Woe unto them! for [r]their day is come,
[s]The time of their visitation.

The voice of [t]them that flee and escape 28
out of the land of Babylon, To [tt]declare in Zion [uv]the vengeance of the LORD our God, [u]The vengeance of [w]his temple.
Call together [x]the archers against Ba- 29
bylon:
[y]All ye that bend the bow, camp against it [y]round about;
[pp]Let none thereof escape:
[z]Recompense her according to her work;
According to all that she hath done,
do unto her:
[a]For she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.
[b]Therefore shall her young men fall 30
in the streets,
[b]And all her men of war [c]shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.
Behold, I am against thee, O thou 31
[†]most proud,
Saith the Lord GOD of hosts:
[d]For thy day is come, [de]the time that I will visit thee.
And [†]the most proud shall stumble 32
and fall,
And none shall raise him up:
[f]And [g]I will kindle a fire in his cities,
[f]And it shall devour all round about him.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts; 33
[h]The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together:
And all that took them captives held them fast;
[i]They refused to let them go.
[j]Their redeemer is [k]strong; 34
[l]The LORD of hosts is his name:
[m]He shall throughly plead their cause,
That he may give rest to the land,
And disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.
A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith 35
the LORD,
And upon the inhabitants of Babylon,
And [no]upon her princes, and upon [op]her wise men.
A sword is upon the [‖q]liars; and they 36
shall [r]dote:
A sword is upon [o]her mighty men;
and they shall be dismayed.
A sword is upon [s]their horses, and 37
upon [s]their chariots,
And upon all [t]the mingled people that are in the midst of her;
And [u]they shall become as women:
A sword is upon [v]her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

A [w]drought is upon her waters; and 38
they shall be dried up:
For it is the land of [x]graven images,
And [y]they are mad upon their idols.
Therefore [z]the wild beasts of the desert 39
With [z]the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there,
And [z]the owls shall dwell therein:
And it [a]shall be no more inhabited for ever;
[a]Neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.
[b]As God overthrew Sodom and Go- 40
morrah
[b]And the neighbour cities thereof,
saith the LORD;
[b]So shall no man abide there, Neither shall any son of man dwell
therein.

[c]Behold, a people shall come [d]from 41
the north,
And [e]a great nation, and many kings Shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.
They shall hold the bow and the lance: 42
They are cruel, and will not shew mercy:
Their voice shall roar like the sea,
And they shall ride upon horses, Every one put in array, like a man to the battle, Against thee, O daughter of Babylon.
The king of Babylon hath heard the 43
report of them,
And his hands waxed feeble:
[f]Anguish took hold of him,
And pangs as of a woman in travail.

[g]Behold, he shall come up like a lion 44
from the swelling of Jordan Unto the habitation of the strong:
But I will make them suddenly run away from her:
And who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her?
For who is like me? and who will [‖]appoint me the time?
And who is [h]that shepherd that will stand before me?
Therefore hear ye [i]the counsel of the 45
LORD,
That he hath taken against Babylon;
And [i]his purposes, that he hath pur-posed against the land of the Chal-deans:
Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out:
Surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

Thus saith the LORD;
Behold, I will raise up against Babylon,
And against them that dwell in the [t] midst of [a] them that rise up against me,
[b] A destroying wind;
And will send unto Babylon [c] fanners, 2
that shall fan her,
And shall empty her land:
For [d] in the day of trouble they shall be against her [e] round about.
Against [f] him that bendeth [e] let the 3
archer bend his bow,
And against [f] him that lifteth himself up in his [g] brigandine:
And spare ye not her young men;
[h] Destroy ye utterly all her host.
Thus the slain shall fall in the land of 4
the Chaldeans,
And they that are [i] thrust through [k] in her streets.
For [l] Israel hath not been forsaken, 5
Nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts;
Though their land was filled with sin
Against the Holy One of Israel.
[mn] Flee out of the midst of Babylon, 6
[n] And deliver every man his soul:
Be not [o] cut off in his iniquity;
For [p] this is the time of the LORD'S vengeance;
[q] He will render unto her a recompence.
Babylon hath been [r] a golden cup in 7
the LORD'S hand,
That made all the earth drunken:
[s] The nations have drunken of her wine;
Therefore the nations [t] are mad.
[u] Babylon is [v] suddenly fallen and de- 8
stroyed:
[w] Howl for her;
[x] Take balm for her pain,
If so be she may be healed.
We would have healed Babylon, but 9
she is not healed:
[m] Forsake her, and [y] let us go every into his own country:
For her judgment [z] reacheth [a] unto heaven,
And is lifted up even to [a] the skies.
The LORD [b] hath brought forth [c] our 10 righteousness:
Come, and [d] let us declare in Zion

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a [l] multitude of waters in the heavens;
And he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth:
He maketh lightnings with rain,
And bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.
17 Every man [l] is brutish by his knowledge;
Every founder is confounded by the graven image:
For his molten image is falsehood,
and there is no breath in them.
18 They are vanity, the work of errors:
In the time of their visitation they shall perish.
19 The portion of Jacob is not like them;
For he is the former of all things:
And [w] Israel is the rod of his inheritance:
The LORD of hosts is his name.
20 [x] Thou art [y] my battle axe and weapons of war:

[a]Zedekiah was one and twenty year old when he [†]began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And 2
he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For through the 3

he [†]put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in [‖]chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in [†]prison [d]till the day of his death.

[d] And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in [e]the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of [f]Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison, and spake [†]kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of [g]the kings that were with him in Babylon, and changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life. And for his [h]diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, [†]every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

[†]LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

I. About B.C. 588.

(א) [a]HOW doth the city [b]sit solitary, that was full of people!
[c]How is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations,
And [d]princess among [e]the provinces, how is she become [f]tributary!
(ב) She [g]weepeth sore [h]in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks:
Among all [i]her lovers [k]she hath none to comfort her:
All her friends [l]have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.
(ג) [m]Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and [†]because of great servitude:
[n]She dwelleth among the heathen, [o]she findeth no rest:
All [p]her persecutors overtook her between [q]the straits.
(ד) The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to [r]the solemn feasts:
All [s]her gates are desolate: her priests [t]sigh:
Her virgins are [u]afflicted, and she is in bitterness.
(ה) Her adversaries are [v]the chief, her enemies [w]prosper;
For the LORD [x]hath afflicted her [y]for the multitude of her transgressions:
[z]Her children [a]are gone into captivity before the enemy.
(ו) And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed:
Her princes are become like harts that find no pasture,
And they are gone without strength before [p]the pursuer.
(ז) Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her [b]miseries
All her [‖]pleasant things that she had [c]in the days of old,
When her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her:
The adversaries saw her, and did mock at [d]her sabbaths.
(ח) Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she [†]is removed:
All that honoured her despise her, because [f]they have seen her nakedness:
Yea, [g]she sigheth, and turneth backward.
(ט) Her filthiness is in her [h]skirts; she [i]remembereth not her last end;
Therefore she came down wonderfully: [j]she had no comforter.
O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy [k]hath magnified himself.
(י) The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her [‖]pleasant things:
For she hath seen that [l]the heathen entered into her sanctuary,
Whom thou didst command that [m]they should not enter into thy congregation.
(כ) All her people [g]sigh, [n]they seek bread;
They have given [o]their pleasant things for meat [‖]to relieve the soul:
See, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.
(ל) [‖]Is it nothing to you, all ye that [†]pass by? behold, and see [p]If there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, [q]which is done unto me, Wherewith the LORD [r]hath afflicted me [s]in the day of [ss]his fierce anger.

(מ) From above [t]hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them:
[u]He hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back;
He hath made me desolate and [v]faint all the day.
(נ) [w]The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand:
They are [x]wreathed, and come up [w]upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall,
The Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.
(ס) The Lord hath [y]trodden under foot all [z]my mighty men in the midst of me:
He hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men:
The Lord [a]hath trodden ‖the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.
(ע) For these things I weep; mine eye, [b]mine eye runneth down with water,
Because [c]the comforter that should [†]relieve my soul is far from me:
My children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.
(פ) Zion [d]spreadeth forth her hands, and [c]there is none to comfort her:
The LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him:
Jerusalem is as [e]a menstruous woman among them.
(צ) [f]The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his [†]commandment:
Hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow:
My virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.
(ק) I called for [g]my lovers, but they deceived me:
My priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city,
[h]While they sought their meat, [h]to relieve their souls.
(ר) Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: [i]my bowels are troubled;
Mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled:
[k]Abroad [l]the sword bereaveth, [k]at home there is [l]as death.

(ש) They have heard that [m]I sigh; [c]there is none to comfort me:
[n]All mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it:
Thou wilt bring the day that thou hast ‖called, and [n]they shall be like unto me.
(ת) [o]Let all their wickedness come before thee;
And [p]do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions:
For [m]my sighs are many, and [q]my heart is faint.

II.

(א) [a]How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, [aa]And cast down from heaven unto the earth [b]the beauty of Israel,
And remembered not [c]his footstool in the day of his anger!
(ב) The Lord [d]hath swallowed up all [d]the habitations of Jacob, and [e]hath not pitied:
[f]He hath thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
He hath [†]brought them down [g]to the ground: he [gh]hath polluted the kingdom and [h]the princes thereof.
(ג) He hath cut off [i]in his fierce anger all [k]the horn of Israel:
[l]He hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy,
And [m]he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.
(ד) [n]He hath bent his bow [nn]like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary,
And slew [†]all [o]that were pleasant to the eye,
In the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.
(ה) [nn]The Lord was as an enemy: [p]he hath swallowed up Israel, [pq]He hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds,
And hath increased in the daughter of Judah [r]mourning and lamentation.
(ו) And [s]he hath violently taken away his [‖t]tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed [u]his places of the assembly:
The LORD hath caused [u]the solemn feasts and [v]sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion,
And [w]hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

(ז) The Lord hath [x]cast off his altar, 7
he hath [y]abhorred his sanctuary,
He hath [†]given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; [z]They have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.
(ח) [a]The LORD hath purposed to de- 8 stroy [aa]the wall of the daughter of Zion:
[b]He hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from [†]destroying:
Therefore he made [c]the rampart and the wall to lament; they [d]languished together.
(ט) Her gates [e]are sunk into the 9 ground; he hath destroyed and [f]broken her bars:
[g]Her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: [h]the law is no
more;
[i]Her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.
(י) The elders of the daughter of Zion 10 [kl]sit upon the ground, and [l]keep silence:
They have [m]cast up dust upon their heads; they have [n]girded themselves with sackcloth:
The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.
(כ) [os]Mine eyes do fail with tears, 11
[p]my bowels are troubled,
[q]My liver [r]is poured upon the earth,
[s]for the destruction of the daughter
of my people;
Because [t]the children and [t]the sucklings [‖]swoon in the streets of the city.
(ל) They say to their mothers, 12
[u]Where is corn and wine?
[v]When they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, When their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.
(מ) What thing shall I take to witness 13 for thee? [w]what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem?
[w]What shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion?
For [x]thy breach is great like the sea:
who can heal thee?
(נ) Thy [xx]prophets have seen [y]vain 14 and [z]foolish things for thee:
And [a]they have not discovered thine iniquity, [b]to turn away thy captivity;
But have seen for thee false [c]burdens and causes of banishment.
(ס) All that pass [†]by [e]clap their hands 15
at thee;
They [de]hiss and [f]wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, [g]saying,
Is this the city that men call [h]The perfection of beauty, [i]The joy of the whole earth?
(פ) [j]All thine enemies [k]have opened 16
their mouth against thee:
They [de]hiss and [l]gnash the teeth: they say, [m]We have swallowed her up:
Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, [n]we have seen it.
(ע) [o]The LORD hath done that which 17
he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded [p]in the days of old:
[q]He hath thrown down, [q]and hath not pitied: and he hath [r]caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee,
He hath set up [s]the horn of thine adversaries.
(צ) Their heart cried unto the Lord, 18 [t]O wall of the daughter of Zion, [u]let tears run down like a river [v]day and night:
Give thyself no [w]rest; let not [x]the apple of thine eye cease.
(ק) Arise, [y]cry out in the night: in 19
the beginning of [z]the watches, [a]Pour out thine heart [b]like water before the face of the Lord:
Lift up thy hands toward him for the life of [c]thy young children, [c]That faint for hunger [d]in the top of every street.
(ר) Behold, O LORD, and consider to 20 whom [e]thou hast done this.
[f]Shall the women eat their fruit, and children [‖g]of a span long?
Shall [i]the priest and [h]the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?
(שׁ) [i]The young and the old lie on 21
the ground in the streets:
[i]My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; [k]Thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, [k]and not pitied.
(ת) Thou hast called as in [l]a solemn 22 day [m]my terrors round about,
So that in the day of the LORD'S anger none [n]escaped nor remained:
[o]Those that I have [p]swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

III.

(א) I am [a]the man that [b]hath seen affliction [c]by the rod of his wrath.
(א) He hath led me, and [d]brought me into darkness, but not into light.
(א) Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.
(ב) My flesh and my skin [e]hath he made old; [f]he hath broken my bones.
(ב) [g]He hath builded against me, and [h]compassed me with [i]gall and [k]travail.
(ב) [l]He hath set me in dark places, [l]as they that be dead of old.
(ג) [m]He hath hedged me about, [n]that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.
(ג) Also [o]when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.
(ג) [m]He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath [p]made my paths crooked.
(ד) He was unto me as [q]a bear lying in wait, and as [r]a lion in secret places.
(ד) He hath turned aside my ways, and [s]pulled me in pieces: he hath made me [t]desolate.
(ד) He [u]hath bent his bow, and [v]set me as a mark for the arrow.
(ה) [w]He hath caused the [t]arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.
(ה) I was [x]a derision to all my people; and [y]their song all the day.
(ה) [z]He hath filled me with [t]bitterness, [a]he hath made me drunken with wormwood.
(ו) He hath also broken my teeth with [b]gravel stones, he hath [‖]covered me with ashes.
(ו) And thou hast [bb]removed my soul far off from peace: I forgat [t]prosperity.
(ו) [c]And I said, [cc]My strength and [d]my hope is perished from the LORD:
(ז) [‖]Remembering mine [e]affliction and my [e]misery, [a]the wormwood and [f]the gall.
(ז) My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is [t]humbled in me.
(ז) This I [t]recall to my mind, [f]therefore have I hope.
(ח) It is of the LORD'S mercies that [gh]we are not consumed, [h]because his compassions fail not.
(ח) They are new [i]every morning: [k]great is thy faithfulness.
(ח) The LORD is [l]my portion, saith [m]my soul; [f]therefore [m]will I hope in him.
(ט) The LORD is good unto them [n]that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.
(ט) It is good that a man should both [op]hope and [pq]quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.
(ט) [qq]It is good for a man [r]that he bear the yoke [s]in his youth.
(י) [t]He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.
(י) [u]He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.
(י) [v]He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.
(כ) For the Lord will not [bb]cast off for ever:
(כ) But though he [w]cause grief, yet will he have compassion [x]according to the multitude of his mercies.
(כ) For [y]he doth not [w]afflict [t]willingly nor [w]grieve the children of men.
(ל) To crush under his feet all [z]the prisoners of the earth,
(ל) To turn aside the right of a man before the face of [‖a]the most High,
(ל) To [b]subvert a man in his cause, [c]the Lord [‖]approveth not.
(מ) [d]Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?
(מ) Out of the mouth of [a]the most High proceedeth not [e]evil and good.
(מ) [f]Wherefore doth a living man [‖]complain, [g]a man for [h]the punishment of his sins?
(נ) Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.
(נ) [i]Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.
(נ) [k]We have transgressed and [l]have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.
(ס) Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: [m]thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.
(ס) Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, [n]that our prayer should not pass through.

(פ) [p]All our enemies [q]have opened 46

(פ) [r]Fear and [r]a snare is come upon 47 us, desolation and [s]destruction.
(פ) [t]Mine eye runneth down with 48 rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
(ע) [p]Mine eye [u]trickleth down, and 49
[v]ceaseth not, [u]without any intermission,
(ע) Till [w]the LORD look down, and 50 behold from heaven.'
(ע) Mine eye [x]affecteth [†]mine heart 51 [‖]because of all the daughters of my city.
(צ) Mine enemies [y]chased me sore, 52
[z]like a bird, [a]without cause.
(צ) They have [b]cut off my life [c]in 53
the dungeon, and [d]cast a stone upon me.
(צ) [e]Waters flowed over mine head; 54
then [f]I said, [fg]I am cut off.

(ק) [h]I called upon thy name, O LORD, 55
[i]out of the low dungeon.
(ק) [hk]Thou hast heard my voice: hide 56 not thine ear at my [l]breathing, at my cry.
(ק) [m]Thou drewest near in the day 57 that I called upon thee: [n]thou saidst, Fear not.
(ר) O Lord, thou hast [op]pleaded the 58 causes of my soul; [pq]thou hast redeemed my life.
(ר) O LORD, thou hast seen my 59
[r]wrong: [s]judge thou my cause.
(ר) Thou hast seen all their ven- 60 geance and all [t]their imaginations against me.
(שׁ) Thou hast heard [tt]their reproach, 61
O LORD, and all [t]their imaginations
against me;
(שׂ) The lips of [u]those that rose up 62 against me, and their [v]device against me all the day.
(שׁ) Behold their [w]sitting down, and 63 their [w]rising up; [x]I am their musick.
(ת) [yz]Render unto them a recom- 64 pence, O LORD, [y]according to the work of their hands.
(ת) [z]Give them [‖]sorrow of heart, thy 65
curse unto them.
(ת) [z]Persecute and destroy them in 66 anger [a]from under [b]the heavens of
the LORD.

(א) [a]How is the gold become dim! IV.
how is [b]the most fine gold changed!
The stones of the sanctuary are poured out [c]in the top of every street.
2 (ב) The precious sons of Zion, comparable to [d]fine gold,
[a]How are they esteemed [e]as earthen [f]pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!
3 (ג) Even the [‖]sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones:
The daughter of my people is become [g]cruel, like [h]the ostriches in the wilderness.
4 (ד) The tongue of the sucking child
[i]cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst:
[k]The young children ask bread, and no man [l]breaketh it unto them.
5 (ה) They that did feed [m]delicately are desolate in the streets:
They that were brought up [mn]in scarlet [o]embrace dunghills.
6 (ו) For [p]the [‖]punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people [q]is greater than [r]the punishment of the sin of Sodom,
[s]That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.
7 (ז) Her [t]Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk,
They were more ruddy in [u]body than [v]rubies, their [w]polishing was of [ux]sapphire:
8 (ח) Their visage is [y†]blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets:
[z]Their skin cleaveth to their bones;
it is withered, it is become like a stick.
9 (ט) They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger:
For these [†]pine away, [a]stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.
10 (י) [b]The hands of [c]the pitiful women
[d]have sodden their own children:
They were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
11 (כ) The LORD [dd]hath accomplished his fury; [e]he hath poured out [f]his fierce anger,
And [g]hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

(ל) The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed That the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.
(מ) [h]For the sins of her prophets, and [h]the iniquities of her priests,
[i]That have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,
(נ) They have wandered as blind men in the streets, [j]they have polluted themselves with blood,
[‖k]So that men could not touch their garments.
(ס) They cried unto them, Depart ye; [‖]it is [l]unclean; depart, depart, touch not, when they fled away and wandered:
They said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.
(פ) [m]The [‖]anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them:
They respected not the persons of the priests, [n]they favoured not the elders.
(ע) [m]As for us, [o]our eyes as yet failed [p]for our vain help:
In our watching we have watched [q]for a nation that could not save us.
(צ) [r]They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets:
Our end is near, [s]our days are fulfilled; for [t]our end is come.
(ק) Our persecutors are [u]swifter than the eagles of the heaven:
They [v]pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.
(ר) [w]The breath of our nostrils, [x]the anointed of the LORD, [y]was taken in their [z]pits,
Of whom we said, [a]Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.
(שׁ) [b]Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of [c]Uz;
[d]The cup also shall pass through [e]unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and [f]shalt make thyself naked.
(ת) [‖g]The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; [h]he will no more carry thee away into captivity:
[e]He will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will [‖]discover thy sins.

[a]Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us:
[c]Consider, and [b]behold [ac]our reproach.
[d]Our inheritance is turned to strangers,
Our houses to aliens.
We are orphans and fatherless,
Our mothers are as widows.
We have drunken our water for money;
Our wood [†]is sold unto us.
[†]Our necks are under persecution:
[f]We labour, and have no rest.
[g]We have given the hand [h]to the Egyptians,
And [h]to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.
[ik]Our fathers have sinned, and [kl]are not;
And [i]we have borne their iniquities.
[m]Servants have ruled over us:
There is none that doth [n]deliver us out of their hand.
We gat our bread with the peril of our lives
Because of the sword of the wilderness.
[o]Our skin was black like an oven
Because of the [‖]terrible famine.
[pq]They ravished the women in Zion,
And [q]the maids in the cities of Judah.
Princes are hanged up by their hand:
The faces of [r]elders [s]were not honoured.
They took the young men [ss]to grind,
And the children [t]fell under the wood.
[r]The elders have ceased from the gate,
The young men from [tt]their musick.
The joy of our heart is ceased;
[u]Our dance [v]is turned into mourning.
[w†]The crown is fallen from our head:
Woe unto us, that we have sinned!
For this [x]our heart is faint;
For these things [y]our eyes are dim.
Because of the mountain of Zion, [yy]which is desolate, [z]The foxes walk upon it.

[a]Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever;
[b]Thy throne from generation to generation.
[c]Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever,
And forsake us [†]so long time?
[d]Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned;
[e]Renew our days as of old.
[‖]But [f]thou hast utterly rejected us;
Thou art very wroth against us.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

EZEKIEL.

I.

NOW it came to pass [a]in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the [†]captives [b]by the river of Chebar, that [c]the heavens were opened, and I saw [d]visions of God. In the fifth day of the month, which was [dd]the fifth year of [e]king Jehoiachin's captivity, the word of the LORD came expressly unto [†]Ezekiel [af]the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans [b]by the river Chebar; and [g]the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

[h]And I looked, and behold, [i]a whirlwind came [j]out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire [†]infolding itself, and [k]a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof [kl]as [m]the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire. Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of [n]four living creatures. And [o]this was their appearance; they had [p]the likeness of a man. [p]And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings. And their feet were [†]straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled [q]like [m]the colour of burnished brass. [r]And they had the hands of a man under their wings on [s]their four sides; and [r]they four had their faces and their wings. [t]Their wings were [u]joined one to another; [v]they turned not when they went; [w]they went every one straight forward. As for the likeness of their faces, [x]they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle. Thus were their faces: and their wings were [‖]stretched upward; [t]two wings of every one were joined one to another, and [y]two covered their bodies. And [w]they went every one straight forward: [z]whither the spirit was to go, they went; and [v]they turned not when they went. As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning [a]coals of fire, and like the appearance of [b]lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. And the living creatures [c]ran and returned as the appearance of [d]a flash of lightning.

[e]Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces. [e]The appearance of the wheels and their work was [e]like unto the colour of [f]a beryl: [g]and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was [g]as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel. [h]When they went, they went upon their four [i]sides: and [j]they turned not when they went. As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their [‖]rings were [k]full of [c]eyes round about them four. [l]And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and [m]when the living creatures were lift up from the earth, the wheels were lift up. [n]Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and [m]the wheels were lifted up over against them: [m]for the spirit [‖]of the living creature was in the wheels. [o]When those went, these went; and [oo]when those stood, these stood; and [m]when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up [p]over against them: [m]for the spirit [‖]of the living creature was in the wheels. And the likeness of [pp]the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible [q]crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

And under the firmament were their 23 wings [r]straight, the one toward the other:
every one had two, [s]which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies. And 24 when they went, [t]I heard the noise of their wings, [u]like the noise of great waters, as [tv]the voice of [w]the Almighty, the voice of [x]speech, [y]as the noise of a host: when they stood, they let down their wings. And there was a voice from 25 [p]the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

And above [p]the firmament that was 26 over their heads was [z]the likeness of a throne, [z]as the appearance of [a]a sapphire stone: and [b]upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness [b]as the appearance of a man above upon it.
And I saw [c]as the colour of amber, 27 as the appearance of fire round about within it, [cc]from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and [d]it had brightness round about. [e]As 28 the appearance of the bow [f]that is in the cloud in the day of rain, [d]so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of [g]the glory of the LORD.
[h]And when I saw it, [h]I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

II.

And he said unto me, [a]Son of man, [b]stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee. [c]And the spirit entered into me when 2 he spake unto me, and [bc]set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.
And he said unto me, Son of man, I 3 send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious [t]nation that hath rebelled against me: [d]they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day. For [e]they are [t]impudent 4 children and stiff hearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD.
And they, [f]whether they will hear, or 5 whether they will forbear, (for [fg]they are a rebellious house,) yet [h]shall know that there hath been a prophet among them. And thou, [a]son of man, [i]be not 6 afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though [lk]briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among [l]scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor [i]be dismayed at their looks, though [g]they be a rebellious house. [m]And 7 thou shalt speak my words unto them, [f]whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are [t]most rebellious. But thou, son of man, hear what 8
I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that [g]rebellious house: open thy mouth, and [n]eat that I give thee.

And when I looked, behold, [o]a hand 9 was sent unto me; and lo, [p]a roll of a book was therein; and he spread it be- 10 fore me; and it was written [q]within and without: and [r]there was written therein lamentations, and [s]mourning, and woe.
Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; [a]eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel. So 2
I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll. And he said unto me, 3 Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. [ab]Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth [c]as honey for sweetness.

And he said unto me, Son of man, 4 go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.
For thou art not sent to a people [t]of a 5 strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; not to many 6 people [t]of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. [l]Surely, [f]had I sent thee to them, they would have hark- 7 ened unto thee. But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; [g]for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel [h]are [t]impudent and 8 hardhearted. Behold, [k]I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against [i]their fore- 9 heads. As [l]an adamant [m]harder than flint have [k]I made thy forehead: [n]fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, [o]though they be a rebellious 10 house. Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, [p]all my words that I shall speak unto thee [b]receive in thine heart, and 11 hear with thine ears. And go, get thee to [q]them of the captivity, unto [r]the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [s]whether they will hear, or 12 whether they will forbear. Then [t]the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great [u]rushing, [v]saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD [w]from his place. I heard also the noise of the 13 wings of [x]the living creatures that [t]touched one another, and the noise of [x]the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great [u]rushing. So [t]the spirit 14 lifted me up, and took me away, and I went [t]in bitterness, in the [t]heat of my spirit; but [y]the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

Then I came to [q]them of the cap- 15
tivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt [z]by the river of Chebar, and [a]I sat where they sat, and [a]remained there astonished among them [b]seven days. [c]And it 16 came to pass at the end of [b]seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [d]Son of man, [e]I have made 17 thee a [df]watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and [g]give them warning from me. [h]When I say unto the wicked, 18
[i]Thou shalt surely die; and thou [g]givest him not warning, nor speakest [g]to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; [h]the same wicked man [j]shall die in his iniquity; but [k]his blood will I require at thine hand. [l]Yet if thou [g]warn the wicked, and he 19 turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, [j]he shall die in his iniquity; [lm]but thou [n]hast delivered thy soul. Again, [o]When a righteous man 20 doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and [p]I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not [g]given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and [o]his [t]righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but [k]his blood will I require at thine hand. Nevertheless if 21 thou [g]warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is [g]warned; also thou [n]hast delivered thy soul.

[q]And the hand of the LORD was there 22 upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth [r]into the plain, and [s]I will there talk with thee. Then I arose, 23 and went forth [r]into the plain: and behold, [ss]the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw [t]by the river of Chebar: and [ss]I fell on my face. [u]Then the spirit entered into me, and 24 [u]set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house. But thou, O son 25 of man, behold, [v]they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them: and [w]I will make thy tongue 26 cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that [x]thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them [t]a reprover: [y]for they are a rebellious house. But when I speak 27 with thee, [z]I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, [a]Thus saith the Lord GOD; [a]He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: [y]for they are a rebellious house.

Thou also, son of man, [a]take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and [b]pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:
and [c]lay siege against it, and [de]build a 2
fort against it, and [df]cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and [g]set [l]battering rams against it round about. Moreover take thou unto thee 3 [l]an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and [i]set thy face against it, and [c]it shall be besieged, and [j]thou shalt lay siege against it. [k]This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

Lie thou also [l]upon thy left side, and 4 lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt [m]bear their iniquity. For I have 5 laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, [*n]according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: [n]so shalt thou [m]bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. And when thou hast 6 accomplished them, lie again [l]on thy right side, and thou shalt [m]bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: [n]I have appointed thee [t]each day for a year. Therefore [i]thou shalt set 7 thy face toward [c]the siege of Jerusalem, and [o]thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it. And 8 behold, [p]I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee [t]from one side to another, till thou hast ended [q]the days of thy [c]siege.

Take thou also unto thee wheat, and 9 barley, and [r]beans, and [rs]lentiles, and millet, and [lt]fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof,

[u]according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, [q]three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof. And [tv]thy meat which thou 10 shalt eat shall be [v]by weight, twenty [w]shekels a day: from time to time shalt water [xy]by measure, the sixth part of [yy]a hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, 12 and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, [z]in their sight. And 13 the LORD said, Even thus [zz]shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them. Then said I, [a]Ah Lord GOD, 14 behold, my soul hath not been polluted:
[b]for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of [cd]that which dieth of itself, or [ce]is torn in pieces; neither came there [f]abominable flesh into my mouth. Then he said unto me, Lo, 15
I have given thee cow's dung [g]for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith. Moreover he said unto me, 16 Son of man, behold, [h]I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and [v]they shall eat bread by weight, and [i]with care; and [x]they shall drink water by measure, and [i]with astonishment: that 17 they may want bread and water, and be astonied one with another, and [k]consume away for their iniquity.

than [m]the countries that are round about

GOD; Because ye [p]multiplied more than the nations [m]that are round about you, and [o]have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, [q]neither have done according to the judgments of the nations [m]that are round

VI.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, [a]set thy face towards [b]the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, [bb]and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD [c]to the mountains, and [c]to the hills, to [cd]the rivers, and [ce]to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and [f]I will destroy your high places. And your altars shall be desolate, and [f]your [ll]images shall be broken: and [fg]I will cast down your slain men before your idols. And [f]I will [l]lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and [g]I [h]will scatter your bones round about your altars. In all your dwelling places the cities [i]shall be laid waste, and [f]the high places [g]shall be desolate; that your altars [i]may be laid waste and [j]made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your [k]images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, [l]and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

[m]Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have [n]some that shall escape the sword among the nations, [o]when ye shall be scattered through the countries. And [n]they that escape of you [mp]shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because [q]I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and [r]with their eyes, which [s]go a whoring after their idols: and [pt]they shall lothe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. And [l]they shall know that I am the LORD, and that [u]I have not said [v]in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; Smite [w]with thine hand, and [x]stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel: for [y]they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. [y]He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: [z]thus will I accomplish my fury upon them. Then [l]shall ye know that I am the LORD, [a]when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, [b]upon every high hill, [c]in all the tops of the mountains, and [b]under every green tree, and [c]under every thick [d]oak, the place where they did offer [e]sweet savour to all their idols. So will I [f]stretch out mine hand upon them, and [g]make the land desolate, yea, [ll]more desolate than the wilderness towards [i]Diblath, [k]in all their habitations: [l]and they shall know that I am the LORD.

VII.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD unto the land of [a]Israel; [b]An end, the end is come upon the four [c]corners of the land. Now [b]is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and [d]will judge thee according to thy ways, and [d]will [t]recompense upon thee all thine abominations. [e]And [f]mine eye shall not spare thee, [f]neither will I have pity: but [eg]I will recompense thy ways upon thee, [e]and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: [h]and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come. [b]An end is come, the end is come: it [t]watcheth for thee; behold, it is come. [i]The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: [j]the time is come, [ik]the day of trouble is near, and not the [ll]sounding again of the mountains. Now will I [m]shortly [n]pour out my fury upon thee, and [o]accomplish mine anger upon thee: and [d]I will judge thee according to thy ways, and [d]will recompense thee for all thine abominations. [ef]And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: [d]I will recompense [t]thee according to thy ways [e]and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; [eh]and ye shall know that I am the LORD [p]that smiteth. Behold the day, behold, it is come: [i]the morning is gone forth; [q]the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.

11 [r]Violence is risen up into [q][s]a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their [t]multitude, nor of any of [‖]theirs: [u]neither shall there be wailing for them. 12 [‖]The time is come, the day draweth near: let not [v]the buyer rejoice, nor [r]the seller mourn: [w]for wrath is upon all [t]the multitude thereof. 13 For [x]the seller shall not return to [y]that which is sold, [†]although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole [t]multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself [‖]in [†]the iniquity of his life.

14 [z]They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: [w]for my wrath is upon all [t]the multitude thereof. 15 [a]The sword is without, and [a]the pestilence and [a]the famine within: [b]he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and [b]he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. 16 But [c]they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be [cc]on the mountains [d]like doves of [cc]the valleys, all of them mourning, every one [e]for his iniquity. 17 [f]All [g]hands shall be feeble, and [f]all knees shall [†]be [h]weak as water. 18 They shall also [i]gird themselves with sackcloth, and [k]horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and [l]baldness upon all their heads. 19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be [‡]removed: [m]their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them [n]in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: [‡]because it is [p]the stumblingblock of their iniquity.

20 As for [q]the beauty of his ornament, he set it in [q][r]majesty: but [s]they made the images of [t]their abominations and of [t]their detestable things therein: therefore have I [‖]set it far from them. 21 And [tt]I will give it into the hands of [u]the strangers [v]for a prey, and to [w]the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and [u]they shall pollute it. 22 My face will I turn also from them, and [u]they shall pollute my secret place: for the [‖]robbers shall enter into it, and [u]defile it. 23 [x]Make a chain: for [y]the land is full of bloody crimes, and [z]the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring [w]the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make [a]the pomp of the strong to cease; and [‖][b]their holy places [bc]shall be defiled. 25 [†]Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and 26 [d]there shall be none. [e]Mischief shall come [f]upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; [g]then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but [h]the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel 27 from [i]the ancients. The king shall mourn, and the prince [j]shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: [k]I will do unto them after their way, and [†]according to their deserts will I judge them; [m]and they shall know that I am the LORD.

About B. C. 594.

And it came to pass [a]in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and [b]the elders of Judah sat before me, that [c]the hand of the Lord GOD fell 2 there upon me. Then I beheld, and lo, [d]a likeness as the appearance of fire: [d]from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of [e]bright- 3 ness, [f]as the colour of amber. And [g]he put forth [h]the form of a hand, and [i]took me by a lock of mine head; and [j]the spirit lift me up [k]between the earth and the heaven, and [l]brought me [m]in the visions of God to Jerusalem, [n]to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; [o]where was the seat of [p]the image of jealousy, [q]which provoketh 4 to jealousy. And behold, [r]the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw [s]in the plain.

5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way towards the north. So I lift up mine eyes the way toward the north, [t]and behold, northward at the gate of [u]the altar this [p]image 6 of jealousy in the entry. He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even [uu]the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abomi- 7 nations. And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, 8 behold [v]a hole in the wall. Then said he unto me, Son of man, [vv] dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door. And he said unto 9 me, Go in, and [t] behold the wicked abominations that they do here. So I went 10 in and saw; and behold every form of [w] creeping things, and [t] abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, [x] pourtrayed upon the wall round about. And there stood before them 11 [y] seventy men of [z] the ancients of the house of Israel, and [a] in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of [b] Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up. Then said he unto me, Son of man, 12 hast thou seen what [z] the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of [c] his imagery? for they say, [de] The LORD seeth us not; [d] the LORD hath forsaken the earth. He 13 said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

Then he brought me to the door of 14 [f] the gate of the LORD's house which was towards the north; and behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. Then 15 said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these. And he brought me into [g] the 16 inner court of the LORD's house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, [h] between [i] the porch and [k] the altar, were [l] about five and twenty men, [m] with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces towards the east; and [n] they worshipped [o] the sun towards the east. Then he said unto me, 17 Hast thou seen this, O son of man? [‖] Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they [uu] commit the abominations which they commit here? for [p] they have filled the land with [q] violence, and have returned [r] to provoke me to anger: and lo, they put [s] the branch to their nose. 18 [t] Therefore will I also deal in fury: [u] mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and [v] though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

IX.

He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them [a] that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. And behold, six 2 [b] men came from the way of [c] the higher gate, [td] which lieth toward the north, and every man [t] a slaughter weapon in his hand; and [f] one man among them was [g] clothed with linen, [g] with a writer's inkhorn [t] by his side: and they went in, 3 and stood beside [h] the brasen altar. And [i] the glory of the God of Israel [k] was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to [l] the threshold of the house. And he called to [f] the man [g] clothed with linen, which had the writer's ink- 4 horn by his side; and the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city through the midst of Jerusalem, and [to] set a mark upon [p] the foreheads of the men [q] that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. And to [qq] the others he said in 5 [t] mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: [r] let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: [s] slay [t] utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but [t] come not near any man upon whom is [n] the mark; and [u] begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at [v] the ancient men which 7 were before the house. And he said unto them, [w] Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, [x] that [y] I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, [z] Ah Lord GOD, [x] wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel [a] in thy pouring out 9 of thy fury upon Jerusalem? Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and [b] the land is [t] full of blood, and the city full of [‖] perverseness: for they say, [c] The LORD hath forsaken the earth, 10 and [d] the LORD seeth not. And as for me also, [dr] mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but [e] I will recompense their way upon their head. 11 And behold, [fg] the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, [t] reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

And he spake unto [d]the man clothed 2 with linen, and said, Go in between [e]the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill [t]thine hand with [f]coals of fire from between the cherubims, and [g]scatter them over the city. And he went in [h]in my sight. Now the cherubims stood 3 [i]on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled [j]the inner court. Then [k]the glory of the 4 LORD [l]went up from the cherub, and stood over [l]the threshold of the house;
and [m]the house was filled with the cloud,
and the court was full of [kn]the brightness of the LORD's glory. And [nn]the 5 sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the utter court, [n]as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh. And it came to pass, that 6 when he had commanded [d]the man clothed with linen, saying, [o]Take fire from between [e]the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels. And one 7 cherub [t]stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into [o]the hands of [d]him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

[p]And there appeared in the cheru- 8 bims [q]the form of a man's hand under their wings. [r]And when I looked, be- 9 hold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and [s]the appearance of the wheels was as [t]the colour of a beryl stone. And as for 10 their appearances, [s]they four had one likeness, [s]as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. [u]When they went, 11 they went [v]upon their four sides; [u]they turned not as they went, but [w]to the place whither the head looked they followed it; [u]they turned not as they went. And their whole [t]body, and 12 [x]their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were [x]full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. As for [e]the wheels, [l]it 13 was cried unto them in my hearing, [e]O wheel. [z]And every one had four faces: 14
the first face was the face of a cherub, and [a]the second face was the face of a man, and [a]the third the face of a lion, and [a]the fourth the face of an eagle.
And the cherubims [b]were lifted up. 15
[c]This is the living creature that I saw 16 [d]by the river of Chebar. [e]And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: [e]and when the cherubims lift up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not 17 from beside them. [f]When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these [b]lift up themselves also: for [g]the spirit [l]of the living creature was in
them.
18 Then [h]the glory of the LORD [i]departed from off [h]the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.
19 [j]And the cherubims lift up their wings, and [b]mounted up from the earth [k]in my sight: when they went out, [j]the wheels also were [l]besides them, and every one stood at the door of [m]the east gate of the LORD's house; and [hj]the glory of the God of Israel was over 20 them above. [c]This is the living creature that I saw [n]under the God of Israel [d]by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the [o]cherubims.
21 [p]Every one had four faces apiece, [p]and every one four wings; and [q]the likeness of the hands of a man was under 22 their wings. [r]And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw [d]by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: [s]they went every one straight forward.

Moreover [a]the spirit lift me up, XI.
and brought me unto [b]the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate [c]five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of [d]Azur, and [e]Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, 2 princes of the people. Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked 3 counsel in this city: [f]which say, [lg]It is not near; [h]let us build houses: [i]this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.
4 Therefore prophesy against them, pro-5 phesy, O son of man. [k]And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD;
Thus have ye said, O house of Israel:
for I know [l]the things that come into 6 your mind, every one of them. [m]Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof
7 with the slain. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [n]Your slain whom ye midst of it. [q]Ye have feared the sword; 8 and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD. And [p]I will bring you 9 out of the midst thereof, and [r]deliver you into the hands of strangers, and [s]will execute judgments among you.

[t]Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge 10 you [u]in the border of Israel; [v]and ye shall know that I am the LORD. [o]This 11 city shall not be your [i]caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but [s]I will judge you [u]in the border of Israel: [v]and ye shall know that 12
I am the LORD: [‖]for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but [w]have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

And it came to pass, when I prophe- 13 sied, [x]that [e]Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then [y]fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, [z]Ah Lord GOD, [y]wilt thou [a]make a full end of the remnant of Israel? Again the word of the LORD 14 came unto me, saying, Son of man, thy 15 brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get ye far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession. Therefore say, 16
Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet [b]will I be to them as [c]a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come. There- 17 fore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [d]I will even gather you from the people, [d]and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, [d]and I will give you the land of Israel. And 18 they shall come thither, and [e]they shall take away all [f]the detestable things thereof and all [f]the abominations thereof from thence. And [g]I will give them 19 one heart, and I will put [h]a new spirit within you; and I [i]will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and [i]will give them a heart of flesh: [k]that they may 20 walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and [l]they shall be my people, [l]and I will be their God.
But as for them whose heart walketh 21
after the heart of [f]their detestable things and [f]their abominations, [m]I will recompense their way upon their own heads,
saith the Lord GOD.

Then [n]did the cherubims lift up their 22
wings, and [n]the wheels besides them;
and [no]the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. And [o]the glory 23 of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon [p]the mountain which is on the east side of the city. Afterwards [q]the spirit took me 24 up, and brought me [r]in vision by the Spirit of God [s]into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. Then I spake 25 unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

The word of the LORD also came XII.
unto me, saying, Son of man, thou 2 dwellest in the midst of [a]a rebellious house, [b]which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: [a]for they are a rebellious house.
Therefore thou son of man, [c]prepare 3 thee [‖d]stuff for removing, and remove by day [dd]in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: [c]it may be they will [ee]consider, [a]though they be a rebellious house. Then shalt thou bring forth thy 4 stuff by day in their sight, [d]as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth [f]at even in their sight, [†]as they that go forth into captivity. [†g]Dig thou [f]through 5 the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby. In their sight shalt thou bear 6 it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in [h]the twilight: [f]thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for [i]I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel. And I did so [j]as I 7 was commanded: I brought forth my in the even I [†]digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in [h]the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

And in the morning came the word 8 of the LORD unto me, saying, Son of 9 man, hath not the house of Israel, [a]the rebellious house, said unto thee, [k]What doest thou? Say thou unto them, Thus 10 saith the Lord GOD; This [l]burden con- cerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them. Say, [i]I am your sign: [m]like as 11
I have done, so shall it be done unto

17 Moreover the word of the LORD came
18 to me, saying, Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and [a] with carefulness;
19 and say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD, of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; [a] They shall eat their bread with carefulness, [a] and drink their water with astonishment, that [b] her land may be desolate from [t] all that is therein, [c] because of [d] the violence of all them that dwell therein.

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, [i] The days are at hand, and [h] the effect of every 24 vision. For [k] there shall be no more any [lm] vain vision nor [m] flattering divination within the house of Israel.
25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and [n] the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more [o] prolonged: for in your days, [p] O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.

26 Again the word of the LORD came to 27 me, saying, Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, [q] The vision that he seeth is [r] for many days to come,
28 [q] and he prophesieth of the times that are far off. Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [n] There shall none of my words be [o] prolonged any more, [n] but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

3 ye the word of the LORD; thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that [t] follow their own spirit,

my fury upon it in blood, [b]to cut off from it man and beast: [c]though Noah, 20
Daniel, and Job, were in it, [z]as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; [w]they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. For thus saith the Lord 21 GOD; [‖]How much more when [x]I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, [fghi]the sword, and [fhk]the famine, and [fgl]the noisome beast, and [fghm]the pestilence, [b]to cut off from it man and beast?
Yet behold, [n]therein shall be left a rem- 22 nant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see [o]their way and their doings: and [p]ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. And [p]they shall comfort you, 23 when ye see [o]their ways and their doings:
and ye shall know that I have not done [q]without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord GOD.

XV.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, What is the 2 vine tree more than any tree, or than [a]a branch which is among the trees of the forest? Shall wood be taken thereof 3 to do any work? or will men take [b]a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? Be- 4 hold, [c]it is [d]cast into the fire for fuel;
the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burnt. [†]Is it meet for any work? Behold, when it 5 was whole, it was [†]meet for no work:
[e]how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned? Therefore thus 6 saith the Lord GOD; [f]As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And 7 [g]I will set my face against them; [h]they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; [i]and ye shall know that I am the LORD, [g]when I set 8 my face against them. And [k]I will make the land desolate, because they have [†]committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD.

Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, [a]cause 2
Jerusalem to know her abominations, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto 3 Jerusalem; Thy [†d]birth and thy nativity is of the land of [e]Canaan; [f]thy father was [g]an Amorite, and [f]thy mother [h]a Hittite. And as for thy nativity, [i]in the 4 day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water [‖]to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. [j]None eye 5 pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to [k]the lothing of thy person, [i]in the day that thou wast born.

And when I passed by thee, and saw 6 thee [‖]polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast [kk]in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast [kk]in thy blood, Live. [l]I have 7 [†]caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to [†]excellent [n]ornaments: [o]thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast [p]naked and bare. Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and [q]I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and [r]thou 9 becamest mine. Then washed I thee with water; yea, I throughly washed away thy [†]blood from thee, and [s]I an-10 ointed thee with oil. I clothed thee also with [t]broidered work, and [tt]shod thee with [u]badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with [v]fine linen, and I cover-11 ed thee with [w]silk. [x]I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put [y]bracelets upon thine hands, and [z]a chain [a]on thy 12 neck. And I put a jewel on thy [†]forehead, and [b]earrings in thine ears, and [c]a 13 beautiful crown upon thine head. Thus [d]wast thou decked with gold and silver;

and thy raiment was of [e]fine linen, and [e]silk, and [e]broidered work; [f]thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and [g]thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom. And [h]thy renown went forth among the heathen [gh]for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my [i]comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD.

But thou didst trust [g]in thine own beauty, and [j]playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications [k]on every one that passed by; his it was. And of thy garments thou didst take, and [l]deckedst thy high places [m]with divers colours, and [j]playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of [n]my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself [o]images [t]of men, and [j]didst commit whoredom with them, and tookest [e]thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and [p]thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them. [q]My meat also which I gave thee, [f]fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for [t]a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD. Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, [r]whom thou hast borne unto me, and [s]these hast thou sacrificed unto them [t]to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms [t]a small matter, that thou hast slain [r]my children, and delivered them [s]to cause them to pass through [u]the fire for them? And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered [v]the days of thy youth, when thou wast [w]naked and bare, and wast [x]polluted [kk]in thy blood. And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord GOD;) that thou hast also built unto thee an [ll]eminent place, and [y]hast made thee a high place in every street. Thou hast built thy high place [z]at every head of the way, and hast made [g]thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet [a]to every one that passed by, and [b]multiplied thy whoredoms. [a]Thou hast also committed fornication with [c]the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and [b]hast increased thy whoredoms, [d]to provoke me to anger. Behold therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and [e]have diminished [f]thine ordinary food, and [ff]delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, [g]the [ll]daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way. [a]Thou hast played the whore also [h]with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied. [ab]Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of [i]Canaan unto [j]Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith. How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman; [ll]in that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and [m]makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as a harlot, [n]in that thou scornest hire; but as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers [o]instead of her husband. They give gifts to all whores: but [np]thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and [t]hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom. And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that [p]thou givest a reward, and [n]no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD: thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy [q]filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by [r]the blood of thy children, [r]which thou didst give unto them; behold therefore, [s]I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, [t]with all them that thou hast hated; [s]I will even gather them round about against thee, and [tt]will discover thy nakedness unto them, that [u]they may see all thy nakedness. And [uu]I will judge thee, [t]as [vw]women that break wedlock and [rvx]shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy. And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down [y]thine eminent place, and shall break down [y]thy high places: [uza]they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, [z]and [b]shall take [t]thy fair jewels, and leave thee [c]naked and bare. [d]They shall also bring up a company against thee, and [e] they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords. And [f] they shall burn thine houses with 41 fire, and [g] execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and [h] I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and [i] thou also shalt give no hire any more. So [k] will I make my 42 fury towards thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. Because thou hast not remembered [l] the 43 days of thy youth, but [m] hast fretted me in all these things; behold therefore, [n] I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD: and thou shalt not [nn] commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

Behold, every one that useth pro- 44 verbs shall use this [o] proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. Thou art thy mother's daugh- 45 ter, that [p] lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of [q] thy sisters, which [p] lothed their husbands and their children: [r] your mother was a Hittite, and [r] your father an Amorite. And thine elder sister is [s] Sa- 46 maria, she and her daughters that dwell [t u] at thy left hand: and [t] thy younger sister, that dwelleth [t v] at thy right hand, is [w] Sodom and her daughters. [x] Yet 47 hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, [l] as if that were a very little thing, [z] thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways. [a] As I live, saith the Lord 48 GOD, [b] Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters. Behold, this 49 was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, [c] pride, [d] fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. And 50 [c] they were haughty, and [e] committed abomination before me: therefore [f] I took them away [g] as I saw good. Nei- 51 ther hath [h] Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and [i] hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done. [j] Thou 52 also, which hast [k] judged thy sisters, [l] bear thine own shame for thy sins [h] that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, [i] in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

When [m] I shall bring again their cap- 53 tivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in 54 the midst of them: that thou mayest [l] bear thine own shame, and [n] mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that [nn] thou art a comfort unto them. When thy sisters, Sodom and her 55 daughters, shall return to [nnn] their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters 56 shall return to your former estate. For thy sister Sodom was not [t] mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy [t] pride, 57 before thy wickedness was discovered, [p] as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of [t] Syria, and all that are round about her, [q] the daughters of the Philistines, which [u] despise thee round 58 about. [r] Thou hast [t] borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the 59 LORD. For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast [s] despised [t] the oath 60 [s] in breaking [t] the covenant. Nevertheless [u] I will remember my covenant with thee [v] in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee [w] an 61 everlasting covenant. Then [x] thou shalt remember thy ways, and [n] be ashamed, when thou shalt receive [y] thy sisters, [y] thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee [z] for daughters, 62 but [a] not by thy covenant. And [b] I will establish my covenant with thee; [c] and thou shalt know that I am the 63 LORD: [d] that thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and [e] never [f] open thy mouth any more, [d] because of thy shame, when I am [g] pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord GOD.

his young twigs, and carried it into a land of [h]traffick; he set it in a city of merchants. [i]He took also of the seed 5 of the land, and [l]planted it [j]in a fruitful field; he placed it [k]by great waters, and set it [k]as a willow tree. And it grew, 6 and became [kk]a spreading vine [l]of low stature, [m]whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth [n]branches, and shot forth [o]sprigs. There was also [p]another great eagle 7 [d]with great wings and many [d]feathers: and behold, [p]this vine [m]did bend her roots towards him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by [q]the furrows of her plantation. It was planted in a good [l]soil by 8 great waters, [qq]that it might bring forth branches, and [qq]that it might bear fruit, [qq]that it might be a goodly vine. Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; 9 Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof. Yea behold, 10 being planted, shall it prosper? [r]shall it not utterly wither, when [s]the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in [q]the furrows where it grew.

Moreover the word of the LORD came 11
unto me, saying, Say now to [t]the rebel- 12
lious house, [tt]Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, [u]the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon; and [v]hath taken of the 13 king's seed, and made a covenant with him, [w]and hath [l]taken an oath of him: [u]he hath also taken [x]the mighty of the land: that the kingdom might be [y]base, 14 that it might not lift itself up, [l]but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. But [z]he rebelled against him [a]in send- 15
ing his ambassadors [ab]into Egypt, [c]that they might give him horses and much people. [d]Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or [e]shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? [f]As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely 16 [g]in the place where the king dwelleth [v]that made him king, [e]whose oath he despised, and [e]whose covenant he brake, even with him [h]in the midst of Babylon 17

he shall die. [b]Neither shall [i]Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, [k]by casting up mounts, and [k]building forts, to cut off 18 many persons: seeing [e]he despised the oath [e]by breaking the covenant, when lo, he had [l]given his hand, and hath done all these things, [e]he shall not escape. 19
Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [f]As I live, surely [em]mine oath that he hath despised, and [e]my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon 20 his own head. And [n]I will spread my net upon him, and [n]he shall be taken in my snare, and [h]I will bring him to Babylon, and [o]will plead with him there for [p]his trespass that he hath trespassed 21 against me. And all his fugitives with all [q]his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered [q]towards all winds: and ye shall know that [r]I the LORD have spoken it.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also 22
[s]take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will [t]crop off from the top of his young twigs [u]a tender one, and will plant it [v]upon a high moun- 23
tain and eminent: [w]in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and [x]it shall bring forth boughs, and [x]bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and [y]under it shall dwell [z]all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of [zz]the branches thereof 24 shall they dwell. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD [a]have brought down the high tree, [a]have exalted the low tree, have dried up [b]the green tree, and have made [bc]the dry tree to flourish: [d]I the LORD have spoken and have done it.

house of Israel, neither [h]hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither [i]hath come near to [k]a menstruous woman, and hath 7 not [l]oppressed any, but [m]hath restored to the debtor his pledge, [n]hath spoiled none by violence, [o]hath given his bread to the hungry, and [op]hath covered the naked with a garment; [q]he that hath not given 8 forth upon [r]usury, neither [q]hath taken any [s]increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, [t]hath executed true judgment between man and man, [u]hath 9 walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, [v]he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD.

If he beget a son that is a [‖]robber, [w]a 10 shedder of blood, and [‖]that doeth the like to any one of these things, and that 11 doeth not any of those duties, but even [f]hath eaten upon the mountains, and [h]defiled his neighbour's wife, [lx]hath oppressed the poor and needy, [nx]hath spoiled by violence, hath not [m]restored the pledge, and [g]hath lift up his eyes to the idols, [xx]hath committed abomination, [q]hath given forth upon usury, and 13 hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; [y]his [t]blood shall be upon him.

Now lo, if he beget a son, that seeth 14 all his father's sins which he hath done, and [yy]considereth, and doeth not such like, that [f]hath not eaten upon the 15 mountains, neither [g]hath lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, [h]hath not defiled his neighbour's wife, neither [l]hath oppressed any, [tm]hath not 16 withholden the pledge, neither [n]hath spoiled by violence, but [o]hath given his bread to the hungry, and [o]hath covered the naked with a garment, that [z]hath 17 taken off his hand from the poor, [q]that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, [u]hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, [v]he shall surely live. As for his father, because 18 [a]he cruelly oppressed, [an]spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even [b]he shall die in his iniquity.

Yet say ye, Why? [c]doth not the son 19 bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done [d]that which is lawful and right, and [dd]hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, [e]he shall surely live. [f]The soul that sinneth, it 20 shall die. [g]The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: [h]the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and [hi]the wickedness of 21 the wicked shall be upon him. But [k]if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and [dd]keep all my statutes, and [d]do that which is lawful and right, [e]he shall surely live, 22 he shall not die. [l]All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he 23 shall live. [m]Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 But [n]when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? [no]All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in [p]his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die. 25 [q]Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not 26 your ways unequal? [n]When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he 27 hath done shall he die. Again, [k]when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and [d]doeth that which is lawful and right, 28 he shall save his soul alive. Because he [r]considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, [e]he shall surely live, he shall 29 not die. [q]Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore I [s]will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord GOD. [t]Repent, and turn [‖u]yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be 31 your [v]ruin. [w]Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you [x]a new heart and a new spirit: [y]for why will 32 ye die, O house of Israel? For [z]I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn [‖u]yourselves, and live ye.

she brought up one of her whelps: [d] it became [c] a young lion, and it learned [dd] to catch the prey; [e] it devoured men.
The nations also heard of him; [f] he 4

And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of [a] the 1 elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and [b] sat before me. Then came 2
the word of the LORD unto me, saying, 3
Son of man, speak unto the [a] elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye come to inquire of me? [c] As I live, saith the Lord GOD, [d] I will not be inquired of by you. 4 Wilt thou [ll e] judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? [f] cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:
and say unto them, Thus saith the 5
Lord GOD; In the day when [g] I chose Israel, and [ll h] lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and [i] made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I [h] lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, [k] I am the 6
LORD your God; in the day that I [h] lifted up mine hand unto them, [l] to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had [m] espied for them, [l n] flowing with milk and honey, 7 which is [n] the glory of all lands: then said I unto them, [o] Cast ye away every man the abominations [p] of his eyes, and [q] defile not yourselves with [r] the idols of Egypt: [k] I am the LORD your God.
But [s] they rebelled against me, and 8 would not hearken unto me: they did not every man [o] cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake [r] the idols of Egypt: [t] then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, [u] to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.
But I wrought [w] for my name's sake, 9
[v] that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, [v] in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt. Wherefore [x] I 10 caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them [y] into the wilderness. And [z] I gave them my sta- 11 tutes, and [t] shewed them my judgments, [a] which if a man do, [ab] he shall even live in them. Moreover also I gave 12 them [c] my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that [d] I am the LORD that sanctify them. But the house of Israel [e] rebel- 13 led against me in the wilderness: [f] they walked not in my statutes, and [f] they despised my judgments, [a]which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and [c f]my sabbaths they greatly polluted: [g]then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them [h]in the wilderness, [g]to consume them. [i]But I wrought for my name's sake, [i]that it should not be polluted before the heathen, [i]in whose sight I brought them out. Yet also [k]lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, [l]flowing with milk and honey, [l]which is the glory of all lands; because [f]they despised my judgments, and [f]walked not in my statutes, but [f]polluted [c]my sabbaths: for [m]their heart went after their idols. [n]Nevertheless [o]mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither [p]did I make an end of them in the wilderness. But I said unto [q]their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in [r]the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor [s]defile yourselves with their idols: I am the LORD your God; [t]walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and [u]hallow [c]my sabbaths; and [uu]they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God. Notwithstanding [v]the children [w]rebelled against me: [f]they walked not in my statutes, [f]neither kept my judgments to do them, [a]which if a man do, he shall even live in them; [f]they polluted my sabbaths: [g]then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, [w]to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. [n]Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and [i]wrought for my name's sake, [i]that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth. I [x]lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would [y]scatter them among the heathen, and [z]disperse them through the countries; because [f]they had not executed my judgments, but [f]had despised my statutes, and [f]had polluted my sabbaths, and [a]their eyes were after their fathers' idols. [b]Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live; and I polluted them [d]in [q]their own gifts, in that [c]they caused to pass through [d]the fire [c]all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that [e]they might know that I am the LORD.

Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [f]Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have [t]committed a trespass against me. For when I had brought them into the land, for the which [g]I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw [h i]every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their [i k]sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings. Then [‖]I said unto them, [m]What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah [n]unto this day. Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [o p]Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and [p]commit ye whoredom after their abominations? For when ye offer [q]your gifts, [q]when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, [o]ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, [n]even unto this day: and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? [r]As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you.

And [s]that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, [t]We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve [u]wood and stone. [r]As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely [v]with a mighty hand, and [v]with a stretched out arm, and [w]with fury poured out, will I rule over you: and [x]I will bring you out from the people, and [x]will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, [v]with a mighty hand, and [v]with a stretched out arm, and [w]with fury poured out. And I will bring you into [y]the wilderness of the people, and there will [z]I plead with you [a]face to face. [aa]Like as [z]I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so [z]will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. And [b]I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the [‖]bond of the covenant: and [c]I will [d]purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: [e]I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and [f]they shall not enter into the land of Israel: [g]and ye shall know that I am the LORD. As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; [h]Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but [i] pollute ye my holy name no more with [k] your gifts, and with your idols. For [l] in mine holy mountain, [l] in 40 the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall [m] all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there [n] will I accept them, and there will I require [o] your offerings, and the [l o] firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. [n] I will accept you with your [t] sweet 41 savour, when [p] I bring you out from the people, and [p q] gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and [r] I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. [g] And ye shall 42 know that I am the LORD, when [q] I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I [s] lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers. And there [t] shall ye remember [u] your 43 ways, and all [u] your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and [v] ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed. [g] And 44 ye shall know that I am the LORD, when [w] I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked [u] ways, nor according to your corrupt [u] doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

Moreover the word of the LORD came 45 unto me, saying, Son of man, [x y] set thy 46 face toward the south, and [x z] drop thy word toward the south, and [z z] prophesy against the forest of the south field; and say to the forest of the south, Hear 47 the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, [a] I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every [b] green tree in thee, and every [b] dry tree: the flaming [c] flame shall not be quenched, and all faces [d] from the south to the north shall be burnt therein. And all flesh shall see that [e] I the 48 LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched. Then said I, [f] Ah Lord 49 GOD, they say of me, Doth he not [g] speak parables?

XXI.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, [a] set thy 2 face toward Jerusalem, and [a] drop thy word toward the holy places, and [a] prophesy against the land of Israel, and 3 say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of [b] his sheath, and [c] will cut off from thee 4 [d] the righteous and the wicked. Seeing then that [c] I will cut off from thee [d] the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of [b] his sheath against all flesh [e] from the south to the 5 north: that all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of [b] his sheath: [f] it shall not return 6 any more. Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh [ff] before their 7 eyes. And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and [g] every heart shall melt, and [h] all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and [h] all knees [f] shall be weak as water: [hh] behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD.

Again the word of the LORD came 8 unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy, 9 and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, [i] A sword, a sword [j] is sharpened, and also 10 [k] furbished: [j] it is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; [k] it is furbished that it may [i l] glitter: should [m] we then make mirth? [l] it contemneth [n] the rod of [n o] my 11 son, as every tree. And he hath given it [k] to be furbished, that it may be handled: [j] this sword is sharpened, and [k] it is furbished, to give it into the hand 12 of [p] the slayer. Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: [l] terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: [q] smite there- 13 fore upon thy thigh. [l] Because it is a trial, and [r] what if the sword contemn even the rod? it [s] shall be no more, 14 saith the Lord GOD. Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and [q t] smite thine [t] hands together, and let the sword be doubled [u] the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, [v] which entereth into 15 their privy chambers. I have set the [l] point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their [w] ruins be multiplied: ah, it is made [l] bright, it is [l] wrapt up for 16 the slaughter. [x] Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, [t] or on the left, [y] whithersoever thy face is set. 17 I will also [q t] smite mine hands together, and [z] I will cause my fury to rest: [zz] I the LORD have said it.

The word of the LORD came unto me 18 again, saying, Also, thou son of man, ap- 19 point thee two ways, that the sword of [a]the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land:
and [b]choose thou [c]a place, [b]choose it, [d]at the head of the way to the city. Ap- 20 point a way, that [e]the sword may come to [ef]Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced. For 21 the king of Babylon stood at [g]the [†]parting of the way, [d]at the head of the two ways, [h]to use divination: he [i]made his [‖]arrows bright, he consulted with [†]images, he looked in the liver. At his right hand 22 was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint [‖†]captains, to open the mouth [l]in the slaughter, [m]to lift up the voice with shouting, [k]to appoint battering rams against the gates, [k]to cast a mount, and [k]to build a fort. And it shall be unto 23 them as a false divination in their sight, [‖n]to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, [o]that they may be taken. Therefore 24 thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, [o]ye shall be taken with the hand.

And thou, [p]profane [q]wicked prince of 25
Israel, [r]whose day is come, [rr]when iniquity shall have an end, thus saith the 26 Lord GOD; Remove [s]the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: [t]exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. [†]I will overturn, over- 27 turn, overturn it: and [u]it shall be no more, [v]until he come whose right it is;
and [w]I will give it him.

And thou, son of man, prophesy and 28 say, Thus saith the Lord GOD [x]concerning the Ammonites, and [x]concerning their reproach; even say thou, [y]The sword, the sword is [yy]drawn: for the slaughter it is [y]furbished, to consume because of the [y]glittering: whiles [z]they 29 see vanity unto thee, whiles [z]they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain of the wicked, [r]whose day is come, [rr]when their iniquity shall have an end. [‖]Shall 30
I cause it to return into [a]his sheath?
[b]I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of [c]thy 31 nativity. And [d]I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, [e]I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of [‖f]brutish men, and 32 skilful to destroy. Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; [g]thou shalt be no more remembered: [zz]for I the LORD have spoken it.

Moreover the word of the LORD came XXII.
2 unto me, saying, Now, thou son of man,
[a]wilt thou [‖]judge, wilt thou judge the [†b]bloody city? yea, thou shalt [†bb]shew
3 her all her abominations. Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, [c]The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that [d]her time may come, and maketh idols
4 against herself [e]to defile herself. [f]Thou art become guilty [c]in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and [d]thou hast caused thy days to draw near,
and [g]art come even unto thy years:
therefore have I made thee [h]a reproach unto the heathen, and [i]a mocking to all 5 countries. Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art [†]infamous and much vexed.
6 Behold, [l]the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their [†m]power [c]to shed 7 blood. In thee [n]have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they [o]dealt by [‖p]oppression with the stranger: in thee [pp]have they [q]vexed 8 the fatherless and the widow. [r]Thou hast despised mine holy things, and [s]hast 9 profaned my sabbaths. In thee are [†t]men that carry tales [c]to shed blood:
and in thee [u]they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee [v]they commit 10 lewdness. In thee [w]have they discovered their father's nakedness: in thee have they humbled [x]her that was [J]set apart 11 for pollution. And [‖]one [y]hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and [‖]another [z]hath [‖]lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and [‖]another in thee [a]hath humbled his sister, his father's 12 daughter. In thee [b]have they taken gifts [bb]to shed blood; [c]thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by [d]extortion, and [e]hast forgotten me, saith the Lord

GOD. Behold therefore, [f]I have smitten 13 mine hand at [g]thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at [bb]thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee. [h]Can 14 thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? [i]I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it. And [kl]I will scatter thee 15 among the heathen, and [km]disperse thee in the countries, and [n]will consume thy filthiness out of thee. And thou ‖shalt 16 [o]take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, [p]and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

And the word of the LORD came unto 17
me, saying, Son of man, the house of 18 Israel is to me become [q]dross: all they are [r]brass, and [s]tin, and [r]iron, and lead, [t]in the midst of the furnace; they are even [u]the [t]dross of silver. Therefore 19
thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become [q]dross, behold therefore,
I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. [†]As they gather silver, and 20 [r]brass, and [r]iron, and lead, and [s]tin, [t]into the midst of the furnace, [v]to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you [w]in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.
Yea, I will gather you, and [v]blow upon 21 you [x]in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.
As silver is melted [t]in the midst of the 22 furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD [y]have poured out my fury
upon you.

And the word of the LORD came unto 23
me, saying, Son of man, say unto her, 24
Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor [z]rained upon in the day of indignation. There is a [a]conspiracy of her pro- 25
phets in the midst thereof, [b]like a roaring lion [c]ravening the prey; [d]they have devoured souls; [e]they have taken [f]the treasure and [g]precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. [h]Her priests [i]have [†]violated 26 my law, and [i]have [k]profaned mine holy things: [l]they have put no difference between the holy and profane, [l]neither have they [m]shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and [n]have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and [k]I am profaned among them. [o]Her prin- 27 ces in the midst thereof are like [p]wolves [c]ravening the prey, [o]to shed blood, and to destroy souls, [oq]to get dishonest gain.
28 And [r]her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, [s]seeing vanity, and [s]divining lies unto them, saying,
Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the 29 LORD hath not spoken. The people of the land have used ‖oppression, and [u]exercised robbery, and [u]have vexed the poor and needy: yea, [t]they have 30 oppressed the stranger [†]wrongfully. And [v]I sought for a man among them, that should [wx]make up the hedge, and [w]stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found 31 none. Therefore [y]have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them [z]with the fire of my wrath:
[a]their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

The word of the LORD came again unto XXIII.
2 me, saying, Son of man, there were [a]two 3 women, the daughters of one mother: and [b]they committed whoredoms [c]in Egypt;
[b]they committed whoredoms [d]in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there [e]they bruised [f]the teats of 4 their virginity. And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah [a]her sister: and [g]they were mine, and [h]they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; [i]Samaria is ‖Aholah, and Jerusalem ‖Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot [k]when she was mine; and [l]she doted on her lovers, on [m]the Assyrians her neighbours, 6 which were clothed with blue, [no]captains and rulers, [n]all of them desirable young men, [n]horsemen [p]riding upon horses.
7 Thus she [†]committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were [†]the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom [l]she doted: with all their idols 8 she defiled herself. Neither left she her whoredoms brought [c]from Egypt: for [d]in her youth they lay with her, and [e]they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.
9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of [r]the 10 Assyrians, [l]upon whom she doted. These [s]discovered her nakedness: [ss]they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became [†]famous among women; for they had [t]executed judgment upon her.

And [u] when [a] her sister Aholibah saw 11
this, [v†] she was more corrupt in [l] her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms [†] more than her sister in her whoredoms. [l] She doted upon [w] the Assyrians 12
her neighbours, [n] captains and rulers [x] clothed most gorgeously, [n] horsemen riding upon horses, [n] all of them desirable young men. Then I saw that 13 she was defiled, that they took both one way, and that she increased her whore- 14 doms: for when she saw men [y] pourtrayed upon the wall, [z] the images of [a] the Chaldeans pourtrayed [b] with vermilion, girded with girdles upon their 15 loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians [a] of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:
and [†] as soon as she saw them with 16 her eyes, [h] she doted upon them, and [c] sent messengers unto them into [a] Chaldea. And the [†] Babylonians came to 17 her into [cc] the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and [d] her mind was [†] alienated from them. So 18 she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then [d] my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister. Yet [e] she 19 multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance [f] the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot [g] in the land of Egypt. For [h] she doted 20 upon their paramours, [g i] whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and [i] whose issue is like the issue of horses. Thus thou 21 [l] calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, [f] in bruising thy teats [g] by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith 22
the Lord GOD; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, [d] from whom thy mind is alienated, and [k] I will bring them against thee on every side; the 23
Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, [l] Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, all the Assyrians with them: [m] all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and [n] renowned, all of them riding upon horses. And they 24 shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and [o] wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee [p] buckler and [p] shield and [q] helmet round about: and I will set judgment before them, and [r] they shall judge thee according to their judgments. And I 25 will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: [s] they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and [ss] thy residue shall be 26 devoured by the fire. [t] They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, [t] and take 27 away thy [†] fair jewels. Thus [u] will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and [v] thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor re-28 member Egypt any more. For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them [w] whom thou hatest, into the hand of them [d] from whom thy mind is alien-29 ated: and they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy [x] labour, and shall leave thee [y] naked and bare: and [z] the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both 30 thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. I will do these things unto thee, because [a] thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted 31 with their idols. Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I 32 give [b] her cup into thine hand. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: [c] thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in 33 derision; it containeth much. Thou shalt be filled [d] with drunkenness and sorrow, [e] with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of [f] thy 34 sister Samaria. [b] Thou shalt even drink it and [e g] suck it out, and thou shalt [h] break [i] the sheards thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spo-35 ken it, saith the Lord GOD. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because [k] thou hast forgotten me, and [l] cast me behind thy back, therefore [m] bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 The LORD said moreover unto me;
Son of man, [n] wilt thou [‖] judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, [o] declare unto them 37 their abominations; that they have committed adultery, and [p] blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, [q r] whom they bare 38 unto me, [r] to pass for them through the fire, to devour them. Moreover this they have done unto me: [s] they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, 39 and [t] have profaned my sabbaths. For when [r] they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day [tt] into my sanctuary to profane it; and lo, [u] thus have they done in the midst of mine house. And furthermore, 40 that ye have sent for men [†] to come from far, [v] unto whom a messenger was sent; and lo, they came: for whom thou didst [w] wash thyself, [x] paintedst thy eyes, and [y] deckedst thyself with ornaments, and satest upon a [†] stately [z] bed, 41 and a table [a] prepared before it, whereupon [b] thou hast set mine [c] incense and mine [d] oil. And a voice of [e] a multi- 42 tude being at ease was with her: and with the men [†] of the common sort were brought [‖f] Sabeans from the wilderness, which put [g] bracelets upon their hands, and [h] beautiful crowns upon their heads. Then said I unto her that was 43 old in adulteries, Will they now commit [†] whoredoms with her, and she with them? Yet they went in unto her, as 44 they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

And the righteous men, [i] they shall 45 judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and [k] blood is in their hands. For thus saith the Lord GOD; [l] I will 46 bring up a company upon them, and will give them [†] to be removed and spoiled. And [l] the company shall stone them with 47 stones, and [‖] dispatch them with their swords; [o] they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and [pq] burn up their houses with fire. Thus [qr] will I cause 48 lewdness to cease out of the land, [s] that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. And they shall recom- 49 pense your lewdness upon you, and [t] ye shall bear the sins of your idols: [u] and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Again [a] in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, write thee the name 2 of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon [a] set himself against Jerusalem this same day. And [aa] utter 3 a parable unto [b] the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [c] Set on a pot, set it on, and also 4 pour water into it: gather [d] the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and [e] the shoulder; fill it with 5 the choice bones. Take the choice of the flock, and [‖] burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to [f] the bloody city, to the pot whose [g] scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece 7 by piece; [h] let no lot fall upon it. For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon [i] the top of a rock; she [k] poured 8 it not upon the ground, [k] to cover it with dust; that it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon [i] the top of a rock, that 9 it should not be covered. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [f] Woe to the bloody city! I will even make [m] the pile 10 for fire great. Heap on wood, [n] kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and [o] spice it well, and let the bones be burnt. 11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that [p] the brass of it may be hot, and [q] may burn, and that [r] the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that [g] the scum of it 12 may be consumed. She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: [g] her scum 13 shall be in the fire. In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not [s] be purged from thy filthiness [t] any more, till [u] I have caused my fury to rest upon 14 thee. [v] I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and [v] I will do it; I will not go back, [w] neither will I spare, [x] neither will I repent; [y] according to thy ways, and [y] according to thy doings, [z] shall they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Also the word of the LORD came unto 16 me, saying, Son of man, behold, I take away from thee [a] the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: [b] yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears 17 [†] run down. [†] Forbear to cry, [bc] make no mourning for the dead, [d] bind the [e] tire of thine head upon thee, and [f] put on thy shoes upon thy feet, [g] and [h] cover not thy [†] lips, and [i] eat not the bread of 18 men. So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning [j] as I was commanded.

19 And the people said unto me, [k] Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so? Then I answered 20 them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Speak unto the house of 21

Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, [l] I will profane my sanctuary, [m] the excellency of your strength, [n] the desire of your eyes, and [t] that which your soul pitieth; and [o] your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword. And ye shall do as I 22 have done: [gh] ye shall not cover your lips, [i] nor eat the bread of men. And 23 [e] your tires shall be upon your heads, and [f] your shoes upon your feet: [b] ye shall not mourn [p] nor weep; but [q] ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and [r] mourn one towards another. Thus Eze- 24 kiel is unto you [s] a sign: [t] according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and [u] when this cometh, [v] ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Also, thou son of man, shall it not 25 be in the day when I take from them
[w] their strength, the joy of their glory, [n] the desire of their eyes, and [t] that whereupon they set their minds, [o] their sons and their daughters, that [x] he that 26 escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears? In that day [yz] shall thy mouth 27 be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and [z] be no more dumb:
and [s] thou shalt be a sign unto them;
and [v] they shall know that I am the LORD.

XXV. The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, [a] set thy 2 face [b] against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them; and say unto [b] the 3
Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou saidst, [c] Aha, against my sanctuary, when [d] it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;
behold therefore, I will deliver thee to 4 [e] the [t] men of the east [z] for a possession, and they shall set their [f] palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk. And I will make 5 [g] Rabbah [h] a stable for camels, and the Ammonites [i] a couching place for flocks:
[k] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
For thus saith the Lord GOD; Because 6 thou hast [l] clapped thine [t] hands, and [m] stamped with the [t] feet, and [n] rejoiced in [t] heart with all thy [o] despite against the land of Israel; behold therefore, [p] I 7 will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee [q] for [‖] a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; [k] and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because that [r] Moab and [s] Seir do say, [ss] Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the 9 heathen; therefore behold, I will open the [t] [t] side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, [u] the glory of the country, [v] Beth-jeshimoth, [w] Baal-meon, and [x] Kiria-10 thaim, unto the men of the east [‖] with the Ammonites, and will give them [z] in possession, that [y] the Ammonites [a] may not be remembered among the nations.
11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; [k] and they shall know that I am
the LORD.

12 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [b] Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah [t] by taking vengeance, and [c] hath greatly offended, and revenged
13 himself upon them; therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [d] I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and [e] will cut off man and beast from it; and [ee] I will make it desolate from [f] Teman; and [‖] they of [g] Dedan shall fall by the sword.
14 And [h] I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel:
and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury;
and [i] they shall know my vengeance,
saith the Lord GOD.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [j] Because [k] the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance [l] with a de-spiteful heart, to destroy it [‖] for the old 16 hatred; therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, [d] I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and [m] I will cut off [n] the Cherethims, and [m o] destroy 17 the remnant of the [‖] [p] sea coast. And I will execute great [t] vengeance upon them [q] with furious rebukes, [r] and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, [a] because that Tyrus 2 hath said against Jerusalem, [b] Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste: therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; 3 Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause [c] many nations to come up against thee, [d] as the sea causeth his waves to come up. And they shall 4 destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and [e] make her like [f] the top of a rock. It shall be a place for 5 [g] the spreading of nets [h] in the midst of the sea: [i] for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD: and it shall become [k] a spoil to the nations. And [l] her daughters 6 which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; [m] and they shall know that I am the LORD.

For thus saith the Lord GOD; [mm] Behold, 7 I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, [n] a king of kings, [o] from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people. He shall 8 slay with the sword [l] thy daughters in the field: and [p] he shall make a fort against thee, and [‖pq] cast a mount against thee, and [r] lift up the buckler against thee. And he shall set engines 9 of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers. By reason of the abundance of his 10 horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of [s] the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, [†] as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach. With the hoofs of 11 his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground. And they 12 shall [tt] make a spoil of thy riches, and [tt] make a prey of thy [u] merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy [†] thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and [uu] thy dust in the midst of the water. And [v] I will cause the noise of thy songs 13 to cease; and the sound of [w] thy harps shall be no more heard. And [e] I will 14 make thee like the top of a rock: [g] thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for [i] I the LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyrus; 15 Shall not the isles [x] shake at the sound of thy fall, when [y] the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the 16 midst of thee? Then all [z] the princes of the sea [a] shall come down from their thrones, and [a] lay away their robes, and put off their [b] broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with [†] trembling; [abb] they shall sit upon the ground, and [c] shall tremble [d] at every moment, and 17 [e] be astonished at thee. And [f] they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited [†] of seafaring men, the renowned city, [g] which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, [h] which cause their terror to be on 18 all that haunt it. Now [i] shall the isles tremble [j] in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be 19 troubled at thy departure. For thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; [jj] when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great 20 waters shall cover thee; when [k] I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, [kk] with the people of old time, and shall set thee [k] in the low parts of the earth, in places [l] desolate of old, [k] with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory [m] in the land of the 21 living; [n] I will make thee [†] a terror, [n] and thou shalt be no more: [o] though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou [op] never be found again, saith the Lord GOD.

The word of the LORD came again XXVII. 2 unto me, saying, Now, thou son of man, 3 [a] take up a lamentation for Tyrus; and say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at [b] the entry of the sea, which art [c] a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O Tyrus, thou hast said, [d] I am [†] of perfect 4 beauty. Thy borders are in the [†] midst of the seas, thy builders [d] have perfect- 5 ed thy beauty. They have [†] made all thy ship boards of [e] fir trees of [f] Senir: they have taken [g] cedars from Lebanon 6 to make [h] masts for thee. Of [i] the oaks of Bashan have they made thine [j] oars; [‖†] the company of [l] the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of [m] the isles of Chittim.

n Fine linen with o broidered work p from Egypt was q that which thou spreadest forth to be r thy sail; ‖ s blue and s t purple from the isles of u Elishah was that which covered thee. The inhabitants of Zidon and v Arvad were w thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy x pilots. The ancients of y Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee z thy ‖ † calkers: all the ships of the sea with their a mariners were in thee z to b occupy thy merchandise. They of c Persia and of d e Lud and of c d f Phut were in thine army, g thy men of war: g g they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth h thy comeliness. The men of v Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: g g they hanged i their shields upon thy walls round about; j they have made thy beauty perfect. k Tarshish was l thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, m they traded in thy fairs. n o p Javan, n o q Tubal, and n q r Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded s the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy ‖ market. They of the house of t Togarmah m traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules. The men of u Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for v a present horns of ivory and ebony. Syria was l thy merchant by reason of the multitude of † the wares of thy making: m they occupied in thy fairs with w emeralds, x purple, and x broidered work, and y fine linen, and z coral, and ‖ a agate. Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market b wheat of c Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and ‖ d balm. e Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and f white wool. Dan also and Javan ‖ going to and fro g occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, h cassia, and calamus, were in thy market. k Dedan was thy merchant in † precious clothes for chariots. l Arabia, and all the princes of m Kedar, † they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants. The merchants of n o Sheba and n Raamah, they were p thy merchants: p they occupied in thy fairs with i chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. q Haran, and Canneh, and q Eden, the merchants of o Sheba, r Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants. These were thy merchants in ‖ all sorts of things, in s blue † clothes, and s broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, ‖ † among thy merchandise. † The ships of u Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the v midst of the seas. w Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: x the east wind hath broken thee in the † midst of the seas. y Thy riches, and z thy fairs, a thy merchandise, b thy mariners, and c thy pilots, b thy calkers, and b the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all d thy men of war, that are in thee, ‖ and in e all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the † midst of the seas f in the day of thy ruin. g The ‖ suburbs h shall shake at the sound of the cry of c thy pilots. i And all that handle k the oar, b the mariners, and all c the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land; i and shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall l o cast up dust upon their heads, they shall m wallow themselves in the ashes: and they shall n make themselves utterly bald for thee, and o gird them with sackcloth, and they shall l weep for thee o o with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing. And in their wailing they shall p take up a lamentation for thee, and p p lament over thee, saying, i What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed q in the midst of the sea? r When s thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; t thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of a thy merchandise. In the time u when thou shalt be broken by the seas v in the depths of the waters, a thy merchandise and c all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.

XXVIII. The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, say unto 2
[a] the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [b] Because [c] thine heart is lifted up, and [d] thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, [e] in the [†] midst of the seas; yet [f] thou art a man, and not God, though [g] thou set thine heart as the heart of God: be- 3 hold, [h] thou art wiser than [i] Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee: [hj] with thy wisdom and with 4 thine understanding [k] thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures: [†] by thy great 5 wisdom and by [l] thy traffick [k] hast thou increased thy riches, and [cm] thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches: therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; 6 Because [g] thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God; behold therefore, I 7 will bring [n] strangers upon thee, [op] the terrible of the nations: and [o] they shall draw their swords against [q] the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile [q] thy brightness. They shall bring thee 8 down [r] to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain [e] in the midst of the seas. [d] Wilt thou yet say 9 before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but [f] thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that ‖ slayeth thee. Thou shalt die the deaths 10 of [s] the uncircumcised by the hand of [n] strangers: for [t] I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

Moreover the word of the LORD 11 came unto me, saying, Son of man, 12 [u] take up a lamentation upon [a] the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up [v] the sum, [h] full of wisdom, and [w] perfect in beauty. Thou hast been in [x] Eden the 13 garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, [y] the ‖ sardius, [yz] topaz, and [a] the diamond, [b] the ‖ beryl, [c] the onyx, and [d] the jasper, [e] the sapphire, [f] the ‖ emerald, and [g] the carbuncle, and [c] gold: [h] the workmanship of thy [i] tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in [k] the day that thou 14 was created. Thou art the anointed [l] cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon [m] the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of [n] the 15 stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from [k] the day that thou was created, till iniquity was found in thee. 16
By the multitude of [o] thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of [m] the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, [l] O covering cherub, from 17
the midst of [n] the stones of fire. [p] Thine heart was lifted up because of [q] thy beauty, thou hast corrupted [q] thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.
18 [r] Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of [o] thy traffick; therefore [s] will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.
19 All they that know thee among the people [t] shall be astonished at thee: [u] thou shalt be [†] a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 Again the word of the LORD came 21
unto me, saying, Son of man, [v] set thy face [w] against Zidon, and [v] prophesy 22 against it, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [x] Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and [xx] I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and [y] they shall know that I am the LORD, [yy] when I shall have executed judgments in her, 23 [z] and shall be sanctified in her. For I will send into her [a] pestilence, and [a] blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; [b] and they shall know that I am the 24
LORD. And [c] there shall be no more [d] a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn [e] of all that are round about them, [f] that despised them; [b] and they shall know 25 that I am the Lord GOD. Thus saith the Lord GOD; [g] When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered,

XXIX. In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, [a] set thy face against [b] Pharaoh king of Egypt, and [a] prophesy against him, and [c] against all Egypt: speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [d] Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great [e f] dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, [g] which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself. But [h] I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy [i] scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy [i] scales. And I will leave thee [j] thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the [t] open fields; [k] thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee [l] for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven. And all the inhabitants of Egypt [m] shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been [n] a staff of reed to the house of Israel. [o] When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rent all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and [p] madest all their loins to be at a stand. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [q] Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, [q] and cut off man and beast out of thee. And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; [m] and they shall know that I am the LORD: [g] because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it. [d] Behold therefore, I am against thee, and [r] against thy rivers, and [r] I will make the land of Egypt [t] utterly waste and desolate, [‖ t] from the tower of [t] Syene even unto the border of [u] Ethiopia. [v] No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. And I will make the land of Egypt [w] desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, [w] and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: [x] and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. Yet thus saith the Lord GOD; At the end of forty years [y] will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered: and [z] I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of [a] Pathros, into the land of their [‖] habitation; and they shall be there a [†] base kingdom. It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; [b] neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. And it shall be no more [c] the confidence of the house of Israel, [d] which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but [e] they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, [f] Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon [g] caused his army to serve a great service [h] against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was [i] peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it: therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I [j] will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and [k] he shall take her multitude, and [l] take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. I have given him the land of Egypt [‖] for his labour wherewith he served against it, because [g] they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD. In that day [l] will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee [m] the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and [e] they shall know that I am the LORD.

The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD;

y Or, stand upon themselves for their height.

c the Assyrian was d a cedar in Lebanon f with fair e branches, and with a shadowing f shrowd, and g h of a high stature; and h i his top was g among e b the thick boughs. ii The waters ‖ made him great, the deep ‖ set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her ‖ little rivers unto all the trees of the field. Therefore g h his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and k his boughs were multiplied, and l his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, ‖ when he shot forth. m All the fowls of heaven made their nests in k his boughs, and under l his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and m n under his shadow dwelt all great nations. Thus was he fair b in his greatness, in the length of o his branches: for his root was by great waters. The cedars p in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like k his boughs, and q the chesnut trees were not like l his branches; nor any tree p in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty. I have made him fair by the multitude of o his branches: so that all the trees of p Eden, that were p in the garden of God, envied him.

Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because h thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up g h i his top among e the thick boughs, and r his heart is lifted up in his height; I have therefore delivered him into the hand of s the mighty one of the heathen; t he shall surely t deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness. And u strangers, u the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: v upon the mountains and in all v the valleys o his branches are fallen, and l his boughs are broken by all w the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down n from his shadow, and have left him. x Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon l his branches: to the end that none of all the trees by the waters h exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up g h i their top among e the thick boughs, neither ‖ their y trees stand up in their height, y all that drink water: for z they are all delivered unto death, a b to the nether parts of the earth, z in the midst of the children of men, a with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down c to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters d were stayed: and I caused e Lebanon f to mourn for him, and all the trees of 16 the field fainted for him. f I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down c to hell a with them that descend into the pit: and g all the trees of Eden, g the choice and best of e Lebanon, h all that drink water, i shall be comforted a in the 17 nether parts of the earth. They also went down c into hell with him unto j them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that k dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the 18 heathen. l To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among g the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with g the trees of Eden a unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of m the uncircumcised with j them that be slain with the sword. l This is Pharaoh and all l his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

man, I have [k] set thee [c] a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and [d] warn them from me. [h] When I 8 say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak [d] to warn the wicked from his way, [g h] that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but [h] his blood will I

21 And it came to pass [h] in the twelfth year [f] of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, [g] that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, [h] The 22 city is smitten. Now [i] the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and [k] my mouth was opened, and [k] I was no more and he inherited the land: but [n] we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. Wherefore say unto them, Thus 25 saith the Lord GOD; [o] Ye eat with the blood, and [p] lift up your eyes toward your idols, and [q] shed blood: and shall ye possess the land? [r] Ye stand upon 26 your sword, ye work abomination, and [ps] ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land? Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith 27 the Lord GOD; [t] As I live, surely they that are in [l] the wastes shall fall by [u] the sword, and him that is in the open field [v] will I give to [u] the beasts [†] to be devoured, and they that be [w] in the forts and [x] in the caves shall die of [u] the pestilence. For [y] I will lay the land 28 [†] most desolate, and [a] the pomp of her strength shall cease; and [b] the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through. Then [c] shall 29 they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

Also, thou son of man, [d] the children 30 of thy people still are talking [‖] against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD. And 31 [e] they come unto thee [†] as the people cometh, and [‖] they [f] sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for [g] with their mouth [†] they shew much love, but [h] their heart goeth after their covetousness. And lo, [i] thou art unto them as 32 [†] a very lovely song of [k] one that hath a pleasant voice, and [l] can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not. And when this 33 cometh to pass, (lo, it will come) then [m] shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

XXXIV.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against 2 the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; [a] Woe be to the shepherds of Israel [b] that do feed themselves! [c] should not the shepherds feed the flocks? [d] Ye eat the fat, and ye 3 clothe you with the wool, [e] ye kill them that are fed: but [ee] ye feed not the flock. [fg] The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither [h] have ye healed that which was sick, neither [fi] have ye bound up [h] that which was broken, neither [f] have ye brought again [k] that which was driven away, neither [fl] have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and [m] with cruel- 5 ty have ye ruled them. And [n] they were scattered, [‖] no because there is no shepherd: and [p] they became meat to all the beasts of 6 the field, when they were scattered. [pp] My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and [q] none did search or seek after them.

7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word 8 of the LORD; [r] As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock [s] became a prey, and my flock [p] became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but [b] the shepherds fed themselves, and [ee] fed not my flock; 9 therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word 10 of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and [t] I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds [b] feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, [p] that they may not be meat for them.

11 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, [q] I, even I, will [rr] both search my sheep, 12 and [l] seek them out. [†] As [ss] a shepherd [l] seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in [tt] the cloudy and 13 [tu] dark day. And I will bring them out from the people, and [v] gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon [w] the mountains of Israel by [x] the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the 14 country. [y] I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon [z] the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: [a] there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a [b] fat pasture shall they feed upon [w] the moun- 15 tains of Israel. [c] I will feed my flock, and [a] I will cause them to lie down, saith 16 the Lord GOD. [d] I will seek that which was lost, and [d] bring again that which was driven away, and [d] will bind up that which was broken, and [d] will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy [e] the fat and the strong; I will feed them 17 [f] with judgment. And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; [g]Behold, I judge between [t]cattle and cattle, [h]between the rams and [i]the [t]he goats. [j]Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the [k]deep waters, but ye must [l]foul the residue with your feet? And as for my flock, they eat [m]that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink [l]that which ye have fouled with your feet.

Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; [g]Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle. Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and [n]pusht all [o]the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad; therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be [p]a prey; and [g]I will judge between cattle and cattle. And I will set up [q]one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, [r]even [s]my servant David; [q]he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. And [t]I the LORD will be their God, and [rs]my servant David [u]a prince among them; [v]I the LORD have spoken it. And I will make with them [w]a covenant of peace, and [x]will cause [y]the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and [z]they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and [zz]sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places round about [a]my hill [b]a blessing; and [c]I will cause [d]the shower to come down in his season; there shall be [e]showers of blessing. And [c]the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and [cf]the earth shall yield her increase, and [g]they shall be safe in their land, [h]and shall know that I am the LORD, [i]when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that [k]served themselves of them. And they shall no more [l]be a prey to the heathen, [g]neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but [gm]they shall dwell safely, and [mn]none shall make them afraid. And I will raise up for them [o]a plant [ll]of renown, and they shall be no more [t][p]consumed with hunger in the land, neither [q]bear [r]the shame of the heathen any more. Thus [s]shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and [t]that they, even the house of Israel, are [u]my people, saith the Lord GOD. And ye my flock, [uv]the flock of my pasture, [w]are men, and [s]I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, [a]set thy face against [b]mount Seir, and [c]prophesy against it, and say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [d]Behold, [b]O mount Seir, I am against thee, and [e]I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee [t]most desolate. [f]I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, [g]and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. [ch]Because thou hast had a [ll]perpetual hatred, and hast [ti]shed the blood of the children of Israel by the [t]force of the sword [j]in the time of their calamity, [k]in the time that their iniquity had an end: therefore, [l]as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: [m]sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee. Thus will I make [b]mount Seir [t]most desolate, and cut off from it [n]him that passeth out and him that returneth. And I will fill [o]his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in [o]thy valleys, and in all [o]thy rivers, shall they fall [p]that are slain with the sword. I [q]will make thee [r]perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: [g]and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and [s]we will possess it; [ll]whereas [t]the LORD was there: therefore, [l]as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do [u]according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and [v]I will make myself known amongst them, when I have judged thee. [g]And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy [w]blasphemies which thou hast spoken against [x]the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, [s]they are given us [t]to consume. Thus [y]with your mouth ye have [t]boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them. Thus saith the Lord GOD; [z]When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate. [a]As thou didst [aa]rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, [ua]so will I do unto thee: [b]thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and [c]all Idumea, even all of it: [d]and they shall know that I am the LORD.

XXXVI.

Also, thou son of man, prophesy unto [a]the mountains of Israel, [b]and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD: thus saith the Lord GOD; Because [c]the enemy hath said against you, [d]Aha, even [e]the ancient high places [f]are ours in possession: therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [†]Because they have made you desolate, and [g]swallowed you up on every side, [f]that ye might be a possession unto [h]the residue of the heathen, [i]and [‖]ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and [i]are an infamy of the people: therefore, [a]ye mountains of Israel, [b]hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD [k][l]to the mountains, and [l]to the hills, [l]to the [‖]rivers, and [l]to the valleys, to [m]the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, [o]which became [p]a prey and [q]derision to [h]the residue of [o]the heathen that are round about; therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely [r]in the fire of [s]my jealousy have I spoken against [h]the residue of the heathen, and against [ct]all Idumea, [f]which have appointed my land into their possession [t]with the joy of all their heart, [u]with despiteful minds, to cast it out [p]for a prey. Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say [l]unto the mountains, and [l]to the hills, [l]to the rivers, and [l]to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, [s]I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because [v]ye have borne [w]the shame of the heathen: therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have [x]lifted up mine hand, [y]Surely the heathen that are about you, [v]they shall bear their shame.

But ye, [a]O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your [z]branches, and yield your [z]fruit to my people of Israel; for [a]they are at hand to come. For behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye [b]shall be tilled and sown: and [c]I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and [d]the cities shall be inhabited, and [de]the wastes shall be builded: and [c]I will multiply upon you [f]man and beast; and [g]they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after [h]your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: [i]and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and [j]they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth [k]bereave them of men. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, [l]Thou land devourest up men, and hast [k]bereaved thy nations; therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither [‖k]bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD. Neither will I cause men to hear in thee [m]the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, [n]they defiled it by [o]their own way and by [o]their doings: their way was before me [p]as the uncleanness of a removed woman. Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for [q]the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it: and [r]I scattered them among the heathen, and [r]they were dispersed through the countries: [st]according to [o]their way and according to [o]their doings I judged them. And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, [u]they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land. But I had pity [v]for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [w]I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but [vx]for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went. And I will sanctify [u]my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen [i]shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, [xx]when I shall be sanctified in you before [‖y]their eyes. For [z]I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and [zz]will bring you into your own land.

Then will I [a]sprinkle [b]clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: [c]from all your filthiness, and [cc]from all your idols, [d]will I cleanse you. [e]A new heart also will I give you, and [ef]a new spirit will I put within you: [f]and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, [f]and I will give you a heart of flesh. And [g]I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to [hi]walk in my statutes, and ye shall [ij]keep my judgments, [i]and do them. And [k]ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and [l]ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. I will also [m]save you [c]from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for [n]the corn, and will increase it, and [o]lay no famine upon you. And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, [p]and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen. Then [qr]shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and [r]shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. [s]Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel. Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that [c]I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I [k]will also [t]cause you to dwell in the cities, [t]and the wastes shall be builded. And [u]the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by. And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like [v]the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited. Then [w]the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD [x]build the ruined places, and [x]plant that that was desolate: [y]I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it. Thus saith the Lord GOD; [z]I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; [t]I will increase them with men [a]like a flock. As [ab]the [f]holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem [d]in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with [a]flocks of men: [e]and they shall know that I am the LORD.

XXXVII. [a]The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out [b]in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of [c]the valley [d]which was full of bones, and caused me to pass by them round about: and behold, there were very many in the open [lc]valley; and lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me, Son of man, [e]can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, [f]thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, [g]I will cause [h]breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: and I will lay [i]sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and [i]cover you with skin, and put [h]breath in you, and ye shall live; [k]and ye shall know that I am the LORD. So I prophesied [l]as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And when I beheld, lo, [im]the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and [i]the skin covered them above: but there was no [h]breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the [l]wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from [n]the four winds, O breath, and [g]breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied [l]as he commanded me, and [ho]the breath came into them, and they lived, and [o]stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, [p]Our bones are dried, and [q]our hope is lost: [r]we are cut off for our parts. Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, [ds]I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and [t]bring you into the land of Israel. [k]And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, and [ou]shall put my [h]spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD [v]have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Moreover, thou son of man, [w]take thee one stick, and write upon it, For [x]Judah, and for [xx]the chil-

† midst of the land. [m] Sheba, and [n] Dedan, and [o] the merchants of Tarshish, with all [p] the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come [i] to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company [i] to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away [l] cattle and goods, [i] to take a great spoil? Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [q] In that day when my people of Israel [a] dwelleth safely, [r] shalt thou not know it? And [s] thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and [t] many people with thee, all of them [u] riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: and thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, [d] as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be [v] in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, [w] when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, [x] before their eyes.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time [†] by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them? And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that [y] my fury shall come up in my face. For [y] in my jealousy and in [z] the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely [q] in that day there shall be [a] a great shaking in the land of Israel; so that [bc] the fishes of the sea, and [bc] the fowls of the heaven, and [b] the beasts of the field, and all [c] creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and [d] the mountains shall be thrown down, and [e] the [‖] steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. And I will [fg] call for [g] [ba] sword against him [i] throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: [j] every man's sword shall be against his brother. And [k] I will plead against him with [lm] pestilence and with [l] blood; and [n] I will rain upon him, and upon his [o] bands, and upon [o] the many people that are with him, [p] an overflowing rain, and [pq] great hailstones, [n] fire, and [nr] brimstone. Thus [s] will I magnify myself, and [st] sanctify myself; and [stu] I will be known in the eyes of many nations, [v] and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Therefore [a] thou son of man, [a] prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [a] Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: [b] and I will turn thee back, and [‖c] leave but the sixth part of thee, and [d] will cause thee to come up from [†] the north parts, and will bring thee upon [e] the mountains of Israel: and [f] I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand. [g] Thou shalt fall upon [e] the mountains of Israel, thou, and [h] all thy bands, [h] and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto [i] the ravenous birds of every [l] sort, and to [k] the beasts of the field [†] to be devoured. Thou shalt fall upon [†] the open field: for [l] I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. And [m] I will send a fire on [n] Magog, and among them that [o] dwell [‖] carelessly in [p] the isles: [q] and they shall know that I am the LORD. [r] So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not [s] let them pollute my holy name any more: and [qt] the heathen shall know that I am [u] the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

Behold, it is come, and [vw] it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day [x] whereof I have spoken. And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and [xx] shall set on fire and [y] burn [z] the weapons, both [zz] the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the [‖] handstaves, and the spears, and they shall [‖] burn them with fire seven years: so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn [z] the weapons with fire: and [a] they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD. And it shall come to pass in [b] that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the [‖] noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of [‖] Hamon-gog. them, [c] that they may cleanse the land. 13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them [d] a renown the day that [e] I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD. 14 And they shall sever out [†] men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury [f] with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, [c] to cleanse it: after the end of [g] seven months shall they search. 15 And [f] the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he [†] set up [h] a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in [i] the valley of Hamon-gog. 16 And also the name of the city shall be [‖] Hamonah. [c] Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 And thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; [j] Speak [†k] unto every feathered fowl, and [k] to every beast of the field, [j l] Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to [m] my [‖] sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice [k] upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood. 18 [n] Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of [†] goats, of [o] bullocks, all of them fatlings [o] of Bashan. 19 And ye shall eat fat [p] till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, [m] of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. 20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table [n] with [q] horses and chariots, [n] with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD. 21 And [e] I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see [r] my judgment that I have executed, and [r] my hand that I have laid upon them. 22 [s] So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from [b] that day [t] and forward. 23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore [u] hid I my face from them, and [v] gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword. [w] 24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and [u] hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I [x] bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon [y] the whole house of Israel, and [z] will be jealous for my holy name; 26 after that [a] they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they [b] dwelt safely in their land, and [c] none made 27 them afraid. When I have brought them again from the people, and [d e] gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and [d] f am sanctified in them in the 28 sight of many nations; then [g] shall they know that I am the LORD their God, [†] which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have [h] gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more 29 there. [i] Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have [k] poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

In the five and twentieth year [a] of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, [b] in the fourteenth year after that [a] the city was smitten, in the selfsame day 2 [c] the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither. [d] In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon [e] a 3 very high mountain, [‖] by which was as the frame of a city on the south. And he brought me thither, and behold, there was [f] a man, whose appearance was [g] like the appearance of brass, [h] with a line of flax in his hand, and 4 [i] a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. And the man said unto me, [k] Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and [k] hear with thine ears, and [k l] set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought 5 hither: [m] declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel. And behold [n] a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand [i] a measuring reed of six cubits long [o] by the cubit and [o p] a hand breadth: so he measured [q] the breadth of the building, one reed; and [q] the height, one reed.

6 Then came he unto the gate [† r] which looketh toward the east, and [rr] went up the stairs thereof, and measured [s] the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and [s] the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad. 7 And every [t] little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and [tt] between the little chambers were five cubits; and [s]the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate [u]within was one reed. He measured also the porch of the gate [u]within, one reed. Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and [v]the posts thereof, [w]two cubits; and the porch of the gate was [u]inward. And [t]the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; [ww]they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. The [†]space also before [t]the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and [t]the little chambers were [x]six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: [xx]the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door. He made also [y]posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate. And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate [yy]were fifty cubits. And there were [z†]narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their [v]posts [a]within the gate round about, and likewise to the [‖]arches: and windows were round about [‖a]inward: and upon each [v]post were [b]palm trees.

Then brought he me into [c]the outward court, and lo, there were [d]chambers, and [e]a pavement made for the court round about: [f]thirty chambers were upon the pavement. And [c]the pavement [g]by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement. Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court [‡]without, an hundred cubits east*ward* and north*ward*.

And the gate of [c]the outward court [†]that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof. And [h]the little chambers thereof were [i]three on this side and three on that side; and [j]the posts thereof and the [‖]arches thereof were [jj]after the measure of the first gate: [k]the length thereof was fifty cubits, and [l]the breadth five and twenty cubits. And [m]their windows, and [m]their arches, and [m]their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh towards the east; and [n]they went up unto it by seven steps; and [m]the arches thereof were before them. And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate [o]toward the north, and [n]toward the east; [p]and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured [j]the posts thereof and [m]the arches thereof [jj]according to these measures. And there were [m]windows in it and in [m]the arches thereof round about, [m]like those windows: [k]the length was fifty cubits, and [l]the breadth five and twenty cubits. And there were [n]seven steps [q]to go up to it, and [m]the arches thereof were before them: and it had [m]palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon [j]the posts thereof. [r]And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and [p]he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

And he brought me to [s]the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate [jj]according to these measures; and [h]the little chambers thereof, and [j]the posts thereof, and [m]the arches thereof, [jj]according to these measures: and there were [m]windows in it and in [m]the arches thereof round about: it was [k]fifty cubits long, and [l]five and twenty cubits broad. And [m]the arches round about were [t]five and twenty cubits long, and [u]five cubits [†]broad. [v]And [m]the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and [m]palm trees were upon [j]the posts thereof: and [w]the going up to it had eight steps.

And he brought me into [s]the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate [jj]according to these measures. posts thereof, and [m]the arches thereof, and [m]the windows to it round about: [k]the length was fifty cubits, and [l]the breadth five and twenty cubits. And 37 [j]the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and [m]palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and [w]the going up to it had eight steps. And [x]the chambers and the en- 38 tries thereof were by [j]the posts of the gates, where [xx]they washed [y]the burnt offering.

And in the porch of the gate were 39 two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon [yz]the burnt offering and [a]the sin offering and [b]the trespass offering. And at the side with- 40 out, ‖as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables. Four tables 41 were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon [c]they slew their sacrifices. And the four tables were [d]of hewn 42 stone for [z]the burnt offering, of a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew [z]the burnt offering and the sacrifice. And within were ‖[e]hooks, [f]a 43 hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

And without the inner gate were [x]the 44 chambers of [g]the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. And he said unto me, This [x]chamber, 45 whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, [h]the keepers of the [i]charge of the house. And [xi]the chamber whose 46 prospect is toward the north is for the priests, [j]the keepers of the charge of the altar: [k]these are [l]the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, [km]which come near to the LORD to minister unto him. So he measured the court, [n]an hundred 47 cubits long, and [n]an hundred cubits broad, [o]foursquare; and [p]the altar that was before the house.

And he brought me to [q]the porch of 48 the house, and measured each [r]post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. [s]The 49 length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were [t]pillars by [t]the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

Afterward he brought me to [ad]the XLI. temple, and measured [b]the posts, six 1 cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, [c]which 2 was the breadth of the tabernacle. And the breadth of [cc]the ‖door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured [d]the length thereof, forty cubits: and [e]the 3 breadth, twenty cubits. Then went he [f]inward, and measured [b]the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven 4 cubits. So he measured [g]the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before [a]the temple: and he said unto me, This is [h]the most holy 5 place. After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every [i]side chamber, four cubits, round 6 about the house on every side. And [i]the side chambers [k]were three, [l]one over another, and ‖[l]thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for [i]the side chambers round about, that they might [t]have hold, but [k]they had not hold in the wall of the 7 house. And [tm]there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to [i]the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so [n]increased [nn]from the lowest chamber to the highest 8 by the midst. I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of [i]the side chambers were [o]a full reed 9 of six great cubits. The thickness of the wall, which was for [i]the side chamber without, was five cubits: and [p]that which was left was the place of [i]the 10 side chambers that were within. And between [q]the chambers was the wideness of [qq]twenty cubits round about the 11 house on every side. And the doors of [i]the side chambers were toward [p]the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of [p]the place that was left was five cubits round about.

the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits. So he measured the 13 house, an hundred cubits long; and [r]the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, [t]an hundred cubits long; also the breadth of the face of the 14 house, and of [r]the separate place toward the east, [t]an hundred cubits. And he 15 measured the length of [tt]the building over against [r]the separate place which was behind it, and the [lu]galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, [t]an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court; [v]the 16 door posts, and [w]the narrow windows, and [u]the galleries round about [x]on their three stories, over against [v]the door, [l]cieled with wood round about, [l]and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered; to that above 17 the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by [l]measure. And it was made [y]with cherubims and 18 [yz]palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces; so that [zz]the face 19 of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about. From the ground unto 20 above the door were [y]cherubims and [yz]palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

The [l]posts of [a]the temple were 21 [ab]squared, and the face of [c]the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other. [d]The altar of 22 wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is [e]the table that is [f]before the LORD. And [a]the temple 23 and [c]the sanctuary [g]had two doors. And 24 the doors had two leaves apiece, two [h]turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door. And there were made on them, on the 25 doors of [a]the temple, [y]cherubims and [yz]palm trees, [i]like as were made upon the walls; and there were [k]thick planks upon the face of [l]the porch without. And 26 there were [m]narrow windows and [z]palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of [l]the porch, and upon [n]the side chambers of the house, and [k]thick planks.

[e]Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, 3 and [f]the breadth was fifty cubits. Over against [g]the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against [b]the pavement which was for the utter court, was [h]gallery against gallery in 4 [i]three stories. And before [bk]the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, [t]a way of one cubit; and [k]their 5 doors toward the north. Now the upper [b]chambers were shorter: for [h]the galleries [ll]were higher than these, [lm]than the lower, and than the middlemost of the 6 building. For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building [n]was straitened [lm]more than the lowest and the 7 middlemost from the ground. And [o]the wall that was without over against [b]the chambers, towards the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, [f]the length 8 thereof was fifty cubits. For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and lo, before [q]the temple [r]were an hundred cubits. 9 And [l]from under these chambers was [ls]the entry on the east side, [l]as one goeth into them from the utter court. 10 The chambers were in the thickness of [o]the wall of the court toward the east, over against [c]the separate place, [d]and 11 over against the building. And [t]the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers [t]which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both [u]according to their fashions, and [k]according to their doors. 12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door [v]in the head of the way, even the way directly before [o]the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, [w]The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before [c]the separate place, they be holy chambers, where [x]the priests that approach unto the LORD [y]shall eat [z]the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and [zab]the meat offering, and [zac]the sin offering, and [zac]the

Then he brought me [a]back the way cumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among 10 the children of Israel. And [u]the Levites that are gone away far from me, [u]when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; 11 they shall even [v]bear their iniquity. Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having [w]charge [x]at the gates of the house, and [xx]ministering to the house:

they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and [y]they shall stand before them to minister unto them.
12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and [t]caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I [z]lift up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and [v]they 13 shall bear their iniquity. And [a]they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in [b]the most holy place: but [c]they shall bear their shame, and their abominations 14 which they have committed. But I will make them [de]keepers of the charge of the house, [e]for all the service thereof, and [e]for all that shall be done therein.
15 But [ee]the priests the Levites, [ef]the sons of Zadok, [d]that kept the charge of my sanctuary [u]when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me [f]to minister unto me, and [f]they shall stand before me [g]to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the 16 Lord GOD: they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to [h]my table, [f]to minister unto me, and [d]they shall keep my charge.

And it shall come to pass, that [i]when they enter in at the gates of [j]the inner court, [k]they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. They shall have [l]linen [m]bonnets upon their heads, and shall have [l]linen [n]breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves [ll]with any thing that causeth sweat. And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court [o]to the people, [op]they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and [o]lay them in the holy chambers, and [p]they shall put on other garments; and they shall not [q]sanctify the people with their garments. [r]Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their [s]locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads. [t]Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into [j]the inner court. Neither shall they take for their wives [u]a widow, nor [u]her that is [t]put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow [t]that had a priest before. And [v]they shall teach my people the difference [wx]between the holy and profane, and [w]cause them to discern [x]between the unclean and the clean. And [y]in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and [w]they shall hallow my sabbaths. And [z]they shall come at no dead person [a]to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, [z]they may defile themselves. And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him [b]seven days. And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto [c]the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, [d]he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord GOD. And [e]it shall be unto them for an inheritance: [e]I am their inheritance: and [e]ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession. [f]They shall eat the meat offering, and [f]the sin offering, and [f]the trespass offering; and [g]every [ll]dedicate thing in Israel shall be theirs. And [h]the [lli]first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every [k]oblation of all, of every sort of [ik]your oblations, shall be the priests': ye shall also give unto the priest [l]the first of your dough, [m]that he may cause [n]the blessing to rest in thine house. The priests shall not eat of [o]any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

Moreover, [t]when ye shall [a]divide by lot the land for inheritance, [b]ye shall offer an [c]oblation unto the LORD, [t]a holy portion of the land: [b]the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand [d]reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about. Of this there shall be for the sanctuary [e]five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, [f]square round about; and fifty cubits round about for [g]the [l]suburbs thereof. And [h]of this measure shalt thou measure [bh]the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and [i]in it shall be the sanctuary and [k]the most holy place. [h]The holy portion of the land shall be [l]for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, [m]which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and [n]a holy place for the sanctuary. And [o]the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, [o]shall also the Levites, [p]the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for [q]twenty chambers. And [r]ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, [rr]over against [c]the oblation of the holy portion: [s]it shall be for the whole house of Israel. And [ss]a portion shall be for [t]the prince on the one side and on the other side of [c]the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border. In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and [u]my princes shall no more [uuv]oppress my people; and the rest of [uu]the land shall they give to the house of Israel [w]according to their tribes.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; Let [ww]it suffice you, O princes of Israel: [u]remove violence and spoil, and [u]execute judgment and justice, take away your [t]exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD. Ye [x]shall have just [y]balances, and a [z]just [a]ephah, and a just bath. The [xza]ephah and the [bd]bath [z]shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a [cd]homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer. And [e]the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your [f]maneh. This is [g]the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an [a]ephah of a [c]homer of wheat, and ye shall [h]give the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of barley: concerning the ordinance of oil, [b]the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of [i]the cor, which is a [c]homer of ten baths; for ten baths are a homer: and one [ll]lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, [k]out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for [ll]peace offerings, [m]to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD. All the people of the land [t]shall give this [g]oblation [l]for the prince in Israel. And [mm]it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and [n]drink offerings, [o]in the feasts, and in [p]the new moons, and in the sabbaths [o]in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall [q]prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and [l]the [ll]peace offerings, [m]to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the first month, [p]in the first day of the month, [qq]thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and [rs]cleanse the sanctuary: and the priest [s]shall take of the blood of the sin offering, [s]and put it upon [t]the posts of the house, [s]and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of [u]the gate of the inner court. And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for [v]every one that erreth, and for [w]him that is simple: so shall ye [m]reconcile the house. [x]In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. And upon that day shall the prince [q]prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin offering. And [y]seven days of the feast he shall [q]prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and [z]a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering. And [a]he shall [q]prepare a meat offering of [b]an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and [c]a hin of oil for an ephah. [d]In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, [e]according to the sin offering, [e]according to the burnt offering, and [e]according to the meat offering, and [e]according to the oil.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; [a]The gate of [b]the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut [c]the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in [d]the day of the new moon it shall be opened. And [e]the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by [f]the post of the gate, and [g]the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at [h]the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. Likewise [i]the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in [d]the new moons. And [j]the burnt offering that the prince [k]shall offer unto the LORD [l]in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish. And [lm]the meat offering shall be [n]an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs [t]as he shall be able to give, and [o]a hin of oil to an ephah. And in [d]the day of the new moon it shall be [p]a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish. And he shall prepare [m]a meat offering, [n]an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according [q]as his hand shall attain unto, and [o]a hin of oil to an ephah. And [e]when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

But when [i]the people of the land [r]shall come before the LORD [j]in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth [s]over against it. when they go in, [t]shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth. And [j]in 11 the feasts and [j]in the solemnities the meat offering shall be [u]an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs [u]as he is able to give, and [o]a hin of oil to an ephah. Now when the 12 prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings [v]voluntarily unto the LORD, [e]one shall then open him [e]the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, [w]as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth [w]one shall shut the gate. [x]Thou shalt daily prepare a 13 burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb [t]of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it [t]every morning. And 14 thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of [u]an ephah, and the third part of [o]a hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD. Thus shall they 15 prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for [y]a continual burnt offering.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the 16 prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance. But if he give a gift [z]of his 17 inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to [a]the year of liberty; after, it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them. Moreover [b]the prince shall not 18 take the people's inheritance, [c]by oppression to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

After, he brought me through the en- 19 try, which was [d]at the side of the gate, into the holy [e]chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the two sides westward. Then said he unto me, This 20 is the place where the priests shall [f]boil [g]the trespass offering and [g]the sin offering, where they shall [h]bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, [i]to sanctify the people. Then he brought me forth into the utter 21 court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, [t]in every corner of the court there was a court. In the four corners of the court 22 there were courts [t]joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four [t]cor- 23 ners were of one measure. And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about. Then said he unto 24 me, These are the places of them that boil, where [k]the ministers of the house shall [f]boil the sacrifice of the people.

Afterward he brought me again unto XLVII. [a]the door of the house; and behold, [b]waters [b]issued out from under [c]the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of [d]the altar. Then 2 brought he me out of the way of [e]the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto [f]the utter gate by the way that looketh east*ward;* and behold, there ran out waters on the right side. And when [g]the man that had [h]the line 3 in his hand went forth east*ward*, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; [t]the waters were to the ankles. Again he mea- 4 sured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins. Afterward he measured a 5 thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, [t]waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

And he said unto me, Son of man, 6 hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river. Now when I had re- 7 turned, behold, at the [t]bank of the river were [i]very many trees on the one side and on the other. Then said he unto 8 me, These waters issue out toward the east [k]country, and go down into the [l]desert, and go into [l]the sea: which being brought forth into [l]the sea, the waters shall be healed. And it shall come 9 to pass, that [m]every thing that liveth, [n]which moveth, whithersoever the [t]rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall 10 live whither the river cometh. I.

About B.C. 607.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah [a] came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. And the 2
Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with [b] part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried [c] into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; [d] and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

And the king spake unto Ashpenaz 3
[e] the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring * certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of [f] the princes; children in whom was 4 no [g] blemish, but well favoured, and [h i] skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in [i] knowledge, and understanding [ik] science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and [l] whom they might teach [i m] the learning and the tongue of [n] the Chaldeans. And the 5 king appointed them [nn] a daily provision of [o] the king's meat, and of [†] the wine which he drank: so nourishing them [p] three years, that at the end thereof they might [q] stand before the king. Now among these were of the children 6 of Judah, Daniel, [r] Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: unto whom the prince of 7
the eunuchs [s] gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of [t] Belteshazzar; [tt] and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-[u] nego.

But Daniel [v] purposed in his heart 8 that he would not defile himself with [o] the portion of the king's [wx] meat, nor with [wy] the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. Now God [z a] had brought Daniel 9 into favour and [a] tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. And the prince 10 of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces [†] worse liking than the children which are of your [‖] sort? then shall ye make me endanger 11 my head to the king. Then said Daniel to [‖] Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hana- 12
niah, Mishael, and Azariah, Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, [b] ten days; and let them give us [†c] pulse [†] to eat, 13 and water to drink. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of [d] the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal 14 with thy servants. So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them 15 ten days. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and [e] fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat [d] the portion of the 16 king's meat. Thus Melzar took away [d] the portion of their meat, and [d] the wine that they should drink; and gave them [c] pulse.

As for these four children, [f] God gave 17 them [g] knowledge and [g] skill in all [g] learning and [g] wisdom: and [‖] Daniel [h] had understanding in all visions and 18 [i] dreams. Now at the end of [k] the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnez- 19
zar. And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore [l] stood they before 20 the king. And in all matters of [†] wisdom and understanding, that [m] the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all [no] the magicians and [op] astrologers that were in all his 21 realm. * And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

them, I have dreamed a dream, and [b] my spirit was troubled to know the dream. Then spake [f] the Chaldeans to 4 the king in Syriack*, [gg] O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation. The 5 king answered and said to [f] the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall [h] be [†] cut in pieces, and [hi] your houses shall be made a dunghill. But 6 [k] if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me [l] gifts and [‖] rewards and great honour: [m] therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof. They answered 7 again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it. The king answered and said, I know of certainty 8 that ye would [†] [n] gain the time, [nn] because ye see the thing is gone from me. But if ye will not make known unto me 9
the dream, [o] there is but one decree for you: for ye have [p] prepared lying and [q] corrupt words to speak before me, [n] till the time be changed: [m] therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof. [f] The Chaldeans answered be- 10

Then Daniel [†] answered with counsel 14 and [x] wisdom to Arioch the [‖†] captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay [v] the wise men of Babylon: 15 he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so [xx] hasty from the king? Then Arioch 16 made the thing known to Daniel. Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpreta- 17 tion. Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to [y] Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his com- 18 panions: [z] that they would desire mercies [†] of [a] the God of heaven concerning this [b] secret; [‖] that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of [cc] the wise men of Babylon.

Then was [b] the secret revealed unto 19
Daniel [d] in a night vision. Then Daniel [e] blessed [a] the God of heaven. Daniel 20 answered and said,

[f] Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever:
For [g] wisdom and might are his:
And [h] he changeth [i] the times and the 21
seasons:
He [kl] removeth kings, and [l] setteth up kings:
He giveth wisdom unto the wise,
And [m] knowledge to them that know understanding:
[n] He revealeth the deep and secret 22 things:
[o] He knoweth what is in the darkness,
And [p] the light dwelleth with him.
[q] I thank thee, and praise thee, O 23
thou [r] God of my fathers,
Who hast given me [g] wisdom and might,
And hast made known unto me now
what [s] we desired of thee:
For thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

[uu] Therefore Daniel went in unto [t] Ari- 24
och, whom the king had [u] ordained to destroy [cc] the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto 25 the king the interpretation. Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king [v] in haste, and said thus unto him, [†] I have found a man of the [†] captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. The king answered and said to Daniel, [w] whose name was Belteshazzar, [x] Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, [b] The secret which the king hath demanded [xx] cannot [bb] the wise men, [y] the astrologians, [y] the magicians, [z] the soothsayers, shew unto the king; but there is [a] a God in heaven that revealeth [b] secrets, and [†] maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be [b] in the latter days. [bb] Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; As for thee, O king, thy thoughts [†] came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and [a] he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. But [c] as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, [‖] but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

Thou, O king, [†] sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose [dd] brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. [e] This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his [‖] thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out [ff] without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and [g] brake them in pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became [h] like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that [i] no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image [ii] became a great mountain, and [j] filled the whole earth.

This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king, art [k] a king of kings: for [lm] the God of heaven [m] hath given thee a kingdom, [n] power, and [o] strength, and [n] glory. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, [o] the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. [p] Thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall arise [q] another kingdom [p] inferior to thee, and [r] another third kingdom [p] of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And [s] the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: [t] forasmuch as iron [g] breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it [g] break in pieces and bruise. And whereas thou sawest [u] the feet and toes, part of potter's clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but [s] there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, [t] forasmuch as thou sawest [v] the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly [‖] broken. And whereas thou sawest [v] iron mixt with miry clay, [w] they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave [†] one to another, [v] even as iron is not mixed with clay. And in [†] the days of these kings shall [l] the God of heaven set up [xy] a kingdom, [y] which shall never be destroyed: and the [†] kingdom shall not be left to other people, but [z] it shall [g] break in pieces and [zz] consume all these kingdoms, and [x] it shall stand for ever. [t] Forasmuch as [a] thou sawest that [b] the stone was cut out of the mountain [‖] without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; [c] the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass [†] hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

Then the king Nebuchadnezzar [d] fell upon his face, and [de] worshipped Daniel, and [f] commanded that they should offer an oblation and [g] sweet odours unto him. The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your [h] God is a God of gods, and [i] a Lord of kings, and [j] a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret. Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great [k] gifts, and made him ruler over the whole [l] province of Babylon, and [m] chief of [n] the governors over all [o] the wise men of Babylon. Then Daniel requested of the king, and he [p] set [q] Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the af-

Nebuchadnezzar the king made [a]an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in [b]the plain of Dura, in [c]the province of Babylon. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to 2 gather together [d e]the princes, [d f]the governors, and [d g ff]the captains, [g]the judges, [g]the treasurers, [g]the counsellers, [g]the sheriffs, and all [f]the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. [gg]Then 3 the princes, the governors and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellers, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. Then a herald cried [†]aloud, To you 4 [†]it is commanded, [h]O people, nations, and languages, that at what time [i]ye 5 hear [j]the sound of [k]the cornet, [l]flute, [l m]harp, sackbut, psaltery, [‖†]dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, [n]ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: and whoso [n]falleth not down and wor- 6 shippeth shall the same hour [o]be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. [p]Therefore at that time, when 7 all the people heard [j]the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all [h]the people, the nations, and the languages, [n]fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

[p]Wherefore at that time certain 8 [q]Chaldeans [r]came near, and [s]accused the Jews. They spake and said to the 9 king Nebuchadnezzar, [t]O king, live for ever. Thou, O king, [u]hast made a de- 10 cree, that every man that shall hear [j]the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, [n]shall fall down and worship the golden image: and whoso 11 [n]falleth not down and worshippeth, that [o]he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. There are cer- 12 tain Jews whom [v]thou hast set over the affairs of [c]the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, [†]have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor [n]worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage 13 and fury commanded to bring [v]Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto 14 them, Is it [‖]true, O [v]Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor [n]worship the golden image which I have set up? Now if 15 ye be ready that at what time ye hear [j]the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, [n]ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; [x]well: but if ye worship not, [o]ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and [y]who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands? [v]Shadrach, Meshach, and 16 Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not [z]careful to [a]answer thee in this mat- 17 ter. If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and [b]he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O 18 king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

Then was Nebuchadnezzar [†c]full of 19 fury, and the form of [d]his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was 20 wont to be heat. And he commanded the [†]most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. Then these 21 men were bound in their [‖e]coats, their hosen, and their [‖f]hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. There- 22 fore because the king's [†]commandment was [g]urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, [h]the [‖]flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, 23 and Abed-nego. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace [i].

Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was 24 astonied, and rose up [k]in haste, and spake, and said unto his [‖]counsellers,

Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, [m] walking in the midst of the fire, and [†n] they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like [o] the Son of God. Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the [†] mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of [p] the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, [q] came forth of the midst of the fire. And [r] the princes, [r] governors, and [r] captains, and the king's [l] counsellers, being gathered together, saw these men, [s] upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their [e] coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, [t] who hath sent [ou] his angel, and [u] delivered his servants [v] that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, [w] except their own God. Therefore [†x] I make a decree, That every [y] people, nation, and language, which speak [†] any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, [z] shall be [†] cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: [a] because [b] there is no other God that can deliver after this sort. Then the king [†] promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, [c] in the province of Babylon.

IV. About B.C. 570.

Nebuchadnezzar the king, [ab] unto all people, nations, and languages, [bc] that dwell in all the earth; [bd] Peace be multiplied unto you. [†] I thought it good to shew [e] the signs and wonders that [f] the high God hath wrought toward me. How great are [e] his signs! and how mighty are [e] his wonders! [g] his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, [g] and his dominion is from generation to generation.

I Nebuchadnezzar was [h] at rest in mine house, and [i] flourishing in my palace: I saw a dream which made me afraid, and [j] the thoughts upon my bed and [jk] the visions of my head troubled me. [l] Therefore made I a decree [m] to bring in all [n] the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream. [m] Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and [o] the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; [oo] but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof. But at the last Daniel came in before me, [p] whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and [q] in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I [•] told the dream, [r] saying, [p] O Belteshazzar, [s] master of the magicians, because I know that [q] the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no [t] secret troubleth thee, tell me [j] the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. Thus were [j] the visions of mine head in my bed; [†] I saw, and behold, [u] a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great. [i] The tree grew, and was strong, and [uv] the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth: [w] the leaves thereof were fair, [w] and the fruit thereof much, [w] and in it was [x] meat for all: [wy] the beasts of the field had shadow under it, [w] and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. I saw in [j] the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, [z] a watcher and [a] a holy one came down from heaven; he cried [†] aloud, and said thus, [b] Hew down the tree, and [c] cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: [c] let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches: nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and [d] let seven [d] times pass over him. This matter is by [e] the decree of [f] the watchers, and [f] the demand by the word of the holy ones: [g] to the intent that [h] the living may know [i] that [j] the most High [k] ruleth in the kingdom of men, [i] and [l] giveth it to whomsoever he will, and [ll] setteth up over it the basest of men. This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, [m] O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, [n]forasmuch [nn]as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for [m]the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, [m]whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonied [o]for one hour, and [oo]his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, [p]the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 [pp]The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth; [q]whose leaves 21 were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; [qr]under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation: [r]it is 22 thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and [s]thy dominion [t]to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas [u]the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, [v]Hew the tree down, and destroy it; [w]yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, [d]till seven times pass over him; 24 this is the interpretation, O king, and this is [e]the decree of [j]the most High, which is come upon my lord the king: that [x]they shall drive thee from men, 25 and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and [x]they shall make thee [y]to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and [d]seven times shall pass over thee, [xz]till thou know [i]that [j]the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and [i]giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded [w]to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that [a]the heavens do rule.

27 [b]Wherefore, O king, let my counsel [c]be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by [d]righteousness, and [e]thine iniquities by [f]shewing mercy to the poor; [g]if it may be [l]a [k]lengthening of thy [l]tranquillity.

28 All this came upon the king Nebu-29 chadnezzar. At the end of twelve months he walked [l]in the palace of the 30 kingdom of Babylon. [m]The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for [n]the house of the kingdom by [o]the might of [o]my power, and for [op]the honour of [p]my majesty?
31 [*pp]While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, [q]saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee [qq]it is spoken; The kingdom is 32 departed from thee. And [r]they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: [r]they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, [r]and seven times shall pass over thee, [r]until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, [r]and giveth it to whomsoever he will.
33 [s]The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and [t]his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like 34 birds' claws. And [tu]at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lift up mine eyes unto heaven, and [uu]mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and [v]honoured him [vv]that liveth for ever, [w]whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and [wx]his kingdom is from 35 generation to generation: and all [y]the inhabitants of the earth [z]are reputed as nothing: and [a]he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among [y]the inhabitants of the earth: and [b]none can stay his hand, [c]or say
36 unto him, [c]What doest thou? At the same time [uu]my reason returned unto me; and for [ed]the glory of my kingdom, [d]mine honour and [dd]brightness returned unto me; and my [e]counsellers and my [ee]lords sought unto me; and I [f]was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty [g]was added unto 37 me. Now I Nebuchadnezzar [h]praise and extol and [h]honour [i]the King of heaven, [k]all whose works are truth, and [l]his ways judgment: and [m]those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

manded to bring [d] the golden and silver vessels [e] which his [f] father Nebuchadnezzar had [g] taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that [h] the king, and his [i] princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein. Then 3 they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and [h] the king, and his [i] princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them. [k] They drunk wine, [l] and [m] praised 4 [n] the gods of gold, and [n] of silver, [n] of brass, [n] of iron, [o] of wood, and [o] of stone.

Now [f] the queen, by reason of the 10 words of the king and his [e] lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, [g] O king, live for ever: let not [h] thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let [h] thy countenance be changed. [i] There 11 is a man in thy kingdom, [ii] in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy [x] father [j] light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy [x] father, the king, I say, thy father, made [k] master of the magicians, [l] astrologers, [l] Chaldeans, and [l] soothsayers; [m] forasmuch as 12 an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, [x] interpreting of [n] dreams, and [o] shewing of [p] hard sentences, and [x] dissolving of [u] doubts, were found in the same Daniel, [q] whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpre- 13 tation. Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art [r] of the children of the captivity of Judah, [s] whom the king 14 my [x] father brought out of Jewry? I have even heard of thee, that [ii] the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that [j] light and understanding and excellent 15 wisdom is found in thee. And now [t] the wise men, [t] the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: [c] but they could not shew the inter- 16 pretation of the thing: and I have heard of thee, that thou canst [u] [t] make interpretations, and [u] dissolve doubts: [v] now [w] if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, [v] thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and [v] have a chain of gold about thy neck, and [v] shalt be the third 17 ruler in the kingdom. Then Daniel answered and said before the king, [x] Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy [x] rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, [y] the most high God [z] gave Nebuchadnezzar [a] thy father a kingdom, and [b] majesty, and [bb] glory, 19 and [bb] honour: and for [b] the majesty that he gave him, all [c] people, nations, and languages, [d] trembled and feared before him: [e] whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and 20 whom he would he put down. But [ee] when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened [x] in pride, he was [f] deposed from his kingly throne, and [f] they 21 took his [bb] glory from him: and he was [g] driven from the sons of men; and [x] his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with [h] the wild asses: [g] they fed him with grass like oxen, and [i] his body was wet with the dew of heaven; [g] till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over

And thou his son, O Belshazzar, [k] hast not humbled thine heart, [l] though thou knewest all this; but hast lifted up thyself against [m] the Lord of heaven; and [n] they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and [o] thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and [p] thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, [q] which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God [r] in whose hand thy breath is, and [s] whose are all thy ways, hast thou not [t] glorified: then was [u] the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written. And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. [v] This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL; [w] Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and *given to [x] the Medes and [y] Persians.

Then commanded Belshazzar, and [z] they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put [z] a chain of gold about his neck, and [a] made a proclamation concerning him, [z] that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. [b] In that night was Belshazzar the king of [c] the Chaldeans slain. And [d] Darius the Median took the kingdom, [†] being [‖] about threescore and two year old.

About B.C. 538.

[a] It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom [b] an hundred and twenty [c] princes, which should be over the whole kingdom; and over these [d] three [e] presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the [c] princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage. Then this Daniel was [f] preferred above [e] the presidents and [c] princes, [g h] because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought [i] to set him over the whole realm.

*About B.C. 537.

*Then [e] the presidents and [c] princes [k] sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor [l] fault; [h] forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any [m] error or [l] fault found in him. Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, [n] except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. Then these [e] presidents and [c] princes [‖] assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, [o] King Darius, live for ever. All [e] the presidents of the kingdom, [p] the governors, and the [c] princes, [q] the counsellers and [r] the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm [‖] decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, [n] save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to [s] the law of [t] the Medes and Persians, [u] which [†] altereth not. [u] Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and [v] his windows being open [w] in his chamber [x] toward Jerusalem, he [y] kneeled upon his knees [z] three times a day, and prayed, and [a] gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. Then they [b] came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask [c] a petition of any God or man within thirty days, [d] save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, [e] according to the law of the Medes and Persians, [c] which altereth not. Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, [f] which is [g] of the children of the captivity of Judah, [h] regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Then the king, when he heard these words, [i] was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him. Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that [e] the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and [k] cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God [l] whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And [m] a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and [n] the king sealed it [o] with his own signet, and with the signet of his [p] lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: [q] neither were [‖] instruments of musick brought before him: and [r] his sleep went from him.
19 Then the king arose very early in [s] the morning, and went [t] in haste unto the den of lions.
20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of [u] the living God, [v] is thy God, [l] whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?
21 Then said Daniel unto the king, [w] O king, live for ever.
22 [x] My God hath sent his angel, and [y] hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: [z] forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.
23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and [a] no manner of hurt was found upon him, [b] because he believed in his God.
24 And the king commanded, and [c] they brought those men which had [d] accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, [e] their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote [f] unto all people, nations, and languages, [f] that dwell in all the earth; [f] Peace be multiplied unto you.
26 [g] I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men [hi] tremble and [h] fear before [k] the God of Daniel: for [l] he is [m] the living God, and stedfast for ever, and [n] his kingdom that which shall not be [n] destroyed, and his dominion shall be even [o] unto the end.
27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh [p] signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, [q] who hath delivered Daniel from the [t] power of the lions.
28 So this Daniel [r] prospered in the reign of Darius, and [s] in the reign of [t] Cyrus the Persian.

VII. About B.C. 555.
In the first year of [a] Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel [†] had [bc] a dream and [c] visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum
2 of the [‖] matters. Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, [d] the four winds of the heaven
3 strove upon the great sea. And four great beasts [ef] came up from the sea, [s] diverse one from another.
4 The first was [gh] like a lion, and had [ei] eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were pluckt, [‖] and [l] it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and [j] a man's heart was 5 given to it. And behold, [k] another beast, a second, [g] like to a bear, and [‖] [l] it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.
6 After this I beheld, and lo [k] another, [gm] like a leopard, [n] which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also [nn] four heads; and dominion was given to it.
7 After this I saw [o] in the night visions, and behold, [pq] a fourth beast, [q] dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and [q] it had great [r] iron teeth: [q] it devoured and [qr] brake in pieces, and [q] stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it [qs] was diverse from all the beasts that were
8 before it; and [t] it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and behold, [u] there came up among them another little horn, [u] before whom there were three of the first horns pluckt up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were [uu] eyes like the eyes [v] of man, and [w] a mouth [x] speaking great things.
9 I beheld till [y] the thrones were cast down, and [z] the Ancient of days did sit, [a] whose garment was [b] white as snow, and [a] the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like [c] the fiery flame, and [d] his wheels as burning fire.
10 A [e] fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: [f] thousand thousands [g] ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand [gg] stood before him: [h] the judgment was set, and [i] the books 11 were opened. I beheld then because of the voice of [k] the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even [l] till the beast was slain, and [l] his body destroyed, and

m given to the burning flame. As concerning the rest of the beasts, n they had their dominion taken away: yet t their lives were prolonged for a season and time. p I saw in the night visions, and behold, one like q the Son of man r came with the clouds of heaven, and came to s the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And t there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, u that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: v his dominion is an everlasting dominion, n which shall not pass away, and v his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

I Daniel w was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my t body, and x the visions of my head troubled me. I came near unto y one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

z These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth. But a the saints of the t most High b shall take the kingdom, and b possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. Then I would know the truth of c the fourth beast, which was diverse t from all the others, c exceeding dreadful, c whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which c devoured, c brake in pieces, and c stamped the residue with his feet; and of c the ten horns that were in his head, and of d the other which came up, and d before whom three fell; even of d that horn that had eyes, and d a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and the same horn e made war with a the saints, and e prevailed against them; until f the Ancient of days came, and g judgment was given to h the saints of the most High; and the time came that hi the saints possessed the kingdom. Thus he said, c The fourth beast shall be c the fourth kingdom upon earth, c which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and c shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and c break it in pieces. And c the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and d another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and d he shall subdue three kings. And dj he shall speak k great words against l the most High, and ej shall wear out h the saints of the most High, and think m to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand n until a time and times and the dividing of time. But o the judgment shall sit, and p they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it q unto the end. And h the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of h the saints of the most High, r whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all l dominions shall serve and obey him. Hitherto is the end of the matter. s As for me Daniel, t my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but u I kept the matter in my heart.

*In the third year of the reign of king a Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me b at the first. And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at c Shushan in cd the palace, which is in the province of e Elam; and f I saw in a vision, and I was by g the river of h Ulai. Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before g the river i a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than t the other, and the higher came up last. I saw the ram k pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no l beasts m might stand before him, m neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he n did according to his will, and became great. And as I was considering, behold, o a he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and lp touched not the ground: and the goat had tq a notable horn between his eyes. And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before g the river, and r ran unto him in the fury of his power. And I saw him come close unto the ram, and s he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and m there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down t to the ground, and t stamped upon him: and m there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. Therefore o the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn u was broken; and for it came up v four notable ones toward w the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came forth [x]a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, [y]toward the south, and [z]toward the east, and toward [a]the pleasant land. And 10 [b]it waxed great, even [‖c]to the host of heaven; and [d]it cast down some of the host and of the stars [e]to the ground, and [e]stamped upon them. Yea, [f]he 11 magnified himself even [‖]to [g]the prince of the host, and [h]by him [hi]the daily sacrifice [h]was taken away, and [j]the place of his sanctuary [k]was cast down. And [‖]a 12 host was given him against [i]the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and [km]it cast down [n]the truth to the ground; and it [o]practised, and [o]prospered. Then 13 I heard [p]one saint speaking, and [q]another saint said unto [‖r]that certain saint which spake, [r]How long shall be the vision concerning [i]the daily sacrifice, and [rr]the transgression [‖]of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and [s]the host [t]to be trodden under foot? And he said unto 14 me, [u]Unto two thousand and three hundred [t]days; [u]then shall the sanctuary be [t]cleansed.

And it came to pass, when I, even I 15 Daniel, had seen the vision, and [v]sought for the meaning, then behold, there stood before me [w]as the appearance of a man. And I heard a man's voice 16 [x]between the banks of [y]Ulai, which called, and said, [z]Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. So he came near 17 where I stood: and when he came, [a]I was afraid, and [b]fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, [c]O son of man: for at [cc]the time of the end shall be the vision. Now as he was speaking 18 with me, [d]I was in a deep sleep [de]on my face toward the ground: but [ee]he touched me, and [f]set me upright. And 19 he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of [h]the indignation: for at [i]the time appointed the end shall be. [k]The ram which thou 20 sawest having two horns are [l]the kings of [m]Media and Persia. [n]And [o]the rough 21 goat is [l]the king of [p]Grecia: and [n]the great horn that is between his eyes [q]is 22 the first king. Now [r]that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, 23 [s]but not in his power. And in the latter time of their kingdom, [t]when the transgressors [t]are come to the full, a king [u]of fierce countenance, and [v]understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. 24 And his power shall be mighty, [w]but not by his own power: and he shall destroy [x]wonderfully, and [y]shall prosper, and [y]practise, and [za]shall destroy the 25 mighty and [z]the [‖]holy people. And [b]through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and [c]he shall magnify himself in his heart, and [d]by [‖]peace [e]shall destroy many: he shall also stand up [c]against the Prince of princes; but [f]he shall be broken [g]without hand. 26 And the vision [h]of the evening and the morning which was told [i]is true: wherefore [k]shut thou up the vision; for [l]it shall be for many days. And 27 [m]I Daniel fainted, and was sick [n]certain days; afterward I rose up, and [o]did the king's business; and I [p]was astonished at the vision, but [q]none understood it.

IX. About B.C. 538. [a]In the first year of [b]Darius the son of [c]Ahasuerus, of the seed of [d]the Medes, [‖]which was made king over the 2 realm of [e]the Chaldeans; in the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, where*of* the word of the LORD came to [f]Jeremiah the prophet, [g]that he would accomplish seventy years in the desola- 3 tions of Jerusalem. And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek [h]by prayer and [i]supplications, [hk]with fasting, and 4 [l]sackcloth, and [l]ashes: and [h]I [m]prayed unto the LORD my God, and [mn]made my confession, and said,

[o]O Lord, [op]the great and dreadful God, [oq]keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that 5 keep his commandments; [r]we have sinned, and [r]have committed iniquity, and [r]have done wickedly, and [rr]have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments: [s]neither have we hearkened unto [t]thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name [uz]to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. O Lord, [v]righteousness [‖]belongeth unto thee, but [vz]unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, [w]that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries [x]whither thou hast driven them, [y]because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. O Lord, [vz]to us belongeth confusion of face, [ua]to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because [b]we have sinned against thee. [c]To the Lord our God belong mercies and [d]forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him; [e]neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, [f]to walk in his laws, which he set before us by [e]his servants the prophets. Yea, [g]all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, [h]that they might not obey thy voice; therefore [i]the curse [k]is poured upon us, and the oath [l]that is written in the law of Moses [ll]the servant of God, [bb]because we have sinned against him. And [m]he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against [n]our judges that judged us, [o]by bringing upon us a great evil: [m]for under the whole heaven [p]hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. As [lm]it is written in the law of Moses, [q]all this evil is come upon us: [r]yet [t]made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and [s]understand thy truth. Therefore [t]hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for [u]the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for [e]we obeyed not his voice. [v]And now, O Lord our God, [vw]that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt [x]with a mighty hand, and [y]hast [ty]gotten thee renown, as at this day; [z]we have sinned, we have done wickedly. O Lord, [a]according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, [b]thy holy mountain: [c]because for our sins, and [d]for the iniquities of our fathers, [e]Jerusalem and thy people [f]are become a reproach [fg]to all that are about us. Now therefore, O our God, [h]hear the prayer of thy servant, and [h]his supplications, and [i]cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary [k]that is desolate, [l]for the Lord's sake. O my God, [m]incline thine ear, and hear; [m]open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city [t]which is called by thy name: for we do not [t]present our [b]supplications before thee [n]for our [o]righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; [p]defer not, for [lq]thine own sake, O my God: for [r]thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

And [s]whiles I was speaking, and [t]praying, and [t]confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for [b]the holy mountain of my God; yea, [s]whiles I was speaking in prayer, even [u]the man [v]Gabriel, [v]whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly [t]swiftly, [w]touched me [x]about the time of the evening oblation. And [y]he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth [t]to give thee skill and understanding. [s]At the beginning of thy [b]supplications the [t]commandment came forth, and [z]I am come to shew thee; [a]for thou art [t]greatly beloved: therefore [b]understand the matter, and consider the vision. [y]Seventy [c]weeks are determined upon thy people and upon [d]thy holy city, [l]to finish [e]the transgression, and [lf]to make an end of sins, and [g]to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to [h]bring in everlasting righteousness, and [i]to seal up the vision and [t]prophecy, and [k]to anoint [l]the most Holy. [b]Know therefore and understand, that [m]from the going forth of the commandment [‖]to restore and to build Jerusalem [n]unto [o]the Messiah [p]the Prince shall be seven weeks, and three-

X. [a]In the third year of Cyrus [b]king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, [c]whose name was called Belteshazzar; and [d]the thing was true, but [e]the time appointed [f]was [t]long: and [g]he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. In those days I Daniel 2 was mourning [h]three [t]full weeks. I ate 3 no [t]pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, [i]neither did I [j]anoint myself at all, till [h]three whole weeks were fulfilled. And in the four 4 and twentieth day of [k]the first month, as I was [l]by the side of the great river, which is [m]Hiddekel; then [n]I lift up 5 mine eyes, and looked, and behold, [o]a certain man [p]clothed in linen, [q]whose loins were girded with [r]fine gold of [s]Uphaz: his body also was [t]like the beryl, and 6
[u]his face [v]as the appearance of lightning, and [w]his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and [xy]his [z]feet like in colour to polished brass, and [ya]the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. And [b]I Daniel alone saw the vision: for 7
[b]the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide 8 themselves. Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and [c]there remained no strength in me: for my [td]comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and [e]I retained no strength. 9
Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, [f]then was I in a deep sleep on my face, 10 and [f]my face toward the ground. And behold, [fg]a hand touched me, which [t]set me upon my knees and upon the 11 palms of my hands. And he said unto me, O Daniel, [t]a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and [th]stand upright: for [i]unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood 12 [k]trembling. Then said he unto me, [l]Fear not, Daniel: for [m]from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and [n]to chasten thyself before thy God, [m]thy words were heard, 13 and I am come for thy words. But [o]the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me [p]one and twenty days: but lo, [q]Michael, one of [l]the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there 14 with the kings of Persia. Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people [r]in the latter days: for [s]yet the vision is for [t]many 15 days. And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set [u]my face toward 16 the ground, and [v]I became dumb. And behold, [w]one [x]like the similitude of the sons of men [gy]touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and [ce]I have retained no 17 strength. For how can [l]the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there 18 breath left in me. Then there came again and [g]touched me [w]one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened 19 me, and said, [z]O man greatly beloved, [a]fear not: peace be unto thee, [b]be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with [c]the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of [d] Grecia shall come. But 21

I will shew thee [e] that which is noted in the scripture of [f] truth: and there is none that [†] holdeth with me in these things, but [c] Michael your prince. Also I [a] in the first year of [a] Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

XI.

And now will I shew thee [b] the truth. 2
Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of [c] Grecia.
And [d] a mighty king shall stand up, 3 that shall rule with great dominion, and [e] do according to his will. And when 4 he shall stand up, [f] his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided [f] toward [g] the four winds of heaven; and not to [h] his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be pluckt up, even for others besides those.

And the king of the south shall be 5 strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. And in the end of years 6 they [†] shall join themselves together;
for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make [†] an agreement: but she [i] shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and [k] they that brought her, and [‖] he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times. But out of a branch of her 7 roots shall one stand up [‖] in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into [o] the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: and shall also 8 carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their [l] princes, and with [†] their precious vessels of silver and of gold;
and he shall continue more years than the king of the north. So the king 9 of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land. But his sons [‖ m] shall be stirred 10 up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and [n] overflow, [n] and pass through:
[‖] then shall he return, and be stirred up,
[o] even to his fortress. And the king of 11
the south [p] shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: [q] ver. 13.
and [q] he shall set forth a great multi- [†] Heb. at the end of times, even years. See ch. 4. 16.
tude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. And when he hath 12 taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it. For the 13 king of the north shall return, and [q] shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come [†] after certain years with a great army and with much riches. And in those 14 times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also [†r] the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves [s] to establish the vision; but [t] they shall fall. So the king of the 15 north shall come, and [u] cast up a mount, and take [†] the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither [†] his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand. But he that cometh a- 16 gainst him [e] shall do according to his own will, and [w] none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the [‖†] glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed. He shall also [x] set his face 17 to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and [‖] upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, [†] corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, [y] neither be for him. After this 18 shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but [z] a prince [†] for his own behalf shall cause [†] the reproach offered by him to cease; without [zz] his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him. Then he shall turn 19 his face towards [o] the fort of his own land: but [ta] he shall stumble [a] and fall, and [b] not be found. Then shall stand 20 up [‖] in his estate [†d] a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within [e] few days he shall be destroyed, neither in [†] anger, nor in battle.

And [‖] in his estate [f] shall stand up 21
a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in [g] peaceably, and obtain the kingdom [h] by flatteries. And 22 with the arms of [i] a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea also, [j] the prince of [k] the covenant. And after the league 23 made with him *[1] he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong [f] with a small people. He shall enter [‖g] peaceably even upon [24] [m] the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; [n] he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall [†] forecast his devices against [o] the strong holds, even for a time. †And he shall [25] stir up his power and his courage [p] against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south [q] shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; [r] but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him. Yea, they that [26] feed of [s] the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army [i] shall overflow: and [r] many shall fall down slain. And both these kings' [†] hearts shall be [27] to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: [t] for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. Then shall he return into [28] his land [u] with great riches; and [v] his heart shall be against [w] the holy covenant; [x] and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land. *[t] At the time [29] appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be [y] as the former, or as the latter. †For the [30] [z] ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation [v] against [w] the holy covenant: [x] so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with [a] them that forsake [w] the holy covenant. And arms shall stand [31] on his part, and [b] they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and [c] shall take away the daily sacrifice, and [d] they shall place the abomination that [‖] maketh desolate. And such as do wickedly a- [32] gainst the covenant shall he [‖e] corrupt [f] by flatteries: but the people that do know their God [g] shall be strong, and do exploits. And [h] they that understand [33] among the people shall instruct many: [i] yet they shall [k] fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. Now when they [k] shall fall, [34] they shall be [l] holpen [m] with a little help: but many shall cleave to them [35] [n] with flatteries. And some of [h] them of understanding [k] shall fall, [o] to try [‖] them, and [op] to purge, and [oq] to make them white, even to [r] the time of the end: [s] because it is yet for a time appointed. [36] And the king [t] shall do according to his will; and [u] he shall exalt himself, and [v] magnify himself above every god, and [n] shall speak marvellous things against [w] the God of gods, and [x] shall prosper [y] till the indignation [z] be accomplished: for [z] that that is determined shall be done. [37] Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, [a] nor the desire of women, [v] nor regard any god: for [v] he shall magnify himself [38] above all. [‖] But [‖] in his estate shall he honour the God of [‖†] forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour [b] with gold, and silver, and [b] with precious stones, and [†] pleasant [39] things. Thus shall he do in the [†] most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land [‖] for [†] gain. [40] And at [c] the time of the end shall the king of the south [f] push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him [g] like a whirlwind, [h] with chariots, and [h] with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and [i] shall [41] overflow and [i] pass over. He shall enter also into the [‖†] glorious land, and many countries shall be [j] overthrown: but these [k] shall escape out of his hand, even [l] Edom, and [l] Moab, and the chief of [l] the children of Ammon. [42] He shall [†] stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of [43] Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all [m] the precious things of [n] Egypt: and [n] the Libyans and [no] the Ethiopians shall be [p] at [44] his steps. But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury [q] to destroy, and [q] utterly to make [45] away many. And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between [r] the seas in [s] the [‖] glorious [ss] holy mountain;

†HOSEA.

I. Before Christ about 785.

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, [a]in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of [b]Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, [c]Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and [d]children of whoredoms: for [e]the land hath committed great whoredom, departing [f]from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and [g]I will [†]avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and [h]will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that [i]I will break the bow of Israel in [k]the valley of Jezreel.

6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And [l]God said unto him, Call her name [‖]Lo-ruhamah: for [m†]I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; [‖]but I will utterly take them away.

7 But [n]I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and [o]will not save them by bow, nor by sword, [o]nor by battle, [op]by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 Now when she had [q]weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said [l]God, Call his name [‖]Lo-ammi: [r]for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 Yet [s]the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; [t]and it shall come to pass, [u]that [‖]in the place where it was said unto them, [r]Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are [v]the sons of [w]the living God.

11 [x]Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and [x]appoint themselves [y]one head, and [z]they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of [a]Jezreel.

II.

2 [a]Say ye unto your brethren, [‖]Ammi; And to your sisters, [‖]Ruhamah.

Plead with your mother, plead:
For [b]she is not my wife, neither am I her husband:
Let her therefore put away [c]her whoredoms out of her sight,
And her adulteries [d]from between her breasts;

3 Lest [e]I strip her naked, and set her as [f]in the day that she was born,
And make her [g]as a wilderness, and set her [g]like a dry land,
And slay her [gh]with thirst.

4 And [i]I will not have mercy upon her children;
For they be the [k]children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother [l]hath played the harlot:
[m]She that conceived them hath done shamefully:
For she said, [n]I will go after my lovers,
[o]That give me my bread and my water,
[p]My wool and my flax, mine oil and my [†]drink.

6 Therefore behold, [q]I will [r]hedge up thy way with thorns,
And [†s]make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after [n]her lovers, but she shall not overtake them;
And she shall seek them, but shall not find them:
Then shall she say, [t]I will go and return to my [u]first husband;
[t]For then was it better with me than now.

IV. About B.C. 780.

[a]Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel:
For [aa]the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land,
Because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor [b]knowledge of God in the land.
[c]By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out,
And [f]blood toucheth blood.
Therefore [d]shall the land mourn,
And [de]every one that dwelleth therein [f]shall languish, [egh]With the beasts of the field, and [eh]with the fowls of heaven;
Yea, [eh]the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.
Yet [i]let no man strive, nor reprove another:
For [k]thy people are as [l]they that strive with the priest.
Therefore shalt thou fall in the day,
And the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night,
And I will [t]destroy [m]thy mother.
My people are [t]destroyed [n]for lack of knowledge,
Because thou hast rejected knowledge,
I will also reject thee, that [o]thou shalt be no priest to me:
Seeing [p]thou hast forgotten the law of thy God,
I will also forget thy children.
[q]As they were increased, so they sinned against me:
[r]Therefore will I change their glory into shame.
They [s]eat up the sin of my people,
And they [tt]set their heart on their iniquity.
[u]And there shall be, [u]like people, like priest:
And [v]I will [t]punish them for their ways,
And [vt]reward them their doings.
For [w]they shall eat, and not have enough:
They shall commit whoredom, and shall not [x]increase:
Because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

[y]Whoredom and [yz]wine and [a]new wine [b]take away the heart.
My people [c]ask counsel at their [d]stocks,
And [e]their staff declareth unto them:
For [f]the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err,
And they have gone a whoring from under their God.
[g]They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains,
And burn incense upon the hills,
Under [h]oaks and [i]poplars and [k]elms,
Because the shadow thereof is good:
Therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom,
And [l]your spouses shall commit adultery.
[ll]I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom,
Nor your spouses when they commit adultery:
For themselves [m]are separated with whores,
And they sacrifice with harlots:
Therefore [n]the people that doth not understand shall [l]fall.
Though thou, Israel, play the harlot,
Yet let not Judah [nn]offend;
And come not ye unto [op]Gilgal,
Neither go ye up to [pq]Beth-aven, [r]Nor swear, The LORD liveth.
For Israel [s]slideth back [t]as a backsliding heifer:
Now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.
[u]Ephraim is joined to idols:
[v]Let him alone.
Their drink [t]is sour; they have committed whoredom continually:
[w]Her [t]rulers with shame do love,
[x]Give ye.
[y]The wind hath bound her up in [z]her wings,
And [a]they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

[a]Hear ye this, O priests;
And hearken, ye house of Israel;
And give ye ear, O house of the king;
For judgment is toward you,
Because [b]ye have been [c]a snare on [d]Mizpah,
And [e]a net spread upon [f]Tabor.

And [g]the revolters [h]are profound to make slaughter,

[i]I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me:
For now, [k]O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and [k]Israel is defiled.
[t][l]They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God:
For [l]the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them,
And they have not known the LORD.
And [m]the pride of Israel doth testify [n]to his face:
Therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity;
Judah also shall fall with them.
They shall go [o]with their flocks and with their herds [p]to seek the LORD;
[p]But they shall not find him; [pp]he hath withdrawn himself from them.
They have [q]dealt treacherously against the LORD:
For they have begotton strange children:
Now shall [r]a month devour them with their portions.

[s]Blow ye [t]the cornet in [u]Gibeah,
And [v]the trumpet in [w]Ramah:
[x]Cry aloud at [y]Beth-aven, [z]After thee, O Benjamin.
Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke:
Among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.
The princes of Judah were like [a]them that remove the bound:
Therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.
Ephraim is [b]oppressed and [b]broken in judgment,
Because he willingly walked after [c]the commandment.
Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as [de]a moth,
And to the house of Judah as [‖d]rottenness.
When Ephraim saw his sickness,
And Judah saw his [f]wound,
Then went Ephraim [g]to the Assyrian,
And [h]sent [‖]to king Jareb:
Yet could he not heal you
Nor cure you of your [f]wound.

For [k]I will be unto Ephraim as [l]a lion,
And as a young lion to the house of Judah:
[m]I, even I, will tear and go away;
I will take away, and [m]none shall rescue him.

I will go and return to my place,
[t]Till [n]they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face:
[o]In their affliction they will [p]seek me early.

Come and [a]let us return unto the LORD:
For [b]he hath [c]torn, and [bd]he will heal us;
He hath smitten, and [e]he will bind us up.
After two days will [f]he revive us:
[g]In the third day he will raise us up,
And we shall live in his sight.
[h]Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD:
[i]His going forth is prepared [j]as the morning;
And [k]he shall come unto us as the rain.
As [lm]the latter and [l]former rain unto the earth.

[n]O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee?
[n]O Judah, what shall I do unto thee?
For your [‖]goodness is [o]as a morning cloud,
[o]And as the early dew it goeth away.
Therefore have I hewed them [p]by the prophets;
I have slain them [q]by the words of my mouth:
[r]And thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.
For [r]I desired mercy, and [rs]not sacrifice;
And [t]the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
But they [‖]like men [u]have transgressed the covenant:
There [v]have they dealt treacherously against me.
[w]Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity,
And is [‖]polluted with blood.

When I would have healed Israel,
Then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the [†a]wickedness of [b]Samaria:
For they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in,
And [c]the troop of robbers [d]spoileth without.
And they [†]consider not in their hearts
That I remember all their [a]wickedness:
Now [e]their own doings have beset them about;

For they have [‖]made ready their heart [m] like an oven, whiles [m]they lie in wait:
[n]Their baker sleepeth all the night;
In [no]the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.
They are all hot as an oven,

About B.C. 740.

Israel is [‖] an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit [a] unto himself:
According to the multitude of his fruit
[b] he hath increased the altars;
According to the goodness of his land
[c] they have made goodly [†] images.
[‖] Their heart is divided; now shall they 2 be [d] found faulty:
He shall [†] break down their altars, he shall spoil their [†] images.
For now they shall say, [e] We have no 3
king,
Because we feared not the LORD;
What then should a king do to us?
They have spoken words, swearing 4 falsely in making a covenant:
Thus [f] judgment springeth up as [g] hemlock [h] in the furrows of the field.
The inhabitants of [i] Samaria [j] shall fear 5 because of [k] the calves of [l] Beth-aven:
For the people thereof shall mourn
over it,
And [‖] the priests thereof that rejoiced
on it,
For [m] the glory thereof, because [m] it is departed from it.

6 [n] It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to [o] king Jareb:
Ephraim shall receive shame,
And Israel [j] shall be ashamed of [p] his own counsel.
7 As for [i] Samaria, [e] her king is [q] cut off
As [r] the foam upon [†] the water.
8 The high places also of [l] Aven, [s] the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed:
[t] The thorn and [t] the thistle shall come up on their altars;
And [u] they shall say to the mountains, Cover us;
And to the hills, Fall on us.
9 O Israel, thou hast sinned [v] from the days of Gibeah: there they stood:
[w] The battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake
them.
10 [x] It is in my desire that I should chastise them;
And [y] the people shall be gathered against them, [‖] When they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.
11 And Ephraim is as [z] a heifer that is taught, and loveth [a] to tread out the corn:
But [z] I passed over upon [†] her fair neck:
I will make Ephraim to ride;
Judah shall plow,
And Jacob shall [c] break his clods.
12 [d] Sow to yourselves in righteousness,
[d] Reap [e] in mercy;
[f] Break up your [g] fallow ground:
For it is time to seek the LORD,
Till he come and [h] rain righteousness
upon you.
13 [i] Ye have plowed wickedness, [di] ye have reaped iniquity;
Ye have eaten the fruit of lies:
Because thou didst trust in thy way,
In the multitude of thy mighty
men.
14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people,
And [j] all thy fortresses [k] shall be spoiled,
As [l] Shalman [k] spoiled [m] Beth-arbel in the day of battle:
[n] The mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.
15 So shall [o] Beth-el do unto you because of [†] your great wickedness;

utterly be cut off.

[a] When Israel was a child, then [b] I loved him,
And [c] called [d] my son out of Egypt.
As [e] they called them, so they went from them:
[f] They sacrificed unto Baalim, and [f] burnt incense to graven images.
[g] I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms;
But they knew not that [h] I healed them.

And I will not enter into the city.
[e] They shall walk after the LORD: [f] he shall roar [g] like a lion:
When he shall roar, then the children shall tremble [h] from the west.
They shall tremble as a bird [i] out of Egypt,

When Ephraim spake trembling, he [a]exalted himself in Israel;
But when he [b]offended [c]in Baal, he died.
And now [d]they sin more and more,
And [d]have made them molten images of their silver,
And idols according to their own understanding,
[e]All of it the work of the craftsmen:
They say of them, Let [f]the men that sacrifice [g]kiss the calves.
Therefore they shall be [h]as the morning cloud,
[h]And as the early dew that passeth away,
[i]As the chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor,

And thou shalt know no god but me:
For [m]there is no saviour [n]beside me.
[o]I did know thee in the wilderness,
[p]In the land of [q]great drought.
[r]According to their pasture, so were they filled;
[s]They were filled, and their heart was exalted;
Therefore [r]have they forgotten me.
Therefore [t]I will be unto them as a lion:
As [u]a leopard by the way will I [v]observe them:
I will meet them as [w]a bear that is bereaved of her whelps,
And will rent the caul of their heart,
And there will I devour them like a lion:
[x]The wild beast shall tear them.

†JOEL.

I. Before CHRIST about 800 [or 700].

THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

[a]Hear this, [b]ye old men, 2
And give ear, [b]all ye inhabitants of the land.
[bb]Hath this been in your days,
Or even in the days of your fathers?
[c]Tell ye your children of it, 3
And let your children tell their children,
And their children another generation.
[†]That which [d]the palmerworm hath left hath [e]the locust eaten; 4
And that which [e]the locust hath left hath [f]the cankerworm eaten;
And that which [f]the cankerworm hath left hath [g]the caterpillar eaten.

Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; 5
And [h]howl, all ye drinkers of wine,
Because of [i]the new wine, [k]for it is cut off from your mouth.
For [l]a nation is come up upon my land, 6
[l]Strong, and without number,
[m]Whose teeth are the teeth of a lion,
And he hath [n]the cheek-teeth of a [o]great lion.
He hath laid my vine waste, 7
And [†p]barked my fig tree:
He hath made it clean bare, and cast it away;
[q]The branches thereof are made white.
Lament like a virgin [r]girded with sackcloth for [s]the husband of her youth. 8
[t]The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; 9
[u]The priests, [u]the LORD's ministers, mourn.
The field is wasted, [v]the land mourneth; 10
For [w]the corn is wasted, [w x]the new wine is [‖y]dried up, [w]the oil [yy]languisheth.
11 [z]Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers,
For the wheat and for the barley;
Because the harvest of the field is perished.
12 The vine is [y]dried up, and [p]the fig tree languisheth;
The pomegranate tree, [a]the palm tree also, and [b]the apple tree,
Even all the trees of the field, are withered:
Because [c]joy is [y]withered away from the sons of men.
13 [de]Gird yourselves, and [d]lament, ye priests:
[d]Howl, ye ministers of the altar:
Come, lie all night [e]in sackcloth, [f]ye ministers of my God;
For [f]the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.
14 [g]Sanctify ye a fast, [g]call a [‖]solemn assembly,
[g]Gather [h]the elders and [h]all the inhabitants of the land
Into the house of the LORD your God,
And cry unto the LORD,
15 Alas for the day! [i]for the day of the LORD is at hand,
And as a [j]destruction from [k]the Almighty shall it come.
16 [f]Is not the meat cut off before our eyes,
Yea, [l]joy and gladness [f]from the house of our God?
17 [ll]The [†]seed is rotten under their clods,
The garners are laid desolate, [m]the barns are broken down;
For the corn is [y]withered.
18 [n]How do the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle [nn]are perplexed,
Because they have no pasture;
Yea, the flocks of sheep [o]are made desolate.
19 O LORD, [p]to thee will I cry:
For [q]the fire hath devoured [r]the [‖]pastures of the wilderness,
And [s]the flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.

II.

[a] Blow ye the [‖] trumpet [b] in Zion, and [a] sound an alarm in [b] my holy mountain:
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble:
[c] For the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;
[cd e] A day of darkness and [de] of gloomi- 2
ness,
[df] A day of clouds and [df] of thick darkness,
As [g] the morning spread upon the mountains:
[h] A great people and a strong;
[i] There hath not been ever the like,
Neither shall be any more after it,
Even to the years [†] of many generations.
[j] A fire devoureth before them; 3
And behind them [j] a flame burneth:
The land is as [k] the garden of Eden
before them,
And [kk] behind them [l] a desolate wilderness;
Yea, and [ll] nothing shall escape them.
[m] The appearance of them is as the 4 appearance of horses;
And as horsemen, so shall they run.
[n] Like the noise of chariots on the tops 5 of mountains shall they [nn] leap,
Like the noise of a flame of [o] fire that devoureth the stubble,
[h] As a strong people set in battle array.
Before their face the people shall be 6
much pained:
[p] All faces [q] shall gather [†] blackness.
They shall run like mighty men; they 7 shall climb the wall like men of war;
And they shall march every one on his ways,
And they shall not break their ranks:
Neither shall one [r] thrust another; 8
They shall walk every one in his path:
And when they fall upon the [‖] sword,
they shall not [s] be wounded.
[t] They shall [u] run to and fro in the 9
city;
They shall [u] run upon the wall,
They shall climb up upon the houses;
[v] They shall enter in at the windows
[vv] like a thief.

[w] The earth shall quake before them; 10
[w] The heavens shall tremble:
[xy] The sun and the moon shall be dark, [x] And the stars shall withdraw their shining:
And [xx] the LORD shall utter his voice 11
before [y] his army:
For [h] his [z] camp is very great:
[a] For he is strong that executeth his word:
For [bc] the day of the LORD is great and very [c] terrible;
And [d] who can abide it?

Therefore also now, saith the LORD, 12 [e] Turn ye even to me with all your heart,
And [f] with fasting, and with weeping,
and with mourning:
And [g] rent your heart, and not [h] your 13
garments,
And [e] turn unto the LORD your God:
For [ij] he is gracious and [ij] merciful,
[ij] Slow to anger, and [ijk] of great kindness,
And [i] repenteth him of the evil.
[l] Who knoweth if he will return and 14
repent,
And leave [m] a blessing behind him;
Even [n] a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

[o] Blow the trumpet in Zion, 15
[p] Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:
Gather the people, [q] sanctify the con- 16
gregation, assemble the elders, [r] Gather the children, and those that suck the breasts:
[s] Let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her [t] closet.
Let [u] the priests, the ministers of the 17
LORD, weep [v] between [w] the porch and [x] the altar,
And let them say, [y] Spare thy people,
O LORD,
And give not thine heritage to reproach,
That the heathen should [‖] rule over
them:
[z] Wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?
Then will the LORD [a] be jealous for 18
his land,
And [b] pity his people.

Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people,
Behold, I will send you [cd]corn, and [c]wine, and [c]oil,
And ye shall be satisfied therewith:
And I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:
But [dd]I will remove far off from you [e]the northern army,
And will drive him into a land barren and desolate,
With his face toward [f]the east sea,
And his hinder part towards [g]the utmost sea,
And [h]his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up,
Because [i]he hath done great things.

Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice:
For the LORD [i]will do great things.
[k]Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field:
For [k]the pastures of the wilderness do spring,
For [l]the tree beareth her fruit,
[l]The fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.
[m]Be glad then, ye children of Zion,
and [m]rejoice in the LORD your God:
For he hath given you [ll]*o*the former rain [t]moderately,
And [p]he will cause to come down for you the rain,
[o]The former rain, and [q]the latter rain in the first month.
And the floors shall be full of [c]wheat,
And [r]the fats shall overflow with [c]wine and [c]oil.
And I will restore to you the years that [s]the locust hath eaten,
[s]The cankerworm, and [s]the caterpillar, and [s]the palmerworm,
[t]My great army which I sent among you.
And [cu]ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied,
And praise the name of the LORD your God,
That hath dealt wondrously with you:
And [v]my people shall never be ashamed.
[w]And ye shall know that I am [x]in the midst of Israel,
And that [y]I am the LORD your God, and none else:
And [v]my people shall never be ashamed.

[z]And it shall come to pass afterward,
That [a]I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh;
And [bc]your sons and [cd]your daughters shall prophesy,
[c]Your old men shall dream [e]dreams,
[c]Your young men shall see [f]visions:
[c]And also upon [g]the servants and upon the handmaids
In those days will I pour out my spirit.
And [h]I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth,
Blood, and fire, and [i]pillars of smoke.
[k]The sun shall be turned into darkness, and [kl]the moon into blood,
[m]Before [n]the great and [mn]the terrible day of the LORD come.
And it shall come to pass, that [o]whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered:
For [pq]in mount Zion and in Jerusalem [pr]shall be deliverance,
As the LORD hath said,
And in [s]the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

For behold, [a]in those days, and in that time,
[a]When I shall [b]bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,
[c]I will also gather all nations,
And will bring them down [d]into the valley of Jehoshaphat,
And [e]will plead with them there for my people and for [f]my heritage Israel,
Whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.
And [g]they have cast lots for my people;
And have given a boy for a harlot,
And sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.
Yea, and what have ye to do with me, [hi]O Tyre, and [i]Zidon,
And all [j]the coasts of [ik]Palestine?
Will ye render me a recompence?
And if ye recompense me, [l]Swiftly and speedily [m]will I return your recompence upon your own head;

Because [n]ye have taken my silver and my gold,
And have carried into your temples my goodly [t]pleasant things:
[n]The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem [o]have ye sold unto [t][p]the Grecians,
That ye might remove them far from their border.
Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them,
And [m]will return your recompence upon your own head:
And [q]I will sell your sons and your daughters
Into the hand of the children of Judah,
And they shall sell them to [r][s]the Sabeans, to a people [s]far off:
For the LORD hath spoken it.

Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; [9]
[t]Prepare war, wake up the mighty men,
Let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:
[t]Beat your plowshares into swords, [10]
And [t]your [‖]pruninghooks into spears:
[u]Let the weak say, I am strong.
[v][c]Assemble yourselves, and come, all [11]
ye heathen,
And [cv]gather yourselves together round about:
Thither [‖]cause [w]thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.
Let the heathen be wakened, and [12]
come up [d]to the valley of Jehoshaphat:
For there will I sit [x]to judge all the heathen round about.
[y]Put ye in [z]the sickle, [y]for [a]the har- [13]
vest is ripe:
Come, get you down; for [b]the press is full, [c]the fats overflow;
For their wickedness is great.
[d]Multitudes, multitudes [e]in the valley [14]
of [‖][g]decision:
For [h]the day of the LORD is near [e]in the valley of decision.

[i]The sun and the moon shall be dark- [15]
ened,
[i]And the stars shall withdraw their shining.
[j]The LORD also shall roar out of [16]
Zion,
[j]And [k]utter his voice from Jerusalem;
And [i]the heavens and the earth shall shake:
But the LORD will be the [t]hope of his people,
And [l]the strength of the children of Israel.
[m]So shall ye know that I am the [17]
LORD your God
[n]Dwelling [o]in Zion, [op]my holy mountain:
Then shall Jerusalem be [t]holy,
And there shall [q]no strangers pass through her any more.

And it shall come to pass [r]in that [18]
day,
That [st]the mountains shall drop down [u]new wine,
And [t]the hills shall [t]flow with milk,
And [v]all the rivers of Judah shall [t]flow with waters,
And [w]a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD,
And shall water the valley of [x]Shittim.
[y]Egypt shall be a desolation, [19]
And [z]Edom shall be [a]a desolate wilderness,
For [b]the violence against the children of Judah,
Because they have shed innocent blood in their land.
But Judah shall [‖]dwell [c]for ever, [20]
And Jerusalem from generation to generation.

THE words of Amos, [a] who was among the herdmen of [b] Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel [c] in the days of [d] Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of [e] Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two year before [f] the earthquake.

And he said,

[g] The LORD will roar from Zion,
[g] And utter his voice from Jerusalem;
And [h] the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn,
And [i] the top of [jk] Carmel shall wither.

Thus saith the LORD;
[l] For three transgressions of [m] Damascus,
[ln] And for four, I will not [n] turn away the punishment thereof;
[o] Because they have threshed [jp] Gilead with [q] threshing instruments of iron:
[r] But I will send a fire into the house of [s] Hazael, [r] Which shall devour the palaces of [s] Ben-hadad.
I will break also [t] the bar of [m] Damascus,
And cut off the inhabitant from [lu] the plain of [uu] Aven,
And [v] him that holdeth the sceptre from [l] the house of [w] Eden:
And [lx] the people of Syria shall go into captivity [x] unto [y] Kir, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD;
[l] For three transgressions of [z] Gaza,
[l] And for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
[b] Because they [n] carried away captive the whole captivity,
[c] To deliver them up [d] to Edom:
[e] But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,
[e] Which shall devour the palaces thereof:

3 And I will cut off the inhabitant from [af] Ashdod,
And [g] him that holdeth the sceptre from [ab] Ashkelon,
And I will [i] turn mine hand against [ak] Ekron:
And [bl] the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

Thus saith the LORD;
[m] For three transgressions of [n] Tyrus,
[m] And for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
[o] Because they delivered up the whole captivity [d] to Edom,
And remembered not [t] [p] the brotherly covenant:
[e] But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus,
[e] Which shall devour the palaces thereof.

Thus saith the LORD;
[m] For three transgressions of [qr] Edom,
[m] And for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
[q] Because he did pursue [s] his brother [t] with the sword,
And [t] did cast off all pity,
And [t] his anger did tear perpetually,
And he kept his wrath for ever:
[e] But I will send a fire upon the [v] Teman, [e] Which shall devour the palaces of [w] Bozrah.

Thus saith the LORD;
[m] For three transgressions of the children of [rx] Ammon,
[m] And for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
Because [y] they have [n] ript up the women with child at Gilead, [x] That they might enlarge their border:
[e] But [z] I will kindle a fire in the wall of [a] Rabbah,
[e] And it shall devour the palaces thereof,

[a]For three transgressions of [b]Moab,
[a]And for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
[c]Because he burnt the bones of the king of Edom into lime:
[d]But I will send a fire upon Moab, 2

[g]With shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:
And I will cut off [h]the judge from the 3 midst thereof,
And will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD; 4
[a]For three transgressions of Judah,
[a]And for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
[i]Because they have despised the law of the LORD,
And [i]have not kept his commandments,
And [k]their lies caused them to err,
[l]After the which their fathers have walked:
[d]But [m]I will send a fire upon Judah, 5
[d]And [m]it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

Thus saith the LORD; 6
[a]For three transgressions of Israel,
[a]And for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
Because [n]they sold the righteous [o]for silver,
[o]And the poor for a pair of shoes;
[p]That pant after [q]the dust of the 7 earth on the head of the poor,
And [r]turn aside the way of the meek:
And [s]a man and his father will go in unto the same ‖maid,
[t]To profane my holy name:
And they lay themselves down upon 8
[u]clothes laid to pledge [v]by every altar,
And they drink the wine of [w]the condemned [v]in the house of their god.
Yet [x]destroyed I the Amorite before 9
them,
[y]Whose height was like the height of the cedars,
And he was strong as [yy]the oaks;
Yet [z]I destroyed his fruit from above,
And [z]his roots from beneath.

Also [a]I brought you up from the land 10
of Egypt,
And [b]led you forty years through the wilderness,
[c]To possess the land of the Amorite.
And I raised up of your sons for pro- 11
phets,
And of your young men for [d]Nazarites.
Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.
But [e]ye gave the Nazarites wine to 12
drink;
And commanded the prophets, [f]saying, Prophesy not.
Behold, ‖[h]I am pressed under you, 13
As a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.
Therefore [i]the flight shall perish from 14
[jk]the swift,
And [j]the strong shall not strengthen his force,
[m]Neither shall the mighty deliver [†]himself:
Neither shall he stand that handleth 15
the bow;
And he that is [kn]swift of foot shall not deliver himself:
[jo]Neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.
And he that is [†]courageous among 16
[p]the mighty
Shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

III.

[a]Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, [b]O children of Israel, Against the whole family [c]which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, [d]You only [e]have I known of all the 2
families of the earth:
[f]Therefore I will [†]punish you for all your iniquities.
[g]Can two walk together, except they 3
be agreed?
[h]Will [i]a lion roar in the forest, when 4
he hath no prey?
[i]Will a young lion [†]cry out of his [k]den,
if he have taken nothing?
[l]Can a bird fall in a snare upon the 5 earth, where no gin is for him?
[l]Shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

[a]Hear this word, [b]ye kine of Bashan, that are in [bb]the mountain of [c]Samaria,
Which [d]oppress the poor, which [d]crush
the needy,
Which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.
2 The Lord GOD [e]hath sworn by his holiness,
That lo, the days shall come upon
you,
That [f]he will take you away with hooks,
And your [g]posterity with fishhooks.
3 And [h]ye shall go out at the breaches,

And proclaim and publish [qq]the free

For [†]this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.
6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities,
And [r]want of bread in all your places:
[s]Yet have ye not returned unto me,
saith the LORD.
7 And also [t]I have withholden the rain from you, [u]When there were yet three months to the harvest:
And I [v]caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city:
One piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.
8 So two or three cities [vv]wandered un-

[a]Hear ye this word which I [b]take up against you,
Even [b]a lamentation, O house of Israel.
[c]The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise:
She [d]is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.
For thus saith the Lord GOD:
The city that [e]went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred,
And that which [e]went forth by an hundred [f]shall leave ten,
To the house of Israel.
For thus saith the LORD unto the [4] house of Israel, [g]Seek ye me, and [h]ye shall live:
But seek not [i]Beth-el, nor enter into [i]Gilgal,
And pass not to [k]Beer-sheba:
For Gilgal shall surely go into captivity,
And [i]Beth-el shall come to [l]nought.
[g]Seek the LORD, and ye shall live;
Lest he [m]break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
And devour it, and there be none to quench it in [i]Beth-el.

[n]Ye who turn judgment to [o]wormwood,
And [p]leave off righteousness in the earth,
Seek him that maketh [q]the seven stars and [qr]Orion,
And [s]turneth [t]the shadow of death into the morning,
And [uw]maketh the day dark with night:
[u]That calleth for the waters of the sea,
[v]And poureth them out upon the face of the earth:
[vw]The LORD is his name:
That strengtheneth the [f]spoiled against the strong,
So that the [f]spoiled shall come against the fortress.
[x]They hate [y]him that [z]rebuketh [zz]in the gate,
And [a]they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.
Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor,
And ye take from him [b]burdens of wheat:
[c]Ye have built houses of hewn stone,
But ye shall not dwell in them;
[c]Ye have planted [t]pleasant vineyards,
But ye shall not drink wine of them.
For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins:
They afflict the just, they take [l]a bribe,
And they [d]turn aside the poor [zze]in the gate from their right.
Therefore the prudent [f]shall keep silence in that time;
[g]For it is an evil time.
[h]Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live:
And so the LORD, [i]the God of hosts, shall be with you, [k]as ye have spoken.
[l]Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment [e]in the gate:
[m]It may be that the LORD [i]God of hosts will be gracious unto [n]the remnant of Joseph.
Therefore the LORD, [i]the God of hosts, the LORD, saith thus;
[nn]Wailing shall be in all streets;
And they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas!
And they shall call the husbandman to mourning,
And [o]such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.
And in all vineyards shall be wailing:
For [p]I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

[e] Pass ye unto [fg] Calneh, and see;
And from thence go ye to [gh] Hamath the great:
Then go down to [i] Gath of the Philistines:
[k] Be they better than these kingdoms?
Or their border greater than your border?

[l] Ye that put far away the evil day,
And cause the [‖m] seat of [n] violence to come near;
[nn] That lie upon [o] beds of ivory,
And [‖p] stretch themselves [nn] upon their couches,
And eat the lambs out of the flock,
And the calves out of the midst of [q] the stall;
[r] That [‖] chant to the sound of the viol,
And invent to themselves instruments of musick, [s] like David;
That drink [‖] wine in [ss] bowls,
And [t] anoint themselves with the [d] chief ointments:
But [u] they are not grieved for the [tv] affliction of Joseph.

Therefore now [vv] shall they go captive with the first that go captive,
And [w] the banquet of them that [p] stretched themselves shall be removed.
[xa] The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD [y] the God of hosts,
I abhor [za] the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces:
Therefore will I [b] deliver up the city with all [†] that is therein.
And it shall come to pass, [bb] if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.
And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that [c] burneth him,
To bring out the bones out of the house,
And shall say unto him that is [d] by the sides of the house,
Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No.
Then shall he say, [ef] Hold thy tongue:
[c] For [†] we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.
For behold, the LORD commandeth,
And [g] he will smite the great house with [†] breaches,
And the little house with [h] clefts.

Shall horses run upon the rock?
Will one plow there with oxen?
For [i] ye have turned [k] judgment into gall,
And the fruit of [i] righteousness into hemlock:
[l] Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought,
Which say, Have we not taken to us [m] horns by our own strength?

OBADIAH.

About B.C. 587.

THE vision of Obadiah.
Thus saith the Lord GOD [a] concerning Edom;
[bc] We have heard a rumour from the LORD,
And an ambassador is sent among the heathen,
Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.
[c] Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen:
Thou art greatly despised.
[c] The pride of thine heart hath [m] deceived thee,
Thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose [d] habitation is high;
[e] That saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?
[ce] Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle,
And [e f g] though thou set thy nest among the stars,
[g] Thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.
[h] If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou [i] cut off!)
Would they not have stolen till they had enough?
[h] If the grape-gatherers came to thee,
[k] Would they not leave ‖some grapes?
[l] How are the things of Esau searched out!
How are his hid things sought up!
All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border:
[f] The men that were at peace with thee have [m] deceived thee, and prevailed against thee;
[fn] They that eat thy bread have laid [o] a wound under thee:
[p] There is none understanding [r] in him.
[q] Shall I not [r] in that day, saith the LORD,
Even destroy [p] the wise men out of Edom,
And [p] understanding out of [s] the mount of Esau?
And [t] thy mighty men, O [pu] Teman, shall be dismayed,
To the end that every one of [s] the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.
[v] For thy [w] violence against [x] thy brother Jacob shame [w] shall cover thee,
And [y] thou shalt be cut off for ever.
[v] In the day that thou stoodest on the other side,
In the day that the strangers ‖carried away captive his forces,
And foreigners entered into his gates,
And [a] cast lots upon Jerusalem,
Even thou wast as one of them.
But ‖[b] thou shouldest not have [b] looked on [c] the day of thy brother in the day [d] that he became a stranger;
Neither shouldest thou have [e] rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction;
Neither shouldest thou have [f] spoken proudly in the day of distress.
Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people [f] in the day of their calamity:
Yea, thou shouldest not have [b] looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, [g] Nor have [h] laid hands on their ‖substance in the day of their calamity;
Neither shouldest thou have stood in [i] the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape;
Neither shouldest thou have ‖delivered up [k] those of his that did remain in the day of distress.
[lm] For the day of the LORD is near [m] upon all the heathen:
[n] As thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee;
[o] Thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

†JONAH.

I. About B.C. 862.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto [a]‖Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to [b]Nineveh, [c]that great city, and cry against it; for [d]their wickedness [e]is come up before me. But Jonah rose up [f]to flee unto [g]Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to [h]Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and [i]went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish [k]from the presence of the LORD.

But the LORD [l]sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was [l]a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship [f]was like [m]to be broken. Then [n]the mariners were afraid, and [p]cried every man unto his god, and [q]cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, [q]to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and [r]was fast asleep. So [s]the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, [ss]What meanest thou, [r]O sleeper? arise, [p]call upon thy God, [t]if so be that God will [u]think upon us, that we perish not.

And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and [v]let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. Then said they unto him, [w]Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? And he said unto them, I am a Hebrew; and I fear [l]the LORD, [x]the God of heaven, [y]which hath made the sea and the dry land. Then were the men [f]exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled [k]from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea [f]may be calm unto us? for the sea [l]‖[f]wrought, and was tempestuous. And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you. Nevertheless the men [f]rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea [l]‖[f]wrought, and was tempestuous against them. Wherefore they cried unto [z]the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and [a]lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, [b]hast done as it pleased thee. So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and [c]the sea [f]ceased from her raging. Then [d]the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and [f][cg]offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and [g]made vows.

Now the LORD had [h]prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And [i]Jonah was in the [f]belly of the fish three days and three nights. II. Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, and said,

I cried [l]by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and [a]he heard me;
Out of the belly of [l]hell cried I, and [b]thou heardest my voice.
For [c]thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the [f]midst of the seas;
And the floods compassed me about:
[d]All thy billows and thy waves passed over me.
[c]Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight;
Yet [f]I will look again [fg]toward thy holy temple.
The [h]waters [i]compassed me about, [k]even to the soul:
The depth closed me round about,
The weeds were wrapt [h]about my head.

III.

And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, Arise, 2 go unto [a]Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto 3 Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now [a]Nineveh was an [†]exceeding great city of three days' journey.
And Jonah began to enter into the city 4 a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and [b]Nineveh shall be overthrown. So [c]the people of Nine- 5 veh believed God, and [d]proclaimed a fast, and [e]put on sackcloth, [f]from the greatest of them even to the least of them. For word came unto the king 6 of Nineveh, and [g]he arose from his throne, and he laid [h]his robe from him, and [ei]covered him with sackcloth, and [ij]sat in ashes. And he [k]caused it to 7 be proclaimed and [†]published through Nineveh by [l]the decree of the king and his [†]nobles, saying, Let neither man nor [m]beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing:
let them not feed, nor drink water:
but let man and beast [e]be covered with 8
sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God:
yea, [n]let them turn every one from his evil way, and from [o]the violence that is in their hands. [pq]Who can tell if God 9 will turn [q]and repent, and [r]turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that 10 [n s]they turned from their evil way; and [s t]God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

IV.

But [a]it displeased Jonah exceedingly, 1 and [b]he was very angry. And he pray- 2
ed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore [c]I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art [d]a gracious God, and [d e]merciful, [d]slow to anger, and of great kindness, [d]and repentest thee of the evil. Therefore now, [f]O LORD, take, I 3 beseech thee, my life from me; for [g]it is 4 better for me to die than to live. Then said the LORD, [‖]Doest thou well to be angry? So Jonah went out of the city, 5 and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him [h]a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.
And the [i]LORD God [j]prepared a [‖†]gourd, 6 and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head,
to deliver him from his [a]grief. So Jonah [†]was exceeding glad of the gourd.
But God [j]prepared a worm when the 7 morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it withered. And it 8 came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God [j]prepared a [‖]vehement [k]east wind; and the sun [l]beat upon the head of Jonah, that [m]he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, [g]It is better 9 for me to die than to live. And God said to Jonah, [‖]Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, [‖]I do well to be angry, [n]even unto death.
Then said the LORD, Thou hast [‖]had 10 pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which [†]came up in a night, and perished in a night: and should not I 11 spare [o]Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons [p]that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; [q]and also much cattle?

†MICAH.

I.

About B.C. 750.

THE word of the LORD that came to [a] Micah [b] the Morasthite [c] in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw [d] concerning [e] Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 [f] Hear, all ye people;
[g] Hearken, O earth, and [†] all that therein is:
And [h] let the Lord GOD be witness against you,
[i] The Lord from [k] his holy temple.

3 [l] For behold, the LORD cometh forth out of [lm] his place,
And will come down and [no] tread [n] upon the high places of the earth.

4 And [p] the mountains shall be molten under him,
And the valleys shall be cleft,
[q] As wax before the fire,
And as the waters that are [r] poured down [†] a steep place.

5 For [rr] the transgression of Jacob is all this,
And for [rr] the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not [e] Samaria?
And what are [s] the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make [e] Samaria [t] as a heap of the field,
And as plantings of a vineyard:
And I will [r] pour down the stones thereof [u] into the valley,
And [v] I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof [w] shall be beaten to pieces,
And all [x] the hires thereof shall be burnt with the fire,
And all the idols thereof will I lay desolate:
For she gathered it [x] of the hire of a harlot,
And they shall return to the hire of a harlot.

8 [y] Therefore I will [z] wail and howl,
I will go [a] stript and [b] naked:
I will make a wailing like [cd] the dragons,
And mourning as [ce] the [†] owls.

9 For [‖f] her wound is incurable;
For it is come unto Judah;
[g] He is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 [h] Declare ye it not at [i] Gath, weep ye not at all:
In the house of [‖k] Aphrah [l] roll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, [‖] thou [†] inhabitant of Saphir, [n] having thy shame naked:
The [†] inhabitant of [‖] Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of [‖] Beth-ezel;
He shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the [†] inhabitant of [p] Maroth [‖q] waited carefully for good:
But [r] evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O thou [†] inhabitant of [s] Lachish, bind the chariot to [t] the swift beast:
She is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion:
For [u] the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give [v] presents to [†] Moresheth gath:
The houses of [‖x] Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 [xx] Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O [†] inhabitant of [x] Mareshah:
[‖] He shall come unto [y] Adullam the glory of Israel.

16 [z] Make thee bald, and [a] poll thee for [b] thy delicate children;
[z] Enlarge thy baldness [c] as the eagle;
For [d] they are gone into captivity from thee.

II. About B.C. 730.

Woe to them [a] that devise iniquity, and work evil [a] upon their beds!
When the morning is light, they practise it,
Because [b] it is in the power of their hand.
And they covet [c] fields, and take them by violence;
And [c] houses, and take them away:
So they ‖ oppress a man and his house,
Even a man and his heritage.
Therefore thus saith the LORD;
Behold, against [d] this family [e] do I devise an evil,
[f] From which ye shall not remove your necks;
Neither shall ye go haughtily:
[g] For this time is evil.

In that day shall one [h] take up [i] a parable against you,
And lament [†] with a doleful lamentation,
And say, We be utterly spoiled:
[k] He hath changed the portion of my people:
[k] How hath he removed it from me!
[‖] Turning away he hath divided our fields.
Therefore thou shalt have none that shall [m] cast a cord [n] by lot
In the congregation of the LORD.
[‖†] Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy:
[p] They shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.
O thou that art named the house of Jacob,
Is the spirit of the LORD ‖ straitened?
[q] Are these his doings?
Do not my words do good to him that walketh [†] uprightly?
[s] Even [†] of late my people is risen up as an enemy:
Ye pull off [tv] the robe [†] with the garment
[s] From them that pass by securely as men averse from war.
[s] The ‖ women of my people have ye cast out from their [u] pleasant houses;
[s] From their children have ye taken away [v] my glory for ever.
Arise ye, and depart; for this is not [w] your rest:
Because [x] it is polluted, it shall [y] destroy you, even with a [z] sore destruction.

If a man ‖ [b] walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, [c] saying,
I will [d] prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink;
[e] He shall even be [d] the prophet of this people.
[f] I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee;
[f] I will surely [g] gather [h] the remnant of Israel;
I will put them together as the sheep of [i] Bozrah,
As [g] the flock in the midst of [j] their fold:
[k] They shall [l] make great noise by reason of the multitude of [k] men.
[m] The breaker is come up before them:
They have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it:
And [n] their king shall pass before them,
And [o] the LORD on the head of them.

III. B.C. 710.

And I said, [a] Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob,
[a] And ye [b] princes of the house of Israel;
[c] Is it not for you [d] to know judgment?
Who hate the good, and love the evil;
[e] Who pluck off their skin from off them,
And their flesh from off their bones;
[f] Who also [f] eat the flesh of my people,
And flay their skin from off them;
And [g] they break their bones,
And [h] chop them in pieces, as for the pot,
And [i] as flesh within [k] the caldron.
[l] Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them:
[m] He will even hide his face from them at that time,
As they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

Thus saith the LORD concerning [no] the prophets that make my people err,
[p] That bite with their teeth, and [nq] cry, Peace;
And [r] he that putteth not into their mouths,
They even [s] prepare war against him.

And [u] it shall be dark unto you, [t †] that ye shall not [v] divine;
And [w] the sun shall go down over the prophets,
And [w] the day shall be dark over
them.
Then shall the seers [x] be ashamed, 7
and [v x] the diviners [x] confounded:
Yea, they shall all [y] cover their † lips;
For [z] there is no answer of God.
But truly [a] I am full of power by the 8 spirit of the LORD,
And of judgment, and of might,
[b] To declare unto Jacob his transgression,
[b] And to Israel his sin.
[c] Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of 9
the house of Jacob,
[c] And princes of the house of Israel,
That abhor judgment, and [d] pervert
all equity.
[e] They build up Zion [f] with † blood, 10
And Jerusalem with iniquity.
[g] The heads thereof judge for reward, 11
And [h] the priests thereof teach for hire,
And [h i] the prophets thereof [v] divine
for money:
Yet will they [k] lean upon the LORD,
† and say,
[l] Is not the LORD among us?
[m] None evil can come upon us.
Therefore [n] shall Zion [nn] for your sake 12
be plowed as a field, [n o] And Jerusalem shall become heaps,
[n] And [p] the mountain of the house
[q] as the high places of the forest.

IV.

[a] But in the last days it shall come to pass,
That the mountain of the house of 2
the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains,
And it shall be exalted above the hills;
And people shall flow unto it.
And many nations shall come, and say,
Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
And to the house of the God of Jacob;
And he will teach us of his ways,
And we will walk in his paths:
For the law shall go forth of Zion,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

And [b] he shall judge among many 3
people,
And rebuke [c] strong nations afar off;
And they shall beat their swords into plowshares,
And their spears into ‖ pruninghooks:
Nation shall not lift up a sword against
nation,
Neither shall they learn war any more.
[d] But they shall sit every man under 4 his vine and under his fig tree;
[e] And none shall make them afraid:
[f] For the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.
For [g] all people will walk every one 5
in the name of his god,
And [h] we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.
[i] In that day, saith the LORD, [k] will I 6 assemble [l m] her that halteth, And [k l] I will gather [n] her that is driven out,
And her that I have afflicted;
And I will make [l m] her that halted [o] a 7 remnant,
And her that was cast far off [c] a strong
nation:
And [p r] the LORD shall reign over them [q] in mount Zion [r] From henceforth, even for ever.
And thou, O tower of ‖ [s] the flock, 8 [t] The strong hold of the daughter of Zion, Unto thee shall it come, even [u] the first dominion;
The kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

Now why dost thou cry out [v] aloud? 9
[w] Is there no king in thee?
[x] Is thy counseller perished?
For [y] pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.
[z] Be in pain, and [a] labour to bring 10 forth, O daughter of Zion, [y] like a woman in travail:
For now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field,
And [b] thou shalt go even to Babylon;
[c] there shalt thou be delivered;
[c] There the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.
Now also [cc] many nations are gather- 11
ed against thee,
That say, [d] Let her be defiled, and [e] let our eye look upon Zion.

[b] And when he treadeth within our borders.
And [c] the remnant of Jacob shall be 7
in the midst of many people [d e] As a dew from the LORD,
[d f] As the showers upon the grass,
That tarrieth not for man,
Nor waiteth for the sons of men.
And [c] the remnant of Jacob shall be 8
among the Gentiles in the midst of many people
[g] As a lion among the beasts of the forest, [g] As a young lion among the flocks of [‖] sheep:
Who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, [h] And none can deliver.
[i] Thine hand shall be lift up upon 9 thine adversaries,
And all thine enemies shall be cut off.
And it shall come to pass [k] in that 10
day, saith the LORD, [l] That I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee,
And I will destroy [l] thy chariots:
And [m] I will cut off the cities of thy 11
land,
And [m] throw down all thy strong holds:
And I will cut off [n] witchcrafts out of 12
thine hand;
And thou shalt have no more [o] sooth-sayers:
Thy graven images also [p] will I cut off, 13
And thy [‖ q] standing images out of
the midst of thee;
And [r] thou shalt no more [s] worship
the work of thine hands.
And I will pluck up thy [t] groves out 14
of the midst of thee:
[m] So will I destroy thy [‖ u] cities.
And [v] I will execute vengeance in 15
anger and fury upon the heathen,
Such as they have not heard.

O my people, [d] what have I done unto thee?
And [e] wherein have I wearied thee?
Testify against me.
For [f] I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt,
And [g h] redeemed thee [f h] out of the house of servants;
And I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and [i] Miriam.
O my people, remember now [k] what Balak king of Moab consulted,
And what Balaam the son of Beor answered him;
From [l] Shittim unto [m] Gilgal;
That ye may know [n] the righteousness of the LORD.
[o] Wherewith shall I [p] come before the LORD,
And [q] bow myself before the [r] high God?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
With calves [t] of a year old?
[s] Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
Or with ten thousands of [t] rivers of oil?
[u] Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
The fruit of my [t] body for the sin of my soul?
[s] He hath shewed thee, [v] O man, what is good;
And [w] what doth the LORD require of thee,
But [x] to do [y] justly, and to love [y] mercy,
And to [t] walk humbly [a] with thy God?

The LORD'S voice crieth unto the city,
And ‖ the man of [b] wisdom shall see [c] thy name:
Hear ye [d] the rod, and who [e] hath appointed it.
[f] Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked,
And the [t h] scant measure that is [i] abominable?
‖ Shall I count them pure with the wicked [k] balances,
And with [l] the bag of [k] deceitful weights?

For the rich men thereof [m] are full of violence,
And the inhabitants thereof [n] have spoken lies,
And [o] their tongue is [p] deceitful in their mouth.
Therefore also will I [q] make thee sick in smiting thee,
In making thee desolate because of thy sins.
[r] Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied;
And thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee;
And thou shalt [s] take hold, [t] but shalt not deliver;
And [t] that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.
[u] Thou shalt [v] sow, but thou shalt not reap;
[u] Thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not [w] anoint thee with oil;
[u x] And [y] sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.
For ‖ the statutes of [z] Omri are kept,
And all the works of the house of [a] Ahab,
And ye walk in their counsels;
That I should make thee [b] a ‖ desolation,
And the inhabitants thereof [c] a hissing:
Therefore ye shall bear [d] the reproach of my people.

[a] Woe is me! for I am as [t] when they have gathered [c] the summer fruits,
As [d] the grapegleanings of the vintage:
There is no [e] cluster to eat:
My soul desired [f] the firstripe fruit.
[g] The ‖ [h] good man is perished out of the earth:
And [i] there is none upright among men:
They all [j] lie in wait for blood;
[k] They hunt [l] every man his brother [m] with a net.
That they may do evil with both hands earnestly,
[n] The prince asketh, and [o] the judge asketh for a reward;
And the great man, he uttereth [t] his mischievous desire:
So they [q] wrap it up.

NAHUM.

I. About B.C. 713.

[a] THE burden of [b] Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the [c] Elkoshite.

2 [d] God is jealous, and [e] the LORD revengeth;
The LORD revengeth, and [f] is furious;
The LORD will take vengeance [g] on his adversaries,
And [g] he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is [h] slow to anger, and [i] great in power,
And [k] will not at all acquit the wicked:
[l] The LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in [m] the storm,
And the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 [n] He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry,
And drieth up all the rivers:
[o p] Bashan [q] languisheth, and [o p] Carmel,
And the flower of [o] Lebanon [q] languisheth.

5 [r] The mountains quake at him, and [s] the hills melt,
And the earth [t] is burnt at his presence,
Yea, [u] the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 [v w] Who can stand before his indignation?
And who can [t] abide in [x] the fierceness of his anger?
His fury [y] is poured out [w] like fire,
And [z] the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 [a] The LORD is good, [b] a [‖] strong hold in the day of trouble;
And [c] he knoweth [d] them that trust in him.

8 But with [e] an overrunning flood he will [f] make an utter end of [g] the place thereof,
And darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What [h] do ye imagine against the LORD?
[f] He will make an utter end:
Affliction shall not rise up [i] the second time.

10 For while they be [k] folden together [l] as thorns,
And [m] while they be drunken as drunkards,
[n] They shall be devoured as stubble [nn] fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, [h o] that imagineth evil against the LORD, [t o] A wicked counseller.

12 Thus saith the LORD;
[‖] Though they be [p] quiet, and likewise many,
Yet thus [q] shall they be [t] cut down, when he shall [r] pass through.
[s] Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now [t] will I break his yoke from off thee,
And [t] will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee,
That [u] no more of thy name be sown:
[v] Out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image:
I [v] will make thy grave; for [w] thou art vile.

15 Behold [x] upon the mountains [y] the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace.
O Judah, [†] keep thy solemn feasts, [z] perform thy vows:
For [†o] the wicked shall no more [r a] pass through thee;
[v] He is utterly cut off.

II.

‖ He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face:
Keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.
For the LORD hath turned away ‖ the excellency of Jacob,
As the excellency of Israel:
For the emptiers have emptied them out,
And marred their vine branches.
The shield of his mighty men is made red,
The valiant men are ‖ in scarlet:
The chariots shall be with ‖ flaming torches in the day of his preparation,
And the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.
The chariots shall rage in the streets,
They shall justle one against another in the broad ways:
They shall seem like torches,
They shall run like the lightnings.
He shall recount his ‖ worthies:
They shall stumble in their walk;
They shall make haste to the wall thereof,
And the defence shall be prepared.
The gates of the rivers shall be opened,
And the palace shall be ‖ dissolved.
And ‖ Huzzab shall be ‖ led away captive, she shall be brought up,
And her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves,
Tabring upon their breasts.
But Nineveh is ‖ of old like a pool of water:
Yet they shall flee away.
Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall ‖ look back.
Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold:
‖ For there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.
She is empty, and void, and waste:
And the heart melteth, and the knees smite together,
And much pain is in all loins,
And the faces of them all gather blackness.

Where is the dwelling of the lions,
And the feeding place of the young lions,
Where the lion, even the old lion, walked,
And the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?
The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps,
And strangled for his lionesses,
And filled his holes with prey,
And his dens with ravin.
Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts,
And I will burn her chariots in the smoke,
And the sword shall devour thy young lions:
And I will cut off thy prey from the earth,
And the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

III.

Woe to the bloody city!
It is all full of lies and robbery;
The prey departeth not;
The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels,
And of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots.
The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear:
And there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases;
And there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:
Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot,
The mistress of witchcrafts,
That selleth nations through her whoredoms,
And families through her witchcrafts.
Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts;
And I will discover thy skirts upon thy face,
And I will shew the nations thy nakedness,
And the kingdoms thy shame.
And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile,
And will set thee as a gazing-stock.

†HABAKKUK.

I. About B.C. 626.

1 [a] THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, [b] how long shall I [c] cry, and thou wilt not hear?
Even [cd] cry out unto thee of [de] violence, and thou wilt not save?

3 Why dost thou shew me [f] iniquity, and cause me to behold [f] grievance?
For [g] spoiling and [ef] violence are before me:
And there are that raise up [f] strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law [h] is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth:
For [i] the wicked doth [k] compass about the righteous;
Therefore [‖] wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 [l] Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and [m] wonder marvellously:
For I will work a work in your days,
Which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For lo, [n‖] I raise up [o] the Chaldeans, that bitter and [p] hasty nation,
[pp] Which shall march through the [†] breadth of the land,
[pp] To possess the dwelling places [q] that are not theirs.

7 They are [qq] terrible and dreadful:
[‖] Their judgment and their [r] dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 [s] Their horses also are swifter than [t] the leopards,
And are more † fierce than [u] the evening wolves:
And their horsemen shall spread [v] themselves,
And their horsemen shall come [w] from far;
[x] They shall fly as [s] the eagle [y] that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence:
[‖†] Their faces shall sup up as the east wind,
And they shall gather [a] the captivity [b] as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings,
And the princes shall be a scorn unto them:
[c] They shall deride every strong hold;
For [d] they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall [e] his mind change, and he shall pass over, and [f] offend, [g] Imputing this his power unto his god.

12 [h] Art thou not from everlasting,
O LORD my God, mine Holy One? [i] we shall not die.
O LORD, [k] thou hast ordained them for judgment;
And, O † mighty God, [k] thou hast † established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to [l] behold evil,
And canst not look on [‖] iniquity:
[m] Wherefore lookest thou upon them [mn] that deal treacherously,
And [o] holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth [p] the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as [pp] the fishes of the sea,
As [q] the [‖] creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 [r] They take up all of them with [s] the angle,
They catch them in their [t] net, and gather them in their [‖u] drag:
Therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 [v] Therefore they sacrifice unto their [t] net, and [v] burn incense unto their [u] drag;
Because by them their portion is fat, and their meat [‖†] plenteous.

II.

I will [a]stand upon my watch, and set me upon the [†]tower,
And will [b]watch to see [c]what he will say [‖]unto me,
And what I shall answer [‖†]when I am reproved.

And the LORD answered me, and said, 2
[cc]Write the vision, and [d]make it plain upon tables,
That he may run that readeth it.
For [e]the vision is yet [f]for an appointed time, 3
But [f]at the end it shall speak, and not lie:
[g]Though it [h]tarry, [i]wait for it;
Because [k]it will surely come, [l]it will not tarry.
Behold, [k]his soul which [m]is lifted up is not upright in him: 4 [k n]But the just shall live by his faith.

[‖]Yea also, because he [o]transgresseth [p]by wine, 5
He is [q]a proud man, neither keepeth at home,
Who [r]enlargeth his desire [s]as hell,
And is [s]as death, and cannot be satisfied,
But [t]gathereth unto him all nations,
And [t]heapeth unto him all people:
Shall not all these [tt]take up [u]a parable against him, 6
And [v]a taunting [vw]proverb against him, and say,

[‖]Woe to him that increaseth [x]that which is not his! [y]how long?
And to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!
Shall they not rise up [z]suddenly that shall bite thee, 7
And awake that shall [a]vex thee,
And thou shalt be [b]for booties unto them?
[c]Because thou hast spoiled many nations, 8
[c]All the remnant of the people [d]shall spoil thee;
[e]Because of men's [†]blood, and for [f]the violence of the land,
[e]Of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 [g]Woe to him that [‖]coveteth an evil covetousness to his house,
That he may set [h]his nest [i]on high, that he may be delivered from the [†]power of evil!
10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house
By cutting off many people,
And hast [k]sinned against thy soul.
11 For [l]the stone shall cry out of the wall,
And the [‖]beam out of the timber shall [‖]answer it.

12 Woe to him [m]that buildeth a town with [†]blood,
And stablisheth a city [m]by iniquity!
13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts
That [n]the people shall labour [o]in the very fire,
And [n]the people [p]shall weary themselves [‖o]for very vanity?
14 For [q r]the earth shall be filled [‖]with [q]the knowledge of [r]the glory of the LORD, [q]As the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him [s]that giveth his neighbour drink,
That [t]puttest thy [u]bottle to him, and [v]makest him drunken also,
[v]That thou mayest look on their nakedness!
16 Thou art filled [‖]with [w]shame for glory:
[x]Drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered:
[x]The cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee,
And [y]shameful spuing shall be on thy glory.
17 For [f]the violence of [z]Lebanon shall cover thee,
And [zz]the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid,
[e]Because of men's blood, and for [f]the violence of the land,
[e]Of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

III.

A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet [h] upon Shigionoth.
O LORD, I have heard [i] [b] thy speech, 2
and [c] was afraid:
O LORD, [h] [d] revive [e] thy work in the midst of the years,
In the midst of the years make known;
[f] In wrath remember mercy.

God came from [h] [g] Teman, 3
And [h] the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah.
His glory covered the heavens,
And the earth was full of his praise.
And [i] his brightness was as the 4
light;
He had [h] horns coming out of his hand:
And [j] there was the hiding of his power.
[k] Before him went the pestilence, 5
And [h] [k] burning coals went forth [m] at his feet.
He stood, and measured the earth: 6
He beheld, and [n] drove asunder the nations;
And [o] the everlasting [p] mountains were scattered,
The perpetual [p] hills did bow:
His ways are everlasting.
I saw the tents of [h] [q] Cushan [h] in [r] af- 7
fliction:
And the curtains of the land of [t] Midian did tremble.
[u] Was the LORD displeased against 8
[v] the rivers?
Was thine anger against [v] the rivers?
[u] Was thy wrath against the sea,
That [w] thou didst ride upon thine horses and [h] thy chariots of salvation?

ZEPHANIAH.

I. About B.C. 630.

THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of [a] Hizkiah, [*] in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 [†] I will utterly consume all things from off [†] the land, saith the LORD.

3 I [b] will consume [c] man and beast;
[b] I will consume [c] the fowls of the heaven, and [c d] the fishes of the sea,
And [e] the [‖] stumblingblocks with the wicked;
And [f] I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah,
And upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem;
And [g] I will cut off [h] the remnant of Baal from this place,
And [i] the name of [j] the Chemarims with the priests;

5 And [k] them that worship the host of heaven [k] upon the housetops;
And [l] them that worship and [l m] that swear [‖] by the LORD,
And [l n] that swear by [o] Malcham;

6 And [p] them that are turned back [q] from the LORD;
And [r] those that have not sought the LORD, nor inquired for him.

7 [s] Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD:
For [t] the day of the LORD is at hand:
For [u] the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice,
He hath [†] bid [v] his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD'S sacrifice,
That I will [†] punish [w] the princes, and [w] the king's children,
And all such as are [x] clothed with strange [y] apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those [z] that leap on the threshold,
Which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD,
That there shall be the noise of a cry from [a] the fish gate,
And [b] a howling from [c] the second,
And a great crashing from the hills.

11 [d] Howl, ye inhabitants of [e] Maktesh,
For all [f] the merchant people are cut down;
All they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time,
That [g h] I will search Jerusalem [h] with candles,
And punish the men that are [†] settled [l] on their lees:
[m] That say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become [n] a booty, and their houses a desolation:
[o] They shall also build houses, but not inhabit them:
And [o p] they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 [q] The great day of the LORD [r] is near,
It is near, and hasteth greatly,
Even the voice of the day of the LORD:
[s] The mighty man shall [t] cry [u] there bitterly.

15 [v] That day is a day of wrath,
A day of [w] trouble and [w] distress,
A day of [x] wasteness and [x] desolation,
[y] A day of darkness and gloominess,
[y z] A day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 A day of [a] the trumpet and [a] alarm
Against the fenced cities, and against the high [b] towers.

I have heard [d] the reproach of Moab, 8
And [d] the revilings of [e] the children of Ammon, Whereby they have reproached my people,
And [f] magnified themselves [g] against their border.
Therefore [h] as I live, saith the LORD 9 of hosts, the God of Israel,
Surely [c] Moab shall be [i] as Sodom, and [e] the children of Ammon [i] as Gomorrah,
Even the breeding of [k] nettles, and [i] saltpits, and [l] a perpetual desolation:
[m] The residue of my people shall spoil them,
And the remnant of [n] my people shall possess them.
This shall they have [o] for their pride, 10
Because they have reproached and [f] magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.
The LORD will be terrible unto them: 11
For [p] he will [t] famish all the gods of the earth;
And [q] men shall worship him, [r] every one from his place,
Even all [s] the isles of the heathen.
[t] Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be [u] slain 12
by [v] my sword.
And he will stretch out his hand against 13
the north, and [w] destroy Assyria;
And will make [x] Nineveh [y] a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.
And flocks shall [za] lie down in the 14 midst of her, [a] all the beasts of the nations:
Both the [‖] [b] cormorant and [bc] the bittern shall lodge in the [‖] upper lintels of it;
Their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in [d] the thresholds:
[‖] For he shall [dd] uncover [e] the cedar 15
work.
This is [f] the rejoicing city [g] that dwelt carelessly, [gh] That said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me:
How is she become a desolation, [i] a place for beasts to lie down in!
[j] Every one that passeth by her [jk] shall hiss, and [l] wag his hand.

[e f] Her princes within her are [g] roaring lions;
[f] Her judges are [h] evening [e] wolves;
They gnaw not the bones till the morrow.
[i j] Her prophets are [k] light and treacherous persons:
[i] Her priests [l] have polluted the sanctuary, [l] they have done violence to the law.
[m] The just LORD [n] is in the midst thereof; [o] he will not do iniquity:
[†] Every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he [p] faileth not;
But [q] the unjust knoweth no shame.
I have cut off the [q q] nations: their [‖ r] towers are desolate;
I made their streets waste, [rr] that none passeth by:
Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, [s] that there is none inhabitant.
[t] I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, [c] thou wilt receive instruction;
[u] So their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them:
But [v] they rose early, and [w] corrupted all their doings.

Therefore [x] wait ye upon me, saith the LORD,
Until the day that I rise up to [y] the prey:
For my determination is [z] to gather the nations,
[z] That I may assemble the kingdoms,
To pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger:
For [a] all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.
For then will I turn to the people [b] a pure [†] language,
That they may all call upon the name of the LORD,
To serve him with one [†] consent.
[bb] From beyond the rivers of [c] Ethiopia
My suppliants, even the daughter of [d] my dispersed, [e] shall bring [f] mine offering.
[g] In that day [h] shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings,
Wherein thou hast transgressed against me:

For then I will take away out of the midst of thee them [i] that rejoice in thy pride,
And [k] thou shalt no more be haughty [†] because of my holy mountain.
I will also leave in the midst of thee [l] an afflicted and poor people,
And [l] they shall trust in the name of the LORD.
[m] The remnant of Israel [n] shall not do iniquity, [o] nor speak lies;
[p] Neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth:
For [q] they shall feed and [r s] lie down, [s] and none shall make them afraid.

[t] Sing, [tt] O daughter of Zion; [u] shout, O Israel;
Be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.
The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy:
[v] The king of Israel, even [w] the LORD, is in the midst of thee:
[x] Thou shalt not see evil any more.
[g] In that day [y] it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not:
And to Zion, [z] Let not [a] thine hands be [‖] slack.
The LORD thy God [v] in the midst of thee is mighty;
He will save, [b] he will rejoice over thee with joy;
[†] He will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.
I will gather them that are [c] sorrowful for [d] the solemn assembly, who are of thee,
To whom [†] the reproach of it was a burden.
Behold, [e] at that time I will undo all [f] that afflict thee:
And I will [g] save her that halteth,
And [g] gather [h] her that was driven out;
And [†] I will get them [i j] praise and [i] fame
In every land [†] where they have been put to shame.
[e] At that time [k] will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you:
For I will make you [i] a name and [i j] a praise among all people of the earth,
When [l] I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

I. About B.C. 520.

[a] IN the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD †by Haggai the prophet unto [b] Zerubbabel the son of [c] Shealtiel, ‖[cc] governor of Judah, and to [d] Joshua the son of [d e] Josedech [ee] the high priest, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built. Then came the word of the LORD [f] by Haggai the prophet, saying,

[g] Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your [h] cieled houses,
And this house lie [t] waste?
Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; [†i] Consider your ways.
[j] Ye have sown much, and [k] bring in little;
[l] Ye eat, but ye have not [m] enough;
Ye [n] drink, but ye are not [o] filled with drink;
Ye clothe you, but there is none warm;
And [p] he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag †with holes.
Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [i] Consider your ways.
Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house;
And I will take pleasure in it, and [q] I will be glorified, saith the LORD.
[j] Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little;
And when ye brought it home, [r] I did ‖[s] blow upon it.
Why? saith the LORD of hosts.
Because of mine house that is [t] waste,
And ye run every man unto his own house.
Therefore [u] the heaven over you [v] is stayed from [vv] dew,
And the earth [v] is stayed from her [vv] fruit.
And [w] I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains,
And upon the [x] corn, and upon [x] the new wine, and upon [x] the oil,
And upon that which the ground bringeth forth,
And upon men, and upon cattle, and upon [y] all the labour of the hands.

[z] Then [b] Zerubbabel the son of [c] Shealtiel, and [d] Joshua the son of [d e] Josedech the high priest, with all [a] the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD. Then spake Haggai [b] the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, [c] I am with you, saith the LORD. And [d] the LORD stirred up the spirit of [e] Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [e] governor of Judah, and the spirit of [e] Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, and the spirit of all [a] the remnant of the people; and they came and [f] did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, [g] in the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

II.

[a] In the seventh month, [a] in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD †by the prophet Haggai, saying, Speak now to [b] Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [b] governor of Judah, and to [b] Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest and to [c] the residue of the people, saying,

[d] Who is left among you that saw this house in [e] her first glory?
And how do ye see it now?
[f] Is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?
Yet now [g] be strong, [b] O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD;
And [g] be strong, [b] O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest;

[j]According to [k]the word that I [k]covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt,
So [l]my spirit remaineth among you: [m]fear ye not.
For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [n]Yet once, it is [o]a little while,
And [p]I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;
And [p]I will shake [q]all nations, and [r]the desire of all nations [s]shall come:
And I will fill this house with [t]glory, saith the LORD of hosts.
[u]The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.
[v]The glory [w]of this latter house shall be greater than of [x]the former, saith the LORD of hosts:
And in this place will I give [y]peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

[a]In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, [b]in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD [b]by Haggai the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [c]Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, If one bear [d]holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, [e]No. Then said Haggai, If one that is [f]unclean by a dead body [g]touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, [g]It shall be unclean. Then answered Haggai, and said, [he]So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD;
And so is [p]every work of their hands;
And that which they offer there is unclean.

And now, I pray you, [ij]consider from this day and upward,
From before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:
[k]Since those days were, [l]when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten:
When one came to [m]the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.
I [ln]smote you with blasting and with mildew and [o]with hail
In [p]all the labours of your hands;
Yet ye [q]turned not to me, saith the LORD.
[ij]Consider now from this day and upward,
[r]From the four and twentieth day of the ninth month,
Even from [s]the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, [i]consider it.
[rt]Is the seed yet in [u]the barn?
Yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth:
[r]From this day [v]will I bless you.

And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai [r]in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying, Speak to [w]Zerubbabel, [w]governor of Judah, saying,
[x]I will shake the heavens and the earth;
And [y]I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms,
And [y]I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen;
And [z]I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them;
And the horses and their riders shall come down,
[a]Every one by the sword of his brother.
In that day, saith the LORD of hosts,
Will I take thee, [w]O Zerubbabel, [b]my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD,
And will make thee [c]as a signet:
For [bd]I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

†ZECHARIAH.

I. About B.C. 520.

[a] IN the eighth month, [ab] in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, [c] the son of Berechiah, [c] the son of [d] Iddo the prophet, saying,

The LORD hath been [f] sore displeased with your fathers.

Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts;

[ef] Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts,

And [eg] I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

[h] Be ye not as your fathers, [i] unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying,

Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [fk] Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings:

But [l] they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

[mo] Your fathers, [n] where are they?

And [o] the prophets, do they live for ever?

[p] But my words and my statutes, which I commanded [q] my servants the prophets,

Did they not [‖] take hold of your fathers?

And they returned and said, [r] Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us,

According to our [s] ways, and according to our [s] doings, so hath he dealt with us.

* Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month [t] Sebat, [b] in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, [c] the son of Berechiah, the son of [d] Iddo the prophet, saying, I saw by night, and behold [u] a man [v] riding upon a red horse, and he stood among [w] the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there [x] red horses, ‖ speckled, and white. Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And [u] the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be. And [u] the man that stood among [w] the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom [y] the LORD hath sent [z] to walk to and fro through the earth. And they answered [u] the angel of the LORD that stood among [w] the myrtle trees, and said, [z] We have walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth sitteth still, and [zz] is at rest. Then [u] the angel of the LORD answered and said, [a] O LORD of hosts, [b] how long [a] wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, [c] against which thou hast had indignation [d] these threescore and ten years? And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with [e] good words and [f] comfortable words. So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying,

Thus saith the LORD of hosts;

I [g] am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

And [h] I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are [i] at ease:

For I was but [j] a little displeased, and [k] they helped forward the affliction.

Therefore thus saith the LORD; [l] I am returned to Jerusalem [m] with mercies:

[n] My house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts,

And [o] a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts;

My [p] cities through [t] prosperity shall yet [q] be spread abroad;

And [r] the LORD shall yet [f] comfort Zion,

And [s] shall yet choose Jerusalem.

Then lift I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold [t] four horns. And I said unto [u] the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me,

II.

I lift up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold, a a man a b with a measuring c line in his hand. Then said I, 2 Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, b To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. And behold, d the an- 3 gel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, and said unto him, Run, speak to e this 4
young man, saying, ee Jerusalem shall be inhabited as
f towns g without walls
h For the multitude of men and cattle
therein:
For I, saith the LORD, will be unto 5 her g i a wall of fire k round about,
And will be l the glory m in the midst of her.

Ho, ho, come forth, and n flee o from 6
the land of the north, saith the
LORD:
For I have p q spread you abroad q as r the four winds of the heaven, saith
the LORD.
n s Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwell- 7
est with the daughter of Babylon.
For thus saith the LORD of hosts; 8
After l the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you:
For t he that toucheth you u toucheth
v the apple of his eye.
For behold, I will w shake mine hand 9
upon them,
And x they shall be a spoil to their

And y ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

z Sing and rejoice, a O daughter of 10
Zion:
For b lo, I come, and c I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

And d many nations e shall be joined 11

g his portion in the holy land,
And h shall choose Jerusalem again.
i Be silent, O all flesh, before the 13
LORD:
For he is raised up k out of t his holy habitation.

And he shewed me a Joshua b the III.
high priest standing before c the angel of the LORD, and d ‖ Satan standing at 2 his right hand t to resist him. And the LORD said unto Satan, e The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan;
Even the LORD f that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee:
Is not this g a brand pluckt out of the fire?
3 Now a Joshua was h clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the 4 angel. And he i answered and spake unto j those that stood before him, saying, k Take away h the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, l I have ‖ caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and m I will clothe thee
5 with n change of raiment. And I said, Let them set a fair o mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD
6 stood by. And the angel of the LORD protested unto a Joshua, saying,
7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts;
If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt p keep my ‖ charge, Then thou shalt also q judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts,
And r I will give thee t places to walk among j these that stand by.
8 Hear now, a O Joshua the high priest, thou,
And thy fellows that sit before thee:
For s they are t men wondered at:
For behold, I will bring forth t my servant u the BRANCH.

Then I turned, and lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, a flying 2 [a] roll. And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.
3 Then said he unto me,
This is [b] the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth:
For [ll] [c] every one that stealeth [d] shall be cut off as [e] on this side according to it;
And [g] every one that sweareth [d] shall be cut off as [e] on that side according to it.
4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts,
And it shall enter into the house of the thief,
And into the house of [g] [h] him that sweareth [h] falsely by my name:
And [i] it shall remain in the midst of his house,
And [j] shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.
5 Then [k] the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that 6 goeth forth. And I said, What is it?
And he said, This is [l] an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their [m] resemblance through all the 7 earth. And behold, there was lift up a [ll] talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.
8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah;
and he cast [o] the weight of lead upon 9 the mouth thereof. Then lift I up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came out two women, and [p] the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of [q] a stork: and they lift up the ephah between the 10 earth and the heaven. Then said I to 8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem:

And [o]they shall be my people, and I will be their God,

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [q]Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of [r]the prophets, which were in [s]the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple
10 might be built. [ss]For before these days [l]there was no [t]hire for man, nor any hire for beast; [u]neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.
11 But now I will not be unto [k]the residue of this people as in the former days,
12 saith the LORD of hosts. For [v]the seed shall be [t][w]prosperous; [x]the vine shall give [z]her fruit, and [y]the ground shall give her increase, and [z]the heavens shall give their dew; [a]and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all 13 these things. And it shall come to pass, that as ye were [b]a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so [c]will I save you, and [d]ye shall be a blessing: [e]fear not, but let [f]your 14 hands be strong. For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [g]As I thought to punish you, when your fathers [h]provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, [i]and I
15 repented not: [g]so again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: [e]fear ye not.
16 These are the things that ye shall do; [j]Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; [t]execute the judgment of [k]truth and [k]peace [l]in your gates:
17 and [m]let none of you [n]imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and [o]love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

Ask ye [a]of the LORD rain in the time of [b]the latter rain;
So the LORD shall make [c]bright clouds,
And [d]give them showers of rain,
To every one grass in the field.
For [e]the [f]idols have spoken vanity,
And [g]the diviners have seen a lie,
And [h]have told [g]false dreams;
[i]They comfort [e]in vain:
Therefore they went their way as a flock,
They [k]were troubled, [l]because there was no shepherd.
Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds,
And I [m]punished [n]the goats:
For the LORD of hosts [o]hath visited his flock the house of Judah,
And hath made them [p]as his goodly horse in the battle.
Out of him came forth [q]the corner, out of him [r]the nail,
Out of him [s]the battle bow, out of him every [t]oppressor together.
And [u]they shall be as mighty men, [v]which tread down their enemies
[w]In the mire of the streets in the battle:
And they shall fight, [x]because the LORD is with them,

Thus saith the LORD my God; [k]Feed the flock of [l]the slaughter;
Whose [m]possessors [l]slay them, and [n]hold themselves not guilty:
And they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for [o]I am rich:
And their own shepherds pity them not.
For [p]I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD:
But lo, I will [t]deliver the men
Every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king:
And they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.
And [k]I will feed the flock of slaughter, [l]even you, [r]O poor of the flock.

And I took unto me two staves; the one I called [s]Beauty, and the other I called [‖]Bands; and [kt]I fed the flock. Three shepherds also [u]I cut off in one month; and my soul [t]lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me. Then said I, I will not feed you: [v]that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to [u]be cut off, let it be [u]cut off; and let the rest [w]eat every one the flesh [t]of another. And I took my staff, even [s]Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. And it was broken in that day: and [‖]so [r]the poor of the flock [x]that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And I said unto them, [t]If ye think good, [y]give me my price; and if not, forbear. So [z]they weighed for my price [a]thirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto [b]the potter: [c]a [d]goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took [a]the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD. Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even [‖]Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

For lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land,
[e] Which shall not visit those that be [‖]cut off,
[e]Neither shall seek the young one,
[e]Nor [f]heal that that is broken,
Nor [‖][g]feed that that standeth still:
But [h]he shall eat the flesh of the fat,
And tear their claws in pieces.

Woe to [i]the idol shepherd [hk]that leaveth the flock!
The sword shall be upon his arm, and upon [l]his right eye:
His arm shall be clean dried up,
And [l]his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

XII.

[a]The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD,
[b]Which stretcheth forth the heavens, and [c]layeth the foundation of the earth,
And [bd]formeth the spirit of man within him.
Behold, [e]I will make Jerusalem [f]a cup of [‖][g]trembling unto all the people round about,
[‖]When they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.
And [h]in that day will I make Jerusalem [i]a burdensome stone for all people:
[j]All that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces,
[k]Though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.
[h]In that day, saith the LORD,
[l]I will smite every horse with [m]astonishment, and his rider with [m]madness:
And [n]I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah,
And [l]will smite every horse of the people with [m]blindness.
And [o]the governors of Judah shall say in their heart,
[‖]The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength
In the LORD of hosts their God.
[h]In that day will I make [o]the governors of Judah [p]like a hearth of fire among the wood,
And like a torch of fire in a sheaf;
And [q]they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left:
And [r]Jerusalem shall be inhabited again [s]in her own place, even in Jerusalem.
The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first,
That the glory of the house of David
And the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem
Do not magnify themselves against Judah.

1 [o]In that day there shall be [p]a fountain opened
To the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem
For sin and for [†]uncleanness.
2 And it shall come to pass [a]in that day, saith the LORD of hosts,
That [q]I will cut off [r]the names of the idols out of the land,
And [s]they shall no more be remembered:
And also I will [t]cause the prophets and [u]the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

1 [a]Behold, the day of the LORD cometh,
And thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.
2 For [b]I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle;
And [c]the city shall be taken, and [d]the houses rifled, and [de]the women ravished;

And [f]half of the city shall go forth into captivity,
And [f]the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.
Then shall the LORD go forth, and 3 fight against those nations, [g]As when he fought in the day of battle.
And his feet shall stand [h]in that day 4
upon [i]the mount of Olives,
Which is before Jerusalem on the east,
And the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west,
And there shall be [k]a very great valley;
And half of the mountain shall [l]remove toward the north,
And half of it toward the south.
And ye shall flee to the valley of [‖]the 5
mountains;
[‖]For [k]the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal:
Yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before [m]the earthquake
*In the days of Uzziah king of Judah:
And [n o]the LORD my God shall come,
And [o p]all the saints with thee.
And it shall come to pass [h]in that 6
day,
[‖]That the light shall not be [†]clear, nor [†]dark:
But [‖]it shall be [q]one day [r]which shall 7
be known to the LORD,
Not day, nor night:
But it shall come to pass, that [s]at evening time it shall be light.
And it shall be [h]in that day, 8
That [t]living waters shall go out from Jerusalem:
Half of them toward [u]the [‖]former sea,
And half of them toward [u]the hinder sea:
[v]In summer and in winter shall it be.
And [w]the LORD shall be king over all 9
the earth:
[h]In that day shall there be [x]one LORD, and [y]his name one.
All the land shall be [‖]turned [z]as a 10
plain from [a]Geba to [b]Rimmon south of Jerusalem:
And [c]it shall be lifted up, and [d‖]inhabited in her place,

From [c]Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto [f g]the corner gate,
And from [f h]the tower of Hananeel unto the king's [i]winepresses.
And men shall dwell in it, and [j]there 11 shall be no more [k]utter destruction;
But Jerusalem [‖]shall be [l]safely inhabited.
And this shall be [m]the plague where- 12
with the LORD will smite all the people [n]That have fought against Jerusalem;
Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet,
And their eyes shall consume away in their holes,
And [n n]their tongue shall consume 13 away in their mouth.
And it shall come to pass [o]in that day,
That a great [p]tumult [q]from the LORD shall be among them;
And they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour,
And [r]his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.
And [‖]Judah also shall fight [‖]at Jeru- 14
salem;
And [s]the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, [t]Gold, and silver, and [u]apparel, in great abundance.
And [m]so shall be the plague [v]of the 15
horse,
Of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass,
And of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.
And it shall come to pass, that every 16
one that is left of all the nations
[n]Which came against Jerusalem
[w]Shall even go up [x]from year to year
To worship [y]the King, the LORD of hosts,
And [z]to keep [a]the feast of tabernacles.
And it shall be, [b]that whoso will not 17
come up
Of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem
To worship [c]the King, the LORD of hosts, Even [d]upon them shall be no rain.

tage [h]waste for [i]the dragons of the wilderness.
Whereas Edom saith, We are [j]im- 4
poverished,
But we will return and build the desolate places;
Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
[d]They shall build, but I will throw
down;
And they shall call them, [k]The border of wickedness,
And, [l]The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.
And [m]your eyes shall see, and ye 5 shall say, [n]The LORD will be magnified [‖][t]from

fice, is it not evil?
And if ye offer [w]the lame and sick, is it not evil?
Offer it now unto [x]thy governor;
Will he be pleased with thee, or [y]accept thy person? saith the LORD of

[o] Yet ye say, Wherefore? 14
Because [p]the LORD hath been witness between thee and [q]the wife of thy youth, Against whom thou hast [c]dealt treacherously:
Yet is she [r]thy companion, and [r]the wife of thy covenant.
And [s]did not he make one? Yet had 15
he the [t]residue of the spirit.
And wherefore one? That he might seek [u]a godly seed.
[u]Therefore take heed to your spirit,
And let none [c]deal [v]treacherously against [q]the wife of his youth.
For [w]the LORD, the God of Israel, 16
saith [x]that he hateth [y]putting away:
For one covereth violence [w]with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts:
[u]Therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye [c]deal not treacherously.

[x]Ye have wearied the LORD [y]with 17 your words.
[o]Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him?
[y]When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD,
And [z]he delighteth in them;
Or, [a]Where is the God of judgment?

[a]Behold, I will send [b]my messenger, and [c]he shall prepare the way before me:
And the LORD, [d]whom ye seek, [e]shall suddenly come to his temple, Even [f]the messenger of the covenant, [d]whom ye delight in:
Behold, [e]he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.
But [g]who may abide [h]the day of his 2 coming?
And [i]who shall stand when he appeareth?
For [k]he is like [l]a refiner's fire, and like fullers' [m]sope:
And he shall sit as [l]a refiner and pu- 3
rifier of silver:
And he shall purify [n]the sons of Levi, and [o]purge them as gold and silver,
That they may [p]offer unto the LORD an offering [q]in righteousness.

4 Then shall [r]the offering of Judah and Jerusalem [s]be pleasant unto the LORD,
As in the days of old, and as in [t]former years.
5 And I will come near to you to judgment;
And [u]I will be a swift [v]witness Against [w]the sorcerers, and against [x]the adulterers, and against [y]false swearers,
And against [w]those that [z]oppress the hireling in his wages,
[a]The widow, and [a]the fatherless,
And [b]that turn aside [c]the stranger from his right, and fear not me,
Saith the LORD of hosts.
6 For I am the LORD, [d]I change not;
[e]Therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

7 [f]Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them.
[g]Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.
[h]But ye said, Wherein shall we return?
8 Will a man [i]rob God? Yet ye have [i]robbed me.
[h]But ye say, Wherein have we [i]robbed thee?
In [k]tithes and [l]offerings.
9 Ye are cursed with [m]a curse: for ye have [i]robbed me,
Even this whole nation.
10 [n]Bring ye all the tithes into [p]the storehouse,
That there may be [q]meat in mine house,
And [r]prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts,
If I will not [s]open you the windows of heaven,
And [t]pour you out [t]a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.
11 And I will rebuke [u]the devourer for your sakes,
And he shall not [t]destroy the fruits of your ground;
Neither [v]shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

APOCRYPHA.

AND Josias held the [a]feast of the passover in Jerusalem unto his Lord, and offered the passover the fourteenth day of the first month; having 2 set the priests according to their [b]daily courses, being arrayed in long garments, in the temple of the Lord. And he 3 spake unto the Levites, the holy ministers of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord in the house that king Solomon the son of David had built: [c]and said, Ye shall no more bear 4
the ark upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God, and minister unto his people Israel, and prepare you after your families and [d]kindreds, according as David the king 5 of Israel prescribed, and according to [e]the magnificence of Solomon his son:
and standing in the temple according to [d]the several dignity of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the children of Israel, offer the passover in order, 6 and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the passover according to the commandment of the Lord, which was given unto Moses.
And unto the people [f]that was found 7
there Josias gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves:
these things were given of the king's allowance, according as he promised, to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. And Helkias, Zacharias, and 8 ‖Syelus, the governors of the temple, gave to the priests for the passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves. And Jeco- 9 nias, and Samaias, and Nathanael his brother, and Assabias, and Ochiel, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the passover five thousand sheep, and ‖seven hundred calves.

10 And when these things were done, the priests and Levites, having the unleavened bread, stood in very comely 11 order according to the [d]kindreds, and according to [d]the several dignities of the fathers, before the people, to offer to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: †and thus did they in 12 the morning. And they roasted the passover with fire, [g]as appertaineth:
as for the sacrifices, they sod them in brass pots and pans ‖with a good sa-13 vour, and set them before all the people: and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their 14 brethren, the sons of Aaron. For the priests offered the fat until night: and the Levites prepared for themselves, and the priests their brethren, the sons 15 of Aaron. The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment *of David, to wit, [h]Asaph, Zacharias, and Je-duthun, who was †of the king's retinue.
16 Moreover the porters were at every gate; it was not lawful for any to go from his [b]ordinary service: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.
17 Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, that they might hold the 18 passover, and offer sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the 19 commandment of king Josias. So the children of Israel [f]which were present held the passover at that time, and [i]the feast of sweet bread seven days.
20 And [k]such a passover was not kept in Israel since the time of the prophet 21 Samuel. Yea, all the kings of Israel held not such a passover as Josias, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were eighteenth year of the reign of Josias

[1] 2 Kin. 23. 24—28. was this passover kept. [1]And the works 23 of Josias were upright before his Lord with a heart full of godliness. [1]As for 24 the things that came to pass in his time, they were written in former times,

it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchamis upon Euphrates: and Josias went out against him. But the king of Egypt 26 sent to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, O king of Judea? I am 27 not sent out from the Lord God against thee; for my war is upon Euphrates:
and now the Lord is with me, yea, the Lord is with me hasting me forward:
[n] So 2 Chr. 13. 12 Acts 5. 39. depart from me, and [n]be not against the Lord. Howbeit Josias did not turn 28 back his chariot from him, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremie spoken by the mouth of the Lord: but joined 29 battle with him in the plain of Magiddo, and the princes came against king Jo-sias. Then said the king unto his 30 servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants took him away out of the battle. Then gat he up 31 upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem died, and was buried in his fathers' sepulchre.
And in all Jewry they mourned for 32
Josias, yea, Jeremie the prophet lamented for Josias, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him unto this day: and this was given out [o] From 2 Chr. 35. 25 [o]for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel. These 33 things are written in the book of the stories of the kings of Judah, and every one of the acts that Josias did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judea.

son of Josias, and [q]made him king instead of Josias his father, when he was twenty and three years old. And 35 he reigned in Judea and in Jerusalem three months: and then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in 36 Jerusalem. And he set a tax upon the land of an hundred talents of silver and 37 one talent of gold. The king of Egypt also [q]made king Joacim his brother 38 king of Judea and Jerusalem. And he bound Joacim and the nobles: but Zaraces his brother he apprehended, 39 and brought him out of Egypt. [r]Five and twenty year old was [t]Joacim when he was made king in the land of Judea and Jerusalem; and he did evil before 40 the Lord. Wherefore against him Na-buchodonosor the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him unto Babylon.
41 Nabuchodonosor also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them in his own temple 42 at Babylon. But those things that are recorded of him, and of his uncleanness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings.

stead: he [q]was made king being 44 [s]eighteen years old; [t]and reigned but three months and ten days in Jerusa-45 lem; and did evil before the Lord. So after a year Nabuchodonosor sent and caused him to be brought into Baby-

47 years: and he did evil also in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the words that were spoken unto him by the prophet Jeremie from the mouth of 48 the Lord. And after that king Na-buchodonosor had made him to swear by the name of the Lord, he forswore himself, and rebelled; and hardening his neck, and his heart, he transgressed the 49 laws of the Lord God of Israel. The governors also of the people and of the priests [x]did many things against the laws, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in 50 Jerusalem. Nevertheless the God of their fathers sent by his messenger to

And they took all [u]the holy vessels of 54 the Lord, both great and small, with the vessels of the ark of God, and the king's treasures, and carried them away into Babylon. As for the house of 55 the Lord, they burnt it, brake down the walls of Jerusalem, set fire upon her towers: and as for her glorious 56 things, they never ceased till they had consumed and brought them all to nought: and the people that were not slain with the sword he carried unto Babylon: who became servants to him 57 and his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfil the word of the Lord 58 spoken by the mouth of Jeremie: Until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she [l]rest, until the full term of seventy years.

II. [a]In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord might be accomplished, that he had promised by the mouth of Jeremie; the 2 Lord [c]raised up the spirit of Cyrus the king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing, saying, Thus saith 3 Cyrus king of the Persians; The Lord of Israel, the most high Lord, hath [b]made me king of the whole world, and commanded me to build him a 4 house at Jerusalem in Jewry. If therefore there be any of you that are of his 5 people, let the Lord, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel: for [l]he is the Lord that dwelleth in Jerusalem. Whosoever then dwell in the places 6 about, let them help him (those, I say, that are his neighbours) with gold and with silver, with gifts, with horses, and 7 with cattle, and other things, which have been set forth by vow, for the temple of the Lord at Jerusalem.

Then the chief of the families of Ju- 8 dea and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose [c]mind the Lord had moved to go up, and to build a house for the Lord at Jerusalem, and 9 they that dwelt round about them, and helped them in all things with silver and gold, with [f]horses and cattle, and with very many free gifts of a great number whose minds were stirred up thereto.

10 King Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels, [d]which Nabuchodonosor had carried away from Jerusalem, [d]and had set 11 up in his [e]temple of idols. Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mith- 12 ridates his treasurer: and by him they were delivered to [f]Sanabassar the go- 13 vernor of Judea. And this was the number of them; A thousand golden cups, and a thousand of silver, [f]censers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver [f]two thousand four hundred and ten, and a thousand other 14 vessels. So all the vessels of gold and of silver, which were carried away, were [f]five thousand four hundred threescore 15 and nine. These were brought back by Sanabassar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

16 [g]But in the time of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, Belemus, and Mithridates, and Tabellius, and [f]Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and [f]Semellius the [g]secretary, with others that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote unto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Je- 17 rusalem these letters following; To king Artaxerxes our lord, Thy servants, Rathumus the [h]story*writer*, and Semellius the [g]scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are 18 in [i]Coelosyria and [i k]Phenice. Be it now known to the lord the king, that the Jews that are come up from you to us, being come into Jerusalem (that rebellious and wicked city) do build the marketplaces, and repair the walls of it, and do lay the foundation of the 19 temple. Now if this city and the walls thereof be made up again, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but also 20 rebel against kings. And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to 21 neglect such a matter, but to speak unto our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be thy pleasure, it may be sought out in the books of thy fathers: 22 and thou shalt find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shalt understand that that city was rebellious, troubling both kings and

Then the king wrote back again to 25
Rathumus the [h]storywriter, [l]to Beeltethmus, [l]to Semellius the [g]scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwellers in Samaria and Syria and Phenice, after this manner; I 26 have read the epistle which ye have sent unto me: therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and it hath been found that that city was from the beginning practising against kings; and 27 the men therein were given to rebellion and war: and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tributes in [i]Coelosyria and Phenice. Now therefore I 28 have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be no more done in it; and that those wicked workers pro- 29 ceed no further to the annoyance of kings. Then king Artaxerxes his 30 letters being read, Rathumus, and Semellius the [g]scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste towards Jerusalem with a troop of horsemen and [‖]a multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

III.

Now when Darius reigned, he [a]made a great feast unto all his subjects, and unto all his household, and unto all the [b]princes of [c]Media and Persia, and 2 to all the [k]governors and captains and lieutenants that were under him, [d]from India unto Ethiopia, of an hundred twenty and seven provinces. And when 3 they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied [e]were gone home, then Darius
the king [e]went into his bedchamber, and slept, and soon after [f]awaked. Then 4 three young men, that were of the guard that kept the king's body, spake one to another; Let every one of us speak 5 a sentence: he that shall overcome, and whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, unto him shall the king
Darius give great gifts, and great things 6 in token of victory: as, [g]to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold, and to sleep upon gold, and [h]a chariot with bridles of gold, and a headtire of [h]fine linen, and [gh]a chain about his neck:
7 and he shall sit next to Darius because of his wisdom, and shall be called Da-8 rius his cousin. And then every one wrote his sentence, sealed it, and laid it under king Darius his pillow;
9 and said that, when the king is risen, [l]some will give him the writings; and of whose side the king and [j]the three [b]princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall the victory be given, as was appointed.
10 The first wrote, Wine is the strongest.
11 The second wrote, The king is strong-12 est. The third wrote, Women are strongest: but above all things truth beareth away the victory.

13 Now when the king was risen up, they took their writings, and delivered them unto him, and so he read them:
14 and sending forth he called all the [b]princes of Persia and Media, and the [k]governors, and the captains, and the 15 lieutenants, and the chief officers; and sat him down in the [‖]royal seat of judgment; and the writings were read 16 before them. And he said, Call the young men, and they shall declare their own sentences. So they were called, 17 and came in. And he said unto them, Declare unto us your mind concerning the writings. Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of 18 wine; And he said thus, O ye men, how exceeding strong is wine!
it causeth all men to err that drink it:
19 it maketh the mind of the king and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the 20 poor man and of the rich: [l]it turneth also every thought into [m]jollity and mirth, so that a man remembereth nei-21 ther sorrow nor debt: and it maketh every heart rich, so that a man remembereth neither king nor governor; and it maketh to speak all things by talents:
22 and when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and brethren, and a little after draw out swords:
23 but when they are from the wine, they remember not what they have done. O 24 ye men, is not wine the strongest, that enforceth to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

IV. Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say,

O ye men, do not men excel in strength, that ‖ bear rule over sea and land, and all things in them? But yet the king is more mighty: for he is lord of all these things, and hath dominion over them; and whatsoever he commandeth them they do. If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it: if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and break down mountains, walls, and towers. They slay and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else. Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbandry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute unto the king. And yet he is but one man: if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare; if he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build; if he command [a] to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant. So all his people and his armies obey him: [b] furthermore he lieth down, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest: and [c] these keep watch round about him, neither ‖ may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in any thing. O ye men, how should not the king be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his tongue.

Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth, (this was [d] Zorobabel) began to speak. O ye men, it is not the great king, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine, that [†] excelleth; who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them? are they not women? Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land. Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine cometh. [e] These also make garments for men; these bring glory unto men; and without women cannot men be. Yea, and if men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, do they not love a woman which is comely in favour and beauty? And letting all those things go, do they not gape, and even [f] with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire unto her than unto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever? [g] A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife. He sticks not to spend his life with his wife, and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country. By this also you must know that women have dominion over you: do ye not labour and toil, and give and bring all to the woman? Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon rivers; and looketh upon a lion, and goeth in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love. Wherefore a man loveth his wife better than father or mother. Yea, many there be that have ‖ run out of their wits for women, and [h] become servants for their sakes. Many also have perished, have erred, and sinned, for women. And now do ye not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him? Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the admirable ‖ Bartacus, sitting [i] at the right hand of the king, and taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; she also [k] strooke the king with her left hand. And yet ‖ for all this the king [f] gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, the king was fain to flatter, that she might ‖ be reconciled to him again. O ye men, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus?

Then the king and the [l] princes looked one upon another: so he began to speak of the truth. O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day. Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger than all things. All the earth

[f] calleth upon the truth, and the heaven blesseth it: all works shake and tremble at it, and with it is no unrighteous thing. Wine is wicked, the king is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked, and such are all their wicked works; and [m] there is no truth in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish. As for the truth, it endureth, and is always strong; it liveth and conquereth for evermore. With her there is no [n] accepting of persons or rewards; but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all unjust and wicked things; and all men [o] do well like of her works. Neither in her judgment is any unrighteousness; and she is the strength, [p] kingdom, power, and majesty, of all ages. Blessed be [q] the God of truth.

And with that he held his peace. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is truth, and mighty above all things. Then said the king unto him, Ask what thou wilt more [r] than is appointed in the writing, and we will give it thee, because thou art found wisest; and [s] thou shalt sit next me, and [s] shalt be called my cousin. Then said he unto the king, Remember thy vow, which thou hast vowed to build Jerusalem, in the day when thou camest to thy kingdom, and to send away all the vessels that were taken away out of Jerusalem, [t] which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and to send them again thither. Thou also hast vowed to build up the temple, which [u] the Edomites burnt when Judea was made desolate by the Chaldees. And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality [x] proceeding from thyself: I desire therefore that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof with thine own mouth thou hast vowed to [y] the King of heaven. Then Darius the king stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him unto all the [z] treasurers and [z] lieutenants and captains and governors, that they should safely convey on their way both him, and all those that go up with him to build Jerusalem. He wrote letters also unto the [z] lieutenants that were in [a] Coelosyria and Phenice, and unto them in Libanus, that they should bring [b] cedar wood from Libanus unto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him. Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that went out of his realm up into Jewry, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no [z] ruler, no lieutenant, nor ‖ treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors; and that all the country which they hold should be free without tribute; and that [u] the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held: yea, that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built; and other ten talents yearly, to maintain the burnt offerings upon the altar every day (as they had a commandment to offer seventeen:) and that all they that went from Babylon to build the city should have free liberty, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that went away. He wrote also concerning the charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister; and likewise for the charges of the Levites, to be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded up. And he commanded to give to all that kept the city ‖ pensions and [c] wages. He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon, [t] that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same charged he also to be done, and sent unto Jerusalem.

Now when this young man was gone forth, [d] he lifted up his face to heaven [e] toward Jerusalem, and praised [y] the King of heaven, and said, From thee cometh victory, from thee cometh wisdom, and [f] thine is the glory, and I am thy servant. Blessed art thou, [g] who hast given me wisdom: for to thee I give thanks, O Lord of our fathers. And so he took the letters, and went out, and came unto Babylon, and told it all his brethren. And they praised the God of their fathers, because he had given them freedom and liberty to go up, and to build Jerusalem, and [h] the temple which is called by his name: and they feasted [i] with instruments of musick and gladness seven days.

After this were the principal men of the families chosen according to their tribes, to go up with their wives and sons and daughters, with their menservants and maidservants, and their cattle. And Darius sent with them [a] a thousand rira, the sons of [m]Jeeli, the sons of [n]Lozon, the sons of [o]Isdael, the sons of [p]Sapheth, the sons of [q]Hagia, the sons of [r]Phacareth, the sons of Sabie, the sons of Sarothie, the sons of Masias, the sons of Gar, the sons of Addus, the sons of Suba, the sons of Apherra, the sons of Barodis, the sons of Sabat, the sons of Allom. All the ministers of the temple, and the sons of the servants of Solomon, were three hundred seventy and two.

These came up from Thermeleth and Thelersas, Charaathalar leading them, and Aalar; neither could they shew their families, nor their stock, how they were of Israel: the sons of [s]Ladan, the son of [t]Ban, the sons of [u]Necodan, six hundred fifty and two. And of the priests that usurped the office of the priesthood, and were not found: the sons of [x]Obdia, the sons of [y]Accoz, the sons of Addus, who married Augia one of the daughters of [z]Berzelus, and was named after his name. And when the description of the kindred of these men was sought in the register, and was not found, they were removed from executing the office of the priesthood: for unto them said [‖]Nehemias and Atharias, that they should not be partakers of the holy things, till there arose up a high priest clothed with [†]doctrine and truth.

So of Israel, from them of twelve years old and upward, they were all in number forty thousand, besides [a]menservants and womenservants two thousand three hundred and sixty. Their [a]menservants and handmaids were seven thousand three hundred [b]forty and seven: the singing men and singing women, two hundred forty and five: four hundred thirty and five camels, [c]seven thousand thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mules, [c]five thousand five hundred twenty and five [‖]beasts used to the yoke.

And certain of the chief of their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Jerusalem, vowed to set up the house again [h]in his own place according to their ability, and to give into the holy treasury of the works a thousand [d]pounds of gold, five thousand of silver, and an hundred priestly vestments. And so dwelt the priests and the Levites and the people in Jerusalem, and in the country, the singers also and the porters; and all Israel in their villages.

[e]But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in [f]his own place, they came all together with one consent into the open place [‖]of the first gate which is towards the east. Then stood up [g]Jesus the son of Josedec, and his brethren the priests, and [g]Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and his brethren, and made ready the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of God. And there were gathered unto them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar [h]upon his own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and burnt offerings to the Lord both morning and evening. Also they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is commanded in the law, and offered sacrifices daily, as was meet: and after that, the [‖]continual oblations, and the sacrifice of the sabbaths, and of the new moons, and of all holy feasts. And all they that had [†]made any vow to God began to offer sacrifices to God from [i]the first day of the seventh month, although the temple of the Lord was not yet built. And they gave unto the masons and carpenters money, meat, and drink, with cheerfulness. Unto them of Sidon also and Tyre they gave carrs, that they should bring [k]cedar trees from Libanus, [l]which should be brought by flotes to the haven of [m]Joppe, according as it was commanded them by Cyrus king of the Persians.

[n]And in the second year and second month after his coming to the temple of God at Jerusalem began Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedec, and their brethren, and the priests, and the Levites, and all they that were come unto Jerusalem out of the captivity: and they laid the foundation of the house of God in the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come to Jewry and Jerusalem. And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord. Then stood up Jesus, and his sons and brethren, and Cadmiel his brother, and the sons of Madiabun, with the sons of Joda the son of Eliadun, with their sons and brethren, all Levites, with one accord [‖]set-

And the priests stood arrayed in their vestments with musical instruments and trumpets; and the Levites the sons of Asaph had cymbals, singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising the Lord, ‖according as David the king of Israel had ordained. And they sung with loud voices songs to the praise of the Lord, because his mercy and glory is for ever in all Israel. And all the people sounded trumpets, and shouted with a loud voice, singing songs of thanksgiving unto the Lord for the rearing up of the house of the Lord. Also of the priests and Levites, and of the chief of their families, the ancients who had seen the former house came to the building of this with weeping and great crying. But many with trumpets and joy shouted with loud voice, insomuch that the trumpets might not be ‖heard for the weeping of the people: yet the multitude sounded marvellously, so that it was heard afar off.

For we likewise, as you, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice unto him from the days of ‖Azbazareth the king of the Assyrians, who brought us hither. Then Zorobabel and Jesus and the chief of the families of Israel said unto them, It is not for us and you to build together a house unto the Lord our God. We ourselves alone will build unto the Lord of Israel, according as Cyrus the king of the Persians hath commanded us. But the heathen of the land lying heavy upon the inhabitants of Judea, and holding them strait, hindered their building; and by their secret plots, and popular persuasions and commotions, they hindered the finishing of the building all the time that king Cyrus lived: so they were hindered from building for the space of two years, ‖until the reign of Darius.

About B. C. [illegible]

8 To king Darius, greeting. Let all things be known unto our lord the king, that being come into the country of Judea, and entered into the city of Jerusalem, we found in the city of Jerusalem the [e]ancients of the Jews that were of the captivity, building a house unto the Lord, great and new, of hewn and costly stones, and the timber already laid upon the walls. And those works are done with great speed, and the work goeth on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence is it made. Then asked we these [e]elders, saying, By whose commandment build you this house, and lay the foundations of these works? Therefore to the intent that we might give knowledge unto thee by writing, we demanded of them who were the chief doers, and we required of them the names in writing of their principal men. So they gave us this answer, We are the servants of the Lord which made heaven and earth. And as for this house, it was builded many years ago by a king of Israel great and strong, and was finished. But when our fathers [f]provoked God unto wrath, and sinned against the Lord of Israel which is in heaven, he gave them over into the power of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, of the Chaldees; who 16 pulled down the house, and burnt it, and carried away the people captives unto Babylon. But in the first year 17 that king Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon, Cyrus the king wrote to build up this house. And the holy ves- 18

sels of gold and of silver, that Nabuchodonosor had carried away out of the [g] house at Jerusalem, and had [g] set them in his own temple, [h] those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple at Babylon, and they were delivered to [‖] Zorobabel and to Sanabassarus the ruler, with commandment that he should carry 19 away the same vessels, and put them in the temple at Jerusalem; and that the temple of the Lord should be built in his place. Then the same Sanabassarus, 20 being come hither, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet fully ended. Now 21 therefore, if it seem good unto the king, let search be made among the [‖] records of king Cyrus: and if it be found that 22
the building of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem hath been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and if our lord the king be so minded, let him signify unto us thereof.

[i] Then commanded king Darius to 23 seek among the [k] records at Babylon:
and so at Ecbatane the palace, which is in the country of Media, there was found a [‖] roll wherein these things were recorded.

In the first year of the reign of Cyrus, 24
king Cyrus commanded that the house of the Lord at Jerusalem should be built again, where they do sacrifice [l] with continual fire: whose height shall be sixty 25 cubits, and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expenses thereof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus: and that the 26 holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold and silver, that Nabuchodonosor took out of the house at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before. And also he commanded that 27 Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phenice, should be careful not to meddle with the place, but suffer Zorobabel, the servant of the Lord, and governor of Judea, and the [e] elders of the Jews, to build the house
28 of the Lord in that place. I have commanded also to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of the Jews, till the house of the Lord be 29 finished: and out of the tribute of [m] Coelosyria and Phenice a portion carefully to be given these men for the sacrifices of the Lord, that is, to Zorobabel the governor, for bullocks, and rams, and 30 lambs; and also corn, salt, wine, and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify 31 to be daily spent: that [‖] offerings may be made to [n] the most high God for the king and for his children, and that they 32 may pray for their lives. And he commanded that whosoever should transgress, yea, or make light of any thing afore spoken or written, out of [o] his own house should a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and all his goods 33 seized for the king. The Lord therefore, whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation,
that stretcheth out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in 34 Jerusalem. I Darius the king have ordained that according unto these things
it be done with diligence.

VII. [a] Then Sisinnes the governor of [b] Coelosyria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, following the 2 commandments of king Darius, did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the [c] ancients of the Jews and 3 governors of the temple. And so the holy works prospered, when Aggeus and 4 Zacharias the prophets prophesied. And they finished these things by the commandment of the Lord God of Israel, and with [‖] the [d] consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia.
5 And thus was the holy house finished in [†] the three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of Darius 6 king of the Persians. And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and other that were of the captivity, that were added unto them, did according to the things written in the book 7 of Moses. And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord they offered an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams,
8 four hundred lambs; and twelve goats

This 3 Esdras went up from Babylon, as a scribe, being very ready in the law of Moses, that was given by the God of Israel. And the king did him honour: 4 for he found grace in his sight in all his requests. There went up with him 5 also certain of the children of Israel, of the priests, of the Levites, of the holy singers, porters, and ‖ ministers of the temple, unto Jerusalem, in the se- 6 venth year of the reign of Artaxerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon in the first day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the ‖ [d] prosperous journey which the Lord gave them. For Esdras had very 7 great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordi- 8 nances and judgments. Now the copy of the ‖ commission, which was written from Artaxerxes the king, and came to Esdras the priest and [e] reader of the law of the Lord, is this that followeth:

9 King Artaxerxes unto Esdras the priest and [e] reader of the law of the 10 Lord sendeth greeting: having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites, being within our realm, as are willing and desirous, should go with thee unto 11 Jerusalem. As many therefore as have a mind thereunto, let them depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me and my seven friends the counsel- 12 lers; that they may look unto the affairs of Judea and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the 13 Lord; and carry the gifts unto the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed, and all the gold and silver that in the country of Babylon can be ‖ found, to the Lord 14 in Jerusalem, with that also which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God at Jerusalem: and that silver and gold may be collected for bullocks, rams, and lambs, and things 15 thereunto appertaining; to the end that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, 16 which is in Jerusalem. And whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the use of the temple of thy God, thou shalt give it out 19 of the king's treasury. And I king Artaxerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phenice, that whatsoever Esdras the priest and the reader of the law of [f] the most high God shall send for, they 20 should give it him with speed, to the sum of an hundred talents of silver, likewise also of wheat even to an hundred ‖ cors, and an hundred [g] pieces of wine, and ‖ other things in abundance. 21 Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently unto [f] the most

Then said Esdras the scribe, Blessed 25 be the only Lord God of my fathers, who hath put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify his house that is in Jerusalem: and hath honoured me in the sight of the king, and 26 his counsellers, and all his friends and nobles. Therefore was I encouraged 27 by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together men of Israel to go up with me.

g And these are the chief according 28 to their families and h several dignities, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artaxerxes: of the 29 sons of Phinees, Gerson: of the sons of Ithamar, i Gamael: of the sons of David, j Lettus k the son of Sechenias: k of the sons of Pharez, Zacharias; and 30 with him were counted an hundred and fifty men: of the sons of Pahath Moab, 31 Eliaonias, the son of l Zaraias, and with him two hundred men: m of the sons 32 of Zathoe, Sechenias the son of Jezelus, and with him three hundred men: of the sons of Adin, Obeth the son of Jonathan, and with him † two hundred and fifty men: of the sons of Elam, 33 Josias son of n Gotholias, and with him seventy men: of the sons of Saphatias, 34 o Zaraias son of Michael, and with him p threescore and ten men: of the sons 35 of Joab, q Abadias, son of r Jezelus, and with him two hundred and s twelve men: t of the sons of Banid, Assalimoth 36 son of Josaphias, and with him an hundred and threescore men: of the sons 37 of Babi, Zacharias son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight men: of 38 the sons of u Astath, Johannes son of x Acatan, and with him an hundred 39 and ten men: of the sons of Adonicam, the last, and these are the names of them; Eliphalet, Jeuel, and y Sa- 40 maias, and with them z seventy men: of the sons of † Bago, Uthi the son of Istalcurus, and with him seventy men.

41 And these I gathered together ‖ to the river called Theras, where we pitched our tents three days: and then ‖ I 42 surveyed them. ‖ But when I had found there none of the priests and Levites, 43 then sent I unto Eleazar, and a Iduel, 44 and b Masman, and Alnathan, and Mamaias, and c Joribus, and Nathan, Eunatan, Zacharias, and Mosollamus, prin- 45 cipal men and learned. And I bade them that they should go unto d Saddeus the captain, e who was in the 46 place of f the treasury: and commanded them that they should speak unto d Daddeus, and to g his brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' 47 office in the house of the Lord. And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought unto us skilful men of the sons of h Moli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, i Asebebia, and his sons, and 48 his brethren, who were eighteen. j And Asebia, and Annuus, and Osaias his brother, of the sons of Channuneus, 49 and their sons, were twenty men. And l of the servants of the temple whom David had ordained, and the principal men for the service of the Levites, to wit, k the servants of the temple, two hundred and twenty, the catalogue of 50 whose names was shewed. And there I ‖ vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, to desire of him l a prosperous journey both for us and them that were with us, for our chil- 51 dren, and for the † cattle: for m I was ashamed to ask the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard 52 against our adversaries. For we had said unto the king, that the power of the Lord our God should be with them that seek him, to support them in all 53 ways. And again we besought our Lord as touching these things, and found him favourable unto us.

54 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, mm Esebrias, and Assanias, and ten men of their brethren with 55 them: and I n weighed them the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his council, and the princes, and all Israel, had given. And when I had 56 [n] weighed it, I delivered unto them six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of an hundred talents, and an hundred talents of gold, and 57 twenty golden vessels, and [†] twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold. And I said unto 58 them, Both you are holy unto the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver is a vow unto the Lord, the Lord of our fathers. Watch ye, 59 and keep them till ye deliver them to the chief of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, into the chambers of the house of our God. So 60 the priests and the Levites, who had received the silver and the gold and the vessels, brought them unto Jerusalem, into the temple of the Lord.

And [o] from the river Theras we de- 61 parted the twelfth day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with us: and from the [‖] [p] beginning of our journey the Lord delivered us from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem. And when we had been there 62 three days, the gold and silver that was [n] weighed was delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day [‖] unto Marmoth the priest the son of Iri. And with him was Eleazar the 63 son of Phinees, and with them were Josabad the son of Jesu and [‖] Moeth the son of Sabban, Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight. And all the weight of them was writ- 64 ten up the same hour. Moreover they 65 that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifice unto [q] the Lord God of Israel, even twelve bullocks for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, [†] three- 66 score and twelve lambs, goats for [r] a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord. And they deliver- 67 ed the king's [s] commandments unto the king's [t] stewards, and to the governors of [u] Coelosyria and Phenice; and they honoured the people and the temple of God.

[x] Now when these things were done, 68 the rulers came unto me, and said, The 69 nation of Israel, the princes, the priests and Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, nor the pollutions of the Gentiles, to wit, of the Canaanites, Hittites, Pheresites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, 70 and [y] Edomites. For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the great men have been partakers 71 of this iniquity. And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me 72 down sad and [z] very heavy. So all they that were then moved at the word of [q] the Lord God of Israel assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still [z] full of heaviness until the 73 evening sacrifice. Then rising up from [a] the fast with my clothes and the holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto the Lord, 74 I said,

O Lord, I am confounded and [b] as- 75 hamed before thy face; for our sins [†] are multiplied above our heads, and our ignorances have reached up unto heaven. 76 For ever since the time of our fathers we have been and are in great sin, even 77 unto this day. And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and our priests were given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and [c] for a prey with shame, 78 unto this day. And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place 79 of thy sanctuary; and to discover unto us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and [d] to give us [†] food in the time 80 of our servitude. Yea, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord; but he made us gracious before the kings of Persia, [d] so that they gave us 81 food; yea, and honoured the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Sion, that they have given us a sure abid- 82 ing in Jewry and Jerusalem. And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed thy [e] commandments, which thou gavest by the hand of thy servants the prophets, 83 saying, that the land, which ye enter into to possess as an heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with 84 their uncleanness. Therefore now shall ye not join your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons. Moreover you shall never 85 seek to have peace with them, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave the inheritance of the land unto your children for evermore. And all that is befallen 86 is done unto us for our wicked works and great sins: for thou, O Lord, didst make our sins light, and didst give unto 87 [f] us such [f]a root: but we have turned back again to transgress thy law, and to mingle ourselves with the uncleanness of the nations of the land. [‖] Mightest 88 not thou be angry with us to destroy us, till thou hadst [g] left us neither [f]root, seed, nor name? O Lord of Israel, thou art 89 true: for we are left [f]a root this day.

Behold, now are we before thee in our 90 iniquities, for we cannot stand any longer
by reason of these things before thee.

[h] And as Esdras in his prayer made 91 his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered unto him from Jerusalem a very great multitude of men and women and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude. Then Jecho- 92
nias the son of Jeelus, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Esdras, we have sinned against the Lord God, we have married strange women of the nations of the land, and now is all Israel [‖] aloft. Let us make an oath to the 93 Lord, that we will put away all our wives, which we have taken of the heathen, with their children, like as thou 94 hast decreed, and as many as do obey the law of the Lord. Arise, and put in 95 execution: for to thee doth this matter appertain, and we will be with thee: do valiantly. So Esdras arose, and took an 96 oath of the chief of the priests and Levites [†] of all Israel to do after these things; and so they sware.

IX. Then Esdras rising from the court of the temple went to the chamber of Joanan the son of Eliasib, and remain- 2
ed there, and did eat no meat nor drink water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude. And there was a pro- 3 clamation in all Jewry and Jerusalem to all them that were of the captivity, that they should be gathered together at Jerusalem: and that whosoever met not there 4 within two or three days, according as the elders that bare rule appointed, their [f] cattle should be seized to the use of the temple, and himself [‖] cast out from them that were of the captivity.

5 [a] And in three days were all they of [a] To ver. 36, Ezra 10. 9—44.
the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem the twentieth day 6 of the ninth month. And all the multitude sat trembling in the broad court of the temple because of the present foul 7 weather. So Esdras arose up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed the law in marrying strange wives, thereby to in-8 crease the sins of Israel. And now [b] by [b] See Josh. 7. 19.
confessing give glory unto the Lord God 9 of our fathers, and do his will, and separate yourselves from the heathen of the land, and from the strange women.
10 Then cried the whole multitude, and said with a loud voice, Like as thou 11 hast spoken, so will we do. But foras-much as the people are many, and it is foul weather, so that we cannot stand without, and this is not a work of a day or two, seeing our sin in these things is till we turn away the wrath of the Lord 14 from us for this matter. Then Jonathan the son of Azael and Ezechias the son of Theocanus accordingly took this matter

upon them: and Mosollam and Levis 15 and Sabbatheus helped them. And they that were of the captivity did according 16 to all these things. And Esdras the priest chose unto him the principal men of their families, all by name: and in the first day of the tenth month they 17 sat together to examine the matter. So their cause that held strange wives was brought to an end [d] in the first day of the first month.

18 And of the priests that were come together, and had strange wives, there were 19 found; of the sons of Jesus the son of Josedec, and his brethren; [e] Matthelas, and Eleazar, and [f] Joribus, and [g] Joada-

And of the sons of Maani; Jeremias, Momdis, Omaerus, Juel, Mabdai, and Pelias, and Anos, Carabasion, and Enasibus, and Mamnitanaimus, Eliasis, Bannus, Eliali, Samis, Selemias, Nathanias: and [s]of the sons of Ozora; Sesis, Esril, Azaelus, Samatus, Zambis, Josephus. And of the sons of Ethma; Mazitias, Zabadaias, Edes, Juel, Banaias. All these had taken strange wives, and they put them away with their children.

[t]And the priests and Levites, and they that were of Israel, dwelt in Jerusalem, and in the country, [u]in the first day of the seventh month: so the children of Israel were in their [‖w]habitations. [x]And the whole multitude came together with one accord into [y]the broad place of the holy porch [z]toward the east: and they spake unto Esdras the priest and [a]reader, that he would bring the law of Moses, that was given of [b]the Lord God of Israel. So Esdras the chief priest brought the law unto the whole multitude from man to woman, and to all the priests, to hear the law [c]in the first day of the seventh month. And he read in [d]the broad court before the holy porch from morning unto midday, before both men and women; and all the multitude gave heed unto the law. And Esdras the priest and [a]reader of the law stood up upon a pulpit of wood, which was made for that purpose. And there stood up by him Mattathias, Sammus, Ananias, Azarias, Urias, [e]Ezecias, [f]Balasamus, upon the right hand: and upon his left hand stood [g]Phaldaius, Misael, Melchias, [h]Lothasubus, and [i]Nabarias. Then took Esdras the book of the law before the multitude: for he sat [†]honourably in the first place in the sight of them all. And when he opened the law, they stood all straight up. So Esdras blessed the Lord God most High, the God of hosts, [k]Almighty. And all the people answered, Amen; and lifting up their hands they fell to the ground, and worshipped the Lord. Also Jesus, Anus, Sarabias, Adinus, Jacubus, Sabateus, [l]Auteas, Maianeas, and Calitas, Azarias, and Joazabdus, and Ananias, Biatas, the Levites, taught the law of the Lord, making them withal to [m]understand it.

[‖]Then spake [n]Attharates unto Esdras the [o]chief priest and [a]reader, and to the Levites that taught the multitude, even to all, saying, This day is holy unto the Lord; (for they all wept when they heard the law:) go then, and eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send part to [‖]them that have nothing; for this day is holy unto the Lord: and be not sorrowful; for the Lord will bring you to honour. So the Levites published all things to the people, saying, This day is holy to the Lord; be not sorrowful. Then went they their way, every one to eat and drink, and make merry, and to give [p]part to them that had nothing, and to make great cheer; because they [m]understood the words wherein they were instructed, and for the which they had been assembled.

II. ESDRAS.

I.

THE second book of the prophet [a] Esdras, the son of [b] Saraias, the son of Azarias, the son of Helchias, the son of [‖] Sadamias, the son of Sadoc, the son of Achitob, the son of Achias, the 2 son of Phinees, the son of Heli, the son of Amarias, the son of Aziei, the son of Marimoth, the son of Arna, the son of Ozias, the son of Borith, the son of Abisei, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, of the 3 tribe of Levi; which was captive in the land of [c] the Medes, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of the Persians.

And the word of the Lord came unto 4 me, saying, Go thy way, and [d] shew my 5 people their sinful deeds, and their children their wickedness which they have done against me; that they may tell their children's children: because the 6 sins of their fathers are increased in them: for they have forgotten me, and have offered unto strange gods. Am 7 not I even he that [e] brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage? but they have provoked me unto wrath, and despised my counsels. [f] Pull thou off then the hair of thy head, 8 and cast all evil upon them, for they have not been obedient unto my law, but [g] it is a rebellious people. [h] How 9 long shall I forbear them, unto whom I have done so much [t] good? Many kings 10 have I destroyed for their sakes; [i] Pharaoh with his servants and all his power have I smitten down. [j] All the nations 11 have I destroyed before them, and in the east I have scattered the people of [k] two provinces, even [l] of Tyrus and Sidon, and have slain all their enemies. Speak thou therefore unto them, saying, 12 Thus saith the Lord, [m] I led you through 13 the sea, and in the beginning gave you a large and safe [‖] passage; I gave you [n] Moses for a leader, and [o] Aaron for a 14 priest. [p] I gave you light in a pillar of fire, and great wonders have I done among you; [q] yet have you forgotten me, 15 saith the Lord. Thus saith the [r] Almighty Lord, The [s] quails were as a token for you; I gave you tents for your safeguard: nevertheless you mur- 16 mured there, and triumphed not in my name for the destruction of your enemies, but ever to this day do ye yet 17 murmur. Where are the [t] benefits that I have done for you? when you were hungry and thirsty in the wilderness, 18 did you not cry unto me, saying, [u] Why hast thou brought us into this wilderness to kill us? [v] it had been better for us to have served the Egyptians, 19 than to die in this wilderness. Then had I pity upon your mournings, and [w] gave you manna to eat; so [x] ye did 20 eat angels' bread. [y] When ye were thirsty, did I not cleave the rock, and waters flowed out [‖] to your fill? for the heat I covered you with the leaves of 21 the trees. I Esdras received a charge of the Lord upon the mount [m] Oreb, that I should go unto Israel; but when I came unto them, they set me at nought, and despised the commandment of the Lord. And therefore I say unto you, O ye heathen, that hear and understand, look for [n] your Shepherd, he shall give you everlasting [o] rest; for he is nigh at hand, [p] that shall come in the end of the world. Be ready to the reward of the kingdom, for [q] the everlasting light shall shine upon you for evermore. Flee [x] the shadow of this world, receive the joyfulness of [q] your glory: I testify [r] my Saviour openly. O receive the gift that is given you, and be glad, giving thanks unto him [s] that hath called you to the heavenly kingdom. Arise up and stand, behold [t] the number of those that be [u] sealed [‖] in [w] the feast of the Lord; which are departed from [x] the shadow of the world, and [y] have received glorious garments of the Lord.

Take thy number, O Sion, and [†] shut up those of thine [y] that are clothed in white, which have fulfilled the law of the Lord. [z] The number of thy children, whom thou longedst for, is fulfilled: beseech the power of the Lord, that thy people, [a] which have been called from the beginning, may be hallowed.

I Esdras saw [b] upon the mount Sion [c] a great people, whom I could not number, and they all praised the Lord with songs. And in the midst of them there was a [h] young man of a high stature, taller than all the rest, and upon every one of their heads [d] he set crowns, and was more exalted; which I marvelled at greatly. So I asked [e] the angel, and said, [‖f] Sir, what are these? He answered and said unto me, These be they [g] that have put off the mortal clothing, and put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of God: now [d] are they crowned, and [c] receive palms. Then said I unto [e] the angel, What [h] young person is it that crowneth them, and giveth them palms in their hands? So he answered and said unto me, [d] It is the Son of God, whom they have confessed in the world. Then began I greatly to commend them that stood so stiffly for the name of the Lord. Then [e] the angel said unto me, Go thy way, and [i] tell my people what manner of things, and how great wonders of the Lord thy God thou hast seen.

In the thirtieth year after [a] the ruin of the city I was in Babylon, and lay troubled upon my bed, and [b] my thoughts came up over my heart: for I saw the desolation of Sion, and the wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon. And my spirit was sore moved, so that I began to speak words full of fear to the most High, and said,

O Lord, [bb] who bearest rule, thou spakest at the beginning, when thou didst plant the earth, and that [c] thyself alone, and commandedst the people, and [d] gavest a body unto Adam without soul, which was the workmanship of thine hands, and [d] didst breathe into him the breath of life, and he was made living before thee. the wind, or call me again the day that is past. Then answered I and said, 6 What man is able to do that, that thou shouldest ask such things of me? And 7 he said unto me, If I should ask thee how great dwellings are [c]in the midst of the sea, or how many springs are in the beginning of the deep, or how many springs are above the firmament, or which are the outgoings of [d]paradise: peradventure thou wouldest say unto 8 me, I never went down into the deep, nor as yet into hell, neither did I ever climb up into heaven. Nevertheless 9 [e]now have I asked thee but only of the fire and wind, and of the day wherethrough thou hast passed, and of things from which thou canst not be separated, and yet canst thou give me no answer of them. He said moreover unto me, 10 Thine own things, and such as are grown up with thee, canst thou not know; how 11 should [f]thy vessel then be able to comprehend the way of the Highest, and, the world being now outwardly corrupted, to understand the [l]corruption that is evident in my sight? Then said I unto 12 him, It were better that we were not at all, than that we should live still in wickedness, and to suffer, and not to know wherefore.

He answered me, and said, I went 13 into a forest into a plain, and [g]the trees took counsel, and said, Come, let us go 14 and make war against the sea, that it may depart away before us, and that we may make us more woods. The floods 15 of the sea also in like manner took counsel, and said, Come, let us go up and subdue the woods of the plain, that there also we may make us another country. The thought of the wood was in vain, for 16 [h]the fire came and consumed it. The 17 thought of the floods of the sea came likewise to nought, for [i]the sand stood up and stopped them. If thou wert judge 18 now betwixt these two, whom wouldest thou begin to justify? or whom wouldest thou condemn? I answered and said, 19 Verily it is a foolish thought that they both have devised, for [k]the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea also hath his place to bear his [j]floods. Then 20 answered he me, and said, Thou hast given a right judgment, but why judgest thou not thyself also? For like as [k]the 21 ground is given unto the wood, and the sea to his floods: even so [e]they that dwell upon the earth may understand nothing but that which is upon the earth: and he that dwelleth above the heavens may only understand the things that are above the 22 height of the heavens. Then answered I and said, I beseech thee, O Lord, let 23 me have understanding: for it was not my mind to be curious of the high things, but of such as pass by us daily, namely, [k]wherefore Israel is given up as a reproach to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loved is given over unto ungodly nations, and why the law of our forefathers is brought to nought, and the written covenants 24 come [l]to none effect, and we pass away out of the world [l]as grasshoppers, and our life is astonishment and fear, and we 25 are not worthy to obtain mercy. [k]What will he then do unto his name whereby we are called? of these things have I asked.

26 Then answered he me, and said, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marvel; for [m]the world hasteth fast to 27 pass away, and cannot comprehend the things that are promised to the righteous in time to come: for [n]this world is full 28 of unrighteousness and infirmities. But as concerning the things whereof thou askest me, I will tell thee; for the evil is sown, but the destruction thereof is not 29 yet come. If therefore that which is sown be not turned upside down, and if the place where the evil is sown pass not away, then cannot it come that is sown 30 with good. For [o]the grain of evil seed hath been sown in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much ungodliness hath it [p]brought up unto this time? and how much shall it yet [p]bring forth until the [l][q]time of threshing come? 31 Ponder now by thyself, how great fruit of wickedness the grain of evil seed hath 32 [p]brought forth. And when the ears shall be cut down, which are without number, 33 how great a floor shall they fill? Then I answered and said, How and when shall these things come to pass? where- 34 fore are our years [r]few and evil? And he answered me, saying, Do not thou hasten above [s]the most High*est:* for thy haste is in vain to be above him, for 35 thou hast much exceeded. Did not [t]the souls also of the righteous ask question of these things in their [u]chambers, saying, [t]How long shall I hope on this fashion? when cometh the fruit of the 36 floor of our reward? And unto these things [l]Uriel the [v]archangel gave them answer, and said, [w]Even when the number of seeds is filled in you: for he hath weighed the world in the balance. By 37 measure hath he measured the times, and by number hath he numbered the times; and he doth not move nor stir them, until the said measure be fulfilled. Then answered I and said, [ww]O 38 Lord that bearest rule, even we all are full of impiety. And for our sakes per- 39 adventure it is that the floors of the righteous are not filled, because of the sins of them that dwell upon the earth. So he answered me, and said, Go thy 40 way to a woman with child, and ask of her when she hath fulfilled her nine months, if her womb may keep the birth any longer within her. Then said I, 41 No, Lord, that can she not. And he said unto me, In the grave the [u]chambers of souls are like the womb of a woman: for like as a woman that tra- 42 vaileth maketh haste to escape the necessity of the travail: even so do these places haste to deliver those things that are committed unto them. From the 43 beginning, look, what thou desirest to see, it shall be shewed thee.

Then answered I and said, [x]If I 44 have found favour in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore, shew 45 me then whether there be more to come than is past, or [y]more past than is to come. What is past I know, but what 46 is for to come I know not. And he 47 said unto me, Stand up upon the right side, and I shall expound the similitude unto thee. So I stood, and saw, and 48 behold, a hot burning oven passed by before me: and it happened, that when the flame was gone by, I looked, and behold, the smoke remained still. After 49 this there passed by before me a watery cloud, and sent down much rain with a storm; and when the stormy rain was past, the drops remained still. Then 50 said he unto me, Consider with thyself; as the rain is more than the drops, and as the fire is greater than the smoke; but the drops and the smoke remain behind: so [y]the [‖]quantity which is past did more exceed. Then I prayed, and 51 said, [z]May I live, thinkest thou, until that time? or [la]what shall happen in those days? He answered me, and said, 52 [a]As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may tell thee of them in part: but [z]as touching thy life, I am not sent to shew thee; for I do not know it.

Nevertheless [a]as concerning the tokens, behold, the days shall come, that they which dwell upon earth [‖]shall be taken in a great number, and the way of truth shall be hidden, and [b]the land 2 shall be barren of faith. But [c]iniquity shall be increased above that which now thou seest, or that thou hast heard long 3 ago. And [d]the land, [‖]that thou seest now to have root, shalt thou see wasted 4 suddenly. But if the most High grant thee to live, thou shalt see [e]after the third trumpet that [f]the sun shall suddenly shine again in the night, and 5 the moon thrice in the day: and [g]blood shall drop out of wood, and [h]the stone shall give his voice, and the people 6 shall be troubled: and even he shall rule, whom they look not for that dwell upon the earth, and the fowls shall take their 7 flight away together: and the Sodomitish sea shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many have not known: but they shall all hear the 8 voice thereof. There shall be a confusion also in many places, and the fire shall be oft [‖]sent out again, and the wild beasts shall change their places, and menstruous women shall bring forth 9 monsters: and salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and all friends shall destroy one another; then [i]shall wit hide itself, and understanding withdraw it- 10 self into his [j]secret chamber, and shall be sought of many, and yet not be found: then [c]shall unrighteousness and incontinency be multiplied upon earth. 11 One land also shall ask another, and say, Is righteousness that maketh a man righteous gone through thee? And it 12 shall say, No. At the same time shall men hope, but nothing obtain: they shall labour, but their ways shall not [‖]prosper. 13 [k]To shew thee such tokens I have leave; and if thou wilt pray again, and [l]weep as now, and [l]fast seven days, thou 14 shalt hear yet greater things. Then I awaked, and an extreme fearfulness went through all my body, and my mind 15 was troubled, [q]so that it fainted. So the angel that was come to talk with me held me, [ll]comforted me, and set me up 16 upon my feet. And in the second night it came to pass, that [m]Salathiel the captain of the people came unto me, saying, Where hast thou been? and why 17 is thy countenance so heavy? Knowest thou not that [n]Israel is committed unto thee in the land of their captivity?

And I said, Behold, O Lord, yet art thou nigh unto them that be reserved till the end: and what shall they do that have been before me, or we that be now, or 42 they that shall come after us? So I answered and said, Couldest thou not make those that have been made, and be now, and that are for to come, at once; [l] that thou [l] See ch. 2. 41. mightest shew thy judgment the sooner? 44 Then answered he me, and said, The creature may not haste above the Maker; neither may the world hold them at once 45 that shall be created therein. And I said, [m] As thou hast said unto thy ser- [m] Comp. ver. 50. vant, that thou, which givest life to all, hast given life at once to the creature that thou hast created, and the creature bare it: even so it might now also bear 46 them that now be present at once. And he said unto me, Ask the womb of a woman, and say unto her, If thou bring- est forth children, why dost thou it not together, but one after another? pray her therefore to bring forth ten children at 47 once. And I said, She cannot: but 48 must do it by distance of time. Then said he unto me, Even so have I given the womb of the earth to those that be 49 sown in it in their times. For like as a young child may not bring forth the things that belong to the aged, even so have I disposed the world which I created. And I asked, and said, Seeing thou hast now given me the way, I will proceed to speak before thee: for our mother, of whom [m] thou hast told me that she is young, draweth now nigh unto age. He answered me, and said, Ask a woman that beareth children, and she shall tell thee. Say unto her, Wherefore are not they whom thou hast now brought forth [n] like those that were before, but less of stature? And she shall answer thee, They that be born in the strength of youth are of one fashion, and they that are born in the time of age, when the womb faileth, are otherwise. Consider thou therefore also, how that ye are less of stature than those that were before you. And so are they that come after you less than ye, as the creatures which now begin to be old, and have passed over the strength of youth. Then said I, Lord, I beseech thee, [o] if I have found favour in thy sight, shew thy servant [p] by whom thou visitest thy creature.

VI. And he said unto me, In the beginning, when the [l] earth was made, before the borders of the world stood, or ever the winds blew, before it thundered and lightened, or ever the foundations of [a] paradise were laid, before [aa] the fair flowers were seen, or ever the moveable powers were established, before [b] the innumerable multitude of angels were gathered together, or ever the heights of the air were lifted up, before [c] the measures of the firmament were named, or ever the chimneys in Sion were hot, and ere the present years were sought out, and or ever the inventions of them that now sin were turned, before they [d] were sealed that have [e] gathered faith [e] for a treasure: then did I consider these things, and [f] they all were made through me alone, and through none other: by me also they shall be ended, and by none other. Then answered I and said, What shall be the [g] parting asunder of the times? or when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth? And he said unto me, From Abraham unto Isaac, when Jacob and Esau were born of him, [h] Jacob's hand held [l] first the heel of Esau. For Esau is the end of the world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth. The hand of man is betwixt the heel and the hand: other question, Esdras, ask thou not.

I answered then and said, [i] O Lord that bearest rule, [j] if I have found favour in thy sight, I beseech thee, shew thy servant the end of thy tokens, [k] whereof thou shewedst me part [l] the last night. So he answered and said unto me, Stand up upon thy feet, and hear a mighty sounding voice. And it shall be as it were a great [l] motion; but the place where thou standest shall not be moved. And therefore when it speaketh be not afraid: for the word is of the end, and the foundation of the earth is understood. And why? because the speech of these things trembleth and is moved: for it knoweth that the end of these things must be changed. And suddenly shall the sown places appear unsown, the full storehouses shall suddenly be found empty: and [p] the trumpet shall give a sound, which when every man heareth, they shall be suddenly afraid. At that time [q] shall friends [r] fight one against another like enemies, and the earth shall stand in fear with those that dwell therein, the springs of the fountains shall stand still, and in three hours they shall not run. [r] Whosoever remaineth from all these that I have told thee shall escape, and [s] see my salvation, and the end of your world. And the men [t] that are received shall see it, [t] who have not tasted death from their birth: and the heart of the inhabitants shall be changed, and turned into another meaning. And it came to pass after this, [a] that 35 I wept again, and fasted seven days in like manner, that I might fulfil the three weeks which he told me. [a] And in the 36 eighth night was my heart vexed within me again, and I began to speak before the most High. For my spirit was 37 greatly set on fire, and my soul was in distress. And I said, 38

O Lord, thou spakest from the beginning of the creation, even the first day, and saidst thus; [b] Let heaven and earth be made; and thy word was a perfect work. And [c] then was the Spi- 39 rit, and darkness and [cc] silence were on every side; the sound of man's voice was not yet formed. [d] Then command- 40 edst thou a fair light to come forth [e] of thy treasures, that thy work might appear. [f] Upon the second day thou 41 madest the spirit of the firmament, and commandedst it to part asunder and to make a division betwixt the waters, that the one part might go up, and the other remain beneath. [g] Upon the third day 42 thou didst command that the waters should be gathered in the seventh part of the earth: six parts hast thou dried up, and kept them, to the intent that of these some being planted of God and tilled might serve thee. For as soon 43 as thy word went forth the work was made. For immediately there was [h] great 44 and innumerable fruit, and many and divers pleasures for the taste, and [i] flowers of unchangeable colour, and odours of wonderful smell: and this was done 45 the third day. [j] Upon the fourth day thou commandedst that the sun should shine, and the moon give her light, and 46 the stars should be in order: and gavest them a charge to do [k] service unto man, 47 that was to be made. [l] Upon the fifth day thou saidst unto [m] the seventh part, where the waters were gathered, that it should bring forth living creatures, fowls and fishes: and so it came to pass. 48 [l] For the dumb water and without life brought forth living things at the commandment of God, that all people might 49 praise thy wondrous works. Then didst thou ordain two living creatures, the one thou calledst [l] Enoch, and the other 50 [n] Leviathan; and didst separate the one from the other: for [m] the seventh part (namely, where the water was gathered together) might not hold them both. 51 Unto [o] Enoch thou gavest [m] one part, which was dried up the third day, that he should dwell in the same part, where- 52 in are [p] a thousand hills: but unto Leviathan thou gavest [m] the seventh part, namely, the moist; and [q] hast kept him to be devoured of whom thou wilt, and 53 when. [r] Upon the sixth day thou gavest commandment unto the earth, that before thee it should bring forth beasts, 54 cattle, and creeping things: [s] and after these, Adam also, whom thou madest lord of all thy creatures: of him come we all, and the people also whom thou 55 hast chosen. All this have I spoken before thee, O Lord, because [t] thou 56 madest the world for our sakes. As for the other people, which also come of Adam, thou hast said that they are nothing, but be like unto spittle: and hast likened the abundance of them unto a drop that falleth from a vessel. 57 And now, O Lord, behold, these heathen, which have ever been reputed as nothing, have begun to be lords over 58 us, and to devour us. But we thy people (whom thou hast called [u] thy firstborn, thy only begotten, and thy fervent 59 lover) are given into their hands. If [t] the world now be made for our sakes, why do we not possess an inheritance with the world? [w] how long shall this endure?

But put the case the entrance 4 were narrow, and like a river; who 5 then could go into the sea to look upon it, and to rule it? if he went not through the narrow, how could he come into the broad? There is also an- 6 other thing; A city is builded, and set upon a broad field, and is full of all good things: the entrance thereof is 7

If this city 9 now were given unto a man for an inheritance, if he never shall pass the danger set before it, how shall he receive this inheritance? And I said, It 10 is so, Lord. Nevertheless the righteous shall 18 suffer strait things, and hope for wide: for they that have done wickedly have suffered the strait things, and yet shall not see the wide. And he said unto 19 me, There is no judge above God, and none that hath understanding above the Highest. For there be many that perish 20 in this life, because they despise the law 21 of God that is set before them. For God hath given strait commandment to such as came, what they should do to live, even as they came, and what they should observe to avoid punishment. 22 Nevertheless they were not obedient unto him; but spake against him, and 23 imagined vain things; and deceived themselves by their wicked deeds; and said of the most High, that he is not; 24 and knew not his ways: but [m] his law [m] See Num. 15. 31. have they despised, and denied his covenants: in his statutes have they not been faithful, and have not per- 25 formed his works. And therefore, Esdras, [n] for the empty are empty things, [n] Comp. 2 Cor. 9. 6. and for the full are the full things.

ceived rain; and [e] for the dead, that he might live: and [f] Ezechias for the 40 people in the time of Sennacherib: and many for many. Even so now, seeing 41 corruption is grown up, and wickedness increased, and the righteous have prayed for the ungodly; wherefore shall it not be so now also? He answered me, 42 and said, This present life is not the end, where much glory doth abide; therefore have they prayed for the weak. But the day of doom shall be 43 the end of this time, and the beginning of [g] the immortality for to come, [g] wherein corruption is past, intemperance is 44 at an end, [h] infidelity is cut off, righteousness is grown, [h] and truth is sprung up. Then [i] shall no man be able to 45 save him that is destroyed, nor to oppress him [k] that hath gotten the victory.
I answered then and said, 46

This is my first and last saying, that it had been better not to have given the earth unto Adam: or else, when it was given him, to have restrained him from sinning. [l] For what profit is 47 it for men now in this present time to live in heaviness, and after death to look for punishment? O thou Adam, 48 what hast thou done? for [m] though it was thou that sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but we all that come of thee. For what profit is it unto us, if 49 there be promised us an immortal time, whereas we have done [n] the works that bring death? And that there is pro- 50 mised us an everlasting hope, whereas ourselves being most wicked are made vain? And that there are laid up for 51 us dwellings of health and safety, whereas we have lived wickedly? And 52 that the glory of the most High is kept to defend them which have led ‖ a wary life, whereas we have walked in the most wicked ways of all? And that 53 there should be shewed [o] a paradise, whose fruit endureth for ever, wherein is ‖ security and [p] medicine, sith we shall not enter into it? (For we have 54 walked in unpleasant places.) And that 55 [q] the faces of them which have used abstinence shall shine above the stars, whereas [r] our faces shall be blacker than darkness? For while we lived and com- 56 mitted iniquity, we considered not that we should begin to suffer for it after death.

Then answered he me, and said, This 57 is the ‖ condition of the battle, which man that is born upon the earth shall 58 fight; that, if he be overcome, he shall suffer [s] as thou hast said: but if he [k] get the victory, [t] he shall receive the thing
59 that I say. For this is the life whereof Moses spake unto the people while he lived, saying, [u] Choose thee life, that 60 thou mayest live. Nevertheless they believed not him, nor yet the prophets after him, no nor me which have spoken 61 unto them, that there should not be such heaviness in their destruction, as [w] shall be joy over them that are per-62 suaded to salvation. I answered then, and said, I know, Lord, that the most High is called merciful, in that he hath mercy upon them which are not yet 63 come into the world, and upon those 64 also that turn to his law; and that he is [x] patient, and long suffereth those that 65 have sinned, as his creatures; and that he is bountiful, for he is ready to give 66 where it needeth; and that he is of great mercy, for he multiplieth more and more mercies to them that are present, and that are past, and also to 67 them which are to come. For if he shall not multiply his mercies, the world would not [y] continue with them that in-8 herit therein. And he pardoneth; [z] for if he did not so of his goodness, that they which have committed iniquities might be eased of them, the ten thousand part of men should not [y] remain 69 living. And being judge, if he should not forgive them that are ‖ cured with his word, and put out the multitude of 70 ‖ contentions, there should be very few left peradventure in an innumerable multitude.

And he answered me, saying, The VIII.
most High hath made this world for many, [a] but the world to come for few.
2 I will tell thee a similitude, Esdras;
As when thou askest the earth, it shall say unto thee, that it giveth much mould whereof earthen vessels are made, but little dust that gold cometh of: even so is the course of this present world.
3 [a] There be [b] many created, but few 4 shall be saved. So answered I and said,

Swallow then down, O my soul, un-5 derstanding, and devour wisdom. For thou hast agreed to give ear, and art willing to prophesy: [c] for thou hast no 6 longer space than only to live. O

For ‖ [e] when the body is fashioned now 8 in the mother's womb, and thou givest it members, thy creature is preserved in fire and water, and nine months doth thy workmanship endure thy creature which is created in her. But that which 9 keepeth and is kept shall both be prewomb preserved delivereth up the things that grew in it. For thou hast com- 10 manded out of the parts of the body, that is to say, out of the breasts, milk to be given, which is the fruit of the breasts, that the thing which is fashion- 11 touching thy people, for whose sake I

Jacob, for whose sake I am troubled;
therefore will I begin to pray before 17

the falls of us that dwell in the land.
But I have heard [h] the swiftness of the 18 judge which is to come. Therefore hear 19 my voice, and understand my words, and I shall speak before thee.
This is the beginning of the words of Esdras, [i] before he was taken up:

and indignation [m] maketh the mountains to melt away; which the truth witness-24 eth: O hear the prayer of thy servant, and give ear to the petition of thy creaand so long as I have understanding I 26 will answer. O look not upon the sins of thy people; but on them which serve 27 thee in truth. Regard not the wicked inventions of the heathen, but the desire of those that keep thy testimonies in 28 afflictions. Think not upon those that have walked feignedly before thee: but remember them, which according to thy 29 will have known [n] thy fear. Let it not be thy will to destroy them which have lived like beasts; but to look upon them that have clearly taught thy law.

30 Take thou no indignation at them which are deemed worse than beasts; but love them that alway put their trust in thy 31 righteousness and glory. For we and our fathers ‖ do languish of such diseases: but because of us sinners [o] thou 32 shalt be called merciful. For if thou ‖ hast a desire to have mercy upon us, thou shalt be called [p] merciful, to us namely, that have no works of right-33 eousness. For the just, which have many good works laid up with thee, [q] shall out of their own deeds receive 34 reward. For what is man, that thou shouldest take displeasure at him? or what is a corruptible generation, that thou shouldest be so bitter toward it?
35 For in truth [r] there is no man among them that be born, but he hath dealt wickedly; and among the faithful there is none which hath not done amiss.
36 For [o] in this, O Lord, thy righteousness and thy goodness shall be declared, if thou be merciful unto them which have not the ‖ confidence of good works.

and planteth many trees, and yet the thing that is sown good in his season cometh not up, neither doth all that is planted take root: even so is it of them that are sown in the world; [z] they shall not all be saved. I answered then and said, [a] If I have found grace, let me speak. Like as the husbandman's seed perisheth, if it come not up, and [b] receive not thy rain in due season; or if there come too much rain, and corrupt it: even so perisheth man also, which is formed with thy hands, and [c] is called thine own image, because thou art like unto him, [d] for whose sake thou hast made all things, and [e] likened him unto the husbandman's seed. Be not wroth with us, but [f] spare thy people, and have mercy upon thine own inheritance: for thou art merciful unto thy creature. Then answered he me, and said, Things present are for the present, and things to come for such as be to come. For thou comest far short [g] that thou shouldest be able to love my creature more than I: but I have ofttimes drawn nigh unto thee, and unto it, but never to the unrighteous. In this also thou art marvellous before the most High: in that thou hast humbled thyself, as it becometh thee, and hast not judged thyself worthy to be much glorified among the righteous. For many great miseries shall be done to them that [h] in the latter time shall dwell in the world, because they have walked in great [i] pride. But understand thou for thyself, and seek out the glory for such as be like thee. For unto you is [j] paradise opened, [k] the tree of life is planted, [l] the time to come is prepared, plenteousness is made ready, [m] a city is builded, and [n] rest is allowed, yea, perfect goodness and wisdom. The root of evil [o] is sealed up from you, weakness and the [p] moth is hid from you, and corruption is fled into [‖] hell to be forgotten: [q] sorrows are passed, and in the end is shewed the treasure of immortality. And therefore ask thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish. For [r] when they had taken liberty, they despised the most High, thought scorn of his law, and forsook his ways. Moreover they have trodden down his righteous, and [s] said in their heart, that there is no God; yea, and that knowing they must die. For as [t] the things aforesaid shall receive you, so [u] thirst and pain are prepared for them: for [v] it was not his will that men should come to nought: but they which be created have [w] defiled the name of him that made them, and were [x] unthankful unto him which prepared life for them. And therefore [y] is my judgment now at hand. These things have I not shewed unto all men, but unto thee, and a few [yy] like thee. Then answered I and said, Behold, O Lord, now hast thou shewed me the multitude of the [z] wonders, which thou wilt begin to do [h] in the last times: but at what time, thou hast not shewed me.

He answered me then, and said, Measure thou the time diligently in itself: and when thou seest part of the [a] signs past, which I have told thee before, then shalt thou understand, that it is the very same time, wherein the Highest will begin to visit the world which he made. Therefore when there shall be seen [b] earthquakes and [c] uproars of the people in the world: then shalt thou well understand, that the most High spake of those things from the days that were before thee, even from the beginning. For like as all that is made in the world hath a beginning and an end, and the end is manifest: even so the times also of the Highest have plain beginnings in wonders and powerful works, and endings in effects and [a] signs. And every one that shall be saved, and shall be able to escape [d] by his works, and [e] by faith, whereby ye have believed, shall be preserved from the said perils, and [f] shall see my salvation in my land, and within my borders: for [g] I have sanctified them for me from the beginning. Then [‖] shall they be in pitiful case, which now have abused my ways: and they that have cast them away despitefully shall dwell in torments. For such as [h] in their life have received benefits, and have not known me; and they that have lothed my law, [i] while they had yet liberty, and, when as yet [k] place of repentance was open unto them, understood not, but despised it; the same must know it [l] after death by pain. And therefore be thou not curious how the ungodly shall be punished, and when: but inquire [m] how the righteous shall be saved, whose the world is, and [n] for whom the world is created.

Then answered I and said, I have then will I come and talk with thee.

So I went my way into the field 26 which is called Ardath, like as he commanded me; and there I sat amongst the flowers, and did eat of the herbs of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me. After seven days I sat upon 27 the grass, and my heart was vexed within me, [y] like as before: and I 28 [z] opened my mouth, and began to talk before the most High, and said,

O Lord, thou that shewest thyself 29 unto us, [a] thou wast shewed unto our fathers in the wilderness, in a place where no man ‖ treadeth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt.
And thou spakest, saying, Hear me, 30
O Israel; and mark my words, thou seed of Jacob. For behold, I sow my 31 law in you, and it shall bring fruit in you, and ye shall be honoured in it for ever. But our fathers, which re- 32

ceived the law, kept it not, and ob-

the fruit of thy law did not perish, 33 neither could it, for it was thine; yet they that received it perished, because they kept not the thing that was sown 34 in them. And lo, it is a custom, when the ground hath received seed, or the sea a ship, or any vessel meat or drink, that, that being perished wherein it was 35 sown or cast into, that thing also which was sown, or cast therein, or received,

38 And when I spake these things in my 41 art thou so grieved in thy mind? And she said unto me, [h] Sir, let me alone, that I may bewail myself, and add unto my sorrow, for I [i] am sore vexed in my 42 mind, and brought very low. And I said unto her, What aileth thee? tell have been barren, and had no child, though I had a husband thirty years, 44 and those thirty years I did nothing else day and night, and every hour, but thirty years God heard me thine hand-dered my trouble, and gave me a son:

and I was very glad of him, so was my husband also, and all my neighbours:
and we gave great honour unto the 47 great travail. So when he grew up, and came to the time that he should have a wife, [k] I made a feast. And it X.

so came to pass, that when my son was entered into his weddingchamber, 2 he fell down, and died. Then we all overthrew the lights, and [a] all my ‖ neighbours rose up to comfort me: so I took my rest unto the second day at night.

might be quiet; then rose I up by night, and fled, and came hither into this field, as thou seest. And I do now purpose not to return into the city, but here to stay, and neither to eat nor drink, but continually to mourn and to fast until I die.

[b] Then left I the ‖ meditations wherein I was, and spake to her in anger, saying, Thou foolish woman above all other, seest thou not our mourning, and what happeneth unto us? How that Sion our mother is full of all heaviness, and [c] much humbled, mourning very sore? And now, seeing we all mourn and are sad, for we are all in heaviness, art thou grieved for one son? For ask the earth, and she shall tell thee, that it is she which ought to mourn for the fall of so many that grow upon her. For out of her came all at the first, and out of her shall all others come, and behold, they walk almost all into destruction, and a multitude of them is utterly ‖ rooted out. Who then should make more mourning than she, that hath lost so great a multitude; and not thou, which art sorry but for one? But if thou sayest unto me, My lamentation is not like the earth's, because I have lost the fruit of my womb, which I brought forth with pains, and bare with sorrows; ‖ but the earth not so: for the multitude present in it according to the course of the earth is gone, as it came: then say I unto thee, Like as thou hast brought forth with labour; even so the earth also hath given her fruit, namely, man, ever sithence the beginning unto him that made her. Now therefore keep thy sorrow to thyself, and bear with a good courage that which hath befallen thee. For [d] if thou shalt acknowledge the determination of God to be just, thou shalt both receive thy son in time, and shalt be commended amongst women. Go thy way then into the city to thine husband. And she said unto me, That will I not do: [e] I will not go into the city, but here will I die. So I proceeded to speak further unto her, and said,

Do not so, but be counselled by me: for how many are the adversities of Sion? be comforted in regard of the sorrow of Jerusalem. For thou seest that [f] our sanctuary is laid waste, [f] our altar broken down, [g] our temple destroyed; our psaltery is laid on the ground, our song is put to silence, our rejoicing is at an end, [h] the light of our candlestick is put out, [i] the ark of our covenant is spoiled, [k] our holy things are defiled, and the name that is called upon us is almost profaned: our children are put to shame, our priests are burnt, our Levites are gone into captivity, [l] our virgins are defiled, and [l] our wives ravished; our righteous men carried away, our little ones destroyed, our young men are brought in bondage, and our strong men are become weak; and, which is the greatest of all, [m] the seal of Sion hath now lost her honour; for [n] she is delivered into [o] the hands of them that hate us. And therefore shake off thy great heaviness, and put away the multitude of sorrows, that the Mighty may be merciful unto thee again, and the Highest shall give thee rest and ease from thy labour.

And it came to pass, while I was talking with her, behold, her face upon a sudden shined exceedingly, and her countenance glistered, so that I was afraid of her, and mused what it might be. And behold, suddenly she made a great cry very fearful: so that the earth shook at the noise of the woman. And I looked, and behold, the woman appeared unto me no more, but there was [p] a city builded, and a large place shewed itself from the foundations: then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Where is [q] Uriel the angel, who came unto me at the first? for he hath caused me to fall ‖ into many trances, and mine end is turned into corruption, and my prayer to reproach. And as I was speaking these words, behold, he came unto me, and looked upon me. And lo, I lay as one that had been dead, and mine understanding was taken from me: and he took me by the right hand, and [s] comforted me, and [s] set me upon my feet, and said unto me, What aileth thee? and why art thou so disquieted? and why is thine understanding troubled, and the thoughts of thine heart? And I said, Because thou hast forsaken me, and yet I [t] did according to thy words, and I [u] went into the field, and lo, I have seen, and yet see, that I am not able to express. And he said unto me, Stand up manfully, and I will advise thee. Then said I, Speak on, my lord, in me; only forsake me not, lest

I die frustrate of my hope. For I have 35 seen that I knew not, and hear that I do not know. Or is my sense deceived, 36 or my soul in a dream? Now therefore 37
I beseech thee that thou wilt shew thy servant of this ‖ vision. He answered 38 me then, and said,

Hear me, and I shall inform thee,
and tell thee wherefore thou art afraid:
for the Highest will reveal many secret things unto thee. He hath seen that 39 thy ‖ way is right: for that thou sorrow-est continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Sion. This 40 therefore is the meaning of the vision which thou lately sawest: [v] thou sawest 41
a woman mourning, and thou beganst to comfort her: but now seest thou the 42 likeness of the woman no more, but [w] there appeared unto thee a city builded. And whereas she told thee of the 43 death of her son, this is the ‖ solution:
this woman, whom thou sawest, is Sion: 44 and whereas she said unto thee, (even she whom thou seest as a city builded,) whereas, I say, she said unto thee, 45 [x] that she hath been thirty years bar-ren: those are the thirty years wherein there was no offering made in her. But 46 after thirty years Solomon builded the city, and [y] offered offerings: and then bare the barren a son. And whereas 47 she told thee that she nourished him with labour: that was the dwelling in Jerusalem. But whereas she said unto 48 thee, That my son coming into his marriage chamber [z] happened to have a fall, and died: this was the destruction that came to Jerusalem. And be- 49 hold, [v] thou sawest her likeness, and because she mourned for her son, thou beganst to comfort her: and of these things which have chanced, these are to be opened unto thee. For now the 50 most High seeth that thou art grieved unfeignedly, and sufferest from thy whole heart for her, so hath he shewed thee the brightness of her glory, and the comeliness of her beauty: and there- 51 fore [a] I bade thee remain in the field where no house was builded: for I 52 knew that the Highest [b] would shew this unto thee. Therefore [a] I command- 53 ed thee to go into the field, where no foundation of any building was. For 54 in the place wherein the Highest [b] beginneth to shew his city, there can no man's building be able to stand. And 55 therefore fear not, let not thy heart be affrighted, but go thy way in, and [c] see the beauty and greatness of the building, as much as thine eyes be able 56 to see: and then shalt thou hear as much as thine ears may comprehend.
57 For thou art blessed above many other,
and ‖ art called with the Highest; and 58 so are but few. But to morrow at night 59 thou shalt remain here; and so shall the Highest shew thee visions of the ‖ high things, which the most High will do unto them that dwell upon earth [d] in the last days. So I slept that night and another, like as he commanded me.

Then saw I a dream, and behold, XI.
there came up [a] from the sea [aa] an eagle, which had twelve feathered wings, and 2 three heads. And I saw, and behold, she spread her wings over all the earth,
and all the winds of the air blew on her,
3 and were gathered together. And I beheld, and out of her feathers there grew other [b] contrary feathers; and they 4 became little feathers and small. But her heads were at rest: the head in the midst was greater than the other, yet 5 rested [†] it with the residue. Moreover I beheld, and lo, the eagle flew with her feathers, and reigned upon earth, and 6 over them that dwelt therein. And I saw that all things under heaven were subject unto her, and no man spake against her, no, not one creature upon 7 earth. And I beheld, and lo, the eagle rose upon her talons, and spake to her 8 feathers, saying, Watch not all at once:
sleep every one in his own place, and 9 watch by course: but let the heads be 10 preserved for the last. And I beheld, and lo, the voice went not out of her heads, but from the midst of her body.
11 And I numbered her [b] contrary feathers, and behold, there were [†] eight of them.
12 And I looked, and behold, [c] on the right side there arose one feather, and 13 reigned over all the earth; and so it was, that when it reigned, the end of it came, and [d] the place thereof appeared no more: so the next following stood up, 14 and reigned, and had a great time; and it happened, that when it reigned, the end of it came also, like as the first, so 15 that it appeared no more. Then came 16 there a voice unto it, and said, Hear thou that hast borne rule over the earth
so long: this I say unto thee, before 17 thou beginnest to appear no more, There shall none after thee attain unto thy time, neither unto the half thereof. Then 18 arose the third, and reigned as the other before, and appeared no more also. So 19 went it with all the residue one after another, as that every one reigned, and then appeared no more. Then I be- 20 held, and lo, in process of time the feathers that followed stood up [c]upon the right side, that they might rule also; and some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more: for some 21 of them were set up, but ruled not. After 22 this I looked, and behold, [e]the twelve feathers appeared no more, nor the [f]two [b]little feathers: and there was no more 23 upon the eagle's body, but three [g]heads that rested, and [f]six [b]little wings. Then 24 saw I also that two little feathers divided themselves from the six, and remained under the head that was upon the right side: for [i]the four continued [h]in their place. And I beheld, and lo, [h]the feathers that were under the wing thought 25 to set up themselves, and to have the rule. And I beheld, and lo, there was 26 [i]one set up, but shortly it appeared no more. And [i]the second was sooner 27 away than the first. And I beheld, and 28 lo, [i]the two that remained thought also in themselves to reign: and when they 29 so thought, behold, there awaked one of [g]the heads that were at rest, namely, it that was in the midst; for that was greater than the two other heads. And 30 then I saw that the two other heads were joined with it. And behold, the head 31 was turned [j]with them that were with it, and did eat up [i]the two [h]feathers under the wing that would have reigned. But 32 this head put the whole earth in fear, and bare rule in it over all those that dwelt upon the earth, [k]with much oppression; and it had the governance of the world more than all the wings that had been. And after this I beheld, and 33 lo, the head that was in the midst suddenly appeared no more, [l]like as the wings. But there remained the two 34 heads, which also in like sort ruled upon the earth, and over those that dwelt therein. And I beheld, and lo, 35 the head upon the right side devoured it that was upon the left side.

Then I heard a voice, which said 36 unto me, Look before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest. And I 37 beheld, and lo, as it were a roaring [m]lion chased out of the wood: and I saw that he sent out a man's voice unto the eagle, 38 and said, Hear thou, I will talk with thee, and the Highest shall say unto 39 thee, Art not thou it that remainest of [n]the four beasts, whom I made to reign in my world, that the end of their times 40 might come through them? And [o]the fourth came, and overcame all the beasts that were past, and had power over the world with great fearfulness, and over [p]the whole compass of the earth [k]with much wicked oppression; and so long time dwelt he upon the earth with de- 41 ceit. For the earth hast thou not judged 42 with truth. For thou hast afflicted the meek, thou hast hurt the peaceable, thou hast loved liars, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruit, and hast cast down the walls of 43 such as did thee no harm. Therefore is thy wrongful dealing come up unto the Highest, and thy pride unto the 44 Mighty. The Highest also hath looked upon the proud times, and behold, they are ended, and his abominations are ful- 45 filled. And therefore appear no more, thou eagle, nor [q]thy horrible wings, nor [r]thy wicked feathers, nor [q]thy malicious heads, nor thy hurtful [s]claws, nor all thy 46 vain body: that all the earth [t]may be refreshed, and may return, being delivered from thy violence, and that she may hope for the judgment and mercy of him that made her.

And it came to pass, whiles the lion XII. spake these words unto the eagle, I saw, 2 and behold, [a]the head that remained, and [b]the four wings appeared no more, and [c]the two went unto it, and set themselves up to reign, and [c]their kingdom 3 was small, and full of uproar. And I saw, and behold, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the eagle was burnt, so that the earth was in great fear: then awaked I out of the trouble and [cc]trance of my mind, and from great 4 fear, and said unto my spirit, Lo, this hast thou done unto me, in that thou searchest out the ways of the Highest. 5 Lo, yet am I weary in my mind, and very weak in my spirit; and little strength is there in me, for the great fear where- 6 with I was affrighted this night. Therefore will I now beseech the Highest, that he will comfort me unto the end. 7 And I said, [d]Lord that bearest rule, [e]if I have found grace before thy sight, and if I am justified with thee before many others, and if my prayer indeed be come 8 up before thy face; comfort me then, and shew me thy servant the interpretation and plain difference of this fearful vision, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soul. [f] For [g] thou hast judged me worthy to shew me [h] the last times. And he said unto me,

This is the interpretation of the vision: [i] The eagle, whom thou sawest come up from the sea, is the kingdom which was seen [j] in the vision of thy brother Daniel. But it was not expounded unto him, therefore now I declare it unto thee. Behold, the days will come, that there shall rise up a kingdom upon earth, and it shall be feared above all the kingdoms that were before it. In the same [k] shall twelve kings reign, one after another: whereof [l] the second shall begin to reign, and shall have more time than any of the twelve. And this do the twelve wings signify, which thou sawest. As for the voice which thou heardest speak, and [m] that thou sawest [n] not to go out from the heads, but from the midst of the body thereof, this is the interpretation: That after the time of that kingdom there shall arise great strivings, and it shall stand in peril of falling: nevertheless it shall not then fall, but shall be restored again to his beginning. And whereas thou sawest [o] the eight small under feathers sticking to her wings, this is the interpretation: That in him there shall arise eight kings, whose times shall be but small, and their years swift. And [p] two of them shall perish, the middle time approaching: [q] four shall be kept until their end begin to approach: but [r] two shall be kept unto the end. And whereas thou sawest [s] three heads resting, this is the interpretation: [t] In his last days shall the most High raise up three kingdoms, and renew many things therein, and they shall have the dominion of the earth, and of those that dwell therein, [u] with much oppression, above all those that were before them: therefore are they called the heads of the eagle. For these are they that shall accomplish his wickedness, and that shall finish his last end. And whereas thou sawest that [w] the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die upon his bed, and yet with pain. For the two that remain shall be slain with the sword. For [x] the sword of the one shall devour the other: but at the last [y] shall he fall through the sword himself. And whereas thou sawest [r] two feathers under the wings passing over the head that is on the right side; it signifieth that these are they, whom the Highest [r] hath kept unto their end: this is [z] the small kingdom and full of trouble, as thou sawest. And [a] the lion, whom thou sawest rising up out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the eagle, and rebuking her for her unrighteousness with all the words which thou hast heard; this is the [t] anointed, which the Highest hath kept for them and for their wickedness unto the end: he shall reprove them, and shall upbraid them with their cruelty. For he shall set them before him alive in judgment, and shall rebuke them, and correct them. For the rest of my people shall he deliver with mercy, those that have been preserved upon my borders, and he shall make them joyful until the coming of the day of judgment, [b] whereof I have spoken unto thee from the beginning. This is the dream that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations. Thou only hast been meet to know this secret of the Highest. Therefore [c] write all these things that thou hast seen in a book, and [cc] hide them: and teach them to the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keep these secrets. But wait thou here thyself yet [d] seven days moe, that it may be shewed thee, whatsoever it pleaseth the Highest to declare unto thee. And with that he went his way.

And it came to pass, when all the people saw that the seven days were past, and I not come again into [e] the city, they gathered them all together, from the least unto the greatest, and came unto me, and said, What have we offended thee? and what evil have we done against thee, that thou forsakest us, and sittest here in this place? For of all the [ll] prophets thou only art left us, [f] as a cluster of the vintage, and [g] as a candle in a dark place, and as [h] a haven or ship preserved from the tempest. Are not the evils which are come to us sufficient? If thou shalt forsake us, [i] how much better had it been for us, if [j] we also had been burnt in the midst of Sion? [k] For we are not better than they that died there. And they wept with a loud voice. Then answer-

house of Jacob: for the Highest hath 47
you in remembrance, and the Mighty hath not forgotten you in temptation.
As for me, I have not forsaken you, 48 neither am I departed from you: but am come into this place, to pray for the desolation of Sion, and that I might seek mercy for the low estate of your sanctuary. And now go your way home 49 every man, and after these days will I come unto you. So the people went 50 their way into the city, like as I commanded them: but I remained still in 51
the field seven days, [l]as the angel commanded me; and [m]did eat only in those days of the flowers of the field, and had my meat of the herbs.

[m] ch. 9. 24.

XIII. And it came to pass [a]after seven days, I dreamed a dream by night:
and lo, there arose [‖]a wind from the 2 sea, that it moved all the waves thereof.
And I beheld, and lo, that man waxed 3 strong with the [‖b]thousands of heaven:
and when he turned his countenance to look, all the things trembled that were seen under him. And whensoever the 4 voice went out of his mouth, all they burnt that heard his voice, like as the earth faileth when it feeleth the fire. And after this I beheld, and lo, 5 there was gathered together a multitude of men, out of number, from the four winds of the heaven, to subdue the man that came out of the sea. But I 6 beheld, and lo, he had graved himself a great mountain, and flew up upon it. But I would have seen the region 7 or place whereout the hill was graven, and I could not. And after this I 8 beheld, and lo, all they which were gathered together to subdue him were sore afraid, and yet durst fight. And 9 lo, as he saw the violence of the multitude that came, he neither lift up his hand, nor held sword, nor any instrument of war: but only I saw that 10 he sent out of his mouth as it had been a blast of fire, and out of his lips a flaming breath, and out of his tongue he cast out sparks and tempests. And they were all mixt to- 11 gether; the blast of fire, the flaming breath, and the great tempest; and fell with violence upon the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burnt them up every one, so that upon a sudden of an innumerable multitude nothing was to be perceived, but only dust and smell of smoke: when I saw 12 this I was afraid. Afterward saw I the same man come down from the mountain, and call unto him another peace-13 able multitude. And there came much people unto him, whereof some were these wonders from the beginning, and now yet the interpretation of this dream.

16 For as I conceive in mine understanding, woe unto them that shall be left in those days! and much more woe unto them that are not left behind!
17 For they that were not left were in hea-are they come into great perils and many necessities, like as these dreams 20 declare. Yet is it easier [f]for him that [f] ver. 23.

is in danger [e]to come into [‖]these things, [‖] Or, this day.
than to pass away as a cloud out of the world, and not to see the things that happen [d]in the last days. And he answered unto me, and said,

21 The interpretation of the vision shall
I shew thee, and I will open unto thee 22 the thing that thou hast required. Whereas thou hast spoken of [e]them that are thee the treasures of the Highest: after other three days I will speak other things unto thee, and declare unto thee 57 mighty and wondrous things. Then went I forth into the field, giving praise and thanks greatly unto the most High because of his wonders, which he 58 did in time; and because he governeth the same, and such things as fall in their seasons: and there I sat three days.

day, I sat under an oak, and behold, there came a voice out of a bush over against me, and said, Esdras, Esdras.
2 And I said, Here am I, Lord. And I
3 stood up upon my feet. Then said he unto me, [b] In the bush I did manifestly [b] Ex. 3. 2—8. reveal myself unto Moses, and talked with him, when my people served in 4 Egypt: and I sent him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him up to the mount of Sinai, [c] where I held [c] Ex. 24. 18. Comp. ver. 23.
5 him by me a long season, and told him many wondrous things, and shewed him
the secrets of the times, and the end; 6 and commanded him, saying, These words shalt thou declare, and these 7 shalt thou hide. And now I say unto thee, That thou lay up in thy heart the 8 signs that I have shewed, and the dreams that thou hast seen, and the interpretations which thou hast heard:

for thou shalt be taken away from all, 9 and from henceforth thou shalt remain with my ‖ Son, and with such as be [d] like thee, until the times be ended.
For [e] the world hath lost his youth, and 10
[e] the times begin to wax old. For the 11 world is divided into twelve parts, and the ten parts of it are gone already, and half of a tenth part: and there 12 remaineth that which is after the half of the tenth part. Now therefore [f] set 13 thine house in order, and reprove thy people, comfort such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce corruption, let go from thee mortal thoughts, [g] cast 14 away the burdens of man, put off now the weak nature, and set aside the 15 thoughts that are most heavy unto thee, and haste thee to flee from these times.
For [h] yet greater evils than those which 16
thou hast seen happen shall be done hereafter. For look how much the world 17 shall be weak*er* through age, so much the more shall evils increase upon them that dwell therein. For [i] the truth is 18 fled far away, and [k] leasing is hard at hand: for now hasteth the vision to come, which thou hast seen.

Then answered I before thee, and 19 said, Behold, Lord, I will go, [l] as thou 20 hast commanded me, and reprove the people which are present: but they that shall be born afterward, who shall admonish them? thus the world is set in darkness, and they that dwell therein are without light. For [m] thy law is 21 burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the works that shall begin. But [n] if I have 22 found grace before thee, [o] send the Holy Ghost into me, and I shall write all that hath been done in the world since the beginning, which were written in thy law, that men may find thy path, and that they which will live [p] in the latter days may live. And he answered me, 23 saying, Go thy way, gather the people together, and say unto them, [q] that they seek thee not [r] for forty days. But 24 look thou prepare thee many ‖ box trees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, ‖ Ecanus, and Asiel, these five which are [s] ready to write swiftly; and 25 come hither, and I [t] shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out, till the things be performed which thou shalt begin to 26 write. And when thou hast done, some things shalt thou publish, and [u] some things shalt thou shew secretly to the wise: to morrow this hour shalt thou 27 begin to write. Then went I forth, as he commanded, and gathered all the people together, and said, 28 29 [w] Hear these words, O Israel. [x] Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were de-30 livered: and [y] received the law of life, which they kept not, which ye also 31 have transgressed after them. Then was the land, even the land of Sion, parted among you by lot: but your fathers, and ye yourselves, have done unrighteousness, and have not kept the ways which the Highest commanded 32 you. And forasmuch as he is [z] a righteous judge, he took from you in time 33 the thing that he had given you. And now are you [a] here, and your brethren 34 among you. Therefore if so be that you will subdue your own understanding, and reform your hearts, ye shall be kept alive, and after death ye shall ob-35 tain mercy. For [b] after death shall the judgment come, when we shall live again: and then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and the works 36 of the ungodly shall be declared. [c] Let no man therefore come unto me now, nor seek after me these forty days.
37 So I took [d] the five men, [e] as he commanded me, and we went into the field, 38 and remained there. And the next day, behold, a voice called me, saying Esdras, [f] open thy mouth, and drink that 39 I give thee to drink. Then opened I my mouth, and behold, he reached me a full cup, which was full as it were with water, but the colour of it 40 was like fire. And I took it, and drank: and when I had drunk of it, my heart uttered understanding, and wisdom grew in my breast, for my 41 spirit strengthened my memory: and [g] my mouth was opened, and shut no 42 more. The Highest gave understanding unto [e] the five men, and they wrote the wonderful visions of the night that were told, which they knew not: and they sat forty days, and they wrote in the day, and at night they ate bread.
43 As for me, I spake in the day, and 44 held not my tongue by night. [c] In forty days they wrote ‖ two hundred

And they shall break down the 42 cities and walls, mountains and hills, trees of the wood, and grass of the meadows, and their corn. And they shall 43 go stedfastly unto Babylon, and ‖[z]make her afraid. And they that remain 45 under her shall do service unto them that have [z]put her in fear.

And thou, [d]Asia, that art ‖partaker of 46 the hope of Babylon, and art the glory of her person: woe be unto thee, thou 47 wretch, because thou hast made thyself like unto her; and hast deckt thy daughters in whoredom, that they might please and glory in thy lovers, which have alway desired to commit whoredom with thee! Thou hast followed her that 48 is hated in all her works and inventions: therefore saith God, [e]I will send 49 plagues upon thee; widowhood, poverty, famine, sword, and pestilence, to waste thy houses with destruction and death.

50 And the glory of thy power [f]shall be dried up as a flower, when the heat shall 51 arise that is sent over thee. Thou shalt be weakened as a poor woman with stripes, and as one chastised with wounds, so that the mighty and lovers shall not 52 be able to receive thee. [g]Would I with jealousy have so proceeded against thee, 53 saith the Lord, if thou hadst not alway slain [h]my chosen, exalting the stroke of thine hands, and saying over their [t]dead, 54 [i]when thou wast drunken, [k]Set forth the 55 beauty of thy countenance? The reward of thy whoredom shall be [l]in thy bosom, therefore shalt thou receive re- 56 compence. Like as thou hast done unto [h]my chosen, saith the Lord, even so shall God do unto thee, and shall de- 57 liver thee into mischief. Thy children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall through the sword: thy cities shall be broken down, and all thine shall perish 58 with the sword in the field. They that be in the mountains shall die of hunger, and [m]eat their own flesh, and drink their own blood, for very hunger of bread, 59 and thirst of water. Thou, as unhappy, shalt come through the sea, and receive 60 plagues again. And in the passage they shall rush on the [n]idle city, and shall destroy some portion of thy land, and [q]consume part of thy glory, and shall return to Babylon that was destroyed. 61 And thou shalt be cast down by them [o]as stubble, and they shall be unto thee 62 as fire; and shall consume thee, and thy cities, thy land, and thy mountains; all thy woods and thy fruitful trees shall 63 they burn up with fire. Thy children shall they carry away captive, and look, [p]what thou hast, they shall spoil it, and ‖[q]mar the [q]beauty of thy face.

[a]Woe be unto thee, Babylon, and XVI.
Asia! woe be unto thee, [b]Egypt, and 2 Syria! [c]Gird up yourselves with cloths of sack and [d]hair, bewail your children, and be sorry; for your destruction is 3 at hand. A sword is sent upon you,
4 and who may turn it back? [e]a fire is sent among you, and who may quench
5 it? [f]plagues are sent unto you, and what is he that may drive them away?
6 May any man drive away a hungry lion in the wood? or may any one quench [g]the fire in stubble, when it
7 hath begun to burn? [h]May one turn again the arrow that is shot of a strong 8 archer? [f]The mighty Lord sendeth the plagues, and who is he that can drive them away? [e] A fire shall go forth from his wrath, and who is he that may quench it? [i] He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not fear? [i] he shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid? The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not be utterly beaten to powder at his presence? [j] The earth quaketh, and the foundations thereof; the sea ariseth up with waves from the deep, and [k] the waves of it are troubled, and the fishes thereof also, [l] before the Lord, and before the glory of his power: for [m] strong is his right hand that bendeth the bow, [i] his arrows that he shooteth are [n] sharp, and shall not miss, when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world. Behold, the plagues are sent, and shall not return again, until they come upon the earth. [eo] The fire is kindled, and shall not be put out, till it consume the foundation of the earth. [h] Like as an arrow which is shot of a mighty archer returneth not backward: even so the plagues that shall be sent upon earth shall not return again. Woe is me! woe is me! who will deliver me in those days?

[p] The beginning of sorrows and great mournings; the beginning of famine and great death; the beginning of wars, and the powers shall stand in fear; the beginning of evils: what shall I do when these evils shall come? Behold, famine and plague, [q] tribulation and anguish, are sent as scourges for amendment. But for all these things they shall not turn from their wickedness, nor be alway mindful of the scourges. Behold, victuals shall be so good cheap upon earth, that they shall think themselves to be in good case, and even then shall [ll] evils grow upon earth, sword, famine, and great confusion. For many of them that dwell upon earth shall perish of famine; and the other, that escape the hunger, shall the sword destroy. And [r] the dead shall be cast out as dung, and there shall be no man to comfort them: for the earth shall be wasted, and the cities shall be cast down. There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sow it. The trees shall give fruit, and who shall gather them? The grapes shall ripen, and who shall [s] tread them? for all places shall be desolate of men: so that one man shall desire to see another, and to hear his voice. For of a city there shall be ten left, and two of the field, which shall hide themselves in the thick groves, and [u] in the clefts of the rocks. [x] As in an orchard of olives upon every tree there are left three or four olives; [x] or, when as a vineyard is gathered, there are left some clusters of them that diligently seek through the vineyard: even so in those days there shall be [y] three or four left by them that search their houses with the sword. And the earth shall be laid waste, and the fields thereof shall wax old, and her ways and all her paths shall grow full of thorns, because no man shall travel therethrough. [z] The virgins shall mourn, having no bridegrooms; the women shall mourn, having no husbands; their daughters shall mourn, having no helpers. In the wars shall their bridegrooms be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of famine.

Hear now these things, and understand them, [a] ye servants of the Lord. Behold the word of the Lord, receive it: believe not the gods of whom the Lord spake. Behold, the plagues draw nigh, and are not slack. [b] As when a woman with child in the ninth month bringeth forth her son, within two or three hours of her birth great pains compass her womb, which pains, when the child cometh forth, they slack not a moment: even so shall not the plagues be slack to come upon the earth, and the world shall mourn, and sorrows shall come upon it on every side. O my people, hear my word: make you ready to the battle, and in those evils be even as [c] pilgrims upon the earth. [d] He that selleth, let him be as he that fleeth away: and he that buyeth, as one that will lose: he that [e] occupieth merchandise, as he that hath no profit by it: and he that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein: he that soweth, as if he should not reap: so also he that planteth the vineyard, as he that shall not gather the grapes: they that marry, as they that shall get no children; and they that marry not, as the widowers. And therefore they that labour, labour in vain: for strangers shall reap their fruits, and spoil their goods, overthrow their houses, and take their children captives, for [ll] in captivity and famine shall they get children. And they that [e] occupy their merchandise with robbery, the more they deck their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their own persons: the more [f] will I be angry with them for their sin, saith the Lord. Like as a whore [g] envieth a [h] right honest and virtuous woman: so shall righteousness [g] hate iniquity, [i] when she decketh herself, and shall accuse her to her face, when he cometh that shall defend him that diligently searcheth out every sin upon earth.

And therefore be ye not like thereunto, nor to the works thereof. For [j] yet a little, and iniquity shall be taken away out of the earth, and righteousness shall reign among you. [k] Let not the sinner say that he hath not sinned: for God [l] shall burn coals of fire upon his head, [k] which saith before the Lord God and his glory, I have not sinned. Behold, the Lord knoweth all the works of men, their [z] imaginations, their thoughts, and their [m] hearts: which spake but the word, [n] Let the earth be made; and it was made: Let the heaven be made; and it was created. In his word were the stars made, and [o] he knoweth the number of them. He searcheth the deep, and the treasures thereof; [p] he hath measured the sea, and what it containeth. [q] He hath shut the sea in the midst of the waters, and with his word [r] hath he hanged the earth [s] upon the waters. [t] He spreadeth out the heavens like a vault; [u] upon the waters hath he founded it. [x] In the desert hath he made springs of water, and pools upon the tops of the mountains, that the floods might pour down from the high rocks to water the earth. [y] He made man, and put his heart in the midst of the body, and gave him breath, life, and understanding. Yea, and the spirit of Almighty God, which made all things, and searcheth out all hidden things in the secrets of the earth, surely he knoweth your [z] inventions, and what you think in your hearts, even them that sin, and would hide their sin. Therefore hath the Lord exactly searched out all your works, and he will put you all to shame. And [a] when your sins are brought forth, ye shall be ashamed before men, and your own sins shall be your accusers in that day. What will ye do? or how will ye hide your sins before God and [b] his angels? Behold, [c] God himself is the judge, fear him: leave off from your sins, and forget your iniquities, to meddle no more with them for ever: so shall God lead you forth, and [d] deliver you from all trouble.

For behold, the burning wrath of a great multitude is kindled over you, and they shall take away certain of you, and feed you, [‖] being [e] idle, with [f] things offered unto idols. And they that consent unto them shall be had in derision and in reproach, and trodden under foot. For there shall be in every place, and in the next cities, a great insurrection upon those that fear the Lord. They shall be like mad men, sparing none, but still spoiling and destroying those that fear the Lord. For they shall waste and take away their goods, and cast them out of [g] their houses. Then shall they be known, who are [h] my chosen; and [i] they shall be tried as the gold in the fire. Hear, O ye my beloved, saith the Lord: behold, the days of trouble are at hand, but [d] I will deliver you from the same. Be ye not afraid, neither doubt; for [k] God is your guide, and the guide of them who keep my commandments and precepts, saith the Lord God: [l] let not your sins weigh you down, and let not your iniquities lift up themselves. Woe be unto them that are bound with their sins, and covered with their iniquities, [m] like as a field is covered over with bushes, and the path thereof covered with thorns, that no man may travel through! It is [‖] left undressed, and is cast into the fire to be consumed therewith.

TOBIT.

I. THE book of the ‖words of Tobit, son of Tobiel, the son of Ananiel, the son of Aduel, the son of Gabael, of the seed of Asael, of the tribe of Nephthali; who in the time of ‖Enemessar 2 king of the Assyrians [a]was led captive out of [b]Thisbe, which is at [c]the right hand of that city, which is called [‖]properly Nephthali in Galilee above Aser. I 3 Tobit have walked all the days of my life in the way of truth and justice, and [d]I did many almsdeeds to my brethren, and my nation, who came with me to Nineve, into the land of the Assyrians. And when I was in mine own country, 4 in the land of Israel, being but young, [e]all the tribe of Nephthali my father fell from the house of Jerusalem, which was chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, that all the tribes should sacrifice there, where the temple of the habitation of the most High was consecrated and built [f]for all ages. Now all the tribes 5 which together revolted, and the house of my father Nephthali, sacrificed ‖unto the [g]heifer Baal. But I alone went often to Jerusalem at the feasts, [h]as it was ordained unto all the people of Israel by an everlasting decree, having [i]the first-fruits and [j]tenths of increase, with [k]that which was first shorn; and them gave I at the altar to the priests the children of Aaron. The first tenth part of all in- 7 crease I gave to the sons of ‖Aaron, who ministered at Jerusalem: [l]another tenth part I sold away, and went, and spent it every year at Jerusalem: and the third I 8 gave unto them to whom it was meet, as Debora my father's mother had commanded me, because I was left an orphan by my father. Furthermore, when 9
I was come to the age of a man, I married Anna [m]of mine own kindred, and of her I begat Tobias. And when [a]we were 10 carried away captives to Nineve, all my brethren and those that were of my kindred [n]did eat of the bread of the Gen-11 tiles. But I kept [t]myself from eating; 12 because I remembered God with all my 13 heart. And the most High gave me grace and favour before Enemessar, so 14 that I was his [t]purveyor. And I went into Media, and left in trust with Gabael, [m]the brother of Gabrias, at [o]Rages ‖a city of [p]Media, ten talents of silver.
15 Now when Enemessar was dead, Sennacherib his son reigned in his stead; [t]whose estate was troubled, that I could 16 not go into [p]Media. And in the time of Enemessar [d]I gave many alms to my brethren, and [q]gave my bread to the 17 hungry, [q]and my clothes to the naked: and if I saw any of my nation dead, or cast ‖about the walls of Nineve, [r]I
18 buried him. And if the king Sennacherib had slain any, when he was come, and [s]fled from Judea, I buried them privily; (for in his wrath he killed many;) but the bodies were not found, when 19 they were sought for of the king. And when one of the Ninevites went and complained of me to the king, that I buried them, and hid myself; understanding that I was sought for to be put to death, I withdrew myself for fear.
20 Then all my goods were forcibly taken away, neither was there any thing left me, besides [t]my wife Anna and my son
21 Tobias. And there passed not five and fifty days, before [u]two of his sons killed him, and they fled into the mountains of [u]Ararath; and ‖[u]Sarchedonus his son reigned in his stead; who appointed over his father's accounts, and over all his affairs, Achiacharus, my brother Anael's 22 son. And Achiacharus intreating for me, I returned to Nineve. Now Achiacharus was [w]cupbearer, and [x]keeper of the signet, and steward, and overseer of the accounts: and ‖Sarchedonus appointed him [y]next unto him: and he was my [z]brother's son.

Now when I was come home again, and my wife Anna was restored unto me, with my son Tobias, in [a] the feast of Pentecost, which is [a] the holy feast of the seven weeks, there was a good dinner prepared me, in the which I sat down to eat. And when I saw abundance of meat, I said to my son, Go and bring what poor man soever thou shalt find out of our brethren, who is mindful of the Lord; and lo, I tarry for thee. But he came again, and said, Father, one of our nation is strangled, and is cast out in the marketplace. Then before I had tasted of any meat, I start up, and took him up into a room until the going down of the sun. Then I returned, and washed myself, and ate my meat in heaviness, remembering that prophecy of Amos, as he said, [b] Your feasts shall be turned into mourning, and all your mirth into lamentation. Therefore I wept: and after the going down of the sun I went and made a grave, and [c] buried him. But my neighbours mocked me, and said, This man is not yet afraid to be put to death for this matter: [d] who fled away; and yet lo, he burieth the dead again.

The same night also I [e] returned from the burial, and slept by the wall of my [f] courtyard, [g] being polluted, and my face was uncovered: and I knew not that there were [‖] sparrows in the wall, and mine eyes being open, the sparrows muted warm dung into mine eyes, and [‖] a whiteness came in mine eyes; and I went to the physicians, but they helped me not: moreover [h] Achiacharus did nourish me, until I went into [i] Elymais. And my wife Anna [‖] did take women's works to do. And when she had sent [‖] them home to the owners, they paid her wages, and gave her also besides a kid. And when it was in mine house, and began to cry, I said unto her, From whence is this kid? is it not stolen? render it to the owners; [k] for it is not lawful to eat any thing that is stolen. But she replied upon me, It was given for a gift more than the wages. Howbeit I did not believe her, but bade her render it to the owners: and I was abashed at her. [l] But she replied upon me, Where are thine alms and [m] thy righteous deeds? [l] behold, thou and all thy works are known.

Then I being grieved did weep, and in my sorrow prayed, saying, [a] O Lord, thou art just, and all thy works and all thy ways are mercy and truth, and thou judgest truly and justly for ever.

Remember me, and look on me, punish me not for my sins and [b] ignorances, and the sins of my fathers, who have sinned before thee: for they obeyed not thy commandments: wherefore thou hast delivered us [c] for a spoil, and unto captivity, and unto death, and for [d] a proverb of reproach to all the nations among whom we are dispersed. And now thy judgments are many and true: deal with me according to my sins and my fathers': because we have not kept thy commandments, neither have walked in truth before thee. Now therefore [e] deal with me as seemeth best unto thee, and [f] command my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be [‖] dissolved, and become earth: [f] for [g] it is profitable for me to die rather than to live, because [h] I have heard false reproaches, and have much sorrow: command therefore that I may now be delivered out of this distress, and go into the everlasting place: [i] turn not thy face away from me.

It came to pass the same day, that in [k] Ecbatane a city of [l] Media Sara the daughter of Raguel was also reproached by her father's maids; because that she had been married to seven husbands, whom [m] Asmodeus the evil spirit had killed, before they had lain with her. Dost thou not know, said they, that thou hast strangled thine husbands? thou hast had already seven husbands, neither wast thou named after any of them. Wherefore dost thou beat us for them? if they be dead, go thy ways after them, let us never see of thee either son or daughter. When she heard these things, she was very sorrowful, so that she thought to have strangled herself; and she said, I am the only daughter of my father, and if I do this, it shall be a reproach unto him, and [n] I shall bring his old age with sorrow unto the grave. Then she prayed [o] toward the window, and said, [oo] Blessed art thou, O Lord my God, and thine holy and glorious name is blessed and honourable for ever: [p] let all thy works praise thee for ever. And now, O Lord, [q] I set mine eyes and my face toward thee, and say, [r] Take me out of the earth, that I may hear no more the reproach. Thou knowest, Lord, that I am pure from all sin with man, and that I never polluted my name, nor the name of my father, in the land of my captivity: I am the only daughter of my father, neither hath he any child to be his heir, neither any near ‖kinsman, nor any son of his alive, to whom I may keep myself for a wife: my seven husbands are already dead; and why should I live? but if it please not thee that I should die, command some regard to be had of me, and pity taken of me, that I hear no more reproach.

So the prayers of them both were heard before the majesty of the great God. And [s]Raphael was sent to heal them both, that is, to [t]scale away the whiteness of Tobit's eyes, and to give Sara the daughter of Raguel for a wife to Tobias the son of Tobit; and to bind [m]Asmodeus the evil spirit; because [u]she belongeth to Tobias by right of inheritance. [x]The selfsame time came Tobit home, and entered into his house, and Sara the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

IV.

In that day Tobit remembered [a]the money which he had committed to Gabael in Rages of Media, and said with himself, [b]I have wished for death; wherefore do I not call for my son Tobias, that I may signify to him of the money before I die? And when he had called him, he said,

My son, when I am dead, bury me; and [c]despise not thy mother, [d]but honour her all the days of thy life, and do that which shall please her, and grieve her not. Remember, my son, that she saw many dangers for thee, when thou wast in her womb; and when she is dead, bury her by me in one grave. My son, be mindful of the Lord our God all thy days, and [e]let not thy will be set to sin, or to transgress his commandments: do uprightly all thy life long, and follow not the ways of unrighteousness. For if thou deal truly, thy doings shall prosperously succeed to thee, and to all them that live justly.

[f]Give alms of thy substance; and when thou givest alms, [g]let not thine eye be envious, [h]neither turn thy face from any poor, and [i]the face of God shall not be turned away from thee. [j]If thou hast abundance, give alms accordingly: if thou have but a little, be not afraid to give according to that little: for thou [k]layest up a good treasure for thyself against the day of necessity. Because that [l]alms doth deliver from death, and suffereth not to come into darkness. For alms is a good gift unto all that give it, in the sight of the most High. [m]Beware of all whoredom, my son, and chiefly take a wife of the seed of thy fathers, and take not a strange woman to wife, which is not of thy father's tribe: for we are the children of the [n]prophets, Noe, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: remember, my son, that our fathers from the beginning, even that they all married wives of their own kindred, and were blessed in their children, and their seed shall inherit the land. Now therefore, my son, love thy brethren, and despise not in thy heart thy brethren, the sons and daughters of thy people, in not taking a wife of them: for [o]in pride is destruction and much trouble, and in [p]lewdness is decay and great want: for [pq]lewdness is the mother of famine. [r]Let not the wages of any man, which hath wrought for thee, tarry with thee, but give him it out of hand: for if thou serve God, he will also repay thee: be [s]circumspect, my son, in all things thou doest, and be wise [t]in all thy conversation. [u]Do that to no man which thou hatest: [x]drink not wine to make thee drunken: neither let drunkenness go with thee in thy journey. [y]Give of thy bread to the hungry, and of thy garments to them that are naked; and [z]according to thine abundance give alms; and [a]let not thine eye be envious, when thou givest alms. [b]Pour out thy bread on the burial of the just, but give nothing to the wicked. Ask counsel of all that are wise, and despise not any counsel that is profitable. Bless the Lord thy God alway, and desire of him that [c]thy ways may be directed, and that all thy paths and counsels may prosper: for every nation hath not counsel; but [d]the Lord himself giveth all good things, and he humbleth whom he will, as he will; now therefore, my son, remember my commandments, neither let them be put out of thy mind. And now I signify this to thee, that I committed ten talents to Gabael ‖the son of Gabrias at Rages in Media. And fear not, my son, that [e]we are made poor: for [f]thou hast much wealth, if thou fear God, and depart from all sin, and do that which is pleasing in his sight.

Then he gave him [a]the handwriting, and said unto him, Seek thee a man which may go with thee, whiles I yet live, and I will give him wages: and go and receive the money. Therefore when he went to seek a man, he found [aa]Raphael that was an angel. But he knew not; and he said unto him, Canst thou go with me to [b]Rages? and knowest thou those places well? To whom the angel said, I will go with thee, and I know the way well: for I have lodged with our brother Gabael. Then Tobias said unto him, Tarry for me, till I tell my father. Then he said unto him, Go, and tarry not. So he went in and said to his father, Behold, I have found one which will go with me. Then he said, Call him unto me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trusty man to go with thee. So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another. Then Tobit said unto him, Brother, shew me of what tribe and family thou art. To whom he said, Dost thou seek for a tribe or family, or a hired man to go with thy son? Then Tobit said unto him, I would know, brother, thy kindred and name. Then he said, I am Azarias, the son of Ananias the great, and of thy brethren. Then Tobit said, [bb]Thou art welcome, brother; be not now angry with me, because I have inquired to know thy tribe and thy family; for thou art my brother, of [c]an honest and good stock: for I know Ananias and Jonathas, sons of that great Samaias, [d]as we went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the firstborn, and the tenths of the fruits; and they were not seduced [e]with the error of our brethren: my brother, thou art of a good stock. But tell me, what wages shall I give thee? wilt thou [f]a drachm a day, and things necessary, as to my own son? Yea, moreover, if ye return safe, I will add something to thy wages. So they were well pleased. Then said he to Tobias, Prepare thyself for the journey, and God send you a good journey. And when his son had prepared all things for the journey, his father said, Go thou with this man, and God, which dwelleth in heaven, prosper your journey, and the angel of God keep you company. So they went forth both, and [g]the young man's dog with them.

But Anna his mother wept, and [h]said to Tobit, Why hast thou sent away our son? is he not the staff of our hand, [i]in going in and out before us? [‖]Be not greedy to add money to money: but let it be as refuse in respect of our child. [‖]For that which the Lord hath given us to live with, doth suffice us. Then said Tobit to her, Take no care, [l]my sister; he shall return in safety, and thine eyes shall see him. For [m]the good angel will keep him company, and his journey shall be prosperous, and he shall return safe. Then she made an end of weeping.

And as they went on their journey, they came in the evening to the river [a]Tigris, and they lodged there. And when the young man went down to wash himself, a fish leaped out of the river, and would have devoured him. Then the angel said unto him, Take the fish. And the young man laid hold of the fish, and [‖]drew it to land. To whom the angel said, Open the fish, and take the heart and the liver and the gall, and put them up safely. So the young man did as the angel commanded him; and when they had roasted the fish, they did eat it: then they both went on their way, till they drew near to [b]Ecbatane. Then the young man said to the angel, Brother Azarias, to what use is the heart and the liver and the gall of the fish? And he said unto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a devil or an [c]evil spirit trouble any, we must make a smoke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shall be no more vexed. As for the gall, it is good [cc]to anoint a man that hath whiteness in his eyes, and he shall be healed.

And when they were come near to [d]Rages, the angel said to the young man, Brother, to day we shall lodge with [e]Raguel, who is thy cousin; he also hath [f]one only daughter, named Sara; I will speak for her, that she may be given thee for a wife. For to thee doth the [‖g]right of her appertain, seeing thou art only of her kindred. And the maid is fair and wise: now therefore hear me, and I will speak to her father; and when we return from [d]Rages we will celebrate the marriage: for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another according [g]to the law of Moses, but [h]he shall be guilty of death, because the right of inheritance doth rather appertain to thee than to any other. way, praising God that he had given him a prosperous journey, and blessed Raguel and Edna his wife, and went on his way till they drew near unto Nineve.
2 Then [a]Raphael said to Tobias, Thou thy father: let us haste before thy wife, and prepare the house. And take in thine hand [b] the gall of the fish. So they went their way, and [c] the dog went after them. Now [d] Anna sat looking about towards the way for her son. And when she espied him coming, she said to his father, Behold, thy son cometh, and the man that went with him. Then said [a] Raphael, I know, Tobias, that thy father will open his eyes. Therefore anoint thou his eyes with [b] the gall, and being pricked therewith, he shall rub, and the whiteness shall fall away, and he shall see thee. Then Anna ran forth, and [e] fell upon the neck of her son, and said unto him, Seeing I have seen thee, my son, from henceforth I am content to die. And they wept both. Tobit also went forth toward the door, and stumbled: but his son ran unto him, and took hold of his father: and he strake of [b] the gall on his father's eyes, saying, [f] Be of good hope, my father. And when his eyes began to smart, he rubbed them; and the whiteness [g] pilled away from the corners of his eyes: and when he saw his son, [e] he fell upon his neck. And he wept, and said, [h] Blessed art thou, O God, and blessed is thy name for ever; and blessed are all thy [i] holy angels: for [k] thou hast scourged, and hast taken pity on me: for behold, I see my son Tobias. And his son went in rejoicing, and told his father the great things that had happened to him in Media. Then Tobit went out to meet his daughter in law at the gate of Nineve, rejoicing, and praising God: and they which saw him go marvelled, because he had received his sight. But Tobit gave thanks before them, because God had mercy on him. And when he came near to Sara his daughter in law, he blessed her, saying, [l] Thou art welcome, daughter: [h] God be blessed, which hath brought thee unto us, and blessed be thy father and thy mother. And there was joy amongst all his brethren which were at Nineve. And [m] Achiacharus, [l] and Nasbas his [n] brother's son, came: and Tobias' [o] wedding was kept [p] seven days with great joy.

XII.

Then Tobit called his son Tobias, and said unto him, My son, see that the man have [a] his wages, which went with thee, and thou must give him more. And Tobias said unto him, O father, it is no harm to me to give him half [b] of those things which I have brought: for he hath [c] brought me again to thee in safety, and [d] made whole my wife, and [e] brought me the money, and [f] likewise healed thee. Then the old man said, It is due unto him. So he called the angel, and he said unto him, Take half of all that ye have brought, and go away in safety. Then he took them both apart, and said unto them, Bless God, [g] praise him, and magnify him, and [g] praise him for the things which he hath done unto you in the sight of all that live. It is good to praise God, and exalt his name, and [‖] honourably to shew forth the works of God; therefore be not slack to praise him. [h] It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but it is honourable to reveal the works of God. [i] Do that which is good, and no evil shall touch you. [j] Prayer is good with fasting and [k] alms and [k] righteousness. [l] A little with righteousness is better than much with unrighteousness. It is better to give alms than to lay up gold: [m] for alms doth deliver from death, and shall purge away all sin. [k] Those that exercise alms and righteousness shall be filled with life: but [n] they that sin are enemies to their own life. Surely I will keep close nothing from you. For I said, [h] It was good to keep close the secret of a king, but that it was honourable to reveal the works of God. Now therefore, when [o] thou didst pray, and [p] Sara thy daughter in law, [q] I did bring the remembrance of your prayers before the Holy One: and [r] when thou didst bury the dead, I was with thee likewise. And [s] when thou didst not delay to rise up, and leave thy dinner, [†] to go and cover the dead, thy good deed was not hid from me: but I was with thee. And now God hath sent me to heal [f] thee and [d] Sara thy daughter in law. I am [t] Raphael, one of [u] the seven [v] holy angels, [w] which present the prayers of the saints, and [x] which go in and out before the glory of the Holy One.

Then they were [y] both troubled, and [z] fell upon their faces: for they feared. But he said unto them, Fear not, for it shall go well with you; praise God therefore. For not of any favour of mine, but by the will of our God I came; wherefore praise him for ever. All these days I did appear unto you; but [a] I did neither eat nor drink, but aged, and am ready to depart out of this life. Go into [b] Media, my son, for I surely believe those things which [c] Jonas the prophet spake of Nineve, that it shall be overthrown; and that for a time peace shall rather be in Media; and that [d] our brethren shall lie scattered in the earth from that good land: and [d] Jerusalem shall be desolate, and [d] the house of God in it shall be burned, and shall be desolate for a time; and that again God will have mercy on them, and bring them again into the land, where [e] they shall build a temple, but [f] not like to the first, until the time of that age be fulfilled; and [g] afterward they shall return from all places of their captivity, and build up Jerusalem gloriously, and the house of God shall be built in it [i] for ever with a glorious building, as the prophets have spoken thereof. And [h] all nations shall turn, and fear the Lord God truly, and [i] shall bury their idols. So shall all nations praise the Lord, and his people shall [a] confess God, and the Lord shall exalt his people; and all [k] those which love the Lord God in truth and justice shall rejoice, shewing mercy to our brethren. And now, my son, depart out of Nineve, because that those things which [c] the prophet Jonas spake shall surely come to pass. But keep thou the law and the commandments, and shew thyself merciful and just, [l] that it may go well with thee. And bury me decently, and thy mother with me; but tarry no longer at Nineve. Remember, my son, how Aman handled [m] Achiacharus that brought him up, how [n] out of light he brought him into darkness, and how he rewarded him again: yet Achiacharus was [o] saved, but the other had his reward: for he went down into darkness. [o] Manasses gave alms, and escaped the snares of death [o] which they had set for him: but Aman fell into the snare, and perished. Wherefore now, my son, consider [o] what alms doeth, and how righteousness doth deliver.

When he had said these things, he gave up the ghost in the bed, [p] being an hundred and eight and fifty years old; and [q] he buried him honourably. And when Anna his mother was dead, he buried her with his father. But Tobias departed with his wife and children to [q] Ecbatane to Raguel his father in law, where he became old with honour, and he buried his father and mother in law honourably, and he [q] inherited their substance, and his father Tobit's. And he died at [q] Ecbatane in [b] Media, being an hundred and seven and twenty years old. But before he died he heard of the destruction of Nineve, which was taken by Nabuchodonosor and [r] Assuerus: and before his death he rejoiced over Nineve.

JUDITH.

I.

IN the twelfth year of the reign of [a] Nabuchodonosor, who reigned in Nineve, [b] the great city; in the days of Arphaxad, which reigned over the [c] Medes in [d] Ecbatane, and built in Ecbatane walls round about of stones hewn three cubits broad and six cubits long, and made the height of the wall seventy cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits: and set the towers thereof upon the gates of it, an hundred cubits high, and the breadth thereof in the foundation threescore cubits: and he made the gates thereof, even gates that were raised to the height of seventy cubits, and the breadth of them was forty cubits, for the going forth of his mighty armies, and for the setting in array of his footmen: even in those days king Nabuchodonosor made war with king Arphaxad in the great plain, which is the plain in the borders of [e] Ragau. And there came unto him all they that dwelt in the hill country, and all that dwelt by Euphrates, and [f] Tigris, and Hydaspes, and the plain of Arioch the king of the [g] Elymeans, and very many nations of the sons of Chelod, assembled themselves to the battle. Then Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians sent unto all that dwelt in [h] Persia, and to all that dwelt westward, and to those that dwelt in [i] Cilicia, and [j] Damascus, and [k] Libanus, and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt upon the sea coast, and to those amongst the nations that were of [l] Carmel, and [m] Galaad, and [n] the higher Galilee, and the great plain of [o] Esdrelom, and to all that were in [p] Samaria and the cities thereof, and beyond Jordan unto Jerusalem, and Betane, and [q] Chellus, and [r] Kades, and [s] the river of Egypt, and Taphnes, and [t] Ramesse, and all the land of [u] Gesem, until you come beyond [w] Tanis and [x] Memphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt, until you come to the borders of [y] Ethiopia. But all the inhabitants of the land [z] made light of the commandment of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, neither went they with him to the battle; for they were not afraid of him: yea, he was before them as one man, and they sent away his ambassadors from them without effect, and with disgrace. Therefore Nabuchodonosor was very angry with all this country, and sware by his throne and kingdom, that he would surely be avenged upon all those coasts of [i] Cilicia, and [j] Damascus, and [a] Syria, and that he would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of [b] Moab, and the children of [c] Ammon, and all Judea, and all that were in Egypt, till you come to the borders of [d] the two seas. Then he marched in battle array with his power against king Arphaxad [dd] in the seventeenth year, and he prevailed in his battle: for he overthrew all the power of Arphaxad, and all his horsemen, and all his chariots. And became lord of his cities, and came unto [e] Ecbatane, and took [f] the towers, and spoiled the streets thereof, and turned the beauty thereof into shame. He took also Arphaxad in the mountains of [g] Ragau, and smote him through with his darts, and destroyed him utterly that day. So he returned afterward to Nineve, both he and all his [h] company of sundry nations, being a very great multitude of men of war, and there he took his ease, and banqueted, both he and his army, an hundred and twenty days.

And [a] in the eighteenth year, the two and twentieth day of the first month, there was talk in the house of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, that he should, [b] as he said, avenge himself on all the earth. So he called unto him all his officers, and all his [c] nobles, and communicated with them his secret counsel, and [d]concluded the affliction of the whole earth out of his own mouth. Then they decreed to destroy all flesh, [dd]that did not obey the commandment of his mouth. And when he had ended his counsel, Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians called Olofernes the chief captain of his army, which was [f]next unto him, and said unto him,

Thus saith [e]the great king, the lord of the whole earth, Behold, thou shalt go forth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their own strength, of footmen an hundred and twenty thousand; and the number of horses with their riders twelve thousand. And thou shalt go against all the west country, because [d]they disobeyed my commandment. And thou shalt declare unto them, that they prepare for me [g]earth and water: for I will go forth in my wrath against them, and will cover the whole face of the earth with the feet of mine army, and I will give them for a spoil unto them: so that their slain shall fill their valleys and brooks, and the river shall be filled with their dead, till it overflow: and I will lead them captives to the utmost parts of all the earth. Thou therefore shalt go forth, and take beforehand for me all their coasts: and if they will yield themselves unto thee, thou shalt reserve them for me till the day of their punishment. But concerning them that rebel, [f]let not thine eye spare them; but put them to the slaughter, and spoil them wheresoever thou goest. For [g]as I live, and by the power of my kingdom, whatsoever I have spoken, that will I do by mine hand. And take thou heed that thou transgress none of the commandments of thy lord, but accomplish them fully, as I have commanded thee, and defer not to do them.

Then Olofernes went forth from the presence of his lord, and called all the [h]governors and captains, and the officers of the army of Assur; and he mustered the chosen men for the [i]battle, as his lord had commanded him, [j]unto an hundred and twenty thousand, and twelve thousand archers on horseback; and he ranged them, as a great army is ordered for the war. And he took [jj]camels and asses for their [k]carriages, a very great number; and sheep and oxen and goats without number for their provision: and plenty of victual for every man of the army, and very much gold and silver out of the king's house. Then he went forth and all his power to go before king Nabuchodonosor in the voyage, and [l]to cover all the face of the earth westward with their chariots, and horsemen, and their chosen footmen. A great multitude also [m]of sundry countries came with them like [n]locusts, and [o]like the sand of the earth: for the multitude was without number. And they went forth of Nineve three days' journey toward the plain of Bectileth, and pitched from Bectileth near the mountain which is at the left hand of the upper [p]Cilicia. Then he took all his army, his footmen, and horsemen, and chariots, and went from thence into the hill country; and destroyed [q]Phud and [q]Lud, and spoiled all the children of Rasses, and [r]the children of Ismael, which were toward the wilderness at the south of the land of the [s]Chellians. Then he went over Euphrates, and went through [t]Mesopotamia, and destroyed all the high cities that were upon the river Arbonai, till you come to the sea. And he took the borders of [p]Cilicia, and killed all that resisted him, and came to [u]the borders of Japheth, which were toward the south, over against Arabia. He compassed also all the children of [v]Madian, and burnt up their tabernacles, and spoiled their sheepcotes. Then he went down into the plain of [w]Damascus in the time of wheat harvest, and burnt up all their fields, and destroyed their flocks and herds, also he spoiled their cities, and [x]utterly wasted their countries, and smote all their young men with [y]the edge of the sword. Therefore the fear and dread of him fell upon all the inhabitants of the sea coasts, which were in [z]Sidon and Tyrus, and them that dwelt in Sur and Ocina, and all that dwelt in [a]Jemnaan; and they that dwelt in [b]Azotus and [c]Ascalon feared him greatly.

So they sent ambassadors unto him to treat of peace, saying, Behold, we the servants of Nabuchodonosor [a]the great king lie before thee; use us as shall be good in thy sight. Behold, our houses, and all our places, and all [b]our fields of wheat, and flocks, and herds, and all the lodges of our tents, lie before thy face; use them as it pleaseth thee. Behold, even our cities and the inhabitants thereof are thy servants; come and deal with them as seemeth good unto thee. So the men came to Olofernes, and declared unto him after this manner. Then came he down toward [c]the sea coast, both he and his army, and set garrisons in the high cities, and took out of them chosen men for aid. So they and all the country round about received them [d]with garlands, [e]with dances, and with [e]timbrels. Yet he did cast down their frontiers, and [f]cut down their groves: for he had decreed to destroy all the gods of the land, that all nations should worship Nabuchodonosor only, and that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as god. Also he came over against [g]Esdraelon near unto [g]Judea, over against the [h]great strait of Judea. And he pitched between [i]Geba and [j]Scythopolis, and there he tarried a whole month, that he might gather together all the [k]carriages of his army.

IV.

Now the children of Israel, that dwelt in Judea, heard all that Olofernes the chief captain of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians had done to the nations, and after what manner he had spoiled all their temples, and brought them to nought. Therefore they were exceedingly afraid of him, and were troubled for Jerusalem, and for the temple of the Lord their God: [a]for they were newly returned from the captivity, and all the people [g]of Judea were lately gathered together: and the vessels, and [b]the altar, and [b]the house, were sanctified after the profanation. Therefore they sent into all the coasts of [c]Samaria, and the villages, and to [d]Bethoron, and Belmen, and Jericho, and to [e]Choba, and Esora, and to the valley of [f]Salem: and [g]possessed themselves beforehand of all the tops of the high mountains, and fortified the villages that were in them, and laid up victuals for the provision of war: for [h]their fields were of late reaped. Also [i]Joacim the high priest, which was in those days in Jerusalem, wrote to them that dwelt in [j]Bethulia, and [k]Betomestham, which is over against [l]Esdraelon toward the [g]open country near to [l]Dothaim, charging them to keep [m]the passages of the hill country: for by them there was an entrance into Judea, and it was easy to stop them that would come up, because the passage was strait, [n]for two men at the most. And the children of Israel did as [i]Joacim the high priest had commanded them, with the [o]ancients of all the people of Israel, which dwelt at Jerusalem.

Then every man of Israel cried to God with great [p]fervency, and with great [p]vehemency did they humble their souls: both they, and their wives, and their children, and their cattle, and every stranger and hireling, and their servants bought with money, [q]put sackcloth upon their loins. Thus every man and woman, and the little children, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, [r]fell before the temple, and [s]cast ashes upon their heads, and [t]spread out their sackcloth before the face of the Lord: also they put sackcloth about the altar, and cried to the God of Israel all with one consent earnestly, that he would not give their children for a prey, and their wives [u]for a spoil, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the sanctuary to profanation, and reproach, and for the nations to rejoice at. So God heard their prayers, and [v]looked upon their afflictions: for the people fasted many days in all Judea and Jerusalem [w]before the sanctuary of the Lord [x]Almighty. And [i]Joacim the high priest, and all the priests that stood before the Lord, and they which ministered unto the Lord, [q]had their loins girt with sackcloth, and [y]offered the daily burnt offerings, with the vows and free gifts of the people, and [s]had ashes on their [z]mitres, and cried unto the Lord with all their power, that he would look upon all the house of Israel graciously.

V.

Then was it declared to Olofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, that the children of Israel had prepared for war, and had shut up [a]the passages of the hill country, and had fortified [b]all [b]the tops of the high hills, and had laid [bb]impediments in the champian countries: wherewith he was very angry, and called all the princes of [c]Moab, and the captains of [c]Ammon, and all the governors of [d]the sea coast, and he said unto them, Tell me now, ye sons of Canaan, who this people is, that dwelleth in the hill country, and what are the cities that they inhabit, and what is the multitude of their army, and wherein is their power and strength, and what king is set over them, or captain of their army; and why have they determined not to come and meet me, more than all the inhabitants of the west? Then said [e]Achior, the captain of all the sons of [c]Ammon,

Let my lord now hear a word from the mouth of thy servant, and I will declare unto thee the truth concerning this people, which dwelleth near thee, and inhabiteth the hill countries: and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy servant. This people are descended of the Chaldeans: and [f]they sojourned heretofore in [g]Mesopotamia, because [h]they would not follow the gods of their fathers, which were in the land of Chaldea. For they [i]left the way of their ancestors, and worshipped [j]the God of heaven, the God whom they knew: so they cast them out from the face of their gods, and they fled into [g]Mesopotamia, and sojourned there many days. Then [j]their God commanded them to depart from the place where they sojourned, and to go into the land of Canaan: where they dwelt, and [k]were increased with gold and silver, and with very much cattle. But when a famine covered all the land of Canaan, [l]they went down into Egypt, and sojourned there, while they were nourished, and [m]became there a great multitude, so that one could not number their nation. Therefore [n]the king of Egypt rose up against them, and [o]dealt subtilly with them, and brought them low with labouring in brick, and made them slaves. [p]Then they cried unto their God, and [q]he smote all the land of Egypt with incurable plagues: so [r]the Egyptians cast them out of their sight. And [s]God dried the Red sea before them, and [t]brought them to mount Sina, and [u]Cades-Barne, and cast forth all that dwelt in the wilderness. [x]So they dwelt in the land of the Amorites, and they destroyed by their strength all them of [x]Esebon, and [y]passing over Jordan they possessed [z]all the hill country. And they cast forth before them the [a]Canaanite, the [a]Pherezite, the [a]Jebusite, and the [ab]Sychemite, and all the [c]Gergesites, and they dwelt in that country many days. And whilst they sinned not before their God, they prospered, because the [d]God that hateth iniquity was with them. But [e]when they departed from the way which he appointed them, they were destroyed in many battles very sore, and [f]were led captives into a land that was not theirs, and the temple of their God was cast to the ground, and their cities were taken by the enemies. But now are they returned to their God, and [g]are come up from the places where they were scattered, and have possessed Jerusalem, where their sanctuary is, and [ll]are seated in the hill country; for it was desolate. Now therefore, my lord and governor, if there be any error in this people, and they sin against their God, let us consider that this shall be their [h]ruin, and let us go up, and we shall overcome them. But if there be no iniquity in their nation, let my lord now pass by, lest their Lord defend them, and their God be for them, and we become a reproach before all the world.

And when Achior had finished these sayings, all the people standing round about the tent murmured, and the [i]chief men of Olofernes, and all that dwelt by [ii]the sea side, and in [ii]Moab, spake that he should kill him. For, [j]say they, we will not be afraid of the face of the children of Israel: for lo, it is a people that have no strength nor power [l]for a strong [k]battle. Now therefore, lord Olofernes, we will go up, and they shall be [l]a prey to be devoured of all thine army. And when the tumult of men that were about the council was ceased, Olofernes the chief captain of the army of Assur said unto Achior and all the [a]Moabites before all the company of other nations,

And who art thou, Achior, and [b]the hirelings of Ephraim, that thou hast prophesied amongst us as to day, and hast said, that we should not make war with the people of Israel, [c]because their God will defend them? and who is God but Nabuchodonosor? He will send his power, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and [d]their God shall not deliver them: but we his servants will destroy them as one man; for they are not able to sustain the power of our horses. For with them we will tread them under foot, and their mountains [e]shall be drunken with their blood, and their fields shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their footsteps shall not be able to stand before us, for they shall utterly perish, saith king Nabuchodonosor, lord of all the earth; for he said, None of my words shall be in vain. And thou, Achior, [b]a hireling of [f]Ammon, which hast spoken these words in the day of thine iniquity, shalt see my face no more from this day, until I take vengeance of this nation [g]that came out of Egypt. And then shall the sword of

Then Olofernes commanded his ser- 10

less having gotten privily under the hill, they bound Achior, and cast him down, and left him at the foot of the hill, and returned to their lord. But the Israelites 14 descended from their city, and came unto him, and loosed him, and brought him into Bethulia, and presented him to the governors of the city: which were 15 in those days Ozias the son of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, and Chabris the son of Gothoniel, and Charmis the son of Melchiel. And they called together all 16

[n] the ancients of the city, and all their youth ran together, and their women, to the assembly, and they set Achior in the midst of all their people. Then Ozias asked him of that which was done. And 17 he answered and declared unto them the words of [o] the council of Olofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the midst of the princes of Assur, and whatsoever Olofernes had spoken proudly against the house of Israel. Then the 18 people fell down and worshipped God, and cried unto God, saying, O Lord 19

[q] So Ps. 84. 9. and [q] look upon the face of those that are sanctified unto thee this day. Then they comforted Achior, and praised 20 him greatly. And Ozias took him out 21 of the assembly unto his house, and [r] made a feast to [n] the elders; and they 12

they saw the multitude of them, were greatly troubled, and said every one to his neighbour, Now will these men [g] lick up the face of the earth; for neither the high mountains, nor the valleys, nor the 5 hills, are able to bear their weight. Then every man took up his weapons of war, and when they had kindled fires upon their towers, they remained and watched 6 all that night. But in the second day Olofernes brought forth all his horsemen in the sight of the children of Israel 7 which were in Bethulia, and viewed [a] the passages up to the city, and came to [c] the fountains of their waters, and took them, and set [h] garrisons of men of war that there be not an overthrow in thine 10 army. For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their spears, but in the height of the mountains wherein they dwell, because it is not easy to come up to the tops of their mountains. 11

Now therefore, my lord, fight not against them in battle [m] array, and there shall not so much as one man of thy people perish. 12 Remain in thy camp, and keep all the men of thine army, and let thy servants get into their hands [c] the fountain of water, which issueth forth of the foot of the mountain: for all the inhabitants of 13 Bethulia have their water thence; so shall thirst kill them, and they shall give up their city, and we and our people shall go up to the tops of the mountains that are near, and will camp upon them, to watch that none go out of the city. So 14 they and their wives and their children shall be consumed with famine, and before the sword come against them, they shall be overthrown in the streets where they dwell. Thus shalt thou render them 15 an evil reward; because they rebelled, and met not thy person peaceably.

And these words pleased Olo- 16 fernes and all his servants, and he appointed to do as they had spoken. So 17 the [h]camp of the children of [m]Ammon departed, and with them five thousand of the Assyrians, and they pitched in the valley, and took the waters, and [c]the fountains of the waters of the children of Israel. Then [i]the children of Esau 18 went up with the children of [m]Ammon, and camped in the hill country over against [d]Dothaim: and they sent some of them toward the south, and toward the east, over against Ekrebel, which is near unto Chusi, that is upon the brook Mochmur; and the rest of the army of the Assyrians camped in the plain, and [n]covered the face of the whole land; and their tents and [o]carriages were pitched to a very great multitude. Then the 19 children of Israel cried unto the Lord their God, because their heart failed, for all their enemies had compassed them round about, and there was no way to escape out from among them. Thus all 20 the [h]company of Assur remained about them, both their footmen, chariots, and horsemen, four and thirty days, so that all their vessels of water failed all the inhabitants of Bethulia. And the [‖p]cis- 21 terns were emptied, and they had not water to drink their fill for one day; for they gave them drink [q]by measure. Therefore their young children were out 22 of heart, and their women and young men [r]fainted for thirst, and fell down in the streets of the city, and by the passages of the gates, and there was no longer any strength in them.

Then all the people assembled to 23 [s]Ozias, and to the chief of the city, both young men, and women, and children, and cried with a loud voice, and said before all [t]the elders. [u]God 24 be judge between us and you: for you have done us great injury, in that you have not required peace of the children 25 of Assur. For now we have no helper: but [x]God hath sold us into their hands, that we should be thrown down before them with thirst and great destruction. 26 Now therefore call them unto you, and deliver the whole city [y]for a spoil to the people of Olofernes, and to all his army. 27 For it is better for us to be made a spoil unto them, than to die for thirst: for we will be his servants, that our souls may live, and not see the death of our infants before our eyes, nor our wives nor our 28 children to die. [z]We take to witness against you the heaven and the earth, and our God and Lord of our fathers, which punisheth us according to our sins and [a]the sins of our fathers, [‖]that he do not [b]according as we have said this 29 day. Then there was great weeping with one consent in the midst of the assembly; and they cried unto 30 the Lord God with a loud voice. Then said Ozias to them, Brethren, be of good courage, [c]let us yet endure five days, in the which space the Lord our God may turn his mercy toward us; for he will 31 not forsake us [d]utterly. And if these days pass, and there come no help unto us, I will do [e]according to your word. 32 And he dispersed the people, every one to their own charge; and they went unto the walls and towers of their city, and sent the women and children into their houses: and they were very low brought in the city.

Now at that time Judith heard thereof, which was the daughter of Merari, the son of Ox, the son of Joseph, the son of Oziel, the son of Elcia, the son of Ananias, the son of Gedeon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Acitho, the son of Eliu, the son of Eliab, the son of Nathanael, the son of [‖]Samael, the son 2 of Salasadai, [a]the son of Israel. And Manasses was her husband, of her tribe and kindred, who died in [b]the barley 3 harvest. For as he stood overseeing them that bound sheaves in the field, [c]the heat came upon his head, and he fell on his bed, and died in the city of Bethulia: and they buried him with his fathers in the field between [d]Dothaim 4 and [e]Balamo. So Judith was a widow in her house three years and [f]four 5 months. And she made her a tent upon [g]the top of her house, and [h]put on sackcloth upon her loins, and ware

[i] her widow's apparel. And she fasted 6 all the days of her widowhood, save [k] the eves of the sabbath, and [l] the sabbaths, and the eves of the new moons, and [l] the new moons, and the feasts and solemn days of the house of Israel. She was also of a goodly 7 countenance, and very beautiful to behold: and her husband Manasses had left her gold, and silver, and men-servants, and maidservants, and cattle, and lands; [l] and she remained upon them. And there was none that gave 8 her an ill word; for she feared God greatly. Now when she heard the evil 9 words of the people against the governor, [m] that they fainted for lack of water (for Judith had heard [n] all the words that Ozias had spoken unto them, and [n] that he had sworn to deliver the city unto the Assyrians after five days;) then she sent her waiting 10 woman, that had the government of all things that she had, to call [o] Ozias and Chabris and Charmis, [p] the ancients of the city. And they came unto her, and 11
she said unto them,

Hear me now, O ye governors of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your words that you have spoken before the people this day are not right, touching this oath which ye made and pronounced between God and you, and have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, unless within these days the Lord turn to help you. And now who are 12 you [q] that have tempted God this day, and stand instead of God amongst the children of men? And now try the 13
Lord [r] Almighty, but you shall never know any thing. For [s] you cannot find 14 the depth of the heart of man, neither can ye perceive the things that he thinketh: then how can you search out God, that hath made all these things, and [t] know his mind, or comprehend his purpose? Nay, my brethren, [u] provoke not the Lord our God to anger. For if he will not help us within these 15 five days, he hath power to defend us when he will, even every day, or to destroy us before our enemies. Do not 16 [l] bind the counsels of the Lord our God: for [x] God is not as man, that he may be threatened; [x] neither is he as the son of man, that he should be wavering. Therefore let us wait for 17 salvation of him, and call upon him to help us, and he will hear our voice, if it please him. For there arose none 18 in our age, neither is there any now in these days, neither tribe, nor family, nor [l] people, nor city, among us, which worship gods made with hands, [y] as hath been aforetime. For the which 19 cause our fathers were given to the sword, and for a spoil, and had a great fall before our enemies. But we know 20 none other god, therefore we trust that he will not despise us, nor any of our nation. For if we be taken, so all 21
Judea shall lie waste, and our sanctuary shall be spoiled; and he will require the profanation thereof at our mouth.
And the [l] slaughter of our brethren, and 22
the captivity of the country, and the desolation of our inheritance, will he turn upon our heads among the Gentiles, wheresoever we shall be in bondage; and we shall be [z] an offence and a reproach to all them that possess us.
For our servitude shall not be directed 23 to favour: but the Lord our God shall turn it to dishonour. Now therefore, 24
O brethren, let us shew an example to our brethren, because their hearts depend upon us, and the sanctuary, and the house, and the altar, rest upon us.
Moreover let us give thanks to the 25
Lord our God, which trieth us, even as he did our fathers. Remember what 26 things he did to [a] Abraham, and how he tried [a] Isaac, and [b] what happened to Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, when he kept the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. For he hath not tried 27 us in the fire, as he did them, for the examination of their hearts, neither hath he taken vengeance on us: but [c] the Lord doth scourge them that come near unto him, to admonish them.
Then said Ozias to her, All that 28 thou hast spoken hast thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that may gainsay thy words. For this is not the 29 first day wherein thy wisdom is manifested; but from the beginning of thy days all the people have known thy understanding, because the disposition of thine heart is good. But [d] the peo- 30 ple were very thirsty, and compelled us to do unto them as we have spoken, and to bring an oath upon ourselves, which we will not break. Therefore 31 now pray thou for us, because thou art a godly woman, and the Lord will send us rain to fill our [e] cisterns, and we

Then Judith [a] fell upon her face, and [a] put ashes upon her head, and uncoclothed; and about [c] the time that the incense of that evening was offered in Jerusalem in the house of the Lord, Judith cried with a loud voice, and said, O Lord God of my father 2 Simeon, [d] to whom thou gavest a sword to take vengeance of the strangers, who loosened the girdle of a maid to defile her, and discovered the thigh to her shame, and polluted her virginity to her reproach; for thou saidst, [e] It shall not be so; and yet they did so: wherefore 3 thou gavest their rulers to be slain, so that they dyed their bed in blood, being deceived, and smotest the servants with their lords, and the lords upon their thrones; and [f] hast given their wives 4 [g] for a prey, and [f] their daughters to be captives, and all [f] their spoils to be divided amongst thy dear children; which [h] were moved with thy zeal, and abhor-called upon thee for aid: O God, O my God, hear me also a widow. For thou 5 hast wrought not only those things, but also the things which fell out before, and which ensued after; thou hast thought upon the things which are now, and which are to come. Yea, what things 6 thou didst determine were ready at hand, and said, Lo, we are here: for all thy ways are prepared, and thy judgments are in thy foreknowledge.

the eyes of all men that should see her. Then she gave her maid a bottle of 5 wine, and [i] a cruse of oil, and filled a bag with parched corn, and [j] lumps of figs, and with fine bread; so she [l] folded all these things together, and laid them upon her. Thus they went forth to 6 the gate of the city of Bethulia, and [k] found standing there Ozias, and [l] the ancients of the city, Chabris and Charmis. And when they saw her, that her 7 countenance was altered, and her apparel was changed, they wondered at her beauty very greatly, and said unto her, The God, the God of our fathers, 8 give thee favour, and accomplish thine [m] enterprises to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Jerusalem. Then they worshipped God. And she said unto them, Command the 9 gates of the city to be opened unto me, that I may go forth to accomplish the things whereof you have spoken with me. So they commanded the young men to open unto her, as she had spoken. And when they had done so, 10 Judith went out, she, and her maid with her; and the men of the city looked after her, until she was gone down the mountain, and till she had passed the valley, and could see her no more.

Thus they went straight forth in the 11 valley: and the [mm] first watch of the Assyrians met her, and took her, and 12 asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? And she said, I am a woman of the Hebrews, and am fled from them: for they shall be given you [n] to be consumed: and I am coming before 13 Olofernes the chief captain of your army, to declare words of truth; and I will shew him a way, whereby he shall go, and win all the hill country, without losing the body or life of any one of his men. Now when the men 14 heard her words, and beheld her countenance, they wondered greatly at her beauty, and said unto her, Thou hast 15 saved thy life, in that thou hast hasted to come down to the presence of our lord: now therefore come to his tent, and some of us shall [o] conduct thee, until they have delivered thee to his hands. And when thou standest before 16 him, be not afraid in thine heart, but shew unto him according to thy word; and he will entreat thee well. Then 17 they chose out of them an hundred men [l] to accompany her and her maid; and they brought her to the tent of 18 Olofernes. Then [p] was there a concourse throughout all the camp: for her coming was noised among the tents, and they came about her, as she stood without the tent of Olofernes, till they 19 told him of her. And they wondered at her beauty, and admired the children of Israel because of her, and every one said to his neighbour, Who would despise this people, that have among them such women? surely it is not good that one man of them be left, who being let go might deceive the 20 whole earth. And they that [r] lay near Olofernes went out, and all his servants, and they brought her into the tent. 21 Now Olofernes rested upon his bed under a [q] canopy, which was woven with purple, and gold, and emeralds, and 22 precious stones. So they shewed him of her; and he came out before his tent with [r] silver lamps going before him. 23 And when Judith was come before him and his servants, they all marvelled at the beauty of her countenance; and [s] she fell down upon her face, and did reverence unto him: and his servants took her up.

XI.

Then said Olofernes unto her, Woman, be of good comfort, fear not in thine heart: for I never hurt any that was willing to serve Nabuchodonosor, the king of all the earth. 2 Now therefore, if thy people that dwelleth in the mountains had not [a] set light by me, I would not have lifted up my spear against them: but they have done 3 these things to themselves. But now tell me wherefore thou art fled from them, and art come unto us: for thou art come for safeguard; be of good comfort, thou shalt live [b] this night, 4 and hereafter: for none shall hurt thee, but entreat thee well, as they do the servants of king Nabuchodonosor my 5 lord. Then Judith said unto him,

Receive the words of thy servant, and suffer thine handmaid to speak in thy presence, and I will declare no lie 6 to my lord [b] this night. And if thou wilt follow the words of thine handmaid, God will bring the thing perfectly to pass by thee; and my lord 7 shall not fail of his [bb] purposes. every living thing: for not only men shall serve him by thee, but also [cc] the beasts of the field, and the cattle, and the fowls of the air, shall live by thy power under Nabuchodonosor and all his house. For we have heard of thy 8 wisdom and thy policies, and it is reported in all the earth, that thou only art ‖ excellent in all the kingdom, and mighty in knowledge, and wonderful in feats of war. Now as concerning the 9 matter, which [d] Achior did speak in thy council, we have heard his words; for the men of Bethulia ‖ [e] saved him, and he declared unto them all that he had spoken unto thee. Therefore, O lord 10 and governor, reject not [f] his word; but lay it up in thine heart, for it is true: for our nation shall not be punished, neither can the sword prevail against them, except they sin against their God. And now, that my lord be not defeated 11 and frustrate of his purpose, even death is now fallen upon them, and their sin hath overtaken them, wherewith they will [g] provoke their God to anger, whensoever they shall do that which is not fit to be done: for their victuals fail 12 them, and all their water is scant, and they have determined to lay hands upon their cattle, and purposed to consume all those things, that God hath forbidden them to eat by his laws: and 13 are resolved to spend [h] the firstfruits of the corn, and the tenths of wine and oil, which they had sanctified, and [h] reserved for the priests that serve in Jerusalem before the face of our God; the which things it is not lawful for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands. For they have sent some 14 to Jerusalem, because they also that dwell there have done the like, to bring them a licence from the [i] senate. Now 15 when they shall bring them word, they will forthwith do it, and they shall be given thee to be destroyed the same day. Wherefore I thine handmaid, knowing 16 all this, am fled from their presence; and God hath sent me to work things with thee, whereat all the earth shall be astonished, and whosoever shall hear it. For thy servant is [j] religious, and 17 serveth [k] the God of heaven [l] day and night: now therefore, my lord, I will remain with thee, and thy servant will go out by night into the valley, and I will pray unto God, and he will tell me when they have committed their 18 sins: and I will come and shew it unto thee; then thou shalt go forth with all thine army, and there shall be none of 19 them that shall resist thee. And I will lead thee through the midst of Judea, until thou come before Jerusalem; and I will set thy throne in the midst thereof; and thou shalt drive them [m] as sheep that have no shepherd, and [n] a dog shall not so much as ‖ open his mouth at thee: for ‖ these things [o] were told me according to my foreknowledge, and they were declared unto me, and I am sent to tell thee.

20 Then her words pleased Olofernes and all his servants; and they mar- 21 velled at her wisdom, and said, There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, both for beauty 22 of face, and wisdom of words. Likewise Olofernes said unto her, God hath done well to send thee before the people, that strength might be in our hands, and destruction upon them that 23 [a] lightly regard my lord. And now thou art both beautiful in thy countenance, and witty in thy words: surely if thou do as thou hast spoken, [p] thy God shall be my God, and thou shalt dwell in the house of king Nabuchodonosor, and shalt be renowned through the whole earth.

XII. Then he commanded to bring her in where [a] his plate was set; and bade that they should prepare for her of his own meats, and that she should drink of his 2 own wine. And Judith said, [aa] I will not eat thereof, lest there be an offence: but provision shall be made for me [b] of the things that I have brought. 3 Then Olofernes said unto her, If thy provision should fail, how should we give thee the like? for there be none 4 with us of thy nation. Then said Judith unto him, [c] As thy soul liveth, my lord, thine handmaid shall not spend those things that I have, before the Lord work by mine hand the things that he 5 hath determined. Then the servants of Olofernes brought her [d] into the tent, and she slept [e] till midnight, and she arose when it was towards [f] the morning 6 watch, and sent to Olofernes, saying, Let my lord now command that thine handmaid may go forth unto prayer. 7 Then Olofernes commanded his guard that they should not stay her: thus she abode in the camp three days, and went out in the night into the valley of Be-thulia, and washed herself [g] in a fountain of water by the camp. And when she came out, she besought the Lord God of Israel to direct her way to [h] the raising up of the children of her people. So she came in clean, and remained in [d] the tent, until she did eat her meat at evening. And in the fourth day Olofernes [i] made a feast to his own servants only, and called none of the officers to the banquet. Then said he to Bagoas the eunuch, who had charge over all that he had, Go now, and persuade this Hebrew woman [d] which is with thee, that she come unto us, and eat and drink with us. For lo, it will be a shame for our person, if we shall let such a woman go, not having had her company; for if we draw her not unto us, she will laugh us to scorn. Then went Bagoas from the presence of Olofernes, and came to her, and he said, Let not this fair damsel fear to come to my lord, and to be honoured in his presence, and drink wine, and be merry with us, and be made this day as one of the daughters of the Assyrians, which [j] serve in the house of Nabuchodonosor. Then said Judith unto him, Who am I now, that I should gainsay my lord? surely whatsoever pleaseth him I will do speedily, and it shall be my joy unto the day of my death. So she arose, and decked herself with her apparel and all her woman's attire, and her maid went and laid soft skins on the ground for her over against Olofernes, which she had received of Bagoas for her daily use, that she might sit and eat upon them. Now when Judith came in and sat down, Olofernes [k] his heart was ravished with her, and his mind was moved, and he desired greatly her company; for he waited a time to deceive her, from the day that he had seen her. Then said Olofernes unto her, Drink now, and be merry with us. So Judith said, I will drink now, my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day more than all the days since I was born. Then she took and ate and drank [l] before him what her maid had prepared. And Olofernes took great delight in her, and drank much more wine than he had drunk at any time in one day since he was born.

XIII.

Now when the evening was come, [a] his servants made haste to [b] depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, and dismissed [c] the waiters from the presence of his lord; and they went to their beds: for they were all weary, because the feast had been long. And Judith was left alone in the tent, and Olofernes lying along upon his bed: for [d] he was filled with wine. Now Judith had commanded her maid to stand without her bedchamber, and to wait for her coming forth, as she did daily: for she said she would go forth to her prayers, and she spake to Bagoas according to the same purpose. So all went forth, and none was left in the bedchamber, [e] neither little nor great. Then Judith, standing by his bed, said in her heart, O Lord God of all power, look at this present upon the works of mine hands for the exaltation of Jerusalem. For now is the time [f] to help thine inheritance, and to execute mine [g] enterprises to the destruction of the enemies which are risen against us. Then she came to the [l] pillar of the bed, which was at Olofernes' head, and took down his [h] fauchin from thence, and approached to his bed, and took hold of the hair of his head, and said, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, this day. And she smote twice upon his neck with all her might, and [i] she took away his head from him, and tumbled his body down from the bed, and pulled down the [k] canopy from the [l] pillars; and [m] anon after she went forth, and gave Olofernes his head to her maid; and she put it in her [n] bag of meat: so they twain went together according to their custom unto prayer: and when they passed the camp, they compassed [o] the valley, and went up the mountain of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

Then said Judith afar off to the watchmen at the gate, Open, open now the gate: God, even our God, is with us, to shew his power yet in Jerusalem, and his forces against the enemy, as he hath even done this day. Now when the men of her city heard her voice, they made haste to go down to the gate of their city, and they called [p] the elders of the city. And then they ran all together, [e] both small and great, for it was strange unto them that she was come: so they opened the gate, and received them, and made a fire for a light, and stood round about them.

Then she said to them with a loud voice, Praise, praise God, praise God, I say, for he hath not taken away his mercy from the house of Israel, but hath destroyed our enemies by mine hands this night. So she took the head out of [m] the bag, and shewed it, and said unto them, Behold the head of Olofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, and behold the [k] canopy, wherein he did lie in his drunkenness; and [q] the Lord hath smitten him by the hand of a woman. [r] As the Lord liveth, who hath kept me in my way that I went, my countenance hath deceived him to his destruction, and yet hath he not committed sin with me, to defile and shame me. Then all the people were wonderfully astonished, and bowed themselves, and worshipped God, and said with one accord, Blessed be thou, O our God, which hast this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people. Then said Ozias unto her, O daughter, blessed art thou of [s] the most high God above all the women upon the earth; and blessed be the Lord God, [t] which hath created the heavens and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chief of our enemies. For this thy confidence shall not depart from the heart of men, which remember the power of God for ever. And God turn these things to thee for a perpetual praise, to visit thee in good things, because thou hast not spared thy life for the affliction of our nation, but hast revenged our ruin, walking a straight way before our God. [u] And all the people said, So be it, so be it.

XIV. Then said Judith unto them, Hear me now, my brethren, and take this head, and [a] hang it upon the highest place of your walls. And so soon as the morning shall appear, and the sun shall come forth upon the earth, take you every one his weapons, and go forth every valiant man out of the city, and set you a captain over them, as though you would go down into the field toward the [b] watch of the Assyrians; but go not down. Then they shall take their armour, and shall go into their camp, and raise up the captains of the army of Assur, and they shall run to the tent of Olofernes, but shall not find him: then fear shall fall upon them, and they shall flee before your face. So you, and all that inhabit the coast of Israel, shall pursue them, and overthrow them as they go. But before you do these things, call me [c] Achior the Ammonite, that he may see and know him that despised the house of Israel, and that sent him to us, as it were to his death. Then they called Achior [d] out of the house of Ozias; and when he was come, and saw the head of Olofernes in a man's hand in the assembly of the people, he fell down on his face, and [e] his spirit failed. But when they had recovered him, [f] he fell at Judith's feet, and reverenced her, and said, Blessed art thou in all the tabernacle of Juda, and in all nations, which hearing thy name shall be [s] astonished. Now therefore tell me all the things that thou hast done in these days. Then Judith declared unto him in the midst of the people all that she had done, from the day that she went forth until that hour she spake unto them. And when she had left off speaking, the people shouted with a loud voice, and made a joyful noise in their city. And when Achior had seen all that the God of Israel had done, he believed in God greatly, and [g] circumcised the flesh of his foreskin, and was joined unto the house of Israel [h] unto this day.

And as soon as the morning arose, [i] they hanged the head of Olofernes upon the wall, and [k] every man took his weapons, and they went forth by bands unto the [l] straits of the mountain. But [l] when the Assyrians saw them, they sent to their leaders, which came to their captains and [m] tribunes, and to every one of their rulers. So [l] they came to Olofernes' tent, and said to [n] him that had the charge of all his things, Waken now our lord: for the slaves have been bold to come down against us to battle, that they may be [o] utterly destroyed. Then went in [n] Bagoas, and knocked at the door of the tent; for he thought that he had slept with Judith. But because none answered, he opened it, and went into the bedchamber, and found him cast upon the floor dead, and his head was taken from him. [l] Therefore he cried with a loud voice, with weeping, and sighing, and a mighty cry, and [p] rent his garments. After, he went into [q] the tent where Judith lodged: and when he found her not, he leaped out to the people, and cried, These slaves have 18 [r] dealt treacherously; one woman of the Hebrews hath brought shame upon the house of king Nabuchodonosor: for behold, Olofernes lieth upon the ground without a head. When the captains of 19

the Assyrians' army heard these words, they [p] rent their coats, and their minds were wonderfully [s] troubled, and there was a cry and a very great noise throughout the camp.

XV. And when they that were in the tents heard, they were astonished at the thing that was done. And [a] fear and trem- 2 bling fell upon them, so that there was no man that durst abide in the sight of his neighbour, but rushing out all together, they fled into every way of the plain, and of the hill country. They 3 also [b] that had camped in the mountains round about Bethulia fled away. Then the children of Israel, every one that was a warrior among them, rushed out upon them. Then sent Ozias to [c] Be- 4 tomasthem, and to Bebai, and [d] Chobai, and Cola, and to all the coasts of Israel, such as should tell the things that were done, and that all should rush forth upon their enemies to destroy them.
Now when the children of Israel heard 5 it, they all fell upon them with one consent, and slew them unto [d] Choba:
likewise also they that came from Jerusalem, and from all the hill country, (for men had told them what things were done in the camp of their enemies,) and they that were in [e] Galaad, and in [e] Galilee, ‖ chased them with a great slaughter, until they were past [f] Damascus and the borders thereof.
And the residue, that dwelt at Bethulia, 6 fell upon the camp of Assur, and spoiled them, and were greatly enriched. And 7 the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter had that which remained;
and the villages and the cities, that were in the mountains and in the plain, gat many spoils: for the multitude was very great.

Then [g] Joacim the high priest, and 8
the [h] ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Jerusalem, came to behold the good things that God had shewed to Israel, and to see Judith, and to [i] salute her. And when they 9 came unto her, they blessed her with one accord, and said unto her, Thou art the exaltation of Jerusalem, thou art the great glory of Israel, thou art 10 the great rejoicing of our nation: thou hast done all these things by thine hand: thou hast done much good to Israel, and God is pleased therewith:
blessed be thou of the [k] Almighty Lord for evermore. [l] And all the people said, 11 So be it. And the people spoiled the camp the space of thirty days: and they gave unto Judith Olofernes his tent, and all [m] his plate, and beds, and vessels, and all his [n] stuff: and she took it, and laid it on her mule; and made ready her carts, and laid them 12 thereon. Then all the women of Israel ran together to see her, and blessed her, and made a dance among them for her: and she took [o] branches in her hand, and gave also to the women that 13 were with her. And they put a garland of olive upon her and her maid that was with her, and she went before all the people [p] in the dance, leading all the women: and all the men of Israel followed in their armour [q] with garlands, and with songs in their mouths. Then Judith began to sing this thanksgiving in all Israel, and all the people sang 2 after her ‖ this song of praise. And Judith said,

THEN Mardocheus said, God hath done these things. For I remember [a] a dream which I saw concerning these matters, and nothing thereof hath failed. A little fountain became a river, and there was light, and the sun, and much water: this river is Esther, whom the king married, and made queen: and the two dragons are I and Aman. And the nations were those that were assembled to destroy the name of the Jews: and my nation is this Israel, which cried to God, and were saved: for the Lord hath saved his people, and the Lord hath delivered us from all those evils, and God hath wrought
[b] signs and great wonders, which have not been done among the Gentiles. Therefore hath he made two [c] lots, one for the people of God, and another for all the Gentiles. And these two lots came at the hour, and time, and [d] day of judgment, before God amongst all nations. So God remembered his people, and justified his inheritance. Therefore those days shall be unto them [e] in the month Adar, [e] the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the same month, with an assembly, and joy, and with gladness before God, according to the generations for ever among his people.

In [c] the second year of the reign of Artaxerxes the great, in the first day of the month Nisan, [d] Mardocheus the son of Jairus, the son of Semei, the son of Cisai, of the tribe of Benjamin, had [e] a dream; [d] who was a Jew, and dwelt in the city of [f] Susa, a great man, being a [g] servitor in the king's court. [h] He was also one of the captives, which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon carried from Jerusalem with Jechonias king of Judea; and this was his [e] dream: behold a noise of a tumult, with thunder, and earthquakes, and uproar in the land: and behold, two great dragons came forth ready to fight, and their cry was great. And at their cry all nations were prepared to battle, that they might fight against the righteous people. And lo, [i] a day of darkness and obscurity, [k] tribulation and anguish, affliction and great uproar, upon the earth. And the whole righteous nation was troubled, fearing their own evils, and were ready to perish. Then they cried unto God, and upon their cry, as it were from a little fountain, was made a great flood, even much water. The light and the sun rose up, and the lowly were exalted, and devoured [l] the glorious. Now when Mardocheus, who had seen this [e] dream, and what God had determined to do, was awake, he bare this dream in mind, and until night by all means was desirous to know it.

And [a] Mardocheus took his rest in the court with Gabatha and Tharra, the two eunuchs of the king, and keepers of the palace. And [b] he heard their devices, and searched out their purposes, and learned that they were about to lay hands upon Artaxerxes the king; and so he certified the king of them. Then the king examined the two eunuchs, and after that they had confessed it, they were strangled. And the king made a record of these things, and Mardocheus also wrote thereof. So the king commanded Mardocheus to serve in the court, and for this he rewarded him. Howbeit [c] Aman the son of Amadathus the [c] Agagite, who was [d] in great honour with the king, sought to molest Mardocheus and his people because of the two eunuchs of the king.

XIII.

The copy of the letters was this: [a] The great king Artaxerxes writeth these things to the princes and governors that are under him [b] from India unto Ethiopia, in an hundred and seven and twenty provinces. After that I became lord over many nations, and had dominion over the whole [c] world, not lifted up with presumption of my authority, but carrying myself alway with equity and mildness, I purposed to settle [cc] my subjects continually in a quiet life, and making my kingdom [l] peaceable, and open for passage to the utmost coasts, to renew peace, which is desired of all men. Now when I asked my counsellers how this might be brought to pass, Aman, that excelled in wisdom among us, and was [d] approved for his constant good will and stedfast fidelity, and [e] had the honour of the second place in the kingdom, [f] declared unto us, that in all nations throughout [c] the world there was scattered a certain malicious people, that had laws contrary to all nations, and continually despised the commandments of kings, so as the uniting of our kingdoms, honourably [g] intended by us, cannot [l] go forward. Seeing then we understand that this people alone is continually in opposition unto all men, differing in the strange manner of their laws, and evil affected to our state, working all the mischief they can, that our kingdom may not be firmly stablished: therefore have we commanded, that all they that are signified in writing unto you by Aman, who is ordained over the affairs, and is [l] next unto us, shall all, with their wives and children, be utterly destroyed by the sword of their enemies, without all mercy and pity, the [h] fourteenth day of the twelfth month Adar of this present year: that they, who of old and now also are malicious, may in one day with violence go into the grave, and so ever hereafter cause our affairs to be well settled, and without trouble.

Then Mardocheus thought upon all the works of the Lord, and made his prayer unto him, Saying, O Lord, Lord, the King [i] Almighty: for the whole world is in thy power, and if thou hast appointed to save Israel, there is no man that can gainsay thee: [j] for thou hast made heaven and earth, and all the wondrous things under the heaven. Thou art Lord of all things, and there is no man that can resist thee, which art the Lord. [k] Thou knowest all things, and thou knowest, Lord, that it was neither in contempt nor pride, nor for any desire of glory, that [l] I did not bow down to proud Aman. For [m] I could have been content with good will for the salvation of Israel to kiss the soles of his feet. But I did this, that I might not prefer the glory of man above the glory of God: neither will I worship any but thee, O God, [n] neither will I do it in pride. And now, O Lord God and King, [o] spare thy people: for their eyes are upon us to bring us to nought; yea, they desire to destroy the inheritance, that hath been thine from the beginning. Despise not the portion, [p] which thou hast delivered out of Egypt for thine own self. Hear my prayer, and be merciful unto thine inheritance: [q] turn our sorrow into joy, that we may live, O Lord, and praise thy name: and [r] destroy not the mouths of them that praise thee, O Lord.

All Israel in like manner cried [t] most earnestly unto the Lord, because their death was before their eyes. Queen Esther also, being in fear of death, resorted unto the Lord: and laid away her glorious apparel, and put on [a] the garments of anguish and mourning: and [b] instead of precious ointments, [a] she covered her head with ashes and dung, and [c] she humbled her body greatly, and all the places of her joy she filled [bd] with her torn hair. And she prayed unto the Lord God of Israel, saying,

O my Lord, thou only art our King: help me, desolate woman, which have no helper but thee: for [e] my danger is in mine hand. From my youth up I have heard in the tribe of my family, that thou, O Lord, [f] tookest Israel from among all people, and [g] our fathers from all their predecessors, for a perpetual inheritance, and thou hast performed whatsoever thou didst promise them. [h] And now we have sinned before thee: therefore hast thou given us into the hands of our enemies, because we worshipped their gods: O Lord, [i] thou art righteous. Nevertheless it satisfieth them not, that we are in bitter captivity: but they have [k] stricken hands with their idols, that they will abolish the thing that thou with thy mouth hast ordained, and destroy thine inheritance, and [l] stop the mouth of them that praise thee, and quench the glory of thy house, and of thine altar, and open the mouths of the heathen to set forth the praises of the [t] idols, and [m] to magnify a fleshly king for ever. O Lord, give not thy sceptre unto them that [t] be nothing, and let them not laugh at our fall; but turn their device upon themselves, and [n] make him an example, that hath begun this against us. Remember, O Lord, [o] make thyself known in time of our affliction, and give me boldness, O King of the [‖] nations, and Lord of all power. Give me eloquent speech in my mouth before [p] the lion: turn his heart to hate [q] him that fighteth against us, that there may be an end of him, and of all that are likeminded to him: but deliver us with thine hand, and help me that am desolate, and which have no other helper but thee. [r] Thou knowest all things, O Lord; thou knowest that I hate the glory of the unrighteous, and abhor the bed of the uncircumcised, and of [t] all the heathen. Thou knowest my necessity: for I abhor the sign of my [t] high estate, [s] which is upon mine head in the days wherein I shew myself, and that I abhor it [t] as a menstruous rag, and that I wear it not when I am [t] private by myself, and that thine handmaid [u] hath not eaten at Aman's table, and that I have not greatly esteemed the king's feast, nor drunk the wine of the drink offerings. Neither had thine handmaid any joy since the day [t] that I was brought hither to this present, but in thee, O Lord God of Abraham. O thou mighty God above all, hear the voice of the [x] forlorn, and deliver us out of the hands of the mischievous, and deliver me out of [y] my fear.

* And upon the third day, when she had ended her prayer, [a] she laid away her mourning garments, and put on her glorious apparel. And being gloriously adorned, after she had called upon God, who is the [b] beholder and [c] saviour of all things, she took two [d] maids with her: and upon the one she leaned, as carrying herself [‖] daintily; and the other followed, bearing up her train. And she was [‖] ruddy through the perfection of her beauty, and her countenance was cheerful [‖] and very amiable: but her heart was in anguish [e] for fear. Then having passed through all the doors, she stood before the king, who sat upon his royal throne, and was clothed with all his robes of majesty, all glittering with gold and precious stones; and he was very dreadful. Then lifting up his countenance that shone with majesty, he looked very fiercely upon her: and the queen fell down, and was pale, and [h] fainted, and bowed herself upon the head of the [d] maid that went [‖] before her. Then God changed the spirit of the king into mildness, who [t] in a fear leaped from his throne, and took her in his arms, till she came to herself again, and comforted her with loving words, and said unto her, Esther, what is the matter? I am [f] thy brother, be of good cheer: thou shalt not die, though our commandment be [‖] general: come near. And so he held up his golden sceptre, and laid it upon her neck, and embraced her, and said, Speak unto me. Then said she unto him, I saw thee, my lord, [g] as an angel of God, and my heart was troubled for fear of thy majesty. For wonderful art thou, lord, and thy countenance is full of grace. And as she was speaking, [‖] she fell down for [h] faintness. Then the king was troubled, and all his servants comforted her.

XVI. [a]The great king Artaxerxes unto the princes and governors of an hundred and seven and twenty provinces [b]from India unto Ethiopia, and unto all ‖our faithful subjects, greeting. Many, the more often they are honoured with the great bounty of †their gracious princes, the more proud they are waxen, and endeavour to hurt not [c]our subjects only, but not being able to bear abundance, do take in hand to practise also against those that do them good: and take not only thankfulness away from among men, but also lifted up with the glorious words of ‖lewd persons, ‖that were never good, they think to escape the justice of God, [d]that seeth all things, and hateth evil. Oftentimes also fair speech ‖of those, that are put in trust to manage their friends' affairs, hath caused many that are in authority to be partakers of innocent blood, and hath enwrapped them in remediless calamities: beguiling with the falsehood and deceit of their [e]lewd disposition the innocency and goodness of princes. Now ye may see this, as we have declared, not so much by ancient histories, as ye may, if ye search what hath been wickedly done of late through the pestilent behaviour of them that are unworthily placed in authority. And we must take care for the time to come, that our kingdom may be quiet and peaceable for all men, both by changing our purposes, and always judging things that are evident with more equal proceeding.

For Aman, [f]a Macedonian, the son of [g]Amadatha, being indeed a stranger from the Persian blood, and far distant from our goodness, and as a stranger received of us, had so far forth obtained the favour that we shew toward every nation, as that he was called our [h]father, and was continually honoured of all men, as [i]the next person unto the king. But he, not bearing his [j]great dignity, went about to deprive us of our kingdom and life: having by manifold and cunning deceits sought of us the destruction, as well of Mardocheus, who saved our life, and continually procured our good, as also of blameless Esther, partaker of our kingdom, with their whole nation. For by these means he thought, finding us destitute of friends, to have translated the kingdom of the Persians to the Macedonians. But we find that the Jews, whom this wicked wretch hath delivered to utter destruction, are no evildoers, but live by most just laws: and that they be children of [k]the most high and most mighty [l]living God, who hath ‖ordered the kingdom both unto us and to our progenitors in the most excellent manner. Wherefore ye shall do well not to put in execution the letters sent unto you by Aman the son of [g]Amadatha. For he, that was the worker of these things, [m]is hanged at the gates of [n]Susa [o]with all his family: God, who ruleth all things, speedily rendering vengeance to him according to his deserts. Therefore ye shall publish the copy of this letter in all places, that the Jews may freely live after their own laws. And ye shall aid them, that even the same day, being the thirteenth day of the twelfth month Adar, they may be avenged on them, who in the time of their affliction shall set upon them. For [p]Almighty God hath turned to joy unto them the day, wherein [q]the chosen people should have perished. You shall therefore among your solemn feasts keep it a high day with all feasting: that both now and hereafter there may be safety to us, and the well affected Persians; but to those which do conspire against us a memorial of destruction. Therefore [r]every city and country whatsoever, which shall not do according to these things, shall be destroyed without mercy with fire and sword, and shall be made not only unpassable for men, but also most hateful to wild beasts and fowls for ever.

THE

WISDOM OF SOLOMON.

I.

[a] LOVE righteousness, ye that be judges of the earth: think of the Lord with a good heart, and in simplicity of heart seek him. For he will be found of them that tempt him not; and [b]sheweth himself unto such as do not distrust him. For froward thoughts separate from God: and his power, when it is tried, ‖reproveth the unwise. For into a malicious soul wisdom shall not enter; nor dwell in the body that is subject unto sin. For the holy spirit of discipline will flee deceit, and [c]remove from thoughts that are without understanding, and ‖will not abide when unrighteousness cometh in.

For wisdom is a [d]loving spirit; and will not acquit a blasphemer of his ‖words: for [e]God is witness of his reins, and a true [f]beholder of his heart, and a hearer of his tongue. For [g]the Spirit of the Lord filleth [h]the world: and that which ‖containeth all things [i]hath knowledge of the voice. Therefore he that speaketh unrighteous things cannot be hid: neither shall vengeance, when it [k]punisheth, pass by him. For inquisition shall be made into the counsels of the ungodly: and the sound of his words shall come unto the Lord for the ‖manifestation of his wicked deeds. For the ear of [l]jealousy heareth all things: and the noise of [m]murmurings is not hid. Therefore beware of [m]murmuring, which is unprofitable; and refrain your tongue from [n]backbiting: for [o]there is no word so secret, that shall go for nought: and the mouth that ‖belieth [oo]slayeth the soul.

[p]Seek not death in the error of your life: and [p]pull not upon yourselves destruction with the works of your hands. [q]For God made not death: [r]neither hath he pleasure in the destruction of the living. For he created all things, that they might have their being: and [s]the generations of the world were healthful; and there is no poison of destruction in them, nor the kingdom of death upon the earth: for righteousness is immortal: but [t]ungodly men with their works and words called it to them: for when they thought to have it their friend, they consumed to nought, and [u]made a covenant with it, because they are worthy [x]to take part with it.

For [a]the ungodly said, reasoning with themselves, but not aright, [b]Our life is short and tedious, and [c]in the death of a man there is no remedy: neither was there any man known to have [d]returned from the grave. For we are born at all adventure: and [e]we shall be hereafter as though we had never been: for the breath in our nostrils is as [f]smoke, and a little spark in the moving of our heart: which being extinguished, [g]our body shall be turned into ashes, and our spirit shall vanish as the ‖soft air, and [h]our name shall be forgotten in time, and no man shall have our works in remembrance, and [i]our life shall pass away as the trace of a cloud, and shall be dispersed as a mist, that is driven away with the beams of the sun, and ‖overcome with the heat thereof. For our time is [j]a very shadow that passeth away; and after our end there is no returning: for ‖it is [k]fast sealed, so that no man cometh again. Come on therefore, [l]let us enjoy the good things that are present: and let us ‖speedily use the creatures like as in youth. Let us fill ourselves with costly wine and ointments: and let no flower of the spring pass by us: let us ‖crown ourselves with

But though the righteous be i prevent- 7

standeth in length of time, nor that is measured by number of years. But wis- 9 dom is the gray hair unto men, and an unspotted life is old age. j He pleased 10

Then shall the righteous man a stand in great boldness before the face of such as have afflicted him, and made no ac- 2 count of his labours. When they see it, they shall be troubled with terrible fear, and shall be amazed at the strangeness of his salvation, so far beyond all that 3 they looked for. And they repenting and groaning for b anguish of spirit shall say within themselves, This was he, whom we had sometimes in derision, 4 and a ‖ proverb of reproach: we c fools accounted his life madness, and his end 5 to be without honour: how is he numbered among the children of God, and 6 his lot is among the saints! Therefore have we erred from the way of truth, and the light of righteousness hath not shined unto us, and the sun of righteous- 7 ness rose not upon us. We ‖ wearied ourselves in the way of wickedness and destruction: yea, we have gone through deserts, where d there lay no way: but as 8 for the way of the Lord, we have not known it. What hath pride profited us? or what good hath riches with our vaunt- 9
ing brought us? All those things are passed away e like a shadow, and f as a 10 post that hasted by; and g as a ship that passeth over the waves of the water, which when it is gone by, the trace 11 thereof cannot be found, neither the pathway of the keel in the waves; or g as when a bird ‖ hath flown through the air, there is no h token of her way to be found, but the light air being beaten with the stroke of her wings, and parted with the violent noise and motion of them, is passed through, and therein afterwards no sign where she went is to 12 be found; or like as when an arrow is shot i at a mark, it parteth the air, which immediately cometh together again, so that a man cannot know where it went 13 through: even so we in like manner, as soon as we were born, began to draw to our end, and had no sign of virtue to shew; but were consumed in our own 14 wickedness. For k the hope of the ungodly is like † dust l that is blown away with the wind; like a ‖ thin froth that is driven away with the storm; m like as 15 the smoke which is dispersed here and there with a tempest, and passeth away as the remembrance of a guest that tarrieth but a day. But the righte- 16 ous live for evermore; n their reward also is with the Lord, and the care of them is with the most High. Therefore shall they receive a glorious ‖kingdom, and a beautiful °crown from the Lord's hand: for ᵖwith his right hand shall he cover them, and with his arm shall he protect them. He shall take 17 to him ᑫhis jealousy for ʳcomplete armour, and ˢmake the creature his weapon for the revenge of his enemies. ᵗHe 18 shall put on righteousness as a breastplate, and ᵘᵘtrue judgment instead of a helmet. He shall take ‖holiness for an 19 invincible shield. His severe wrath shall 20 he sharpen for a sword, and ᵛthe world shall fight with him against the unwise. Then shall the right aiming thunderbolts 21 go abroad; and from the clouds, ʷas from a well drawn bow, shall they fly ˣto the mark. And ʸhailstones full of 22 wrath shall be cast as out of a stone bow, and the water of the sea shall rage against them, and ᶻthe floods shall cruelly drown them. Yea, ᵃʸa mighty 23 wind shall stand up against them, and ᵇlike a storm shall blow them away: thus iniquity shall lay waste the whole earth, and ill dealing shall overthrow ᶜthe thrones of the mighty.

VI. ᵃHear therefore, O ye kings, and understand; learn, ye that be judges of the ends of the earth. Give ear, you that 2 rule the people, and glory in the multitude of nations. For ᵈpower is given 3 you of the Lord, and sovereignty from the Highest, who shall try your works, and search out your counsels. Because, 4 being ᵉministers of his kingdom, you have not judged aright, nor kept the law, nor walked after the counsel of God; horribly and speedily shall he come upon 5 you: for a sharp judgment shall be to them that be in high places. For ᶠmercy will soon pardon the meanest: but 6 ᵍmighty men shall be mightily tormented. For he which is Lord over all ʰshall 7 fear no man's person, neither shall he stand in awe of any man's greatness: for he hath made the small and great, and ⁱcareth for all alike. But a sore 8 trial shall come upon the mighty.

Unto you therefore, O kings, do I 9 speak, that ye may learn wisdom, and not ᵏfall away. For they that keep holi- 10 ness holily shall be ‖judged holy: and they that have learned such things shall find ‖what to answer. Wherefore set 11 your affection upon my words; desire them, and ye shall be instructed. Wis- 12 dom is glorious, and never fadeth away: yea, ˡshe is easily seen of them that love 13 her, and found of such as seek her. She ᵐpreventeth them that desire her, in making herself first known unto them. 14 Whoso ⁿseeketh her early shall have no great travail: for he shall find her sit- 15 ting at his doors. To think therefore upon her is perfection of wisdom: and whoso watcheth for her shall quickly be 16 ‖without care. For she goeth about seeking such as are worthy of her, sheweth herself favourably unto them in the ways, and meeteth them in every thought. 17 For the very true beginning of her is the desire of ‖discipline; and the care of 18 ‖discipline is love; and ᵖlove is the keeping of her laws; and the giving heed unto her laws is the assurance of incor- 19 ruption; and incorruption maketh us 20 near unto God: therefore the desire of 21 wisdom bringeth to ᑫa kingdom. If your delight be then in °thrones and sceptres, O ye kings of the people, honour wisdom, ᑫthat ye may reign for 22 evermore. As for wisdom, what she is, and how she came up, I will tell you, and will not hide mysteries from you: but will seek her out from the beginning of her nativity, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and will not pass 23 over the truth. Neither ʳwill I go with consuming envy; for such a man shall 24 have no fellowship with wisdom. But ˢthe multitude of the wise is the welfare of the world: and a wise king is 25 the upholding of the people. Receive therefore instruction through my words, and it shall do you good.

VII. I myself also am a mortal man, like to all, and the offspring ᵃof him that 2 was first made of the earth, and in my mother's womb was fashioned to be flesh in the time of ten months, ᵇbeing compacted in blood, of the seed of man, and the pleasure that came with ᶜsleep. 3 And when I was born, I drew in the common air, and fell upon the earth, which is ᵈof like nature, and the first voice which I uttered was crying, as all 4 others do. I was nursed in ᵉswaddling 5 clothes, and that with cares. For there is no king that had any other beginning 6 of birth. For ᶠall men have one entrance into life, and the like ᵍgoing out. 7 Wherefore ʰI prayed, and understanding was given me: I ⁱcalled upon God, and the spirit of wisdom came to me.

8 I preferred her before ᵏsceptres and thrones, and ˡesteemed riches nothing 9 in comparison of her. Neither compared I unto her any [t][m]precious stone, because all gold in respect of her is as a little sand, and silver shall be counted as clay before her. I loved her above [10] [n]health and beauty, and chose to have her [o]instead of light: for the light that cometh from her never goeth out. [p]All [11] good things together came to me with her, and [p]innumerable riches in her hands. And I rejoiced in them all, be- [12] cause wisdom goeth before them: and I knew not that she was the mother of them. I learned [t]diligently, and do [13] communicate her [t]liberally: [pp]I do not hide her riches. For she is [q]a treasure [14] unto men that never faileth: which they that use [‖qq]become the friends of God, being [r]commended for the gifts that come from [rr]learning. [‖]God hath granted [15] me to speak as I would, and to conceive as is meet for the things that [‖]are given me: because it is he that leadeth unto wisdom, and directeth the wise. For in [16] his hand are both we and our words; all wisdom also, and knowledge of workmanship. For he hath given me certain [17] knowledge of the things that are, namely, to know how the world was made, and the operation of the elements: the be- [18] ginning, ending, and midst of the times: the alterations of [s]the turning of the sun, and the change of seasons: the circuits [19] of years, and the [t]positions of stars: the [20] natures of living creatures, and the furies of wild beasts: the violence of winds, and the [u]reasonings of men: the diversities of plants, and the virtues of roots: and all such things as are either secret or [21] manifest, them I know. For wisdom, [22] which is [v]the worker of all things, taught me: for in her is an understanding spirit, holy, [t]one only, manifold, subtil, lively, [w]clear, undefiled, plain, not subject to hurt, [x]loving the thing that is good, quick, which cannot be letted, ready to do good. Kind to man, stedfast, sure, [23] [y]free from care, having all power, overseeing all things, and going through all understanding, pure, and most subtil, spirits. For wisdom is more moving [24] than any motion: she passeth and goeth through all things by reason of her pureness. For she is the [‖]breath of the [25] power of God, and a pure [‖]influence flowing from the glory of the [z]Almighty: therefore can no defiled thing fall into her. For she is [a]the brightness of the [26] everlasting light, the unspotted [aa]mirror of the power of God, and [b]the image of his goodness. And being but one, she [27] can do all things: and remaining in herself, she [‖]maketh all things new: and in all ages entering into holy souls, she ·maketh them [c]friends of God, and [d]pro- [28] phets. For God loveth none but him [29] that dwelleth with wisdom. For she is more beautiful than the sun, and above all the [t]order of stars: being compared with the light, she is found before it. [30] For after this cometh night: but vice shall not prevail against wisdom.

VIII.

Wisdom reacheth from one end to another mightily: and [‖]sweetly doth she [2] order all things. I loved her, and sought her out from my youth, I desired [‖a]to make her my spouse, and I was a lover [3] of her beauty. In that she is [b]conversant with God, she magnifieth her nobility: yea, the Lord of all things himself [4] loved her. For she is [‖]privy to the mysteries of the knowledge of God, and a [5] [‖]lover of his works. If riches be a possession to be desired in this life; [c]what is richer than wisdom, [d]that worketh all [6] things? And if [e]prudence work; who of all that are is a more cunning workman [7] than she? And if a man love righteousness, her labours are virtues: for she teacheth temperance and prudence, justice and [q]fortitude: which are such things, as men can have nothing more [8] profitable in their life. If a man desire much experience, she knoweth things of old, and conjectureth aright what is to come: she knoweth the subtilties of speeches, and can expound [f]dark sentences: she foreseeth signs and wonders, and the [g]events of seasons and [9] times. Therefore I purposed [h]to take her to me [h]to live with me, knowing that she [t]would be a counseller of good things, and a comfort in cares and grief. [10] For her sake I shall have estimation among the multitude, and honour with [11] the elders, [i]though I be young. I shall be found of a quick conceit [k]in judgment, and shall be admired in the sight [12] of [l]great men. [m]When I hold my tongue, they shall bide my leisure, and when I speak, they shall give good ear unto me: if I talk much, they shall [n]lay their [13] hands upon their mouth. Moreover [o]by the means of her I shall obtain immortality, and leave behind me an everlasting memorial to them that come after me. they do but hear of me; I shall [l]be found good among the multitude, and [q]valiant in war. [16] After I am come into mine house, I will repose myself with her: for her conversation hath no bitterness; and [b]to live with her hath no sorrow, but mirth and joy.

[17] Now when I considered these things in myself, and [r]pondered them in mine heart, how that to be allied unto wisdom [o]is immortality; and great pleasure [18] it is to have her friendship; and in the works of her hands are infinite riches; and in the exercise of conference with her, prudence; and in talking with her, a [l]good report; I went about seeking how to [l]take her to me. For I was a [19] witty child, and had a good spirit. Yea [20] rather, being good, [s]I came into a body undefiled. Nevertheless, when I per- [21] ceived that I could not otherwise [t]obtain her, except God gave her me; and that was a point of wisdom also to know whose gift she was; I [l][u]prayed unto the Lord, and besought him, and with my whole heart I said,

IX.

O God of my fathers, and Lord of [1] mercy, [a]who hast made all things with thy word, and ordained man through [2] thy wisdom, that he should [b]have dominion over the creatures which thou hast made, and order the world accord- [3] ing to [c]equity and righteousness, and execute judgment with an upright heart: [d]give me wisdom, [e]that sitteth by thy [4] throne; and reject me not from among thy children: for [f]I thy servant and son [5] of thine handmaid am a feeble person, and of a short time, and [g]too young for the understanding of judgment and laws. For though a man be never so perfect [6] among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, [h]he shall be nothing regarded. [i]Thou hast chosen [7] me to be a king of thy people, and a judge of thy sons and daughters: [k]thou [8] hast commanded me to build a temple upon [l]thy holy mount, and an altar in the city wherein thou dwellest, [m]a resemblance of the holy tabernacle, [n]which thou hast prepared from the beginning. And [e][o]wisdom was with thee: which [9] knoweth thy works, and was present when thou madest the world, and knew what was acceptable in thy sight, and right in thy commandments. O send [10] her out of thy [p]holy heavens, and from the throne of thy glory, that being present she may labour with me, that I may [11] know what is pleasing unto thee. For she knoweth and understandeth all things, and she shall lead me soberly in my doings, and preserve me [l]in her power. [12] So shall my works be acceptable, and then shall I judge thy people righteously, and be worthy to sit in my father's seat. [13] [q]For what man is he that can know the counsel of God? or who can think what [14] the will of the Lord is? For the thoughts of mortal men are [l]miserable, and our [15] devices are but uncertain. For the corruptible body presseth down the soul, and [r]the [s]earthy tabernacle weigheth down the mind that museth upon many [16] things. And [t]hardly do we guess aright at things that are upon earth, and with labour do we find the things that are [l]before us: but the things that are in [17] heaven who hath searched out? And [q]thy counsel who hath known, [u]except thou give wisdom, and [u]send thy Holy [18] Spirit from above? For so the ways of them which lived on the earth were reformed, and men were taught the things that are pleasing unto thee, and [x]were saved through wisdom.

She preserved the [a]first formed father of the world, that was created alone, [2] and brought him out of his fall, and [3] [b]gave him power to rule all things. But [c]when the unrighteous went away from her in his anger, [c]he perished also in [4] the fury wherewith he murdered his brother. For whose cause [d]the earth being drowned with the flood, [e]wisdom again preserved it, and directed the course of [f]the righteous [g]in a piece of wood of [5] small value. Moreover, [h]the nations in their wicked conspiracy being confounded, [i]she found out the righteous, and preserved him [k]blameless unto God, and [l]kept him strong [l]against his tender com- [6] passion towards his son. [m]When the ungodly perished, she delivered [n]the righteous man, who fled from the fire which fell down upon [f]the [o]five cities. [7] Of whose wickedness even to this day the waste land that smoketh is a testimony, and plants bearing fruit that never come to ripeness: and [p]a standing pillar of salt is a monument of an unbelieving [8] soul. For regarding not wisdom, they gat not only this hurt, that they knew not the things which were good; but also left behind them to the world a memorial of their foolishness: so that in the things wherein they offended they could not so [9] much as be hid. But wisdom delivered from pain those that attended upon her. When [q]the righteous fled from his brother's wrath, she guided him in right paths, [r]shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things, [s]made him rich in his travails, and multiplied the fruit of his labours. [t]In the covetousness of such as oppressed him she stood by him, and made him rich. [u]She defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, and [x]in a sore conflict she gave him the victory; that he might know that godliness is stronger than all. [y]When the righteous was sold, she forsook him not, but [z]delivered him from sin: [a]she went down with him into the pit, and [b]left him not in bonds, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and [‖c]power against those that oppressed him: as for [d]them that had accused him, she shewed them to be liars, and gave him perpetual glory. [e]She delivered the [‖]righteous people and [f]blameless seed from the nation that oppressed them. [g]She entered into the soul of [h]the servant of the Lord, and [i]withstood dreadful kings [i]in wonders and signs; [j]rendered to the [‖]righteous a reward of their labours, guided them in a marvellous way, and was unto them for [k]a cover by day, and [l]a [‖]light of stars in the night-season; [m]brought them through the Red sea, and led them through much water: [n]but she drowned their enemies, and [o]cast them up out of the bottom of the deep. Therefore [p]the righteous spoiled the ungodly, and [q]praised thy holy name, O Lord, and magnified with one accord thine hand, that fought for them. For wisdom opened the mouth of the dumb, and made the tongues of them that cannot speak [r]eloquent. She prospered their works in the hand of the holy [a]prophet. [b]They went through the wilderness that was not inhabited, and pitched tents in places where there lay no way. [c]They stood against their enemies, and were avenged of their adversaries. When they were thirsty, they called upon thee, and [d]water was given them out of the flinty rock, and their thirst was quenched out of the hard stone.

For by what things their enemies were punished, by the same they in their need were benefited. For instead of a fountain of a perpetual running river [e]troubled with foul blood, for a manifest reproof of [f]that commandment, whereby the infants were slain, thou gavest unto them abundance of water [g]by a means which they hoped not for: declaring by that thirst then [h]how thou hadst punished their adversaries. For when they were tried, albeit but in mercy chastised, they knew how the ungodly were judged in wrath and tormented, [i]thirsting in another manner than the just. For these thou didst admonish and try, [j]as a father: but the other, as a severe king, thou didst condemn and punish. Whether they were absent or present, they were vexed alike. For a double grief came upon them, and a groaning for the remembrance of things past. For when they heard by their own punishments the other to be benefited, [k]they [‖]had some feeling of the Lord. For whom they rejected with scorn, [l]when he was long before thrown out at the casting forth of the infants, him in the end, [m]when they saw what came to pass, they admired. But for the foolish devices of their wickedness, wherewith being deceived they worshipped [n]serpents void of reason, and [o]vile beasts, [p]thou didst send a multitude of unreasonable beasts upon them for vengeance; that they might know, that [q]wherewithal a man sinneth, by the same also shall he be punished. For thy Almighty hand, that made the world [r]of matter without form, wanted not means [s]to send among them a multitude of bears, or fierce lions, or unknown wild beasts, [t]full of rage, newly created, breathing out either a fiery vapour, or filthy sents of scattered smoke, or shooting horrible sparkles out of their eyes: whereof not only the harm might dispatch them at once, but also the terrible sight utterly destroy them. Yea, and without these might they have fallen down with one blast, being persecuted of [u]Vengeance, and scattered abroad through [v]the breath of thy power: but thou hast ordered all things in [w]measure and [ww]number and weight. For thou canst shew thy great strength at all times when thou wilt; and [x]who may withstand the power of thine arm? For the whole world before thee is as a [‖]little grain of the balance, yea, [y]as a drop of the morning dew that falleth down upon the earth. But thou hast mercy upon all; for thou canst do all things, and [z]winkest at the sins of men, because they should amend. For

XII. Therefore chastenest thou them by little and little that [a] offend, and warnest them by putting them in remembrance wherein they have offended, that leaving their wickedness they may believe on thee, O Lord. For it was thy will to destroy by the hands of our fathers both those ‖ old inhabitants of thy holy land, whom [b]thou hatedst for doing most odious works of [‖c]witchcrafts, and wicked sacrifices; and also those [d]merciless murderers of children, and devourers of man's flesh, and the feasts of blood; with their priests out of the midst of their idolatrous crew, and [d]the parents, that killed with their own hands souls destitute of help: that the land, which thou esteemedst above all other, might receive a worthy ‖ colony of God's children. Nevertheless even those [e]thou sparedst as men, and didst send [f]wasps, forerunners of thine host, to destroy them by little and little. Not that thou wast unable to bring the ungodly under the hand of the righteous in battle, or to destroy them at once with cruel beasts, or with one rough word: but executing thy judgments upon them[g] by little and little, thou gavest them place of repentance, not being ignorant that they were a naughty generation, and that their malice was bred in them, and that their cogitation would never be changed. For it was [h]a cursed seed from the beginning; neither didst thou for fear of any man give them pardon for those things wherein they sinned. [i]For who shall say, [j]What hast thou done? or who shall withstand thy judgment? or who shall [k]accuse thee for the nations that perish, whom thou hast made? or who shall come ‖ to stand against thee, ‖ to be revenged for the unrighteous men? For neither is there any God but thou that [l]careth for all, to whom thou mightest shew that thy judgment is not unright. Neither shall king or tyrant be able [m]to set his face against thee for any whom thou hast punished. Forsomuch then as thou art righteous thyself, thou orderest all things righteously: [n]thinking it not agreeable with thy power to condemn him that hath not deserved to be punished. For thy power is the beginning of righteousness, and because thou art the Lord of all, [e]it maketh thee to be gracious unto all. For when men will not believe that thou art of a ‖ full power, thou shewest thy strength, and among them that know it thou makest their boldness manifest. But thou, mastering thy power, judgest with [o]equity, and orderest us [e]with great favour: for [p]thou mayest use power when thou wilt.

But by such works hast thou taught thy people that the just man should be merciful, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope that thou givest repentance for sins. [q]For if thou didst punish the enemies of thy children, and the condemned to death, with such deliberation, giving them [r]time and place, whereby they might be delivered from their malice: with how great [s]circumspection didst thou judge thine own sons, [t]unto whose fathers thou hast sworn, and made covenants of good promises? Therefore, whereas thou dost chasten us, thou scourgest our enemies a thousand times more, to the intent that, [u]when we judge, we should carefully think of thy goodness, and when we ourselves are judged, we should look for mercy. Wherefore, whereas men have lived dissolutely and unrighteously, [v]thou hast tormented them with their own ‖ [w]abominations. For [v]they went astray very far in the ways of error, and [x]held them for gods, which even amongst the beasts of their enemies were despised, being deceived, as children of no understanding. Therefore unto them, as to children without the use of reason, thou didst send a judgment to mock them. But they that would not be reformed by that correction, [y]wherein he dallied with them, shall feel a judgment worthy of God. For look, for what things they grudged, when they were punished, that is, for them whom they thought to be gods; now [z]being punished in them, when they saw it, they acknowledged him to be the true God, whom before they denied to know; and [a]therefore came extreme damnation upon them.

mourning, when he hath made an image of his child soon taken away, now honoured him as a god, which was then a dead man, and delivered to those that were under him [l]ceremonies and [l]sacrifices. Thus [t]in process of time an ungodly custom grown strong was kept as a law, and graven images were worshipped by the commandments of [u]kings. Whom men could not honour [u]in presence, because they dwelt far off, they took the counterfeit of his visage from far, and made an express image of a king whom they honoured, to the end that by this their [m]forwardness they might flatter him that was absent, as if he were present. Also the singular diligence of the artificer did help to set forward the ignorant to more [n]superstition. For he, peradventure willing to please one in authority, forced all his skill to make the resemblance [t]of the best fashion. And so the multitude, allured by the grace of the work, took him now for a [o]god, which a little before was but honoured as a man. And this was Pan occasion to deceive the world: for men, serving either calamity or tyranny, did ascribe unto stones and stocks [q]the incommunicable [l]name.

Moreover this was not enough for them, that they erred in the knowledge of God; but whereas they lived in the great war of ignorance, those so great plagues called they peace. For whilst [r]they slew their children in [l]sacrifices, or used secret [l]ceremonies, or made [s]revellings of strange rites; they kept neither lives nor marriages any longer undefiled: but either one slew another traiterously, or grieved him by adultery. [t]So that there reigned in all men [l]without exception blood, *man*slaughter, theft, and dissimulation, corruption, unfaithfulness, tumults, perjury, disquieting of good men, [u]forgetfulness of good turns, defiling of souls, changing of [l]kind, disorder in marriages, [v]adultery, and [w]shameless uncleanness. [x]For the [n]worshipping of idols [t]not to be named is the beginning, the cause, and the end, of all evil. For either they are mad when they be merry, or [y]prophesy lies, or live unjustly, or else lightly forswear themselves. For [z]insomuch as their trust is in idols, which have no life; though they swear falsely, yet they look not to be hurt. Howbeit for both causes shall they be justly punished: both because they thought not well of God, [l]giving heed unto idols, and also unjustly swore in deceit, despising holiness. For it is not the power of them by whom they swear: but it is the just vengeance of sinners, that punisheth always the offence of the ungodly.

But thou, O God, art gracious and true, longsuffering, and in mercy ordering all things. For if we sin, we are thine, knowing thy power: but we will not sin, knowing that we are counted thine. For to know thee is perfect righteousness: yea, to know thy power is [a]the root of immortality. For neither did the mischievous [b]invention of men deceive us, nor an image spotted with divers colours, the painters' fruitless labour; the sight whereof [l]enticeth fools to lust after it, and so they desire the form of a dead image, that hath no breath. Both they that make them, they that desire them, and they that worship them, are lovers of evil things, and are worthy to have such things to trust upon. For [c]the potter, tempering soft earth, fashioneth every vessel with much labour for our service: yea, [c]of the same clay he maketh both the vessels that serve for clean uses, and likewise also all such as serve to the contrary: but what is the use of either sort, the potter himself is the judge. And employing his labours lewdly, he maketh a vain god of the same clay, even he which a little before was made of earth himself, and within a little while after returneth to the same, [d]out of the which he was taken, [e]when his life which was lent him shall be demanded. Notwithstanding his care is, not that he shall [l]have much labour, nor that his life is short: but striveth to excel goldsmiths and silversmiths, and endeavoureth to do like the workers in brass, and counteth it his glory to make counterfeit things. [f]His heart is ashes, his hope is more vile than earth, and his life of less value than clay: forasmuch as he knew not his Maker, and him that inspired into him an active soul, and [g]breathed in a living spirit. But they counted our life [h]a pastime, and our [t]time here a market for gain: for, say they, we must be getting every way, though it be by evil means. [l]For this man, [i]that of earthly matter maketh brickle vessels and graven images, knoweth himself to offend above all others. And all the enemies of thy people, that hold them in subjection, are most foolish, and are more miserable than very babes. For they counted all the idols of the heathen to be gods: [k]which neither have the use of eyes to see, nor noses to draw ‖breath, nor ears to hear, nor fingers of hands to handle; and as for their feet, they are slow to go. For man made them, and [l]he that borrowed his own spirit fashioned them: but no man can make a god like unto himself. For being mortal, he worketh [m]a dead thing with wicked hands: for he himself is better than [n]the things which he worshippeth: whereas he lived once, but they never.

Yea, [o]they worshipped those beasts also that are most hateful: for being compared together, some are worse than others. Neither are they beautiful, so much as to be desired [p]in respect of beasts: but [q]they went without the praise of God and his blessing. Therefore [a]by the like were they punished worthily, and by the multitude of beasts tormented. Instead of which punishment,[aa] dealing graciously with thine own people, thou preparedst for them meat of a strange taste, even [b]quails to stir up their appetite: to the end that they, desiring food, might [c]for the ugly sight of the beasts sent among them lothe even that, which they must needs desire; but these, suffering penury [n]for a short space, might be made partakers of a strange taste. For it was requisite, that upon them exercising tyranny should come penury, [d]which they could not avoid: but to these it should only be shewed how their enemies were tormented. For when [e]the horrible fierceness of beasts came upon ‖these, and [f]they perished with the stings of crooked serpents, thy wrath endured not for ever: but they were troubled [n]for a small season, that they might be admonished, [g]having a sign of salvation, [m]to put them in remembrance of the commandment of thy law. For he that turned himself towards it was not saved by the thing that he saw, [h]but by thee, that art [i]the Saviour of all. And in this thou madest thine enemies confess, that it is thou who deliverest from all evil: for them the bitings of [j]grasshoppers and [k]flies killed, neither was there found any remedy for their life: [l]for they were worthy to be punished by such. But thy sons not the very teeth of venomous dragons overcame: for thy mercy was ever by them, and healed them. For they were [t]pricked, [m]that they should remember thy words; and were [n]quickly saved, that not falling into deep forgetfulness, they might be ‖continually mindful of thy goodness. For it was neither herb, nor [o]mollifying plaister, that restored them to health: but [p]thy word, O Lord, which healeth all things. [q]For thou hast power of life and death: [r]thou leadest to the gates of hell, and bringest up again.

[s]A man indeed killeth through his malice: and [t]the spirit, when it is gone forth, returneth not; neither the soul received up cometh again. [s]But it is not possible to escape thine hand. For the ungodly, [u]that denied to know thee, were scourged [v]by the strength of thine arm: [w]with strange rains, hails, and showers, were they persecuted, [d]that they could not avoid, and [w]through fire were they consumed. For, which is most to be wondered at, [x]the fire had more force in the water, that quencheth all things: for [y]the world fighteth for the righteous. For sometimes the flame was mitigated, that it might not burn up [z]the beasts that were sent against the ungodly; but themselves might see and perceive that they were persecuted with the judgment of God. And at another time it burneth even in the midst of water above the power of fire, that it might destroy the fruits of an unjust land. Instead whereof [a]thou feddest thine own people with [b]angels' food, and didst send them [c]from heaven bread prepared without their labour, able to content every man's delight, and agreeing to every taste. For thy [d]‖sustenance declared thy sweetness unto thy children, and serving to the appetite of the eater, ‖tempered itself to every man's liking. [e]But snow and [g]ice endured the fire, and melted not, that they might know [w x]that fire burning in the hail, and [w]sparkling in the rain, [f]did destroy the fruits of the enemies. But [g]this again did even forget his own strength, that [h]the righteous might be nourished. [i]For the creature that serveth thee, who art the Maker, increaseth his strength against the unrighteous for their punishment, and abateth his strength for the benefit of such as put their trust in thee. Therefore even then [i]was it altered into all ‖fashions, and was obedient to thy grace, that nourisheth all things, according to the desire ‖of them that had need: that thy children, O Lord, [j]whom thou lovest, [k]might know, that it is not the growing

XVII.

For [a]great are thy judgments, and cannot be expressed: therefore [l]unnurtured souls have erred. For when unrighteous men thought to oppress the holy nation; [b]they being shut up [l]in their houses, the prisoners of darkness, and fettered with the bonds of a long night, lay there [l]exiled from the eternal providence. For while they supposed 3 to lie hid in their secret sins, they were scattered [l]under a dark veil of forgetfulness, being horribly astonished, and troubled with strange [l]apparitions. For neither might the corner that held them keep them from fear: but noises as of waters falling down sounded about them, and sad visions appeared unto them with heavy countenances. No power of the 5 fire might give them light: neither could the bright flames of the stars endure to lighten that horrible night. Only there 6 appeared unto them a fire kindled of itself, very dreadful: for being much terrified, [l]they thought the things which they saw to be worse than the sight they saw not. As for [c]the illusions of art 7 magick, they were put down, and [d]their vaunting in wisdom was reproved with disgrace. For they that promised to 8 drive away terrors and troubles from a sick soul, were sick themselves of [e]fear, worthy to be laughed at. For though 9 no terrible thing did fear them; yet being scared with beasts that passed by, and hissing of [f]serpents, they died for fear, 10 [l]denying that they saw the air, [g]which could of no side be avoided. (For 11 wickedness, condemned by her own witness, is very timorous, and being pressed with conscience, [h]always forecasteth grievous things. For fear is nothing else 12 but a betraying of the succours which reason offereth. And the expectation 13 from within, being less, [i]counteth the ignorance more than the cause which bringeth the torment). But they sleep- 14 ing the same sleep that night, [l]which was indeed intolerable, and which came upon them out of the bottoms of [k]inevi- 15 table hell, were partly vexed with monstrous [l]apparitions, and partly fainted, [m]their heart failing them: for a sudden fear, and not looked for, came upon 16 them. So then whosoever there fell down was [n]straitly kept, shut up in a 17 prison without iron bars. [o]For whether he were husbandman, or shepherd, or a labourer in the [l]field, he was overtaken, and endured that necessity, which could not be avoided: for they were all bound with one chain of darkness. [p]Whether it 18 were a [pp]whistling wind, or a melodious noise of birds among the spreading branches, or a pleasing fall of water running violently, or a [l][q]terrible sound of 19 stones cast down, or a running that could not be seen of skipping beasts, or a roaring voice of most [q]savage wild beasts, or a rebounding echo from the hollow mountains; these things made them to swoon for fear. [o]For the whole 20 world shined with clear light, and none were hindered in their labour: over 21 them only was spread a heavy night, an image of that [r]darkness which should afterwards receive them: but yet were they unto themselves more grievous than the darkness. [a]Nevertheless thy [h]saints 18 had a very great light, whose voice they [b]hearing, and not seeing their shape, because they also had not suffered the same 2 things, they counted them happy. But for that they did not hurt them now, of whom they had been wronged before, they thanked them, and besought them pardon for that they [c]had been enemies. 3 Instead whereof [d]thou gavest them a burning pillar of fire, both to be a guide of the unknown journey, and a [e]harmless sun to entertain them honourably. 4 [f]For they were worthy to be deprived of light, and imprisoned in darkness, who had kept thy sons shut up, by whom the [l]uncorrupt light of the law was to be given unto the world.

5 And [g]when they had determined to slay the babes of [h]the saints, [i]one child being cast forth, and saved, to reprove them, [k]thou tookest away the multitude of their children, and [l]destroyedst them 6 altogether in a mighty water. [m]Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that [n] assuredly knowing [o]unto what oaths they had given credence, they might 7 afterwards be of good cheer. So of thy people was accepted both the salvation of the righteous, and destruction of the enemies. For [p]wherewith thou didst 8 punish our adversaries, [q]by the same thou didst glorify us, whom thou hadst called. For the [h]righteous children of 9 good men [r]did sacrifice [s]secretly, and with one consent made [‖]a holy law, that the saints should be alike partakers of the same good and evil, the fathers now singing out the songs of praise. But 10 on the other side there sounded [t]an ill according cry of the enemies; and a lamentable noise was carried abroad for children that were bewailed. [u]The 11 master and the servant were punished after one manner; and like as the king, so suffered the common person. [t]So 12

they altogether had innumerable dead with one kind of death; neither were the living sufficient to bury them: for in one moment the noblest offspring of them was destroyed. For whereas they would 13 not believe any thing [w]by reason of the enchantments; upon the destruction of the firstborn, [x]they acknowledged this people to be the sons of God. For 14 while all things were in quiet silence, and [k]that night was in the midst of her swift course, [k]thine Almighty word leapt 15 down from heaven [y]out of thy royal throne, as [z]a fierce man of war into the midst of a land of destruction, and 16 brought thine [a]unfeigned commandment as [b]a sharp sword, and standing up filled all things with death; and [c]it touched the heaven, but it stood upon the earth.
Then suddenly [‖][d]visions of horrible 17 dreams troubled them sore, and terrors came upon them unlooked for. And 18 one thrown here, another there, half dead, shewed the cause of his death.
For the dreams that troubled them did 19
foreshew this, lest they should perish, and not know why they were afflicted.

Yea, [q]the tasting of death touched 20 [e]the righteous also, and [f]there was a destruction of the multitude in the wilderness: [f]but the wrath endured not long.
For then [g]the blameless man made haste, 21 and stood forth to defend them; and bringing [i]the shield of his proper ministry, even prayer, and [h]the propitiation of incense, set himself against the wrath, and so brought the calamity to an end, declaring that he was thy servant. So 22 he overcame the destroyer, not with strength of body, nor force of [i]arms, but with a word subdued he him that punished, [k]alleging the oaths and cove-23 nants made with the fathers. For when the dead were now fallen down by heaps one upon another, [l]standing between, he stayed the wrath, and [‖]parted the way 24 to the living. For [m]in the long garment was the whole world, and [n]in the four rows of the stones was the glory of the fathers graven, and thy majesty [o]upon 25 the diadem of his head. Unto these [p]the destroyer gave place, and was afraid of them: for it was enough that they only [q]tasted of the wrath.

As for the ungodly, wrath came upon them without mercy [a]unto the end: for he knew before what they would do;
2 how that [b]having given them leave to depart, and [c]sent them hastily away, [d]they would repent and pursue them.
3 For whilst they were yet mourning and making lamentation at the graves of the dead, they added another foolish device, and pursued them as fugitives, whom 4 they had [‖]intreated to be gone. For the destiny, whereof they were worthy, drew them unto this end, and made them forget the things that had already happened, that they might fulfil the punishment which was [e]wanting to their 5 [f]torments: and that [g]thy people might pass a wonderful way: but they might 6 find a strange death. [h]For the whole creature in his proper kind was fashioned again anew, [i]serving the peculiar commandments that were given unto them, that thy children might be kept without 7 hurt: as namely, [k]a cloud shadowing the camp; and where water stood before, dry land appeared; and [g][l]out of the Red sea a way without impediment; and out of the violent stream a green field:
8 wherethrough all the people went that were defended with thy hand, seeing thy 9 marvellous strange wonders. For [m]they went at large like horses, and [n]leaped like lambs, praising thee, O Lord, who 10 hadst delivered them. For they were yet mindful of the things that were done while they sojourned in the strange land, how the ground brought forth [l]flies instead of cattle, and [o]how the river cast up a multitude of frogs instead of fishes.
11 But afterwards [p]they saw a new generation of fowls, when, being led with their 12 appetite, they asked delicate meats. For quails came up unto them from the sea 13 for their [‖]contentment. And punishments came upon the sinners not without former [q]signs [r]by the force of thunders: for they suffered justly according to their own wickedness, [s]insomuch as they used a more hard and hateful behaviour towards strangers. For [t]the Sodomites did not receive those whom they knew not, when they came: but [u]these brought friends into bondage, that had well deserved of them. And not only so, but peradventure some [x]respect shall be had [t]of those, because they used strangers not friendly: but [u]these very grievously afflicted them, [y]whom they had received with feastings, and were already made partakers of the same laws with them. On the other side, [h]the flames wasted not the flesh of the corruptible living things, though they walked therein; neither [i]melted they [k]the icy kind of heavenly meat, that was of nature apt to melt.

For in all things, O Lord, thou didst magnify thy people, and glorify them, neither didst thou lightly regard them: but didst assist them [l]in every time and place.

THE WISDOM OF JESUS THE SON OF SIRACH,

OR,

ECCLESIASTICUS.

A Prologue made by an uncertain Author.

Some refer this Prologue to Athanasius, because it is found in his Synopsis.

THIS Jesus was the son of Sirach, and grandchild to Jesus of the same name with him. This man therefore lived in the latter times, after the people had been led away captive, and called home again, and almost after all the prophets. Now his grandfather Jesus, as he himself witnesseth, was a man of great diligence and wisdom among the Hebrews, who did not only gather the grave and short sentences of wise men, that had been before him, but himself also uttered some of his own, full of much understanding and wisdom. When as therefore the first Jesus died, leaving this book almost ‖ perfected, Sirach his son receiving it after him left it to his own son Jesus; who, having gotten it into his hands, compiled it all orderly into one volume, and called it Wisdom, intituling it both by his own name, his father's name, and his grandfather's; alluring the hearer by the very name of wisdom to have a greater love to the study of this book. It containeth therefore wise sayings, [a] dark sentences, and parables, and [b] certain particular ancient godly stories of men [c] that pleased God; also [d] his prayer and [e] song; moreover, what benefits God had vouchsafed his people, and what plagues he had heaped upon their enemies. This Jesus did imitate Solomon, and was no less famous for wisdom and learning, both being indeed a man of great learning, and so reputed also.

* ch. 50. 27. The Prologue of the Wisdom of * Jesus, the Son of Sirach.

WHEREAS many and great things have been delivered unto us by [a] the law and the prophets, and by others that have followed their steps, for the which things Israel ought to be commended for learning and wisdom; and whereof not only the readers must needs become skilful themselves, but also they that desire to learn be able to profit them which are ‖ without, both by speaking and writing: my grandfather Jesus, when he had much given himself to the reading of [a] the law, and the prophets, and other books of our fathers, and had gotten therein good judgment, was drawn on also himself to write something pertaining to learning and wisdom; to the intent that those which are desirous to learn, and are addicted to these things, might profit much more in living according to the law. Wherefore let me intreat you to read it with favour and attention, and to pardon us, wherein we may seem to come short of some words, which we have laboured to interpret. For the same things uttered in [b] Hebrew, and translated into another tongue, have not the same force in them; and not only these things, but [a] the law itself, and the † prophets, and the rest of the books, have no small ‖ difference, when they are spoken in their own language. For in the eight and thirtieth year coming into Egypt, when Euergetes was king, and continuing there some time, I found a ‖ book of no small learning: therefore I thought it most necessary for me to bestow some diligence and travail to interpret it; using great watchfulness and skill in that space to bring the book to an end, and set it forth for them also, which [c] in a strange country are willing to learn, being prepared before in manners to live after the law.

[c] Acts 13. 17 (Gk.).

I. Before CHRIST about 200.

[a] All wisdom cometh from the Lord,
And [c] is with him for ever.
[b] Who can number the sand of the sea, and the drops of rain,
And the days of eternity?
Who can find out the height of heaven, and the breadth of the earth,
And the deep, and wisdom?
[c] Wisdom hath been created before all things,
And the understanding of prudence from everlasting.
The word of God most high is [d] the fountain of wisdom;
And her ways are everlasting commandments.
To whom hath [e] the root of wisdom been revealed?
Or who hath known her wise counsels?
Unto whom hath the knowledge of wisdom been made manifest?
And who hath understood her great experience?
There is one wise and greatly to be feared,
The Lord sitting upon his throne.
He created her, and saw her, and [f] numbered her,
And poured her out upon all his works.
She is with all flesh according to his gift,
And he hath given her to them that love him.
The fear of the Lord is honour, and glory,
And [g] gladness, and a crown of rejoicing.
The fear of the Lord maketh a merry heart,
And giveth joy, and gladness, and a long life.
Whoso feareth the Lord, it shall go well with him [h] at the last,
And he [i] shall find favour in the day of his death.
[j] To fear the Lord is the beginning of wisdom:
And it was created with the faithful in the womb.
[j] She hath built an everlasting foundation with men,
And she shall [k] continue with their seed.
[l] To fear the Lord is fulness of wisdom,
And filleth men with her fruits.
[l] She filleth all their house with things desirable,
And the garners with her increase.

The fear of the Lord is a crown of wisdom,
Making peace and perfect health to flourish;
Both which are the gifts of God:
And it enlargeth their rejoicing that love him.
Wisdom [m] raineth down skill and knowledge of understanding,
And exalteth them to honour that hold her fast.
[e] The root of wisdom is to fear the Lord,
And the branches thereof are [n] long life.
The fear of the Lord driveth away sins:
And where it is present, it turneth away wrath.
A furious man cannot [i] be justified;
For the sway of his fury shall be his destruction.
[o] A patient man will bear for a time,
And afterward joy shall spring up unto him.
He will hide his words for a time,
And the lips of [p] many shall declare his wisdom.
[q] The parables of knowledge are in the treasures of wisdom:
But godliness is an abomination to a sinner.
If thou desire wisdom, [r] keep the commandments,
And [s] the Lord shall give her unto thee.
For the fear of the Lord is wisdom and instruction:
And faith and meekness are his delight.
[i] Distrust not the fear of the Lord when thou art poor:
And come not unto him [t] with a double heart.
Be not a hypocrite in the sight of men,
And [u] take good heed what thou speakest.
[x] Exalt not thyself, lest thou fall,
And bring dishonour upon thy soul,
And so God discover thy secrets,
And cast thee down [y] in the midst of the congregation,
Because thou camest not in truth to the fear of the Lord,
But thy heart is [z] full of deceit.

Ye that fear the Lord, believe him;
And your reward shall not fail.
Ye that fear the Lord, hope for good,
And for everlasting joy and mercy.
[l] Look at the generations of old, and see;
Did ever any trust in the Lord, and was confounded?
Or did any abide in his fear, and was forsaken?
Or [m] whom did he ever despise, that called upon him?
For [n] the Lord is full of compassion and mercy,
Longsuffering, and very pitiful, and [o] forgiveth sins,
And saveth in time of affliction.
Woe be to [p] fearful hearts, and [q] faint hands,
And the sinner that goeth [r] two ways!
Woe unto him that is fainthearted! for he believeth not;
Therefore shall he not be defended.
Woe unto you [s] that have lost patience!
And what will ye do when the Lord shall [t] visit you?
They that fear the Lord will not disobey his word;
And [u] they that love him will keep his ways.
They that fear the Lord will seek that which is wellpleasing unto him;
And they that love him shall be filled with the law.

They that fear the Lord will [x] prepare their hearts,
And humble their souls in his sight,
[y] Saying, [z] We will fall into the hands of the Lord, and not into the hands of men:
For as his [a] majesty is, so is his mercy.

Hear me your father, O children, III.
And do thereafter, that ye may be safe.
For [a] the Lord hath given the father honour over the children,
And hath confirmed the ‖ authority of the mother over the sons.
Whoso honoureth his father maketh an atonement for his sins:
And he that honoureth his mother is as one that [b] layeth up treasure.
Whoso honoureth his father shall have joy of his own children;
And when he maketh his prayer, he shall be heard.
He that honoureth his father [a] shall have a long life;
And he that is obedient unto the Lord shall [c] be a comfort to his mother.
He that feareth the Lord will honour his father,
And will do service unto his parents, as to his masters.
[a] Honour thy father and mother both in word and deed,
That a blessing may come upon thee from them.
For [d] the blessing of the father establisheth the houses of children:
But the curse of the mother rooteth out foundations.
Glory not in the dishonour of thy father;
For thy father's dishonour is no glory unto thee.
For [e] the glory of a man is from the honour of his father;
And a mother in dishonour is a reproach to the children.
My son, help thy father in his age,
And grieve him not as long as he liveth.
And if his understanding fail, have patience with him;
And despise him not when thou art ‖ in thy full strength.
For the relieving of thy father shall not be forgotten:

[m] Wisdom exalteth [n] her children, [o] See Prov. 8. 17. [p] So Prov. 8. 17. ch. 6. 36. & 51. 14 & 39. 5 in the Gk.
And layeth hold of them that seek her.
[o] He that loveth her loveth life; 12
And [p] they that seek to her early shall be filled with [q] joy.
He that holdeth her fast [r] shall in- 13 [q] Ch. 1. 11 (Gk.). 12. So ver. 18 Gk. [r] Prov. 3. 35. ch. 37. 26 text herit glory;
And where*soever* she entereth, the Lord will bless.

‖ Or, in the sanctuary.

They that serve her shall minister ‖to the Holy One:
And them that love her the Lord doth love.

[s] See Wisd. 3. 8.

Whoso giveth ear unto her [s]shall judge the nations:
And he that attendeth unto her shall dwell securely.
If a man commit himself unto her, he shall inherit her;
And his generations shall hold her in possession.
For at the first she will walk with him [t]by crooked ways,
And bring fear and dread upon him,
And torment him with her discipline,
Until she may trust his soul,
And try him by her laws.
Then will she return the straight way unto him,
And [q]comfort him, and [u]shew him her secrets.
But if he go wrong, she will forsake him,
And give him over to his own ruin.

[t] Comp. Matt. 7. 13, 14.

[u] See ch. 3. 19.

[w] So Eph. 5. 16.

[w] Observe the opportunity, and beware of evil;

[x] ch. 41. 16.

And [x]be not ashamed when it concerneth thy soul.

[y] ch. 20. 22. & 42. 1—8.

For [y]there is a shame that bringeth sin;

[z] ch. 41. 17—24.

And [z]there is a shame which is glory and grace.

[a] ch. 42. 1. See Deut. 10. 17.

[a] Accept no person against thy soul,
And let not the reverence of any man cause thee to fall.

[t] Gr. in time of saying.

And refrain not to speak, [t]when there is occasion to do good,
And hide not thy wisdom in her beauty.
For by speech wisdom shall be known:
And learning by the word of the tongue.
In no wise speak against the truth;
But be abashed of the error of thine ignorance.

[b] James 5. 16.

[b] Be not ashamed to confess thy sins;

‖ Or, And strive not against the stream.

‖And force not the course of the river.
Make not thyself an underling to a foolish man;
Neither [a]accept the person of the mighty.
Strive for the truth unto death,
And the Lord shall fight for thee.

[c] See ch. 1. 29.

[c] Be not hasty in thy tongue,
And in thy deeds slack and remiss.

Be not as a lion in thy house,
[d] Nor frantick among thy servants.

[d] See Eph. 6. 9.

[e] Let not thine hand be stretched out to receive,

[e] Acts 20. 35.

[f] Or, give. Gk. as Matt. 20. 8.

And shut when thou shouldest ‖repay.
[a] Set not thy heart [b]upon thy goods:
And say not, [c]I have enough for my life.

V.

[a] ver. 8. ch. 13. 11. & 34. 2, 15. & 35. 12. & 37. 11. Acts 3. 5. 1 Tim. 4. 16 in the Gk.

[d] Follow not thine own mind and thy strength,
To walk in the ways of thy heart:
And say not, Who shall controul me for my works?
For the Lord will surely revenge thy pride.

[b] So 1 Tim. 6. 17.

[c] Luke 12. 15, 19.

[d] See Prov. 3. 5.

[e] Say not, I have sinned, and what harm hath happened unto me?
For [f]the Lord is longsuffering, [g]he will in no wise let thee go.

[e] See Eccles. 8. 11.

[f] So 2 Pet. 3. 9.

[g] See Exod. 34. 7.

Concerning propitiation, be not without fear
[h]To add sin unto sin:
And say not, His mercy is great;
He will be pacified for the multitude of my sins:
[i] For mercy and wrath come from him,
And his indignation resteth upon sinners.

So ch. 16. 13. 1 Thess. 5. 3.

[h] ch. 3. 27 (Gk.).

So ch. 21. 1.

[i] ch. 16. 11.

[j] Make no tarrying to turn to the Lord,
And put not off from day to day:
For [k]suddenly shall the wrath of the Lord come forth,
And in thy security thou shalt be destroyed,
And perish in the day of vengeance.

[j] See Isai. 55. 6.

[k] See 1 Thess. 5. 3.

[a] Set not thy heart upon [l]goods unjustly gotten;
For [m]they shall not profit thee in the day of [n]calamity.

[l] See Prov. 10. 2.

[m] See Ezek. 7. 19.

[n] See ch. 2. 2.

Winnow not with every wind,
And go not into every way:
For [o]so doth the sinner [p]that hath a double tongue.

[o] See James 1. 8.

[p] ver. 14. ch. 6. 1. & 28. 13. Comp. ver. 10.

[o] Be stedfast in thy understanding;
And let thy word be [p]the same.
[q] Be swift to hear; and let thy life be sincere;
And [r]with patience give answer.
If thou hast understanding, [r]answer thy neighbour;
If not, [s]lay thy hand upon thy mouth.
[t] Honour and shame is in talk;
And [u]the tongue of man is his fall.
Be not called [x]a whisperer, and [y]lie not in wait with thy tongue:
For [z]a foul shame is upon the thief,
And an evil condemnation upon [p]the double tongue.

[q] Jam. 1. 19. [r] So ch. 8. 9. See 1 Pet. 3. 15.

[s] See Wisd. 8. 12.

[t] So Prov. 18. 21. Matt. 12. 37.

[u] See ch. 1. 29.

[x] ch. 21. 28. & 28. 13. See 2 Cor. 12. 20.

[y] Comp. Prov. 26. 20, 22.

[z] Comp. Prov. 6. 30.

Be not ignorant of any thing in a great matter or a small.

VI. Instead of a friend become not an enemy;
For thereby thou shalt inherit an ill name, shame, and reproach:
[a] Even so shall a sinner [a]that hath a double tongue.

[b] See Rom. 12. 16.
[b]Extol not thyself in the counsel of thine own heart;
That thy soul be not torn in pieces as a bull straying alone.
Thou shalt eat up thy leaves,
And lose thy fruit,
[c] See Isai. 56. 3. So Luke 23. 31.
And leave thyself as [c]a dry tree.
A wicked soul shall destroy him that hath it,
And shall make him to be laughed to scorn of his enemies.
[†] Gr. A sweet throat. Comp. Ps. 119. 103.
[†d]Sweet language will multiply friends:
And a fair speaking tongue will increase kind greetings.
[d] So ch. 20. 13.
Be in peace with many:
Nevertheless have but one counseller of a thousand.
[‖] Or, get him in the time of trouble.
If thou wouldest get a friend, [‖]prove him first,
And be not hasty to credit him.
For some man is a friend for his own occasion, [e] ver. 10 (Gk.).
And [e]will not abide in the day of thy trouble.
And there is a friend, who being turned to enmity and strife
Will discover thy reproach.
[f] ch. 37. 4, 5.
Again, [f]some friend is a companion at the table,
And [e]will not continue in the day of thy affliction.
But in thy prosperity he will be as thyself,
And will be bold over thy servants.
If thou be brought low, he will be against thee,
And will hide himself from thy face.
Separate thyself from thine enemies,
[g] Gk. as Matt. 7. 15. & 10. 17. & 16. 6, 11, &c.
[h] ver. 8—12.
And [g]take heed of [h]thy friends.
A faithful friend is a strong defence:
And he that hath found such a one hath found a treasure.
[i] Esther 7. 4 (Engl.). Matt. 16. 26. Mark 8. 37 in the Gk.
Nothing doth [i]countervail a faithful friend,
And his excellency is unvaluable.
A faithful friend is the medicine of life;
And they that fear the Lord shall find him.

Whoso feareth the Lord shall direct his friendship aright:
For as he is, so shall his neighbour be also.
[k] Matt. 19. 20. 1 Macc. 2. 66.
My son, gather instruction [k]from thy youth up:
So shalt thou find wisdom till thine old age.
Come unto her as one that ploweth and soweth, [l] So James 5. 7. Comp. 2 Tim. 2. 6.
And [l]wait for her good fruits:
For [m]thou shalt not toil much in labouring about her,
[m] So ch. 50. 27. Comp. Matt. 11. 30.
But thou shalt eat of her fruits right soon.
[n] So Prov. 17. 16. & 18. 2.
[n]She is very unpleasant to the unlearned:
[‖] Or, heart. Prov. 6. 32. & 11. 12 in the Heb.
He that is without [‖]understanding will not remain with her.
[o] Zech. 12. 3.
She will lie upon him as [o]a mighty stone of trial;
And he will cast her from him ere it be long.
[p] ch. 43. 8 & 46. 1.
For wisdom is [p]according to her name,
And she is not manifest unto many.
Give ear, my son, receive my advice,
And refuse not my counsel,
And put thy feet into her fetters,
And thy neck into her [‖]chain.
[‖] Or, collar. Prov. 1. 9 (Gk.).
[q] So ch. 51. 26. Matt. 11. 29.
[q]Bow down thy shoulder, and bear her,
And be not grieved with her bonds.
[r] So Deut. 6. 5.
Come unto her [r]with thy whole heart,
And keep her ways [r]with all thy power.
Search, and seek, and she shall be made known unto thee:
[s] Wisd. 8. 21 (Gk.).
And when [s]thou hast got hold of her, let her not go.
[t] See ch. 1. 13. [u] ch. 22. 13. Jer. 6. 16 (Heb.).
For [t]at the last thou shalt [u]find her rest,
And that shall be turned to thy joy.
[w] Matt. 11. 29 (Gk.). [w] ver. 24.
Then shall [w]her fetters be a strong defence for thee,
And [w]her chains a robe of glory.
For there is a golden ornament upon her,
[‖] Or, a ribband of blue silk. Numb. 15. 38.
And her bands are [‖]purple lace.
[x] See ch. 1. 11.
Thou shalt put her on as a robe of honour,
And shalt put her about thee as [x]a crown of joy.
My son, if thou wilt, thou shalt be taught:
[y] Gk. as Prov. 13. 1. & 14. 8, 15, 18. & 22. 3. & 28. 2.
And if thou wilt apply thy mind, thou shalt be [y]prudent.
See ch. 21. 12. marg.
If thou love to hear, thou shalt receive understanding:
And if thou bow thine ear, thou shalt be wise.

Stand in the multitude of the [z]elders; 34
And cleave unto him that is wise.
Be willing to hear every godly dis- 35 course;
And let not the [a]parables of understanding escape thee.
And if thou seest a man of under- 36 standing, [b]get thee betimes unto him,
And let thy foot wear the steps of his door.
Let thy mind be upon the ordinances 37
of the Lord,
And [c]meditate continually in his commandments:
[d]He shall establish thine heart,
And give thee wisdom at thine own desire.

VII.

Do no evil, [a]so shall no harm come unto thee.
Depart from the unjust, and iniquity 2 shall turn away from thee.
My son, [b]sow not upon the furrows 3
of unrighteousness,
And thou shalt not reap them [c]seven-fold.
Seek not of the Lord pre-eminence, 4
Neither of the king the seat of honour.
[d]Justify not thyself before the Lord; 5
And boast not of thy wisdom before the king.
Seek not to be judge, being not able 6
to take away iniquity;
[e]Lest at any time thou fear the person of the mighty,
And lay a [f]stumblingblock in the way of thy uprightness.
[g]Offend not against the multitude of 7
a city,
And then thou shalt not cast thyself down among the people.
[h]Bind not one sin upon another; 8
For in one thou shalt not be unpunished.
[i]Say not, God will look upon the mul- 9
titude of my oblations,
And when I offer to the most high
God, he will accept it.
[k]Be not fainthearted when thou mak- 10
est thy prayer,
And [l]neglect not to give alms.
[m]Laugh no man to scorn in the bitter- 11
ness of his soul:
For [n]there is one which humbleth and exalteth.
[f]Devise not a lie against thy brother; 12
Neither do the like to thy friend.
Use not to make any manner of lie: 13
For the custom thereof is not good.

[o]Use not many words in a multitude 14
of elders,
And [p]make not [‖]much babbling when thou prayest.
Hate not laborious work, 15
Neither husbandry, [q]which the most High hath [†]ordained.
Number not thyself among the multi- 16
tude of sinners,
But remember that wrath will not tarry long.
[qq]Humble thy soul greatly: 17
For the vengeance of the ungodly is [r]fire and worms.
Change not a friend [rr]for any good by 18
no means;
Neither a [s]faithful brother for the gold of [t]Ophir.
[u]Forego not a wise and good woman: 19
[v]For her grace is above gold.
[w]Whereas thy servant worketh truly, 20
entreat him not evil,
Nor [x]the hireling that bestoweth himself wholly for thee.
[w]Let thy soul love a [y]good servant, 21
And [z]defraud him not of liberty.
[a]Hast thou cattle? have an eye to 22
them:
And if they be for thy profit, keep them with thee.
Hast thou children? [b]instruct them, 23
And [c]bow down their neck from their youth.
[d]Hast thou daughters? have care of 24
their body,
And shew not thyself cheerful toward
them.
Marry thy daughter, and so shalt thou 25 have performed a weighty matter:
But give her to a man [y]of understanding.
Hast thou a wife after thy mind? for- 26 sake her not:
But give not thyself over to a [‖]light
woman.
[e]Honour thy father with thy whole 27
heart,
And [f]forget not the sorrows of thy mother.
Remember that thou wast begot of 28
them;
And how canst thou recompense them the things that they have done for thee?
Fear the Lord with all thy soul, 29
And [g]reverence his priests.
[h]Love him that made thee with all 30
thy strength,
And [i]forsake not his ministers.

And [n]the sacrifice of sanctification, and [o]the firstfruits of the holy things.
And [p]stretch thine hand unto the 32
poor,
That [‖]thy [q]blessing may be perfected.
A gift hath grace in the sight of every 33
man living;
And [r]for the dead detain it not.
[s]Fail not to be with them that weep, 34
And mourn with them that mourn.
[t]Be not slow to visit the sick: 35
For that shall make thee to be beloved.
Whatsoever thou takest in hand, [u]re- 36
member the end,
And thou shalt never do amiss.
Strive not with a mighty man,
Lest thou fall into his hands.

VIII.

[a]Be not at variance with a rich man, 2
lest he overweigh thee:
For [b]gold hath destroyed many,
And perverted the hearts of kings.
Strive not with a man that is [‖]full of 3 tongue,
And [c]heap not wood upon his fire.
Jest not with a rude man, 4
Lest thy ancestors be disgraced.
[d]Reproach not a man that turneth 5
from sin,
But remember that we are all worthy of [e]punishment.
[f]Dishonour not a man in his old age: 6
For even some of us wax old.
Rejoice not over thy greatest enemy 7
being dead,
But remember that we die all.
Despise not the discourse of the wise, 8
But acquaint thyself with their proverbs:
For of them thou shalt learn instruction,
And how to serve great men with ease.
[g]Miss not the discourse of the elders: 9
For they also learned of their fathers,
And of them thou shalt learn understanding,
And [h]to give answer as need requireth.
[i]Kindle not the coals of a sinner, 10
Lest thou be burnt with the flame of his fire.
Rise not up in anger at the presence 11
of an injurious person,
Lest he lie in wait [j]to entrap thee [‖]in thy words.

[k]Lend not unto him that is mightier 12 than thyself;
For if thou lendest him, count it but lost.
Be not surety above thy power:
For [l]if thou be surety, take care to pay it.
Go not to law with a judge;
For they will judge for him according to his [‖]honour.
[m]Travel not by the way with a bold fellow,
Lest he become grievous unto thee:
For he will do according to his own will,
And thou shalt perish with him through his folly.
[n]Strive not with an angry man,
And go not with him into a solitary place:
For blood is as nothing in his sight;
And where there is no help, he will overthrow thee.
[o]Consult not with a fool;
For [p]he cannot keep counsel.
Do no secret thing before a stranger;
For thou knowest not what he will bring forth.
Open not thine heart to every man,
Lest he requite thee with a shrewd turn.

IX.

Be not jealous over [a]the wife of thy bosom,
And teach her not an evil lesson against thyself.
Give not thy soul unto a woman
To set her foot upon thy [b]substance.
[c]Meet not with a harlot,
Lest thou fall into her snares.
Use not much the company of a wo- man that [‖]is a singer,
Lest thou be taken with her attempts.
[d]Gaze not on a maid,
[e]That thou fall not by [f]those things that are precious in her.
Give not thy soul unto harlots,
That thou lose not thine inheritance.
Look not round about thee in the streets of the city, Neither wander thou in the solitary places thereof.
Turn away thine eye from a beautiful
woman,
And look not upon another's beauty;
For [g]many have been [h]deceived by the beauty of a woman;
For herewith [i]love is kindled as a fire.

Forsake not an old friend;

[n]Delight not in the thing that the ungodly have pleasure in;
But remember they shall not go unpunished unto their grave.
Keep thee far from the man that hath power to kill;
So shalt thou not doubt the fear of death:

Lest he take away thy life presently:
Remember that thou goest in the midst of snares,
And that thou walkest upon the battlements of the city.

Let thy talk be with the wise,
And [p]all thy communication in the law of the most High.
And let just men eat and drink with thee;
And let thy glorying be in the fear of the Lord.
For the hand of the artificer the work shall be commended:
And the wise ruler of the people for his speech.
A man [q]of an ill tongue is dangerous in his city;
And he that is rash in his talk shall be hated.

X.

A wise judge will instruct his people;
And the government of a prudent man is well ordered.
[a]As the judge of the people is himself, so are his officers;
And what manner of man the ruler of the city is, such are all they that dwell therein.

An unwise king destroyeth his people;
But through the prudence of them which are in authority the city shall be inhabited.
[b]The power of the earth is in the hand of the Lord,
And in due time he will set over it one that is profitable.
In the hand of God is the [c]prosperity of man:
And upon the [l]person of [d]the scribe shall he lay his honour.
[e]Bear not hatred to thy neighbour for every wrong;
And do nothing at all by injurious practices.
Pride is hateful before God and man:
And by both doth one commit iniquity.
Because of unrighteous dealings, injuries, and riches got by deceit,
[b]The kingdom is translated from one people to another.
Why is [f]earth and ashes proud?
There is not a more wicked thing than a covetous man:
For such a one setteth his own soul to sale;
Because while he liveth [g]he casteth away his bowels.
The physician cutteth off a long disease;
And [h]he that is to day a king to morrow shall die.
For when a man is dead,
He shall inherit creeping things, beasts, and [hi]worms.
The beginning of pride is when one departeth from God,
And his heart is turned away from his Maker.
For pride is the beginning of sin,
And he that hath it shall [j]pour out abomination:
And therefore the Lord brought upon them strange [k]calamities,
And overthrew them utterly.
[l]The Lord hath cast down the thrones of proud princes,
And set up the meek in their stead.
The Lord hath plucked up the roots of the proud nations,
And planted the lowly in their place.
The Lord overthrew countries of the heathen,
And destroyed them to the foundations of the earth.

fulness.
16 [k] He hath set fire and water before
thee:

3 Trust not thou in their life,

f Nor g the six hundred thousand footmen,
Who were gathered together in the hardness of their hearts.
And if there be one stiffnecked among the people,
It is marvel if he escape unpunished:
h For mercy and wrath are with him;
He is mighty to forgive, and to pour out displeasure.
As his mercy is great, so is his correction also:
i He judgeth a man according to his works.
k The sinner shall not escape with his spoils:
And the patience of the godly shall not be frustrate.

For i every man shall find according to his works.

And in the sixth place he imparted them understanding,
And in the seventh, speech, an interpreter of the h cogitations thereof.

For he heard and [j] observed thee,
And when time cometh he will [l] hate thee.
If thou hast heard a word, let it die with thee;
And be bold, [k] it will not burst thee.
A fool travaileth with a word,

As an arrow that sticketh in a man's thigh,
So is a word within a fool's [l] belly.
[l] Admonish a friend, it may be he hath not done it:

Admonish a friend: for many times it is a slander,
And believe not every tale.
[m] There is one that slippeth in his speech, but not [l] from his heart;
And who is he that hath not offended with his tongue?
[l] Admonish thy neighbour before thou threaten him;
And not being angry, [n] give place to the law of the most High.
[o] The fear of the Lord is the first step [p] to be accepted of him,
And wisdom obtaineth his love.
The knowledge of the commandments of the Lord is the doctrine of life:
And they that do things that please him shall [q] receive the fruit of the tree of immortality.
The fear of the Lord is all wisdom;
And in all wisdom is the performance of the law,
And the knowledge of his omnipotency.
[r] If a servant say to his master, I will not do as it pleaseth thee;
Though afterward he do it, he angereth him that nourisheth him.
The knowledge of wickedness is not wisdom,
Neither at any time the counsel of sinners prudence.

There is a wickedness, and the same an abomination;
And there is a fool wanting in wisdom.
He that hath small understanding, and feareth God, is better Than one that hath much wisdom, and transgresseth the law of the most High.
There is an exquisite subtilty, and the same is unjust;
And there is one that turneth aside to make judgment appear;
And there is a wise man that [l] justifieth in judgment.
There is a wicked man that [s] hangeth down his head [l] sadly;
But inwardly he is full of deceit,
[s] Casting down his countenance, and making as if he heard not:
Where he is not known, he will do thee a mischief before thou be aware.
And if for want of power he be hindered from sinning,
Yet when he findeth opportunity he will do evil.
A man may be known by his look,
And one that hath understanding by his countenance, when thou meetest him.
A man's attire, and [t] excessive laughter,
And gait, shew what he is.

XX.

[a] There is a reproof that is not [l] comely:
Again, [c] some man holdeth his tongue, and he is wise.
It is much better to reprove, than to be angry secretly:
And [b] he that confesseth his fault shall be preserved from hurt.
How good is it, when thou art reproved, to shew repentance!
For so shalt thou escape [c] wilful sin.
As is [d] the lust of an eunuch to deflower a virgin;
So is he that executeth judgment with violence.
[e] There is one that keepeth silence, and is found wise:
And another by much babbling becometh hateful.
Some man holdeth his tongue, because he hath not to answer:
And some keepeth silence, [f] knowing his time.
[g] A wise man will hold his tongue [f] till he see opportunity:
But a babbler and a fool will regard no time.

There is that for [v]bashfulness promiseth to his friend,
And maketh him his enemy for nothing.
[x] [x]A lie is a foul blot in a man,
Yet it is continually in the mouth of the untaught.
[y] [y]A thief is better than a man that is accustomed to lie:
But they both shall have destruction to heritage.
The disposition of a liar is [‖]dishonourable,
And his shame is ever with him.

A wise man shall promote himself to honour with his words:
And he that hath understanding will please great men.
[z] [z]He that tilleth his land shall increase his heap:
And he that pleaseth great men shall get pardon for iniquity.
[a] [a]Presents and gifts blind the eyes of the wise,
And [‖]stop up his mouth that he cannot reprove.
[b] [b]Wisdom that is hid, and [c]treasure that is hoarded up,
What profit is in them both?
[d] [d]Better is he that hideth his folly
[bd] Than a man that hideth his wisdom.
Necessary patience in seeking the Lord is better Than he that leadeth his life without a guide.

My son, hast thou sinned? [a]do so no more,
But [b]ask pardon for thy former sins.
Flee from sin as from the face of [c]a serpent:
For if thou comest too near it, it will [c]bite thee:
The teeth thereof are as the teeth of a lion,
[d] Slaying the souls of men.
All iniquity is as [e]a twoedged sword,
The wounds whereof cannot be healed.

To terrify and do wrong will waste riches:
Thus the house of proud men shall be made desolate.
[f] A prayer out of a poor man's mouth reacheth to the ears of God,
And his judgment cometh speedily.
[g] He that hateth to be reproved is in the way of sinners:
But he that feareth the Lord will [t]repent from his heart.
An eloquent man is known far and near;
But a man of understanding knoweth when he [h]slippeth.
[i] He that buildeth his house with other men's money
Is like one that gathereth himself stones for the tomb of his burial.
[k] The congregation of the wicked is like [l]tow wrapped together:
And the end of them is a flame of fire to destroy them.
The way of sinners is [m]made plain with stones,
[n] But at the end thereof is the pit of hell.
[o] He that keepeth the law of the Lord getteth the understanding thereof:
And the perfection of the fear of the Lord is wisdom.
[p] He that is not [t]wise will not be taught:
But [q] there is a [t]wisdom which multiplieth bitterness.
And the knowledge of a wise man [r]shall abound like a flood:
And his counsel is like a pure fountain of life.
[s] The inner parts of a fool are like [t]a broken vessel,
And he will hold no knowledge as long as he liveth.
If a skilful man hear a wise word,
He will commend it, and [u]add unto it:
But as soon as one of no understanding heareth it, it displeaseth him,
And [v]he casteth it behind his back.
The talking of a fool is like [w]a burden in the way:
But [x]grace shall be found in the lips of the wise.
They inquire at the mouth of the wise man in the congregation,
And they shall ponder his words in their heart.
As is a house that is destroyed, so is wisdom to a fool:
And the knowledge of the unwise is as talk [‖]without sense.

Doctrine unto fools is as fetters on the feet,
And like manacles on the right hand.
[y] A fool lifteth up his voice with laughter;
But a [z]wise man doth scarce smile a little.
Learning is unto a wise man as an ornament of gold,
And like a [a]bracelet upon his right arm.
[b] A foolish man's foot is soon in his neighbour's house:
But a man of experience is ashamed of him.
A fool will [c]peep in at the door into the house:
But he that is well nurtured will stand without.
It is the rudeness of a man to hearken at the door:
But a wise man will be grieved with disgrace.
The lips of talkers will be telling such things as pertain not unto them:
But the words of such as have understanding are [d]weighed in the balance.
[e] The heart of fools is in their mouth:
But the mouth of the wise is in their heart.
When the ungodly curseth [f]Satan,
[g] He curseth his own soul.
[h] A whisperer defileth his own soul,
And is hated wheresoever he dwelleth.

XXII.

A slothful man is compared to a filthy stone,
And every one will hiss him out to his disgrace.
A slothful man is compared to the filth of a dunghill:
Every man that takes it up will shake his hand.
[a] An evil nurtured son is the dishonour of his father that begat him:
And a foolish daughter is born to his loss.
A wise daughter [b][‖]shall bring an inheritance to her husband:
But she that liveth dishonestly is her father's heaviness.
She that is bold dishonoureth both her father and her husband,
But they both shall despise her.
[c] A [d]tale out of season is as [e]musick in mourning:
But stripes and correction of wisdom are never out of time.

And it pass not by my sins:

Lest mine [a]ignorances increase, 3
And my sins abound to my destruction,
And I fall before mine adversaries,
And mine enemy rejoice over me,
Whose hope is far from thy mercy.
O Lord, Father and God of my life, 4
Give me not [b]a proud look,
But turn away from thy servants always a [l]haughty mind.
Turn away from me vain hopes and 5
concupiscence,
And thou shalt hold him up that is desirous always to serve thee.
Let not the greediness of the belly 6
nor lust of the flesh take hold of me;
And give not over me thy servant
into an impudent mind.

[Discipline of the mouth].

Hear, O ye children, the discipline of 7
the mouth:
He that keepeth it shall never be taken in his lips.
The sinner shall be left in his foolish- 8
ness:
Both the evil speaker and the proud shall fall thereby.
[c]Accustom not thy mouth to swear- 9
ing:
Neither use thyself to the naming of the Holy One.
For as a servant that is continually 10 beaten shall not be without [d]a blue mark:
So he that sweareth and nameth God continually shall not be faultless.
A man that useth much swearing shall 11
be filled with iniquity,
And [e]the plague shall never depart
from his house:
If he shall offend, [f]his sin shall be upon him:
And if he acknowledge not his sin,
he maketh a double offence:
And if he swear in vain, he shall not be [t]innocent,
But his house shall be full of [g]calamities.
[h]There is a word that is clothed 12
about with death:
God grant that it be not found in the heritage of Jacob;
For all such things shall be far from the godly,
And they shall not [i]wallow in their sins.
Use not thy mouth to untemperate 13
swearing,
For therein is the word of sin.

Remember thy father and thy mother, 14
When thou sittest among great men.
Be not forgetful before them,
And so thou by thy custom become a fool,
And [j]wish that thou hadst not been born,
And curse the day of thy nativity.
[k]The man that is accustomed to op- 15
probrious words
Will never be reformed all the days of his life.

[l]Two sorts of men multiply sin, 16
And the [m]third will bring wrath:
A hot mind is as a burning fire,
It will never be quenched till it be consumed:
A fornicator [n]in the body of his flesh
Will never cease till he hath kindled a fire.
[o]All bread is sweet to a whore- 17
monger,
He will not leave off till he die.
[m]A man that breaketh wedlock, 18 Saying thus in his heart, [p]Who seeth me?
I am compassed about with darkness,
The walls cover me,
And no body seeth me: what need I
to fear?
The most High will not remember my sins:
Such a man only feareth the eyes of 19
men,
And knoweth not that the eyes of the Lord are ten thousand times brighter than the sun,
[q]Beholding all the ways of men,
And considering the most secret parts.
He knew all things ere ever they were 20 created;
So also [r]after they were perfected he looked upon them all.
[s]This man shall be punished in the 21
streets of the city,
And where he suspecteth not he shall be taken.
Thus shall it go also with the wife 22
that leaveth her husband,
And bringeth in an heir by [l]another.
For first, she hath disobeyed [t]the law 23
of the most High;
And secondly, she hath trespassed against her own husband;
And thirdly, she hath played the whore in adultery,
And brought children by [l]another man.

And I am greatly offended at their life:
A poor man that is proud, a rich man that is a [e] liar,
And an old adulterer [f] that doateth.
If thou hast gathered nothing in thy youth,
How canst thou find any thing in thine age?
O how [g] comely a thing is judgment for gray hairs,
And for ancient men to know counsel!
O how [g] comely is the wisdom of old men,
And understanding and counsel to men of honour!

Much experience is [h] the crown of old men,
And [i] the fear of God is their glory.

There be [a] nine things which I have judged in mine heart to be happy,
And [m] the tenth I will utter with my tongue:
A man that hath joy of his children;
And [j] he that liveth to see the fall of his enemy:
Well is him that dwelleth with a wife of understanding,
And that hath not [k] slipped with his tongue,
And that hath not served a man more unworthy than himself:
Well is him that hath found ‖ prudence,
And he that speaketh in the ears of them that will hear:
[l] O how great is he that findeth wisdom!
Yet is there none above him that feareth the Lord.
[m] But the love of the Lord passeth all things for [n] illumination:
He that holdeth it, ‖ whereto shall he be likened?
[o] The fear of the Lord is the beginning of his love:
And faith is the beginning of cleaving unto him.

And [q] any wickedness, but the wickedness of a woman:
And any [r] affliction, but the [r] affliction from them that hate me:
And any revenge, but the revenge of enemies.
There is no head above the [s] head of a serpent;
And there is no wrath above the wrath of an enemy.
[t] I had rather dwell with a lion and a dragon,
Than to keep house with a wicked woman.
The [u] wickedness of a woman changeth her face,
And darkeneth her countenance ‖ like sackcloth.
Her husband shall sit among his neighbours;
And when he heareth it shall sigh bitterly.

19 [q] All wickedness is but little to the wickedness of a woman:
Let the portion of a sinner fall upon her.
20 As the climbing up a sandy way is to the feet of the aged,
8 So is a wife ‖ full of words to a quiet man.
21 [v] Stumble not at the beauty of a woman,
And desire her not for pleasure.
22 A woman, if she maintain her husband,
Is full of anger, impudency, and much reproach.
23 [t] A wicked woman abateth the courage, maketh a heavy countenance and [p] a wounded heart:
A woman that will not comfort her husband in distress maketh [w] weak hands and feeble knees.
24 [x] Of the woman came the beginning of sin,
And through her we all die.
25 [y] Give the water no passage;
Neither a wicked woman liberty [y] to gad abroad.
26 If she go not as thou wouldest have her,
Cut her off from thy flesh,
And [z] give her a bill of divorce, and let her go.

XXVI.

[a] Blessed is the man that hath [c] a virtuous wife,
For the number of his days shall be double.
2 A [b] virtuous woman rejoiceth her husband,
And he shall fulfil the years of his life in peace.
3 [c] A good wife is a good portion,
Which shall be given in the portion of them that fear the Lord.
4 Whether a man be rich or poor, if he have a good heart towards the Lord,
He shall at all times rejoice with a cheerful countenance.
5 There be [d] three things that mine heart feareth;
And for the fourth I was sore afraid:
[†] The slander of a city, the gathering together of an unruly multitude,
And a false accusation: all these are worse than death.
6 But a grief of heart and sorrow is [dd] a woman that is jealous over another woman,
And a scourge of the tongue which communicateth with all.
7 An evil wife is ‖ a yoke shaken to and fro:
He that hath hold of her is as though he held [e] a scorpion.
8 A drunken woman and a [f] gadder abroad causeth great anger,
And she will not cover her own shame.
9 The whoredom of a woman may be known in her [g] haughty looks and eyelids.
10 [h] If thy daughter be [i] shameless, keep her in straitly,
Lest she abuse herself through overmuch liberty.
11 Watch over an impudent eye:
And marvel not if she trespass against thee.
12 She will open her mouth, as a thirsty traveller when he hath found a fountain,
And drink of every water near her:
By every ‖ hedge will she sit down,
And open her quiver against every arrow.
13 The grace of a wife delighteth her husband,
And her discretion will [j] fat his bones.
14 A silent and loving woman is a gift of the Lord;
And there is nothing so much worth as a mind well instructed.
15 A shamefast and faithful woman is a double grace,
And her continent mind cannot be valued.
16 As the sun when it ariseth [†] in the high heaven;
So is the beauty of [c] a good wife in the ‖ ordering of her house.
17 As the clear light is upon [k] the holy candlestick;
So is the beauty of the face ‖ in ripe age.
18 As the golden pillars are upon the sockets of silver;
So are the ‖ fair feet with a constant ‖ heart.
19 [m] My son, keep the flower of thine [l] age sound;
And give not thy strength to strangers.
20 When thou hast gotten a fruitful possession through all the field,
Sow it with thine own seed, trusting in the goodness of thy stock.
21 So thy race which thou leavest shall be magnified,
Having the confidence of their good descent.

A wicked woman is given as a portion to a wicked man: 23
But a godly woman is given to him that feareth the Lord.
A dishonest woman contemneth shame: 24
But an honest [p]woman will reverence her husband.
A [i]shameless woman shall be counted as a dog; 25
But she that is shamefast will fear the Lord.
A woman that honoureth her husband shall be judged wise of all; 26
But she that dishonoureth him in her pride shall be counted ungodly of all.
A loud crying woman and a [q]scold 27
Shall be sought out to drive away the enemies.

There be [d]two things that grieve my heart; 28
And the third maketh me angry:
A man of war that suffereth poverty;
And [r]men of understanding that are [s]not set by;
And [t]one that returneth from righteousness to sin;
[u]The Lord prepareth such a one for the sword.

A [w]merchant shall hardly keep himself from doing wrong; 29
And a huckster shall not be [x]freed from sin.

XXVII.

Many [a]have sinned for [f]a small matter; 1
And he that [b]seeketh for abundance will turn his eyes away.
As a [c]nail sticketh fast between the joinings of the stones; 2
So [d]doth sin stick close between buying and selling.
Unless a man hold himself diligently in the fear of the Lord, 3
His house shall soon be overthrown.
As when one sifteth with a sieve, the refuse remaineth; 4
So the [e]filth of man in his [li]talk.
[f]The furnace proveth the potter's vessels; 5
So [k]the trial of man is in his [g]reasoning.
[h]The fruit declareth if the tree have been dressed; 6
So is the utterance of a conceit in the heart of man.

Praise no man before thou hearest him [i]speak; 7
For [k]this is the trial of men.
If thou followest [l]righteousness, thou shalt obtain her, 8
And [l]put her on, [m]as a glorious long robe.
The birds will [n]resort unto their like; 9
So will truth return unto them that practise in her.
As [o]the lion lieth in wait for the prey; 10
So sin for them that work iniquity.
The discourse of a godly man is always with wisdom; 11
But a fool changeth as the moon.
If thou be among the undiscreet, [p]observe the time; 12
But be continually among men of understanding.
The discourse of fools is irksome, 13
And their sport is in the [q]wantonness of sin.
[r]The talk of him that sweareth much maketh the hair stand upright; 14
And their brawls make one stop his ears.
The strife of the proud is bloodshedding, 15
And their revilings are grievous to the ear.
[s]Whoso discovereth secrets loseth his credit; 16
And shall never find friend to his mind.
Love thy friend, and be faithful unto him: 17
But [s]if thou [t]bewrayest his secrets, [u]follow no more after him.
For as a man hath destroyed his enemy; 18
So hast thou lost the love of thy neighbour.
[x]As one that letteth a bird go out of his hand, 19
So hast thou let thy neighbour go, and shalt not get him again.
[u]Follow after him no more, for he is too far off; 20
He is as a roe escaped out of the snare.
As for a wound, it may be bound up; 21
And after reviling there may be [y]reconcilement:
But [s]he that [t]bewrayeth secrets is without hope.
He that [z]winketh with the eyes worketh evil: 22
And he that knoweth him will depart from him.

Cocker thy child, and he shall make thee ‖afraid:
‖ Or, astonished See Mark 9. 15.
Play with him, and he will bring thee to heaviness.
Laugh not with him, lest thou have sorrow with him,
And lest thou gnash thy teeth [b]in the end.
Give him no liberty in his youth,
And [f]wink not at his follies.
[f] See ch. 28. 7
[g] See ch. 7. 23.
[g]Bow down his neck while he is young,
And beat him on the sides while he is a child,
Lest he wax stubborn, and be disobedient unto thee,
And so bring sorrow to thine heart.
[h] ch. 33. 25.
Chastise thy son, and [h]hold him to labour,
Lest his lewd behaviour be an offence unto thee.

Of health.
Better is the poor, being sound and strong of constitution,
Than a rich man that is afflicted in his body.
Health and good state of body are above all gold,
And a strong body above infinite wealth.
There is no riches above a sound body,
And no joy above the joy of the heart.
Death is better than a bitter life
Or continual sickness.
Delicates poured upon a mouth shut up
Are as [i]messes of meat set upon a grave.

[k]What good doth the [l]offering unto an idol?
For neither can it eat [m]nor smell:
So is he that is [†]persecuted of the Lord.
He seeth with his eyes and groaneth,
[n] ch. 20. 4.
[n]As an eunuch that embraceth a virgin and sigheth.
[o] See Prov. 12. 25.
[o]Give not over thy mind to heaviness,
And afflict not thyself in thine own counsel.
[p] So Prov. 17. 22.
[p]The gladness of the heart is the life of man,
‖ Or, exultation. ch. 31. 28 (Gk.).
And the ‖joyfulness of a man prolongeth his days.
Love thine own soul,
And comfort thy heart,
Remove sorrow far from thee:
[q] So ch. 38. 18 2 Cor. 7. 10
For [q]sorrow hath killed many,
And there is no profit therein.
Envy and wrath shorten the life,
And carefulness bringeth age before the time.
† Or, A noble. ch. 31. 23 (Gk.).
[r] See Judg. 19. 6 (Gk.).
‖A cheerful and [r]good heart will have a care of his meat and diet.

XXXI.

[a] So 1 Tim. 6. 9, 10.
[b] Comp. Matt. 13. 22.
[a]Watching for riches consumeth the flesh,
And [b]the care thereof driveth away sleep.

Watching care will not let a man slumber,
As a sore disease breaketh sleep.
The rich hath great labour in gathering riches together;
And [c]when he resteth, he is filled with his delicates.
The poor laboureth in his poor estate;
And when he leaveth off, he is still needy.
[d]He that loveth gold shall not be justified,
And he that followeth corruption shall have enough thereof.
[e]Gold hath been the ruin of many,
And their destruction was present.
It is a stumblingblock unto them [f]that sacrifice unto it,
And every fool shall be taken therewith.
[g]Blessed is the rich that is found without blemish,
And hath not [h]gone after gold.
Who is he? and we will call him blessed:
For wonderful things hath he done among his people
Who hath been tried thereby, and found perfect?
Then let him glory.
Who might offend, and hath not offended?
Or done evil, and hath not done it?
His goods shall be established,
And the congregation shall declare his alms.

If thou sit at a bountiful table,
in[i] Be not greedy upon it,
And say not, There is much meat on it.
Remember that [j]a wicked eye is an evil thing:
And what is created more wicked than an eye?
Therefore it weepeth [k]upon every occasion.
[jj]Stretch not thine hand whithersoever it looketh,
And thrust it not with him [k]into the dish.
[l]Judge of thy neighbour by thyself:
And be discreet in every point.
[m]Eat, as it becometh a man, those things which are set before thee;
And devour not, lest thou be hated.
Leave off first for manners' sake;
And [n]be not unsatiable, lest thou offend.

When thou sittest among many,
[jj]Reach not thine hand out first of all.
A very little is sufficient for a man well nurtured, [k]And he fetcheth not his wind short upon his bed.
Sound sleep cometh of moderate eating:
He riseth early, and his wits are with him:
But the pain of watching, and [o]choler, and pangs of the belly, are with an unsatiable man.
And if thou hast been forced to eat,
Arise, go forth, [p]vomit, and thou shalt have rest.
My son, hear me, and despise me not,
And [q]at the last thou shalt find as I told thee:
[qq]In all thy works be quick,
So shall there no sickness come unto thee.
[r]Whoso is [s]liberal of his meat, [t]men shall speak well of him;
And the report of his good housekeeping will be believed.
But against him that is a niggard of his meat the whole city shall murmur;
And the testimonies of his niggardness shall not be doubted of.

[u]Shew not thy valiantness in wine;
For [v]wine hath destroyed many.
The furnace proveth the edge by dipping:
So doth wine the hearts of the proud by drunkenness.
[w]Wine is as good as life to a man, if it be drunk moderately:
What life is then to a man that is without wine?
[w]For it was made to make men [y]glad.
Wine measurably drunk and in season
Bringeth gladness of the heart, and [y]cheerfulness of the mind:
But [x]wine drunken with excess maketh bitterness of the mind,
With brawling and quarrelling.
Drunkenness increaseth the rage of a fool till he offend:
It diminisheth strength, and maketh wounds.
[w]Rebuke not thy neighbour at the wine,
And despise him not in his [y]mirth:
Give him no despiteful words,
And [z]press not upon him with urging him to drink.

XXXII.

If thou be made [a]the master of the feast, lift not thyself up,
But be among them as one of the rest;
Take diligent care for them, and so sit down.
And when thou hast done all thy office, [b]take thy place,
That thou mayest be merry with them,
And receive [c]a crown for thy well ordering of the feast.
[d]Speak, thou that art the elder, for it becometh thee, but with sound judgment;
And hinder not musick.
Pour not out words where there is a musician,
And [e]shew not forth wisdom out of time.
[f]A concert of musick in a banquet of wine
Is as a signet of [g]carbuncle set in gold.
As a signet of an [h]emerald set in a work of gold,
So is the melody of musick with pleasant wine.
[d]Speak, young man, if there be need of thee:
And yet scarcely when thou art twice asked.
Let thy speech be short, comprehending much in few words;
Be as one that knoweth and yet holdeth his tongue.
If thou be among great men, make not thyself equal with them;
And [i]when ancient men are in place, use not many words.
Before the thunder goeth lightning;
And before a shamefast man shall go favour.
Rise up betimes, and be not the last;
But get thee home without delay.
There take thy pastime, and do what thou wilt:
But sin not by proud speech.
And [j]for these things bless him that made thee,
And hath [k]replenished thee with his good things.

Whoso feareth the Lord will receive his discipline;
And [l]they that seek him early shall find favour.
He that seeketh the law [m]shall be filled therewith:
But [n]the hypocrite will be offended thereat.

They that fear the Lord shall find judgment,
And shall kindle justice [o]as a light.
[p]A sinful man will not be reproved,
But findeth an excuse according to his will.
A man of counsel will be considerate;
But a strange and proud man is not daunted with fear,
Even when of himself he hath done without counsel.
[q]Do nothing without advice;
And [u]when thou hast once done, repent not.
Go not in a way wherein thou mayest fall,
And [r]stumble not among the stones.
Be not confident in a [s]plain way.
And [t]beware of thine own children.
[u]In every good work trust thy own soul;
For this is [x]the keeping of the commandments.
He that believeth in the Lord [y]taketh heed to the commandment;
And he that trusteth in him [z]shall fare never the worse.
[a]There shall no evil happen unto him that feareth the Lord;
But [b]in temptation even again he will deliver him.
A wise man hateth not the law;
But [c]he that is a hypocrite therein is [d]as a ship in a storm.
A man of understanding trusteth in the law;
And the law is faithful unto him, [z]as an oracle.
Prepare what to say, and so thou shalt be heard:
And bind up instruction, and then make answer.
The [f]heart of the foolish is like [d]a cartwheel;
And his thoughts are like [d]a rolling axletree.
A stallion horse is as a mocking friend,
He neigheth under every one that sitteth upon him.

Why doth one day excel another,
When as all the light of every day in the year is of the sun?
By the knowledge of the Lord they were distinguished:
And he [e]altered seasons and feasts.

Some of them hath he made high days, and [f] hallowed them,
And some of them hath he ‖ made ordinary days.
And all men are from the ground,
And [g] Adam was created of earth.
In much knowledge the Lord hath divided them,
And [e] made their ways diverse.
Some of them hath he blessed and exalted,
And some of them hath he sanctified, and set near himself:
But some of them hath he cursed and brought low,
And turned out of their ‖ places.
[h] As the clay is in the potter's hand,
To fashion it at his pleasure:
So man is in the hand of him that made him,
To render to them as liketh him best.
Good is set against evil,
And life against death:
So is the godly against the sinner,
And the sinner against the godly.
So look upon all the works of the most High;
And there are [i] two and two, one against another.
I awaked up [k] last of all,
[l] As one that ‖ gathereth after the grapegatherers:
By the blessing of the Lord I profited,
And filled my [m] winepress like a gatherer of grapes.
Consider [n] that I laboured not for myself only,
But for all them that seek learning.

Hear me, O ye great men of the people,
And hearken with your ears, ye rulers of the congregation.
Give not [o] thy son and wife, thy brother and friend, power over thee while thou livest,
And give not thy goods to another:
Lest it repent thee, and thou intreat for the same again.
As long as thou livest and hast breath in thee, ‖ Give not thyself over to any.
For better it is that thy children should seek to thee,
Than that thou shouldest ‖ stand to their courtesy.
In all thy works keep to thyself the pre-eminence;
Leave not a stain in thine honour.

At the time when thou shalt end thy days,
And finish thy life, distribute thine inheritance.

Fodder, a wand, and burdens, are for the ass;
And bread, correction, and work, for a servant. Of servants.
If thou [p] set thy servant to labour, thou shalt find rest:
But if thou let him go idle, he shall seek liberty.
A yoke and a collar do bow the neck:
So [q] tortures and torments for an evil servant.
Send him to labour, that he be not idle;
For idleness teacheth much evil.
Set him to work, as is fit for him:
If he be not obedient, put on more heavy fetters.
But be not excessive toward any;
And [r] without discretion do nothing.
[s] If thou have a servant, let him be unto thee as thyself,
Because thou hast bought him [t] with a price.
If thou have a servant, entreat him as a brother:
For thou hast need of him, as of thine own soul:
[r] If thou entreat him evil, and he run from thee,
Which way wilt thou go to seek him?

The hopes of a man void of understanding are vain and false: XXXIV. Of dreams.
And dreams lift up fools.
Whoso ‖ regardeth dreams
Is like him that catcheth at a shadow,
And followeth after the wind.
The vision of dreams is the resemblance of one thing to another,
Even as [a] the likeness of a face to a face.
[b] Of an unclean thing what can be cleansed?
And from that thing which is false what truth can come?
Divinations, and soothsayings, and dreams, are vain:
And the heart fancieth, as a woman's heart in travail.
[c] If they be not sent from the most High in thy [d] visitation, ‖ Set not thy heart upon them.
For dreams have deceived many,
And they have failed that put their trust in them.

The law shall be found perfect [e] without lies:
And wisdom is perfection to a faithful mouth.

A man that hath travelled knoweth many things;
And [f] he that hath much experience will declare wisdom.
He that hath no experience knoweth little:
But he that hath travelled is full of [g] prudence.
When I travelled, I saw many things;
And I understand more than I can express.
I was ofttimes in danger of death:
Yet I was delivered because of [h] these things.
The spirit of those that fear the Lord shall live;
For their hope is in him that saveth them.
Whoso feareth the Lord shall not fear
Nor be afraid; for [i] he is his hope.
Blessed is the soul of him that feareth the Lord:
To whom doth he [j] look?
And who is his strength?
For [k] the eyes of the Lord are upon them that love him,
He is their [l] mighty protection and strong stay,
[m] A defence from heat, and a cover from the sun at noon,
A preservation from stumbling, and a help from falling.
He raiseth up the soul, and lighteneth the eyes:
He giveth health, life, and blessing.

He that sacrificeth of a thing [n] wrongfully gotten, his offering is ridiculous;
And [l] the gifts of unjust men are not accepted.
[o] The most High is not pleased with the offerings of the wicked;
[p] Neither is he pacified for sin by the multitude of sacrifices.

When one buildeth, and another pulleth down,
What profit have they then but labour?
When one prayeth, and another curseth,
Whose voice will the [s] Lord hear?
[t] He that washeth himself after the touching of a dead body, if he touch it again,
What availeth his washing?
So is it with a man [u] that fasteth for his sins,

17 Weep bitterly, and make great moan,
And use lamentation, as he is worthy,
And that a day or two, lest thou be evil spoken of:
And then comfort thyself for thy heaviness.
18 For [p]of heaviness cometh death,

His blessing covered the dry land as a river,
And [a] watered it as a flood.
As he hath turned the waters into saltness:
So shall the heathen inherit his wrath.
As [b] his ways are plain unto the holy;
So are they stumblingblocks unto the wicked.
For the good are good things created from the beginning:
[c] So evil things for sinners.
[d] The principal things for the whole use of man's life
Are [d] water, fire, iron, and salt,
[d] Flour of wheat, honey, milk,
And [e] the blood of the grape, and oil, and [d] clothing.
[f] All these things are for good to the godly:
So to the sinners they are turned into evil.
There be spirits that are created for vengeance,
Which in their fury lay on sore strokes;
In the time of destruction they pour out their force,
And appease the wrath of him that made them.
[k] Fire, and [k] hail, and [g] famine, and [g] death,
All these were created for vengeance;
[h] Teeth of [i] wild beasts, and [i] scorpions, [i] [l] serpents,
And [g] the sword, punishing the wicked to destruction.
[k] They shall rejoice in his commandment,
And they shall be ready upon earth, when need is;
And when their time is come, they shall not transgress his word.

Therefore from the beginning I was resolved,
And [l] thought upon these things, and have left them in writing.
[m] All the works of the Lord are good:
And he will give every needful thing in due season.
So that a man cannot say, This is worse than that:
For in time they shall all be well approved.
And therefore praise ye the Lord with the whole heart and mouth,
And bless the name of the Lord.

[a] Great travail is created for every man,
And a heavy yoke is upon the sons of Adam,
From the day that they go out of their mother's womb,
[b] Till the day that they return to the mother of all things.
Their imagination of [c] things to come, and the day of death,
Trouble their thoughts, and cause [c] fear of heart;
[d] From him that sitteth on a throne of glory,
Unto him that is humbled in [e] earth and ashes;
[d] From him that weareth [f] purple and a crown,
[‖] Unto him that is clothed with a linen frock.
Wrath, and envy, trouble, and unquietness, fear of death, and anger, and strife,
And in the time of rest upon his bed his night sleep, do change his knowledge.
A little or nothing is his rest,
And afterward he is in his sleep, as in a day of keeping watch, [g] Troubled in the vision of his heart,
As if he were escaped out of a battle.
When all is safe, he awaketh,
And marvelleth that the fear was nothing.
Such things happen unto all flesh, [h] both man and beast,
And that is [i] sevenfold more upon sinners.
[k] Death, and bloodshed, strife, and [k] sword,
[l] Calamities, [k] famine, [m] tribulation, and the scourge;
[n] These things are created for the wicked,
And [o] for their sakes came the flood.
[b] All things that are of the earth shall turn to the earth again:
And that which is [p] of the waters doth return into the sea.

All [†] bribery and injustice shall be blotted out:
But true dealing shall endure for ever.
The goods of the unjust [q] shall be dried up like a river,
And [r] shall vanish with noise, like a great thunder in rain.

While [s] he openeth his hand he shall rejoice:
So shall transgressors come to nought.
The children of the ungodly shall not bring forth many branches;
But are as [t] unclean roots upon a hard rock.
[u] The [v] weed growing upon every water and bank of a river
[w] Shall be pulled up before all grass.
Bountifulness is as [‖] a most fruitful garden,
And mercifulness endureth for ever.
To labour, and [x] to be content with that a man hath, is a sweet life:
But he that findeth [y] a treasure is above them both.
Children and the building of a city continue a man's name:
But a blameless wife is counted above them both.
[z] Wine and musick rejoice the heart:
But the love of wisdom is above them both.
The pipe and the [a] psaltery make sweet melody:
But a pleasant tongue is above them both.
Thine eye desireth favour and beauty:
But more than both corn while it is green.
A friend and companion never meet amiss:
But above both is a wife with her husband.
Brethren and help are against time of trouble:
But [b] alms shall deliver more than them both.
Gold and silver make the foot stand sure:
But counsel is esteemed above them both.
[c] Riches and strength lift up the heart:
But [d] the fear of the Lord is above them both:
There is no want in the fear of the Lord,
And it needeth not to seek help.
The fear of the Lord is [‖] a fruitful garden,
And [e] covereth him above all glory.
My son, lead not a beggar's life;
For [f] better it is to die than to beg.
The life of him that dependeth on another man's table is not to be counted for a life;
For he [g] polluteth himself with other men's meat:
But a wise man well nurtured will beware thereof.

30 Begging is sweet in the mouth of the shameless:
But in his belly there shall burn a fire.

XLI. O death, how bitter is the remembrance of thee to a man that liveth at rest in his possessions, Unto the man [a]that hath nothing to vex him, and that hath prosperity in all things:
Yea unto him that is yet able to receive meat!
2 O death, acceptable is thy sentence unto the needy,
And unto him whose strength faileth, [aa]that is now in the last age,
And [||]is vexed with all things,
And to him that [b]despaireth, and [c]hath lost patience!
3 Fear not the sentence of death,
Remember them that have been before thee, and that come after;
For this is the sentence of the Lord over all flesh.
4 And why art thou against the pleasure of the most High?
There is no inquisition in the grave,
Whether thou have lived ten, or an hundred, or a thousand years.
5 The children of sinners are abominable children,
And they that are conversant in the dwelling of the ungodly.
6 [d]The inheritance of sinners' children shall perish,
And their posterity shall have a perpetual reproach.
7 The children will complain of an ungodly father,
[e]Because they shall be reproached for his sake.
8 Woe be unto you, ungodly men,
Which have forsaken the law of the most high God!
For if you increase, it shall be to your destruction:
9 And if you be born, you shall be born to a curse;
And if you die, a curse shall be your portion.
10 [f]All that are of the earth shall turn to earth again:
So the ungodly shall go from a curse to destruction.
11 The mourning of men is about their bodies:
But [g]an ill name of sinners shall be blotted out.

12 Have regard to thy name; for [h]that shall continue with thee
Above a thousand great treasures of gold.
13 A good life hath but [i]few days:
But a good name endureth for ever.

14 My children, keep discipline in peace:
For [k]wisdom that is hid, and a treasure that is not seen,
What profit is in them both?
15 [l]A man that hideth his foolishness is better
[l]Than a man that hideth his wisdom.
16 Therefore be shamefast according to my word:
[m]For it is not good to retain all shamefastness;
[n]Neither is it altogether approved in every thing.
17 Be ashamed of whoredom [o]before father and mother:
And of a lie [o]before a prince and a mighty man;
18 Of an offence [o]before a judge and ruler;
Of iniquity [o]before a congregation and people;
Of unjust dealing [o]before thy partner and friend;
19 And [p]of theft [o]in regard of the place where thou sojournest,
And [o]in regard of [q]the truth of God and his covenant;
And [o]to lean with thine elbow upon the meat;
And [o]of scorning to give and take;
20 And of silence [o]before them that salute thee;
And [o]to look upon a harlot;
21 And [o]to turn away thy face from thy kinsman;
Or [o]to take away a portion or a gift;
Or [o]to [r]gaze upon [s]another man's wife;
22 Or to be overbusy with his maid,
And come not near her bed;
Or [t]of upbraiding speeches [o]before friends;
And [u]after thou hast given, upbraid not;
23 Or [o]of [x]iterating and speaking again that which thou hast heard;
And [o]of [y]revealing of secrets.

XLII.

[a] Of these things be not thou ashamed,
And [b] accept no person to sin thereby:
[c] Of the law of the most High, and his covenant;
And of judgment to justify the ungodly;
‖ Of reckoning with thy partners and ‖ travellers;
Or ‖ of the gift of the heritage of friends;
[d] Of exactness of balance and weights;
Or [e] of getting much or little;
And of merchants' ‖ indifferent selling;
Of much [f] correction of children;
And [g] to make the side of an evil servant to bleed.
Sure keeping is good, where an evil wife is;
And shut up, where many hands are.
[h] Deliver all things in number and weight;
And put all in writing that thou ‖ givest out, or receivest in.
[i] Be not ashamed to ‖ inform the unwise and foolish,
And [k] the extreme aged ‖ that contendeth with those that are young:
Thus shalt thou be truly learned,
And approved of all men living.

[l] The father waketh for the daughter, when no man knoweth;
And the care for her taketh away sleep;
When she is young, lest she [m] pass away the flower of her age;
And being married, lest she should be hated;
In her virginity, [n] lest she should be defiled
And gotten with child in her father's house;
And having a husband, lest she should misbehave herself;
And when she is married, lest she should be barren.
[o] Keep a sure watch over a shameless daughter,
Lest she make thee a laughing-stock to thine enemies,
And a byword in the city, and a reproach among the people,
And make thee ashamed before the multitude.
Behold not every body's beauty,
And [p] sit not in the midst of women.
For from garments cometh a moth,
And [q] from women wickedness.

Better is the ‖ churlishness of a man than a [r] courteous woman,
A woman, I say, which bringeth shame and reproach.

I will now remember the works of the Lord,
And declare the things that I have seen;
[s] In the words of the Lord are his works.
The sun that giveth light looketh upon all things,
And the work thereof is full of the glory of the Lord.
[t] The Lord hath not given power to the saints to declare all his marvellous works,
Which the [u] Almighty Lord firmly settled,
That whatsoever is might be established for his glory.
He seeketh out the deep, and the heart,
And considereth their [v] crafty devices;
For ‖ the Lord knoweth all that may be known,
And he beholdeth [w] the signs of the world.
[x] He declareth the things that are past, and for to come,
And revealeth the steps of hidden things.
[y] No thought escapeth him,
Neither any word is hidden from him.
[z] He hath garnished [z] the excellent works of his wisdom,
And he is from everlasting to everlasting:
[a] Unto him may nothing be added, neither can he be diminished,
And [b] he hath no need of any counseller.
O how desirable are all his works!
And that a man may see even to a spark.
All these things live and remain for ever
For all uses, and [c] they are all obedient.
[d] All things are double one against another:
And he hath made nothing unperfect.
One thing establisheth the good of another:
And who shall be filled with beholding his glory?

The sun when it appeareth, declaring at his rising
A marvellous ‖instrument, the work of the most High:
At noon it parcheth the country,
And who can abide the burning heat thereof?
A man blowing a furnace is in works of heat,
But the sun burneth the mountains three times more:
Breathing out fiery vapours,
And sending forth bright beams, it dimmeth the eyes.
Great is the Lord that made it;
And at his commandment ‖[a]it runneth hastily.
[b]He made the moon also to serve in her season
For a declaration of times, and [c]a sign of the world.
[d]From the moon is the sign of feasts, a light that decreaseth in her perfection.
The month is called [e]after her name, increasing wonderfully in her changing,
Being an instrument of the [f]armies above, shining in the firmament of heaven;
The beauty of heaven, the glory of the stars,
An ornament giving light [g]in the highest places of the Lord.
At the commandment of the Holy One they will stand in their order,
And never faint [h]in their watches.
[i]Look upon the [k]*rain*bow, and praise him that made it;
Very beautiful it is in the brightness thereof.
It compasseth the heaven about with a glorious circle,
And [l]the hands of the most High have bended it.
[m]By his commandment he [n]maketh the snow to fall apace,
And sendeth swiftly the lightnings of his judgment.
Through this [o]the treasures are opened:
And clouds fly forth as fowls.
By his great power he maketh the clouds firm,
And [p]the hailstones are broken small.
[q]At his sight the mountains are shaken,
And at his will the south wind bloweth.

[q]The noise of the thunder maketh the earth ‖to tremble:
So doth the northern storm and the whirlwind:
[m]As birds flying he scattereth the snow,
And the falling down thereof is as the lighting of [s]grasshoppers:
The eye marvelleth at the beauty of the whiteness thereof,
And the heart is astonished at the raining of it.
[m]The hoar frost also as salt he poureth on the earth,
And being congealed, ‖it lieth on the top of sharp stakes.
When the cold north wind bloweth,
And the water is congealed into ice,
It abideth upon every [t]gathering together of water,
And clotheth the water as with a breastplate.
It devoureth the mountains, and burneth the wilderness,
And consumeth the grass as fire.
A present remedy of all is a mist coming speedily:
A dew coming ‖after heat refresheth.
By his counsel he appeaseth the deep,
And planteth islands therein.
[u]They that [v]sail on the sea tell of the danger thereof;
And when we hear it with our ears, we marvel thereat.
[w]For therein be [x]strange and wondrous works,
Variety of all kinds of beasts and whales created.
By him the end of them hath [y]prosperous success,
And [z]by his word all things consist.
We may speak much, and yet [a]come short;
Wherefore in sum, he is all.
[a]How shall we be able to magnify him?
For he is great above all his works.
[b]The Lord is terrible and very great,
And marvellous is his power.

And be not weary; for you can never go far enough.

[a]Jesus the son of Naue was valiant in the wars,
And was the successor of Moses in [b]prophecies,
Who [c]according to his name was made great
For the saving of the [d]elect of God,
And taking vengeance of the enemies that rose up against them,
That he might [e]set Israel in their inheritance.
How great glory gat he, when he did lift up his hands,
And [f]stretched out his sword against the cities!

He called upon the most high [i]Lord,
When the enemies pressed upon him on every side;
And the great Lord heard him.
And [j]with hailstones of mighty power
He made the battle to fall violently upon the nations,
And in the descent of Bethoron he destroyed them that resisted,
That the nations might know all their strength,
Because he fought in the sight of the Lord,
And he followed the [i]Mighty One.
In the time of Moses also he did a work of mercy,
[k]He and Caleb the son of Jephunne,
In that they withstood the congregation,
And withheld the people from sin,
And appeased the wicked murmuring.
And of [l]six hundred thousand people on foot, [m]they two were preserved
To bring them into the heritage,
Even unto [n]the land that floweth with milk and honey.
[o]The Lord gave strength also unto Caleb,
Which remained with him unto his old age:
So that he entered upon the high places of the land,
And his seed obtained it for an heritage:
[o]That all the children of Israel might see
That it is good [p]to follow the Lord.

The remembrance of [a]Josias is like [b]the composition of the perfume

LI. A Prayer of Jesus the son of Sirach.

I will thank thee, O Lord and King,
And praise thee, O [a]God my Saviour:
I do give praise unto thy name:
For thou art my defender and helper,
And hast preserved my body from destruction,
And [b]from the snare of the slanderous tongue,
And from the lips that [c]forge lies,
And hast been my helper against mine adversaries:
And hast delivered me, according to the multitude of thy mercies and greatness of thy name,
From [†]the teeth of them that were ready to devour me,
And out of the hands of such as sought after my life,
And from the manifold afflictions which I had;
From the choking of fire on every side,
And from the midst of the fire which I kindled not;
From the depth of the belly of hell,
From an unclean tongue, and from lying words.
By an accusation to the king from an unrighteous tongue
My soul drew near even unto death,
My life was near to the hell beneath.
[d]They compassed me on every side,
And there was no man to help me:
I looked for the succour of men, but there was none.
Then thought I upon thy mercy, O Lord,
And upon thy acts of old,
How thou deliverest [e]such as wait for thee,
And savest them out of the hands of the enemies.
Then lifted I up my supplication from the earth,
And prayed for deliverance from death.
I called upon the Lord, [f]the Father of my Lord,
That he would not leave me in the days of my trouble,
And [g]in the time of the proud, when there was no help.
I will praise thy name continually,
And will sing praise with thanksgiving;
[‖]And so my prayer was heard:
For thou savedst me from destruction,
And deliveredst me from the evil time:
Therefore will I give thanks, and praise thee,
And bless thy name, O Lord.

When I was yet young, or ever I [‖]went abroad,
I desired wisdom openly in my prayer.
I prayed for her before the temple,
And will seek her out even to the end.
Even from the flower till the grape was ripe
Hath my heart delighted in her:
My foot went the right way,
From my youth up sought I after her.
I bowed down mine ear a little, and received her,
And gat much learning.
I [gg]profited therein,
Therefore will I ascribe the glory unto him that giveth me wisdom.
For I purposed to do after her,
And earnestly I followed that which is good;
So shall I not be confounded.
My soul hath wrestled with her,
And in my doings I was exact:
I stretched forth my hands to the heaven above,
And bewailed my ignorances of her.
I directed my soul unto her,
And I found her in pureness:
[‖]I have had my heart joined with her from the beginning,
Therefore shall I not be forsaken.
My [‖]heart was troubled in seeking her:
Therefore have I gotten a good possession.
The Lord hath given me a tongue for my reward,
And I will praise him therewith.
Draw near unto me, you unlearned,
And dwell in the house of learning.
Wherefore are you slow, and what say you of these things,
Seeing your souls are very thirsty?
I opened my mouth, and said,
Buy her for yourselves [h]without money.
[i]Put your neck [j]under the yoke,
And let your soul receive instruction:
[k]She is hard at hand to find.
Behold with your eyes, [l]how that I have had but little labour,
And have gotten unto me much rest.
[m]Get learning [n]with a great sum of money,
And get [n]much gold by her.
[o]Let your soul rejoice in his mercy,
And be not ashamed of his praise.
[p]Work your work betimes,
And in his time [q]he will give you your reward.

BARUCH.

I.

[a] AND these are the words of the book, which [b]Baruch the son of [c]Nerias, the son of Maasias, the son of Sedecias, the son of Asadias, the son of Chelcias, wrote in Babylon, in [d]the fifth year, and [d]in the seventh day of the month, what time as the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, and burnt it with fire. And [b]Baruch did read the words of this book in the hearing of [e]Jechonias the son of [f]Joachim king of Juda, and in the ears of all the people that came to hear the book, and in the hearing of the nobles, and of the kings' sons, and in the hearing of the elders, and of all the people, [f]from the lowest unto the highest, even of all them that dwelt at Babylon, by the river Sud. Whereupon they wept, fasted, [f]and prayed before the Lord. They made also a collection of money [g]according to every man's power: and they sent it to Jerusalem unto [f]Joachim the high priest, the son of [h]Chelcias, son of [i]Salom, and to the priests, and to all the people which were found with him at Jerusalem, at the same time when he received [k]the vessels of the house of the Lord, that were carried out of the temple, to return them into the land of Juda, the tenth day of the month [l]Sivan, namely, [m]silver vessels, which [n]Sedecias the son of Josias king of Juda had made, after that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon [d]had carried away [e]Jechonias, and the princes, and the [f]captives, and the mighty men, and the people of the land, from Jerusalem, and brought them unto Babylon.

And they said, Behold, we have sent you [o]money to buy you [p]burnt offerings, and [q]sin offerings, and [r]incense, and prepare ye [t]manna, and offer upon the altar of the Lord our God; and [s]pray for the life of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and for the life of [t]Balthasar his son, that their days may be upon earth as [u]the days of heaven: and the Lord will give us strength, and lighten our eyes, and we shall live [x]under the shadow of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and under the shadow of [t]Balthasar his son, and we shall serve them many days, and [y]find favour in their sight. Pray for us also unto the Lord our God, for we have sinned against the Lord our God; and unto this day the fury of the Lord and his wrath is not turned from us. And ye shall read [z]this book which we have sent unto you, to make confession in the house of the Lord, upon the feasts and solemn days. And ye shall say,

[a]To the Lord our God belongeth righteousness, but unto us [b]the confusion of faces, [i]as it is come to pass this day, unto them of Juda, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to our [c]kings, and to our princes, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers: for [d]we have sinned before the Lord, [d]and disobeyed him, and [e]have not hearkened unto the voice of the Lord our God, [e]to walk in the commandments that he gave us openly: since the day that the Lord brought our forefathers out of the land of Egypt, unto this present day, we have been disobedient unto the Lord our God, and we have been negligent in not hearing his voice. Wherefore [f]the evils cleaved unto us, and [g]the curse, which the Lord appointed by Moses his servant at the time that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to give us [h]a land that floweth with milk and honey, like [i]as it is to see this day. [e]Nevertheless we have not hearkened unto the voice of the Lord our God, [k]according unto all the words of the prophets, whom he sent unto us: but every man followed the imagination of his own wicked heart, to serve [l]strange gods, and to do evil in the sight of the Lord our God.

Therefore [a]the Lord hath made good his word, which he pronounced against us, and against our judges that judged Israel, and against our kings, and against our princes, and against the men of Israel and Juda, to bring upon us great plagues, such as never happened under the whole heaven, as it came to pass in Jerusalem, [a]according to the things that were written in the law of Moses; [b]that a man should eat the flesh of his own son, and the flesh of his own daughter. Moreover he hath delivered them to be 4 in subjection to [c]all the kingdoms that are round about us, [d]to be as a reproach and [e]desolation among all the people round about, where the Lord hath scattered them. Thus we [f]were cast down, 5 and not exalted, because we have sinned against the Lord our God, and have not been obedient unto his voice. [f]To the 6

Lord our God appertaineth righteousness: but unto us and to our fathers open shame, [o]as appeareth this day. For 7
[ag]all these plagues are come upon us, which the Lord hath pronounced against us. [h]Yet have we not prayed before the 8
Lord, that we might turn every one from the imaginations of his wicked heart. [i]Wherefore the Lord watched over us 9 for evil, and the Lord hath brought it upon us: for [k]the Lord is righteous in all his works which he hath commanded us. [il]Yet we have not hearkened unto 10 his voice, [l]to walk in the commandments of the Lord, that he hath set before us. [m]And now, O Lord God of Israel, that 11 hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and high arm, and with signs, and with wonders, and with great power, and [n]hast gotten thyself a name, [o]as appeareth this day: O Lord our God, [mp]we have sinned, 12
we have done ungodly, we have dealt unrighteously in all thine ordinances. [q]Let thy wrath turn from us: [r]for we 13 are but a few left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered us. [s]Hear 14 our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, and deliver us for thine own sake, and [t]give us favour in the sight of them which have led us away: [u]that all the 15 earth may know that thou art the Lord our God, because [tx]Israel and his posterity is called by thy name. O Lord, 16 [y]look down from thy holy house, and consider us: [z]bow down thine ear, O Lord, to hear us. Open thine eyes, and 17
behold; [a]for the dead that are in the graves, whose [t]souls are taken from their bodies, will give unto the Lord neither praise nor righteousness: but 18
[b]the soul that is greatly vexed, which goeth stooping and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul, will give thee praise and righteousness, O Lord. [b]Therefore we do not make our humble 19 supplication before thee, O Lord our God, for the righteousness of our fathers, and of our kings. For thou hast sent 20 out thy wrath and indignation upon us, [c]as thou hast spoken by thy servants the prophets, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Bow down your 21 shoulders to serve the king of Babylon: so shall ye remain in the land that I gave unto your fathers. But if ye will not 22 hear the voice of the Lord, to serve the king of Babylon, [e]I will cause to cease 23 out of the cities of Juda, and from without Jerusalem, the voice of [ee]mirth, and the voice of [ee]joy, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: and the whole land shall be [f]desolate of inhabitants.
But we would not hearken unto thy 24 voice, to serve the king of Babylon: therefore hast thou [g]made good the words that thou spakest by thy servants the prophets, namely, [h]that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers, should be taken out of their places.
And lo, [hi]they are cast out to the heat 25 of the day, and to the frost of the night, and they died in great miseries [k]by famine, by sword, and by pestilence. And [l]the house which is called 26 by thy name hast thou laid waste, [m]as it is to be seen this day, for the wickedness of the house of Israel and the house of Juda. O Lord our God, thou hast dealt 27 with us after all thy [n]goodness, and according to all that great mercy of thine, as thou spakest by thy servant Moses 28 in the day when thou didst command him to write thy law before the children of Israel, saying, [o]If ye will not hear my 29 voice, surely [t]this very great multitude shall be turned into a small number among the nations, where I will scatter them. For I knew that they would not 30 hear me, because it is a [p]stiffnecked people: but [q]in the land of their captivities they shall [s]remember themselves, and [r]shall know that I am the Lord 31
their God: for [s]I will give them a heart, and ears to hear: [q]and they shall praise 32 me in the land of their captivity, and think upon my name, and return from their stiff [t]neck, and from their wicked 33 deeds: for they shall remember the way of their fathers, which sinned before the Lord. And [t]I will bring them again 34 into the land which I promised with an oath unto their fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and they shall be lords of it: and I will increase them, and they shall not be diminished. And [u]I will 35

This is the book of the commandments of God,
And the law that endureth for ever:
All they that keep it shall come to life;
But such as leave it shall die.
Turn thee, O Jacob, and take hold of it:
Walk [t]in the presence of the light thereof, [a]that thou mayest be illuminated.
Give not thine honour to another,
Nor the things that are profitable unto thee, to a strange nation.
O Israel, happy are we:
For things that are pleasing to God are made known unto us.
Be of good cheer, my people, the memorial of Israel.
[b]Ye were sold to the nations, not for your destruction:
But because you moved God to wrath, ye were delivered unto the enemies.
For ye provoked him that made you
By [c]sacrificing unto devils, and not to God.
Ye have forgotten [c]the everlasting God, that brought you up;
And ye have grieved Jerusalem, that nursed you.

For I saw [d]the captivity of my sons and daughters,
Which [c]the Everlasting brought upon them.
With joy did I nourish them;
But [i]sent them away with weeping and mourning.
Let no man rejoice over me, [e]a widow, and forsaken of many,
Who for the sins of my children am left desolate;
Because they departed from the law of God.
They knew not his statutes,
